

SANDY NEWS DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Strawberry Party Is Given at Bell Home

SANDY, June 19—A big strawberry party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell at their Sandylodge home Saturday evening, which was attended by 69 people. Japanese lanterns were hung in the orchard, a bonfire lighted, and a program given; violin and guitar, Victor Lundeen; reading, Forest Douglass; songs, Ruby Hoffmeister; songs, Mildred and Alta DeShazer; recitations by Florence De Shazer and Clara Sitz. There was dancing, by the young folk and cards were played by the men. Strawberries, cream, cake and coffee were served at midnight. Those present: The families of Fred Hoffmeister, Walter and Will Douglass and Ernest Hoffmeister, Ed Chapman, Mrs. Viola Douglass, of Eagle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Capen and boys, Mrs. Thomas Spillman and Miss Abbott of Portland, Gherke Bros. Wm. Widmer, Henry Widmer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haley, Miss Mary Macho, John Macho, the families of J. G. De Shazer, Ed Littlepage, Fred Suckow, G. Finger, Willie Fischer, Ed Sitz. Also Miss Josie Fischer and the host and hostess and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Franz. Mrs. F. J. Suckow and Miss Fischer helped the hostess serve.

Last Meeting Held By Women Clubbers

SANDY, June 19—The last regular session of the Sandy Women's club for the season was held at the home of Mrs. W. Bosholm of Firwood Thursday. The annual reports of officers were made. The president, Mrs. Shelley, talked on the record made by the club in its 9 years of existence, and stressed the point of striving for still higher goals the coming year. The committees appointed by the president were: Good Samaritan, Alice Scales, Anna Duke, Mrs. Ed. Bruns; program, Mrs. R. E. Esson, Mrs. F. D. Eason, Mrs. W. H. Thompson; health, Mrs. Carrie Sture, Ruth Reed, Vera Smith; library, Mrs. Eason, Margaret Gray and Mrs. A. W. Bell; refreshment, Mrs. Ed. Bruns, Mrs. W. Bosholm and Mrs. Hoernicke; finance, Mrs. Scales, Mrs. Esson, Mrs. Sture, Mrs. Eason, Mrs. Bruns. A varied program of study for next year was decided upon.

The newly elected officers took their chairs. A gift was presented to the president by the members in honor of her untiring and faithful service for the club. Visitors present were Mrs. Anton Malar, Mrs. J. B. Armstrong, Mrs. Burdick, Mrs. Miller and Mildred Bosholm. Delicious ice cream and cake were served, and the meeting was a delightful one.

Community Club to Dig Well in Park

SANDY, June 19—At the Sandy Community club meeting a motion was carried that the club assume the expense of digging a well and putting in a pump to furnish water for tourists in Meinig's park.

The club discussed the ravaging of rhododendrons in the forest reserve by tourists, and mention was made of a truck load of the shrubs passing through town last week. It was claimed that the roots will not grow at this season of the year, and to dig them up now is utter waste. Where one limb is broken off two will grow the next year, so gathering bouquets does no damage. It was decided to look up the law on preservation of native plants and shrubs.

Acreage Deals At Sandy Reported

SANDY, June 19—Martin Mikkelsen, who recently sold one acre and his present residence to his father, Ole Mikkelsen, has bought 8 acres on the Bluff road from F. H. Strong and will begin the building of a modern residence in a few weeks.

Charles Suckow has also purchased 5 acres of the Strong place and will build a dwelling. Both of these tracts are on the west side of the Bluff road, and not far from the new high school site.

Ole Mikkelsen has sold his eighty acre farm to Herman Becker for $6,000, and Becker will take possession in the fall. Mikkelsen refused $16,000 for this place when Sandy real estate was booming over the prospect of the Mt. Hood railroad coming here.

