

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

Tourists Visiting Shady Nook Grounds

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—The Shady Nook camp grounds put in a busy appearance these days. Five machines were registered on Monday evening.

All are accompanied by their families and are taking their vacation in this way. Among the tourists were S. H. Chapman of Yovallia bound for Oakland, Calif. The C. Bowman family from Marysville, Calif. were going to Seattle.

C. C. Cook and wife spent two nights, they are from Tacoma, Wash., and are sightseeing in this part of Oregon. W. H. Martin family came up from Corvallis, spending one night at Shady Nook, will go to Portland to attend the Rose Festival.

H. T. Shadell will journey to Tacoma before returning to their home at Goldendale.

E. S. Couzens from Seattle is leaving for the south, going to Marshfield.

Victor Erickson of Lodge Passes Away

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—After a month's illness Victor Erickson passed away at his home here on Saturday evening.

The deceased was a native of Russia and was 70 years of age. Came to the United States a number of years ago, and was a farmer in the Redlands district for some years. About 12 years ago bought a home in the Melburn tract where he has since resided. He is survived by a widow who has been an invalid for seven years, and two sons, Arthur, who was just returning to Alaska and Oscar of Tacoma and his only daughter is Mrs. William Turner of Puyallup, Wash.

School Meeting Is Held Monday Night

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—The annual school meeting was held on Monday evening at the school house. A. F. Russell presiding. The clerk, Robt. Rogers read the yearly report of Mrs. M. B. Altman. The present clerk was unanimously re-elected for coming year. Mrs. H. W. Steven was elected as a director to succeed Geo. A. Card.

After the reading of the budget it was adopted as read by 45 votes with only two opposing votes.

Cake and coffee were served by committees from the Parent-Teachers Association and a social time followed.

Kansas City Woman Visiting Daughter

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—Mrs. A. Monod of Kansas City, Mo., arrived on June 3 for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Jones.

On Sunday, June 18, there was a large family gathering at the Jones home to meet the visitor who is 84 years old and made the trip to the coast unaccompanied. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Mayo and family of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mayo and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mayo and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. James Dewey, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn De Vinish and Walter Jones.

Portland Friends Visit at Johnsons

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—J. A. Johnson and wife had the pleasure of having twelve of their Portland friends in to tea on Friday evening. The families motored out to call, not one being aware that the other was coming. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were equal to the occasion and the following enjoyed their hospitality. Mr. and Mrs. Blasen Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Blasen Jr., and child, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson and two children, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Frank Nelson Sr.

Lodge People Are Flag Day Visitors

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—Mrs. J. C. Newcomb of Ohio, Mrs. Warren Swart and Mrs. R. L. Newcomb and daughter, Gail, attended the Daughters of the American Revolution when this organization very prettily observed Flag Day at the country home of Mrs. Geo. F. Honey at Gresham on Wednesday last. About 100 guests sat at the luncheon tables spread in the groves. An invitation has been extended by Mrs. Honey to the Multnomah, Willamette and Oregon City chapter to spend flag day in 1923 at "Honeymead."

STUDENT ENTERTAINED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Deter entertained with a dinner on Sunday last, honoring Earle Clarke, a medical student at the Eugene University. Covers were laid for Miss Mable Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Deter, Darrel Clark of Portland, Earle Clarke of Eugene, Miss Charlotte Pace of Oregon City, Gladys and Mrs. Deter and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Deter.

The afternoon was spent in music, furnished by those present and as an exceptionally lot of music talent was in the company the guests were favored with selections on piano, flute, saxophone, banjo and piano player.

PROGRAM ENJOYED

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—The program given at the Stephens school was of interest to Lodge folks. It was held at the assembly room of the school, and on its program numbers were Mrs. Fred Wilson, who gave a reading. Another pleasing number was the dance given by Miss Evelyn Moritz.

Mrs. Florence Moore who has been on the teacher's staff for the past year, has been retained to teach again this year. A number from here enjoyed the affair.

