

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

School Meeting Is To Be Held Monday

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—The annual school meeting will be held on Monday evening, June 19, at the school house for the purpose of electing a director and clerk and to vote a tax levy for expenses for the year. The total estimate being $9,677.50 for all purposes.

The following are items of the school budget:

Teachers salaries, $4,770; janitor, $405; clerks, $25; other expenses $25; 50; furniture, $215; supplies, $75; library books, $25; janitor supplies, $40; fuel, $400; lights, $50; water, $2; postage and stationery, $5; maintenance and repairs on grounds and buildings, $200; 1923 bonds $1300; warrants $1047; interest on warrants $93; sinking fund $1000.

The receipts are from the county school fund, $124.50; the state fund being $302; elementary fund being $423.91; total receipts being $2350.51. Amount to be raised by tax being $7336.99. The total indebtedness is given as $2400. Warrants and interest $1110 and bonds of $1300.

The board of education is calling for bids for the janitors services for next year. The term of service being nine months. They reserve the right to reject all bids.

Officers Installed

By Lodge P.-T. Assn.

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—The June meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was attended by about 20 members on Friday last. At the installation Mrs. Geo. Gardner presided. The new officers are Mrs. Norman Chapman as president; Mrs. Minnie B. Altman, vice-president; Mrs. Lawrence, secretary; and Mrs. Moore treasurer.

Mrs. Purcell, county club leader, spoke on the boys' and girls' club work, which gave the parents an insight to the work being accomplished in Clackamas county on these lines.

The sewing of the 7th and 8th grade girls was on display. After the usual business routine, salad and sandwiches were served by Misses Alma Boetger, Elaine Bechtel, Lola Ross, Helen Portz, Dorothy Jobling, Sarah Holloway, Florence Wilson and Marie Moore.

The next meeting will be held at the Chautauqua Park on Saturday, July 1st. The symposium hour is to be given over to the Parent-Teacher association of the state.

Miss Mary Weinman Is Guest of Honor

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mrs. H. J. Hooker and Miss Lenora Hooker very charmingly entertained on June 8, honoring Miss Mary Weinman on her birthday anniversary.

Flowers were showered upon Miss Weinman in honor of the event and many pretty and useful gifts were also received.

Cake and ice cream were served to Mrs. Kate Burton, Mrs. C. Waterhouse, Mrs. W. Ross, Mr. Ella MacHargue, Mr. Reidle, Mrs. R. J. Cook, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. J. A. Johnson and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Entertain at Cards

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chapman entertained at their home on Saturday evening, cards being the diversion of part of the evening, followed by a social time. Refreshments were served. Enjoying the Chapman's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hendry, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thompson; Mesdames Dixon and Truscott, Miss Ruth Truscott, Mr. Ganong, Pete Rinearson and Howard Truscott.

VIOLINIST ENJOYED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mr. Harry A. Hampton, an advanced violin student, appeared in recital on Monday evening at Christensen's hall in Portland. Mrs. Hampton is a pupil of Henry Bettman. Mrs. Hampton will play De Beriot's beautiful concerto the Eilman arrangement of Mendelssohn's "Song without words" and Rehfeld's "Spanish Dance" opus 58, No. 1. She will also play with Laurens Lawson in two duets of Godard "Serenade" and Midnight. Edgar A. Coursen was the accompanist.

FRIENDS GIVE SURPRISE

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Miss Ruth Agnes Cook was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends on the occasion of her birthday anniversary last week. The evening was spent in games, music and dancing after which refreshments were served. Among the guests was Miss Eleanor Betz, who came up from Seaside remaining over the week end.

RADIO ENJOYED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—A radio set was presented to Billy Miller, upon his graduation with honors from the 8th grade of the Barclay school and on Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walker entertained friends who highly enjoyed the concert. About 20 were present, and among them were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray and daughter, Lucile, of Husum, Wash.

NEW ARRIVALS WELCOMED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mrs. H. H. Emmons was hostess at a very informal luncheon on Thursday asking in a few friends to meet Mrs. Goff, a recent arrival at this place. At the luncheon table covers were placed for Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Truscott, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Goff.

P. M. APPOINTED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mrs. Freda Nordstrom, acting postmistress for the past two months, received her appointment as postmaster from Washington on June 7.

LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, June 14—Mrs. Lucy Allen, who has been assisting with the Gamma Phi House at Corvallis is spending a week at Newport, before returning home.

Mrs. H. H. Emmons and a party of friends motored to Troutdale on Wednesday visiting at the Quality Poultry farm.

The Chautauqua annuals are being received and through them people are being informed of the splendid program of the entire session. It is the 29th assembly. Among the speakers are Wm. L. Finley of Jennings Lodge, who speaks at the Symposium on Saving the Wild Birds.

R. Bruce Horstall, who spent several summers here, will lend his original water color drawings to W. A. Elliot to illustrate his lecture on Oregon birds.

This 75 acre park at Gladstone is an ideal place to spend a 10 days vacation, where one gets an inspiration as well as a recreation. A number from here are planning on attending the session.

Mrs. Williams and Lucile of Portland, are visiting at the Harry Burco home.

Registered at Shady Nook auto camp during the week were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Randall of Kirkland, Wash., who were southward bound for Oakland, Calif. and J. F. Collins of Portland, who goes to Powder Valley in California.

The R. G. Thompson and Kopsland auto party returned home. They spent 10 days and made the peninsular loop going by Astoria and returning by way of Tillamook. The trout fishing in the Nestucca proved a very enjoyable part of the outing of this party of nine.

Asel Tabor's little daughter, who was reported ill is very much improved.

Mr. Theroux, who recently underwent a minor operation of the throat at Salem, returned home on Sunday evening.

Clyde Blinstone of Sparta, Wisconsin, is a visitor at the home of his brother, Will Rush. Harold Benjardentfully impressed with scenery, climate and flowers.

Miss Della Rush, principal of the Pendleton schools, is visiting her brother, Will Rush, Harold Benjamin, teacher of the Umatilla schools and the Rushes will soon leave for Eugene to attend summer school. Miss Della Rush going as instructor of the summer session.

Doris Panton, who is attending business college at Salem came on Wednesday to visit the Bruechert family on her return home to Rockaway, Oregon. Miss Panton has accepted a position in one of the stores at this beach for the summer months.

W. W. Woodbeck, of the Telegram staff, was one of the judges of awarding the prizes at the Buyers Carnival which was a very successful affair of the county seat town on Friday and Saturday last.

Little Ben Miller is so much improved that he will be able to return home from the Good Samaritan hospital this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ramsburg are to enjoy the sea breezes at Seaside for a week.

Mrs. Poland of Spokane is to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver, arriving this week.

Mrs. Frank Covert will entertain the Clackamas near Gladstone on Wednesday, June 21. The Guild will hold but one meeting a month during July and August.

At the regular meeting of Community Club on Wednesday evening last, it was voted to disband for the summer months and it is expected the work will be taken up with renewed activity in the fall.

Bessie Maple returned from Canyon City this week. She spent a week with relatives and took in the Whiskey Gulch celebration.

Word has been received from Wilma Bruechert in Los Angeles. The party have enjoyed the motor trip south and will remain in Los Angeles for several days.

The Ben Hur lecture recital given by De Byro Clark on Friday evening was greeted by a small audience but well received by those present. The door receipts were $16.20. It was given under the auspices of the Grace Guild.

The officers and teachers of the Grace Church met for their regular business meeting on Monday evening. They decided to postpone their monthly business meeting until the second Monday evening of September.

Mrs. Iona Evert of the Mt. Pleasant district was a business caller on Thursday last.

Orlan Randall has leased the John Jennings cottage for a year and took possession on Thursday last.

Mrs. Olin Ford and Mrs. Arthur Smith gave a swimming party for members of their Sunday school classes on the beach of Cedar Island on Tuesday afternoon. About a dozen children attended.

Al Peterson has purchased a new car.

A. B. Smith has commenced work on their new home. It is to be 30x36 and will be a two story structure.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jobling, accompanied by Portland friends went to Larch Mountain on Sunday.

H. Kolb of Belleville, Illinois and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden attended the Four Horsemen in Portland during the week and on Sunday motored to the Washougal River in Washington and spent the day with friends who have a cottage on this river.

S. W. Sheperd, wife and two children, motored to Seaside on Thursday and returned on Sunday the tide being favorable they brought home a generous supply of clams.