Bible School Held At Pleasant Home

SANDY, June 19—The Bible school at Pleasant Home closed Friday with an average attendance of 33 for the two weeks. Sunday night a demonstration meeting was held at the Baptist church. Zelma Collins and Marie Mullenhoff "led" for honors in memory work. The junior class gave a dramatization of Moses in the bull rushes, there was a salutation of the American and Christian flags, Rev. Mr. Berry gave a chalk talk on the Bible. After service there was an exhibit of clay modelling, this work being under the direction of Mrs. Chase and Miss Elliott. A relief map of Palestine, the work of Mrs. Alta Gentry's class was also displayed.

FIREMEN DRILL

SANDY, June 20—The Sandy Volunteer fire department gave a fire drill last night under the direction of Chief Henry Perrey.

Farmers Discuss Tubercular Test

SANDY, June 19—A local farm bureau meeting was held here recently, the main topic discussed being "County wide tubercular eradication." An effort is being made to place the county on the accredited list, which will prove a great advantage, as a tubercular test is now considered necessary when making a sale. When the county is advertised as "clean," we can attract the best buyers, was the sentiment expressed by President Hart and others.

Numbers on the program were an interesting article read by Mrs. Anton Malar, mandolin solos, E. E. Milliron, songs by F. E. Burdick, who also played the guitar, and recitations by the Malar children.

Lutheran Parochial School Holds Picnic

SANDY, June 19—The annual all day picnic of the Lutheran parochial school was held in a grove here yesterday and was largely attended. The church service was conducted in the grove in the forenoon in German, and the program in the afternoon was about half English and consisted of songs, recitations and dialogues under the management of the pastor, Rev. F. Dobbertul. After the program was concluded the young people played games. Refreshments were served during the day and a good sum was realized.

There were 22 pupils enrolled for the year. The work covered the first six, and some pupils finish the seventh grade work in this school.

Dancing Party Is Held Saturday Eve

SANDY, June 19—A delightful little dancing party was given at the Odd Fellow's hall Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Blanche Shelley and Mrs. August Hoernicke, both of whom expect to be away for the summer. Both quadrilles and modern dances were enjoyed by just home folk, and the occasion was a delightful social affair. Punch was served and dancing lasted until 12 o'clock. Miss Gertrude Meinig, Geo. Beers and E. E. Milliron furnished the music, Anton Malar calling the quadrilles.

Farm Bureau Had Meet and Picnic

SANDY, June 20—There was a big farm bureau meeting and picnic at Hoffmeister's grove in the Damascus country Saturday which was attended by several from this local, among whom were President Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Burdick, Rose and Wm. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bosholm, John Bosholm, Albon Meinig, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar and children.

President Mansfield spoke of what the farm bureau has done for the farmers, County Agents Hall and Holtz spoke on "potatoes" both growing and marketing. Col. Aird on the business end of the bureau. There were 400 present, the Mullino male quartet sang, and a home economics meeting was held for women.

Sandy Grange To Celebrate Fourth

SANDY, June 22—Sandy Grange No. 392 has decided to give a picnic on July 4th at Dodge park and have secured permission from the P. R. L. & P. Co. to have charge of the park for the day. A dancing permit has also been secured and there will be dancing all day at the pavilion. The grange will sell refreshments throughout the day.

SHIP TON OF BERRIES

SANDY, June 20—D. Schwartz and A. C. Browning shipped a ton of strawberries in one day from their acreage on the Bluff road. They shipped to the Berry Association station at Gresham. Several other small growers are shipping berries from the same locality, which is the first time strawberries have been marketed in quantity from that vicinity.

SANDY 11, GILLIS 2

SANDY, June 19—Sandy baseball team won over Gillis 11 to 2 yesterday. The boys will play Rockwood next Sunday. During the game yesterday Melvin Ray slid in on second and the second baseman fell on Ray's foot and broke it. Ray will be laid up a month or six weeks with his foot in a cast and will not be able to play again this season.