MOTOR TO LOCKS

JENNINGS LODGE, June 21—The S. Shepherd family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden and Mr. H. Kolk motored to the Cascade Locks and witnessed the dedicatory exercises of the Bridge of the Gods. They enjoyed lunch at Eagle Creek and motored to Hood River. On their return stopped at Multnomah Falls where they enjoyed supper in the twilight.

Col. Douling, of Garfield, Wash., was a visitor at the S. H. Bechtel home. The Colonel also visited with the Bishop family at Gladstone.

Mrs. Olive Kessi has returned from a business trip to Corvallis. Miss Ellen Hart spent two days in Portland the guest of Miss Veta Burgess at East Liberty street.

Chas. Maple has returned to Condon, Oregon, after a visit with his brother at this place.

Sarah E. Holloway departed on Saturday for Long Beach, Cal., where she goes to visit her grandmother. Mrs. C. W. K. Holloway will return the middle of August from her southern vacation trip.

Mrs. Pratt and sister, Miss Barclay of Oregon City, were callers at the J. W. Jones home on Thursday afternoon last.

Mrs. Eva Carter, of Silverton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith. C. P. Morse and family spent Saturday afternoon at the Roberts home. Mrs. A. L. Roberts and little son, Gerald, were also visitors.

Roy Hinds, wife and three children, arrived from Bend, Ore., and on Sunday were guests of the J. W. Dain family. The Hinds family are camping at Gladstone.

Mrs. Carns is much improved and was able to transact business at the county seat on Friday last.

Mrs. Jennie Blake, Sarah Elizabeth, were Oregon City shoppers on Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Mac Hargue is attending the three days' program at Brownsville, given by the Linn county Pioneers association of which she is a member. It was held on June 14, 15 and 16.

Oliver Tagley has finally reached his home town, Benedict, Minn., after a stop over at Wallace, Idaho, where he was confined to a hospital. Mrs. Tagley and son, Irving, motoring on. The party write that good and poor roads were encountered and were compelled to lay over 5 days in Idaho for snow.

Mrs. A. B. Smith, chaperoned the girls of the chorus choir to their picnic held in Sellwood Park on Thursday last. Luncheon and supper were enjoyed by the 14 attending.

Clyde and W. I. Blinstone motored to Salem on Thursday returning on Saturday. Clyde Blinstone is a visitor from Sparta, Wis., and is favorably impressed with Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Losey were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Collette in Portland. An auto trip through the city and suburbs sight seeing the beautiful roses was one of the pleasures planned for the Losesys.

Elizabeth Bruochert spent the week end at Hood River, motoring up with Portland friends.

Mrs. W. H. Sticks and daughter, Mrs. Lulu Inman of Hood River were visitors at the homes of Mrs. O. Kessian and Mrs. W. A. Rush on Thursday.

Mrs. Harold Benjamin and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Forest Grove were Friday visitors at the Kessi and Rush homes.

Asel Tabors have taken possession of their pretty new home in the Melburn district.

The Baker family, who recently purchased the Hammond home on the river road are getting settled in their new location. Mr. Baker formerly had charge of the large natatorium at Newport, Oregon.

The Hammonds are tenting on River View Drive getting ready to build a new home.

Billy Miller is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Millie Barlow Wilkins, of Portland.

Calvin Dill Morse of Irvington is spending the week with his cousins at Jennings Lodge.

Lucile, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray of Husum, Wash., who is visiting here, met with an accident on Saturday, while at play, fell and broke her leg.

Leyon A. Ehlerton, who has recently returned from a trip to Holland, Germany, France and Austria was an interesting visitor at the home of Mrs. Bess Bruochert on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stone, parents of Mr. Ehlerton accompanied him out from Portland and in the afternoon motored to Oregon City.

Mrs. Ida Clohesy is visiting friends in Portland and will remain in during the rose show.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maple sailed on June 21st from Los Angeles to Portland. The Maples have been in the south for 9 months and are planning on returning here to take up their residence again. They are sailing on the steamship Willamette. They are accompanied by Mrs. Miss Wilma Bruochert, who is returning from a month's vacation in the south. Hugh Roberts family spent Sunday at Woodburn the guests of the Finch family.

Mrs. William Turner and three children, have called here from Puyallup, Wash., to attend the funeral of their father, the late Victor Erickson.