Mrs. De Forrest will arrive from Silver Lake on June 15, stopping at The Dalles a few days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stratton will motor through from Silver Lake arriving later to visit Mrs. Mable Pierce, who is a sister of Mrs. Stratton.

Hugh Fleming is a business visitor in Astoria this week.

Floyd Browne, wife and two children, will spend two days in Salem this week. Mr. Brown is one of the state's traffic officers.

G. I. Truitt motored up from Oakland, Oregon, arriving on Sunday evening. He left his large touring car at Corvallis for repairs and returned on Monday for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hackett are enjoying the summer months at Oswego Lake. Mrs. Hackett was formerly a teacher of domestic art at the Oregon City High school and resided here.

A visitor who will be much entertained during her stay in Oregon is Mrs. John Newton of Holcomb, New York, who arrives on Saturday. She will be a house guest at Stone Gables, the H. H. Emmons home. Mrs. Newton is a sister-in-law of the Emmons.

Ruth Truscott gave a little out door frolic for the third and fourth grades, who are her pupils. It was given at River View Park and cake and ice cream served on Thursday afternoon. Games and out door sports enjoyed.

Audry Tillman is recovering from her illness of the past week.

A very choice acre on Wilmot and Jennings Avenue has recently been purchased by Henriel and sons from John Jennings. The consideration was $1650 cash. This was considered one of the most desirable tracts at this place. We understand the Henriel family are to build.

H. D. Smith is to be commended for the civic pride he has had in helping to dispose of cans and rubbish which accumulate during the year. He offering to haul it away if sacked up and made in readiness to haul away with his team. As a result two big loads were gathered up and the residents paying a small sum to help pay for the use of his time and team.

The J. Jeffrey place of eight acres in East Jennings Lodge has recently been sold to a Mr. Baker of Gladstone who expects to make many improvements.

The F. J. Wilson family have started building on their property on upper Jennings Ave.

Mrs. F. Wilson is anticipating a visit from her sister, Miss Hazel Hunt of Chicago, who expects to arrive on Friday for the summer.

WOMAN HOLDS ROBBER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 14—Mrs. Ella A. Gifford, formerly a policeman in Salt Lake City, found a man ransacking her apartment here today. She threw him down and held him until neighbors responded to her calls.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO SARAH JANE LARSON

Mrs. Sarah Jane Larson, widow of the late F. P. Larson, for over 50 years a resident of Clackamas county, died at the home of her son, C. W. Larson, of Stafford, on Tuesday evening, June 15, where she has been since May 29th, going to that place from Willamette for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Larson was stricken PORTABLE SAW MILL men will find an opportunity in a tract of timber 4 miles up the Willamette River from Wilsonville. Write to or see the undersigned owner. Joe J. Thornton, Wilsonville, Ore.

FORCED SALE: A light Red truck will give terms. Boring Garage, Boring, Oregon.

with heart trouble, which was the cause of her death. She had made her home for the past fifteen years at Willamette, going to that place from Stafford after the death of her husband, in 1906.

Mrs. Larson was born in a prairie schooner while the parents were crossing the plains in 1854, the date of her birth being August 16, 1854. Mrs. Larson first made her home in the Stafford section, residing there for over 30 years, later taking up her home at Willamette. She was a member of the Tualatin Grange of Oswego for many years, and also of the Degree of Honor, and at the time of her death was an active member of the Oregon City Women's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Larson is survived by a brother, J. H. Beeson, of Willapa, Wash., who was born in the early days in a log cabin in the West, and a sister, Mrs. Kate Dutcher, of this city; her children, C. W. Larson, of Stafford;

O. F. Larson of Woodburn; Mrs. E. P. Carpenter, of Willamette; Arthur Lee Larson, of Willamette; her half-brothers and half-sister, Charles Gordon, of Raymond, Wash.; Captain William Gordon, of Seaside, Oregon; Mrs. Mollie Brown, of Oakville, Wash. He also leaves the following grandchildren; Mrs. Nettie Mulkey, of Seaside, Oregon; Leonard Larson, of Pasco, Wash.; Marvel and Peter Larson, of Woodburn, and Mrs. Jennie Benner, of Colfax, Wash.; - Ar-ther, Jane, Clarence and Wayne Larson, of Willamette; Chester and Frances Carpenter, of Willamette. The great grandchildren are Jean Mulkey and Betty Mae Mulkey.