NEW BOOKS READY

SANDY, June 20—The new library books are listed and will be given out at Scales' store on Tuesdays from 2 o'clock till 5 o'clock P. M. and from 7 to 8 in the evening. A member of the Women's club will act as librarian during those hours.

CROPS NEED RAIN

SANDY, June 20—Unless rain comes soon the crop situation will look very gloomy in this section. It is claimed there will be only a half year crop. Some of the fall grain looks fine, but moisture is needed badly for all crops.

SCHOOL ELECTION HELD

SANDY, June 19—The annual school election was held here today and P. L. Proctor was elected director for three years. Mrs. J. M. C. Miller was re-elected clerk. J. J. Judkins of Cottrell was re-elected director of the union high for a five year term.

The Firwood district elected Anton Malar for a three year term and Henry Koelscher one year term in place of Mrs. W. L. Wilkins, resigned. J. G. DeShazer was re-elected clerk.

NEW TEACHER NAMED

SANDY, June 19—At a recent meeting of the union high school board Miss Sybil Lindell of Portland was elected assistant to Miss Margaret Miller. Miss Lindell, a Reed College graduate, is highly recommended. The commercial teacher has not yet been elected.

P.T. TO MEET

SANDY, June 22—A Parent Teacher meeting is announced for the last Friday night in the month, at which time the new officers will be installed and other business will be discussed.

FESTIVAL VISITORS

SANDY, June 20—Three young ladies, Miss Bernice Dixon, Miss Gertrude Meinig and Miss Hazel Beers went to Portland Tuesday to be entertained as guests of the Rose Festival management.

DAUGHTER ARRIVES

SANDY, June 19—Mr. and Mrs. Louie Hauglum are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a baby daughter, born on Friday, June 16.

SANDY LOCALS

Dr. Sellwood, recently returned from Russia, will have charge of the Sunday morning service at Pleasant Home Methodist church next Sunday and will tell about Russian problems as they are. Sellwood's home is at Sellwood, which was named for his father.

The Sandy Sunday school has been discontinued for the summer. Rev. Earl Cotton announced service at the church next Sunday night, as he has decided to change his bi-weekly dates to the second and fourth Sundays.

Mrs. Irene Hall Smith, and mother who is visiting in Oregon from Nebraska, have been guests of the Lenart family at Pleasant Home the past week.

The Methodist church and parsonage of Pleasant Home are being dressed up with two coats of paint. New porches are being added to the parsonage.

Ed Hart, president of the local farm bureau, joined the big caravan of Clackamas county farmers and spent three days at Corvallis. Hart thinks he learned enough to more than pay for the trip.

The Kersch family on the Bluff road are enjoying a visit of relatives from the east.

"Bill" Al says the radio outfit he and his partner installed near Brightwood is very entertaining except when Seattle is giving a health lecture and Portland chimes in with the jazziest of jazz! Bill hopes to adjust his receiving apparatus so it will not be necessary to listen to more than other parts of a time.

Ed Ten Eyck came home from the hospital a week ago and is feeling first rate, though he has to be careful yet.

Miss Ivy Ten Eyck stopped in Portland to remain until after the Rose Carnival. Jennie and Cora arrived from the "U" on Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Collier expects to leave next week for Eastern Oregon where she will spend her vacation with relatives.

Prof. Teter has been elected principal of the Orient school. Mrs. Hans Nelson, Miss Elva Dolan and Mrs. O'Connor are the teachers re-elected.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Eddy of Pleasant Home have been enjoying a bout a week's visit from their nieces, Miss Gladys Armstrong of Redlands, Calif.

Miss Lulu Eddy spent all last week attending the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S. at Portland and had a most enjoyable time.

The announcement of the marriage of Art Dixon and Mrs. Bessie Cunningham came as a surprise to their friends here. The newlyweds will live at Brightwood where Mr. Dixon is woods foreman for the Sandy Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Esson entertained Mr. Esson's brother, Dr. A. S. Esson from The Dalles, and Ex-mayor Wingate and wife former residents of The Dalles at luncheon recently.