Edith Williams is recovering from an attack of the mumps.

Warren Swart has been a business visitor to Klamath Falls during last week.

W. Hartnell is assisting with the building of the new home of Wilson B. Miller.

Miss Emma Peatch of Nebraska, arrived last Friday from Stockton, Cal., and remained over the week end with Miss Ellen Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox and daughter, Geraldine, motored up from Medford to visit with Mrs. Ella Eades. Mr. Fox will return this week to his home in Central Point, but Mrs. Fox and little daughter will remain during the summer with her sister, Mrs. Eades.

On Friday evening Halmer, the 12 year old son of Hugh Roberts, fractured his elbow, under the treatment of Dr. Welch it is hoped he will recover without permanent injury.

Eldon Tillman of Loraine, Oregon is visiting at the home of his uncle, W. H. Tillman. Eldon will remain over the Rose Festival.

Mrs. Laura Newell is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Ora Coffman of Tacoma, Wash.

George E. Morse has returned from a business trip to The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hampton of Muncia, Indiana, are visiting their brother, Mr. Hampton. The Hamptons will remain until after the Rose Festival.

Col. Douling, of Garfield, Wash., was a visitor at the S. H. Bechtel home. The Colonel also visited with the Bishop family at Gladstone.

Mrs. Olive Kessi has returned from a business trip to Corvallis. Miss Ellen Hart spent two days in Portland the guest of Miss Veta Burgess at East Liberty street.

Chas. Maple has returned to Condon, Oregon, after a visit with his brother at this place.

Sarah E. Holloway departed on Saturday for Long Beach, Cal., where she goes to visit her grandmother. Mrs. C. W. K. Holloway will return the middle of August from her southern vacation trip.

Mrs. Pratt and sister, Miss Barclay of Oregon City, were callers at the J. W. Jones home on Thursday afternoon last.

Mrs. Eva Carter, of Silverton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith. C. P. Morse and family spent Saturday afternoon at the Roberts home. Mrs. A. L. Roberts and little son, Gerald, were also visitors.

Roy Hinds, wife and three children, arrived from Bend, Ore., and on Sunday were guests of the J. W. Dain family. The Hinds family are camping at Gladstone.

Mrs. Carns is much improved and was able to transact business at the county seat on Friday last.

Mrs. Jennie Blake, Sarah Elizabeth, were Oregon City shoppers on Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Mac Hargue is attending the three days' program at Brownsville, given by the Linn county Pioneers association of which she is a member. It was held on June 14, 15 and 16.

Oliver Tagley has finally reached his home town, Benedict, Minn., after a stop over at Wallace, Idaho, where he was confined to a hospital. Mrs. Tagley and son, Irving, motoring on. The party write that good and poor roads were encountered and were compelled to lay over 5 days in Idaho for snow.

Mrs. A. B. Smith, chaperoned the girls of the chorus choir to their picnic held in Sellwood Park on Thursday last. Luncheon and supper were enjoyed by the 14 attending.

Clyde and W. I. Blinstone motored to Salem on Thursday returning on Saturday. Clyde Blinstone is a visitor from Sparta, Wis., and is favorably impressed with Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Losey were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Collette in Portland. An auto trip through the city and suburbs sight seeing the beautiful roses was one of the pleasures planned for the Losesys.

Elizabeth Bruochert spent the week end at Hood River, motoring up with Portland friends.

Mrs. W. H. Sticks and daughter, Mrs. Lulu Inman of Hood River were visitors at the homes of Mrs. O. Kessian and Mrs. W. A. Rush on Thursday.

Mrs. Harold Benjamin and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Forest Grove were Friday visitors at the Kessi and Rush homes.

Asel Tabors have taken possession of their pretty new home in the Melburn district.

The Baker family, who recently purchased the Hammond home on the river road are getting settled in their new location. Mr. Baker formerly had charge of the large natatorium at Newport, Oregon.

The Hammonds are tenting on River View Drive getting ready to build a new home.

Billy Miller is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Millie Barlow Wilkins, of Portland.

Calvin Dill Morse of Irvington is spending the week with his cousins at Jennings Lodge.

