Interest In School Election Is Light

OSWEGO, June 27-At the last meeting of the Oswego school election the attendance was very light and little interest was shown. Those present criticized Oswego parents for their lack of interest in the welfare of their children's education. Mr. G. H. Pettinger was elected a director to succeed Mrs. Dora Wilson, who did not run again and John Bickner was elected clerk. All other members of the board are holdovers.

The members discussed plans for repainting the school and building a fence to protect the school children from the highway traffic.