The funeral services are to be held from the church at Willamette Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with interment in the family lot in Stafford cemetery.

The remains are at the undertaking parlors of Holman & Pace, who have charge of the funeral arrangements.

We'll Pay Your Round Trip Car Fare to Portland

Providing You Purchase $3.33 Merchandise at This Store

Attend Our Great

One-Third of a Century Sale

for Little Folks and Grown-ups

Last week we made this same generous offer to all residents of Oregon City and Clackamas County. It's an extra inducement for you people to attend this great sale. We're striving earnestly for 500 new customers in Oregon City, and toward this end we offer these remarkable values.

This week, we expect to secure our goal of 500 Oregon City accounts. Scores of your own neighbors and friends in your city have already benefitted by this great sale. Ask anyone who has bought here. Come yourself and judge the values. You'll find marvelous bargains in every section of the store.

Little Girls' Dresses

$1.33 $2.33 $3.33

Ginghams—Chambrays

You won't even consider making the little girls their summer play frocks, when you see these adorable girlish styles at prices such as these. Pink, blue, yellow, lavender checks, plaids and plain colors. Sizes 7 to 14 years.

Silk Dresses

$8.33 $12.33

Taffetas and Crepe de Chine in youthful styles and effects. Every little girl needs at least one smart frock such as these—and these prices mark splendid bargains. Sizes 7 to 14 years.

Girls' Capes and Coats

$7.33 $8.33 $13.33

Sport model coats and capes—just as jaunty and as chic as the grown-ups, for polo is the material. There are the big patch pockets, with belt. They come in tan, blue or red, sizes 7 to 14 years. Excellent values

Equally Big Bargains for Men

Mens' Suits

$29.33 $33.33

Suits here for every occasion, for every type of a buyer. They are all suits of the better kind, excellently made, and clothes that we assure you will wear you to your satisfaction. Come see the savings you may make at this sale.

Men's Specials

Straw Hats $1.93
Genuine Sennet Straw Hats, sailor shapes. The best value in a Straw Hat possible. See them tomorrow.

Men's Oxfords $6.33
Brown or black calfskin Oxfords or high shoes. All the wanted lasts, styles and sizes.

Men's Silk Hose 63c
Pure silk thread hose, with reinforced heel and toe. This hose will give excellent wear and fits well about the ankle.

Girls' Sport Middies

$1.33 $1.63

Vacation time is most here. Your daughter will need many good serviceable middies. These are excellent quality of Indian Head, white or colored collars.

Girls' Separate Skirts

$5.33

Wool pleated skirts for little girls. Plaids and blue serges. Ideal for summer wear. Sizes 7 to 14 years

Boys' Suits

$9.33 $11.33 $14.33

You mothers who are good judges of material, workmanship and correct styles, will be amazed at these splendid boys' suits we are featuring at these prices. Two pairs of knickers with every suit. Fancy mixtures, homespun and tweeds.

Boys' Shoes

$3.33

Brown and black calf skin. The kind of a shoe the boy may put on and wear as hard as he wishes—and have it serve him well. Sizes 2½ to 6 years.

Boys' Caps

$1.33

Notice your young son when he puts on his cap. Each boy has a little twist or turn all of his own. It's his expression of style. These caps are real boys' caps, at greatly reduced prices.

Phones: Sellwood 697, Automatic 21363 John P. Miller, Mgr.

East Side Mill & Lumber Company

Manufacturers and Dealers in

Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Mouldings

Mill Foot of Spokane Avenue

PORTLAND, OREGON

J. P. FINLEY & SON

Perfect Funeral Service

Telephone Main 9 A-1599

Montgomery and Fifth Portland

Every Article in Our Store Reduced

WOMEN'S SUITS
WOMEN'S COATS
WOMEN'S DRESSES

MILLINERY
HOSIERY
SKIRTS

STREET FROCKS
JERSEY JACKETS
BREAKFAST ROBES

PETTICOATS
BLOOMERS
GIRLS' WEAR

All Our Usual C. O. D. Exchange and Delivery Privileges

All Our Usual C. O. D. Exchange and Delivery Privileges

Washington at Tenth Street

Portland, Oregon