Lucile, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray of Husum, Wash., who is visiting here, met with an accident on Saturday, while at play, fell and broke her leg.

Leyon A. Ehlerton, who has recently returned from a trip to Holland, Germany, France and Austria was an interesting visitor at the home of Mrs. Bess Bruochert on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stone, parents of Mr. Ehlerton accompanied him out from Portland and in the afternoon motored to Oregon City.

Mrs. Ida Clohesy is visiting friends in Portland and will remain in during the rose show.

at Woodburn the guests of the Finch family.

Mrs. William Turner and three children, have called here from Puyallup, Wash., to attend the funeral of their father, the late Victor Erickson.

Edith Williams is recovering from an attack of the mumps.

Warren Swart has been a business visitor to Klamath Falls during last week.

W. Hartnell is assisting with the building of the new home of Wilson B. Miller.

Miss Emma Peatch of Nebraska, arrived last Friday from Stockton, Cal., and remained over the week end with Miss Ellen Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox and daughter, Geraldine, motored up from Medford to visit with Mrs. Ella Eades. Mr. Fox will return this week to his home in Central Point, but Mrs. Fox and little daughter will remain during the summer with her sister, Mrs. Eades.

On Friday evening Halmer, the 12 year old son of Hugh Roberts, fractured his elbow, under the treatment of Dr. Welch it is hoped he will recover without permanent injury.

Eldon Tillman of Loraine, Oregon is visiting at the home of his uncle, W. H. Tillman. Eldon will remain over the Rose Festival.

Mrs. Laura Newell is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Ora Coffman of Tacoma, Wash.

George E. Morse has returned from a business trip to The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hampton of Muncia, Indiana, are visiting their brother, Mr. Hampton. The Hamptons will remain until after the Rose Festival.

Col. Douling, of Garfield, Wash., was a visitor at the S. H. Bechtel home. The Colonel also visited with the Bishop family at Gladstone.

Mrs. Olive Kessi has returned from a business trip to Corvallis. Miss Ellen Hart spent two days in Portland the guest of Miss Veta Burgess at East Liberty street.

Chas. Maple has returned to Condon, Oregon, after a visit with his brother at this place.

Sarah E. Holloway departed on Saturday for Long Beach, Cal., where she goes to visit her grandmother. Mrs. C. W. K. Holloway will return the middle of August from her southern vacation trip.

Mrs. Pratt and sister, Miss Barclay of Oregon City, were callers at the J. W. Jones home on Thursday afternoon last.

Mrs. Eva Carter, of Silverton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith. C. P. Morse and family spent Saturday afternoon at the Roberts home. Mrs. A. L. Roberts and little son, Gerald, were also visitors.

Roy Hinds, wife and three children, arrived from Bend, Ore., and on Sunday were guests of the J. W. Dain family. The Hinds family are camping at Gladstone.

Mrs. Carns is much improved and was able to transact business at the county seat on Friday last.

Mrs. Jennie Blake, Sarah Elizabeth, were Oregon City shoppers on Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Mac Hargue is attending the three days' program at Brownsville, given by the Linn county Pioneers association of which she is a member. It was held on June 14, 15 and 16.

Oliver Tagley has finally reached his home town, Benedict, Minn., after a stop over at Wallace, Idaho, where he was confined to a hospital. Mrs. Tagley and son, Irving, motoring on. The party write that good and poor roads were encountered and were compelled to lay over 5 days in Idaho for snow.

Mrs. A. B. Smith, chaperoned the girls of the chorus choir to their picnic held in Sellwood Park on Thursday last. Luncheon and supper were enjoyed by the 14 attending.

Clyde and W. I. Blinstone motored to Salem on Thursday returning on Saturday. Clyde Blinstone is a visitor from Sparta, Wis., and is favorably impressed with Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Losey were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Collette in Portland. An auto trip through the city and suburbs sight seeing the beautiful roses was one of the pleasures planned for the Losesys.

Elizabeth Bruochert spent the week end at Hood River, motoring up with Portland friends.

Mrs. W. H. Sticks and daughter, Mrs. Lulu Inman of Hood River were visitors at the homes of Mrs. O. Kessian and Mrs. W. A. Rush on Thursday.