Mrs. A. C. Baumbach was a Sunday dinner visitor at the J. M. C. Miller home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilkinson visited Dr. and Mrs. Thompson, several days in the past week. The Wilkinsons left for Albany the first of the week, where they will reside.

Gus Dahrens is making good at his knitting industry and is perhaps gaining a little in health.

Chas. Krebs of Deep Creek has his saw mill in operation and is selling lumber for decking on a bridge near the mill. He turned out his first load of lumber a week ago.

Both creameries will have been out of operation a portion of the week which caused Smith, the manager, untold trouble.

Carl Krebs had to lay off work at Dwyers' on account of smashing of the end of his finger.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens and children were over for the week end from Cameron and Hogue's mill.

R. F. Ditter went to Portland recently on a business trip in connection with his harness shop interests.

A delightful outing up the mountain was enjoyed Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed, Mrs. J. C. Duke, C. O. Duke, Miss Mary Collier, Mrs. Alice Scales, Tommy and Kenneth, Mrs. R. E. Esson and children. The party took "provender" along and breakfasted two miles above the old toll gate. Lateral hills was a "wonderful sight," the rhododendrons being in full bloom. The Reed and Duke cars drove on to Government Camp in the afternoon, and report snow along the road the last four miles, trilliums and other early spring flowers were just in bloom. The entire party returned Sunday evening.

There was a larger amount of travel up the mountains than usual last Sunday.

A 9 pound girl that arrived at the Harry Nichols home last week instead of a boy. Mrs. L. Lehnfeld has been nursing at the Nichols home.

Mrs. M. A. Deaton has been a recent visitor at the Hoffman home and was accompanied by her small son.

Mayor Casper Junker was an invalid for about a week, being confined to his bed, but it out again.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Ott are very happy over the arrival of a fine baby son at their Gresham home. Mrs. Ott is sister of Henry Perret of Sandy.

Joel Jarl made another trip to Medford recently after his daughter, Mildred, spending 10 days on the trip. Jarl reported an unusually heavy rain down there. Mildred Jarl will enter high school here in the fall.

Mrs. J. C. Duke entertained her friends, Mrs. Osborn if Gresham for the day Thursday.

Miss Bertha Abel was a Sandy visitor last Sunday from Kelo. Miss Abel enjoys reading the Enterprise.

Dr. Williams and W. G. Duncan took a trip to Government Camp last week but were not able to get a "feed" as the hotel was not opened until last Sunday.

The Enna concert at Kelo was not advertised in time for Sandy folk to know about it.

The new high school well just completed will pump 300 gallons per hour.

Mrs. L. Lehnfeld had a children's party Sunday, inviting the Nichols and Coalman children and little Harold Mitchell. Mrs. Lehnfeld served a nice supper and played the accordion to entertain the little ones.

Mrs. Ernest Harris and Mrs. E. Beers went to Portland to spend the week and enjoy the Rose Show.

Mrs. Lige Coalman was over visiting at the Lehnfeld home recently.

The Loundree and Mitchell homes are looking fine in a new coat of cream colored paint.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer of Bend, who were visiting at the Loundree home, are now at Albany with other relatives.

Mrs. George Perret writes she and "Geo." may be out soon for the day. Mrs. Perret has been having a fine time socially. She recently spent three days near Oregon City visiting friends.

Mrs. Pence, sister of Percy T. Shelley, and a friend, Mrs. McKye, came out from Portland Saturday and stopped here on their way to Rhododendron. Mrs. Pence was expecting her father-in-law, Rev. Pence, and Mrs. Pence of Portland out soon.

Anita Dobbertul and Benny Hoffmann will start to the public school next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hoernicke left Monday evening for the Blue mountains in Eastern Oregon, where they will remain for the summer. If the altitude agrees with Mrs. Hoernicke, Mr. Hoernicke has mining interests in that section and will combine business with a summer outing. These popular Sandy folk will be greatly missed.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller was a guest at the annual picnic of the D. A. R. which was held at "Honeybeed", near Gresham on flag day. About 100 were present. This organization is doing much for the Americanization of foreigners here at a time.

The Shelley family and Mrs. Wilson had a pleasant social time and a good dinner recently at the Esson home.

At the last meeting of the Sandy Rebekahs a surprise was given Mrs. Alma Maronay, N. G., when a big birthday cake and lodge pin were presented by little Frances Reed, also flowers by Mrs. R. S. Smith. The cake was decorated "with red" and the electric lights were turned out, so the glow of candle light and friendship mingled at the banquet board.

A picnic on the Sandy river banks was enjoyed Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. August Hoernicke, Mr. and Mrs. John Maronay and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and sons. A fine lunch "hit the spot" and all played in the sand.

The Trullinger family were out from Portland Monday and were visitors at the Harry Reed and August Hoernicke homes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas gave their usual strawberry dinner last Sunday which was much enjoyed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. DeShazer, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bates, Miss Jennie Smith, Elmer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, James Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Littlepage and Ray, M. V. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas.

There is much activity in road work out this way. Dixon and Howett moved down the line to Peterson's corner some time ago, and Dixon will finish his grading contract about July 3. The bids will be let for rocking from Sandy to the Multnomah County line June 28, and this means a direct connection with the city from the mountains via Sandy next winter if all goes as anticipated.

SMITH DIED

COUNTY IS SLAIN; MINISTER KILLED

Officer and Pastor Who Was Acting As Deputy in Raid Of Suspected Moonshining Plant Are Shot By Farmer.

KILLER BARRICADES SELF IN RANCH HOME

Posse Of Armed Citizens Are Surrounding House Where Man Refuses To Surrender.

ALBANY, June 21—C. M. Kendall, sheriff of Linn county, and Rev. Roy Healy, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, who was acting as deputy sheriff, were shot and killed instantly by Dave D. West, 60, a farmer living one mile southwest of Plainview, this county, this afternoon. The shooting took place at the West farm, where the sheriff and the minister, acting as deputy sheriff, had gone to raid a suspected moonshine still on West's farm.

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

Killing Is Seen

The killings were witnessed by Mrs. West, wife of the slayer, and by Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, who were staying at the West home, according to telephonic word received here from Plainview.

Word of the killings was received here several hours afterward when Mrs. West telephoned to Plainview that D. M. Bonar, merchant of that place, and asked him to send Oscar De Ately, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Ately, to the West home. When he arrived he found the dead bodies of the sheriff and minister lying in the yard. He at once returned to Plainview and spread the alarm.

Poses Are Rushed

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.

The house is surrounded.

Posses surrounding the West house were led by Joe Hume, deputy sheriff, of Brownsville, and L. C. Lowelling, district attorney for Linn county.

SMITH DIED

COUNTY IS SLAIN; MINISTER KILLED

Officer and Pastor Who Was Acting As Deputy in Raid Of Suspected Moonshining Plant Are Shot By Farmer.

KILLER BARRICADES SELF IN RANCH HOME

Posse Of Armed Citizens Are Surrounding House Where Man Refuses To Surrender.

ALBANY, June 21—C. M. Kendall, sheriff of Linn county, and Rev. Roy Healy, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, who was acting as deputy sheriff, were shot and killed instantly by Dave D. West, 60, a farmer living one mile southwest of Plainview, this county, this afternoon. The shooting took place at the West farm, where the sheriff and the minister, acting as deputy sheriff, had gone to raid a suspected moonshine still on West's farm.

When word of the killings, which took place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, reached here tonight posses of citizens rushed to the West home in automobiles armed with rifles to apprehend the slayer.

According to word received here at 8:45 o'clock, West had barricaded himself in his house and refused to surrender. He threatened anyone with death if they should approach.