Mrs. Harold Benjamin and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Forest Grove were Friday visitors at the Kessi and Rush homes.

Asel Tabors have taken possession of their pretty new home in the Melburn district.

The Baker family, who recently purchased the Hammond home on the river road are getting settled in their new location. Mr. Baker formerly had charge of the large natatorium at Newport, Oregon.

The Hammonds are tenting on River View Drive getting ready to build a new home.

Billy Miller is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Millie Barlow Wilkins, of Portland.

Calvin Dill Morse of Irvington is spending the week with his cousins at Jennings Lodge.

Lucile, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray of Husum, Wash., who is visiting here, met with an accident on Saturday, while at play, fell and broke her leg.

Leyon A. Ehlerton, who has recently returned from a trip to Holland, Germany, France and Austria was an interesting visitor at the home of Mrs. Bess Bruochert on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stone, parents of Mr. Ehlerton accompanied him out from Portland and in the afternoon motored to Oregon City.

Mrs. Ida Clohesy is visiting friends in Portland and will remain in during the rose show.

Giles M. Caldwell has returned from a very successful fishing trip in the Deschutes country. He accompanied Mr. Tatro of The Dalles and they were gone a week. They returned with well filled fish baskets of trout. Mr. Caldwell will make another trip later in the season.

Mr. Daniel Jones is suffering from an attack of rheumatism and is taking treatment from specialists for this ailment.

Miss Mitchell, a teacher in the Kalspel, Montana schools, visited two days with her aunt, Mrs. Deter enroute to her home in Medford.

Miss Francis Cochran has returned from the University of Oregon, where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Charles Nelson had a family reunion at her home in South Oswego Sunday.

The Ladies "500" club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Borghorst on next Wednesday afternoon.

Marvel Kenwick is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Curtis for a few weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Yates and Mrs. Geo. Emrich visited friends in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Roley of Washougal is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Monk for a few weeks.

Dorothy Baker is visiting Mrs. L. Hallman of Redland for a few days.

Mrs. Ethel Knight of South Oswego, has as her guest the latter part of the week, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller of Portland.

Leonard Hallman of Redland spent a few days recently with his mother in South Oswego.

The Camp Fire Girls held their regular ceremonial meeting on Friday at the home of Miss Edna Grey.

Miss Marion Weidman of Oswego Camp Fire Girls was one of several which was chosen to ride on one of the floats at the Rose Show.

Miss Aileen Worthington, who has been visiting her aunt for the past six weeks returned home Tuesday evening.

Miss Lulu Walling, an old time resident of Oswego, but of late years living at Washougal was buried at that place, Friday afternoon. She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

She leaves a husband, one daughter and a son to mourn her loss.

Mrs. George Scheller, a resident of Oswego for many years, died at the home of her daughter in California on Thursday morning, according to word received by her daughter, Mrs. Ella Conway, of this city, and the remains are to be shipped to Oswego for burial in the family lot, and remains laid to rest here Friday afternoon.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Homes Erected on Lake Shore Road

OSWEGO, June 21—Rapid progress is being made on the New Lake Grove Shore road in South Oswego and before many days it will be ready for use. This slightly district has practically changed hands, many of the most desirable lots having been bought by local people. It will not be long before several new homes will be erected. Recently there was one two cottage built by Clifford Mendenhall of Portland on his lots, which he bought of J. C. Pierce lately and there is also others who have bought property of Pierce, who expect to build soon.

J. N. Webster and family are expected back from Los Angeles, in a few days.

Miss Francis Cochran has returned from the University of Oregon, where she has been attending school.

Mrs. Charles Nelson had a family reunion at her home in South Oswego Sunday.

The Ladies "500" club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Borghorst on next Wednesday afternoon.

Marvel Kenwick is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Curtis for a few weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Yates and Mrs. Geo. Emrich visited friends in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Roley of Washougal is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Monk for a few weeks.

Dorothy Baker is visiting Mrs. L. Hallman of Redland for a few days.

Mrs. Ethel Knight of South Oswego, has as her guest the latter part of the week, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller of Portland.