Do You Remember?
Stories of the Old Pioneers and Yarns from Old Newspapers.

Do you remember the "Booster" days they used to have in Oregon City and the long parade headed by a brass band? Every body and his grandmother were there. They had seats (real ones) nail kegs and boxes with long boards laid on them between the side walk and the street and "Oh boy, what a grand and glorious feeling" to find a space big enough to sit down and rest the tired feet awhile. A feeling of gratitude was expressed by all—that the old way, the new way is "seatless". The only place Oregon City has for tired pedestrians is to "back up" against the concrete fence foundation in front of the Courthouse. Buckles Grocery is the only place I know of with a rest seat visible. Having had a very recent experience escorting an aged couple on a shopping trip, this is written for the good it may do. "Weary William."

I lived in Oregon City 1891 to 1898 so remember a few happenings 30 years ago. I watched the old planing mill burn, the garage fire site. I was at Mr. Eastham's funeral. I saw the big high water when the train was stalled between Greenpoint and Gladstone, and Main Street had some wet areas.

I remember when Pope's Hall was the only "Opera House." There I saw my first drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin."—Mrs. Grant Plantz, Route 2 Aurora, Oregon.

Do you remember when the farmers were lined up for three blocks with their wagons loaded with wheat waiting for their turn at the old Imperial Mill and also the Brick Mill, when Clark Gansong was weighed, and when sometimes the ox teams were also in the lineup? G. A. S.

Do you remember when Harry Harding and Frank Barlow had the only bakery in Oregon City? G. A. S.

Richard Kennedy, arrested at his home nine miles east of Estacada on charges of having illicit goods in his possession, Thursday pleaded not guilty and will stand trial. Kennedy was taken into custody by Sheriff W. J. Wilson, who confiscated seven barrels of corn mash which he found on Kennedy's place.

Kennedy was recently fined $350 in Portland on a charge of selling liquor, and according to the sheriff, has been connected with numerous violations of the prohibition law.

S. A. MEAD IS ELECTED HEAD OF WOODMEN HERE

At the regular meeting of Williamette Falls Camp No. 148, Woodmen of the World, which was held on Friday evening, June 23, the following officers were elected: Consul Commander S. A. Mead; advisor, Lieutenant G. C. Critson; escort, Otto Erickson; G. C. Critson; Henry Heerd; sentry, Charles Rettinger; manager, M. R. Cooper.

The officers will be installed on July 28.

Divorcee, 17, Sent Home for Moter's Consent to Match

Married, deserted by her husband and divorced more than six months while yet in her seventeenth year, did not give Mrs. Dora Witherspoon, 17, who is the daughter of an Oregon City woman, the right to marry J. Van Cleve, 39, of Portland, without the consent of parent or guardian.

The couple applied for a license at Vancouver, Saturday, but when the bride gave her age she was informed by Deputy Auditor Fred Strickling that the fact that she had been divorced made no difference in the eyes of the law and being a minor the consent of the parent or guardian was necessary.

At the suggestion of Van Cleve they went to Oregon City and returned with the bride's mother, who gave her consent to the marriage, and ceremony was performed by Rev. Luther B. Deck of the English Lutheran church of Vancouver.

5 ROAD LAW BREAKERS FINED BY JUDGE NOBLE

Five traffic offenders, three moonshiners and one game violator were tried in Judge E. J. Noble's court Monday. Kenneth Martin, driving a motorcycle without lights, and without either a machine or driver's license, was arrested by State Officer Browne and fined $10, in default of which he was committed to jail for five days. Brown also arrested A. D. Odes, who was fined $5 for driving without a license.

Traffic Officer Long arrested A. C. Erickson and A. W. Clark for using improper license plates. Erickson was fined $20 and Clark $10. Wm. Olson, arrested by Long for speeding, was fined $10.

E. A. Thies was fined $25 for fishing in a closed stream. He was arrested by R. Miles, state game warden.

DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN TO LEGION MEETING

S. A. Mead, William Logus and I. N. Mullan were Monday night elected by the local post of the American Legion as delegates to the Legion convention at the Dalles beginning July 27. Phil Hammond, Ned Harding, Erickson, McDonald were elected as alternates.

A basket luncheon will be given by the legionnaires at Chautauqua on Legion Day, July 4. The committee in charge of the dance staged at the opening of the Hawley Auto Park reported a net profit of $110.

Canby Will Celebrate—Canby will celebrate the Fourth in true style, when William Knight will be president of the day, with Lewis Rogers as chief marshal. Molalla brass band will play for the day, and there will be a parade. Bertha Knight will read the Declaration of Independence, and S. A. D. Gurley will deliver an address. The celebration will be held in Lee's grove.

PICNIC AT GLADSTONE IS HELD BY LOCAL K. OF C.

The first annual picnic of the local Knights of Columbus was held at Chautauqua park Sunday, members of McLaughlin council 2325 and visiting knights attending. The guests came from West Mt. Canby, Portland, Molalla and Mt. Angel. Grand Knight James McNeil of the local council made a brief address at the opening of the assembly period at 2:30 o'clock, introducing Clem Hussman of Portland, an entertainer. J. W. Murphy, deputy grand knight of the Portland council, delivered an address on the origin, development and principles of the order. After the speaking an athletic program was held.

RICHARD KENNEDY WILL FIGHT LIQUOR CHARGES

FIFTY-FOUR YEARS AGO

Taken from the Oregon City Enterprise June 27, 1868.

Drowned—On Tuesday, a man by the name of David Wallis lost his life in the Clackamas river near the paper mill while engaged in "running" saw-logs for the Portland trade. He had just passed over a riffle opposite the mill where the logs rolled considerably, and fell off, swimming on ahead of the logs for some distance then striking for shore. When within a rod of the shore he sank suddenly to rise no more. He was a young man and had no relatives in this part of the country.

Sprained Ankle—Tuesday, while H. L. Kelly was playing with other boys on the Clackamas baseball field engaged in baseball game, he met with a painful accident in spraining his right ankle. The very bone was heard to creak at the moment of the accident by persons nearby.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Taken from the Oregon City Enterprise June 24, 1892.

C. G. Huntley and W. A. Huntley returned Monday from their bicycle trip up the valley. They went from here to Salem and then up to Independence. They came back via Monmouth and McMinnville spending Sunday in the latter town. They crossed back to the east side of the river at Ray's Landing and came down through Aurora. The roads were fine and they had an enjoyable time.

THE MOTOR LINE—The East Side motor line is coming right along toward Oregon City. It is in operation to Sellwood and the track will be completed to Milwaukie within a few days. The Gladstone Mill Company has gotten out 2500 ties, and delivered them along the route of the road north of the Clackamas.

HURRAH FOR THE FOURTH—The Fourth of July committee last Wednesday selected the site for the baseball game on the west side of the river. A part of the program will have to be carried out on the east side on account of the better ground for the races. The saw log race has been changed to a log rolling contest in the river. There will be accommodations for nearly 20,000 people.

MARRIED—At the Presbyterian manse, Oregon City, June 23, 1892, Rev. G. William Giboney officiating, Christian Schuebel and Miss Aggie Beatle.

MARRIED—Graham-Glaspool, at St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city on Wednesday, June 22, Rev. Lund, of Salem, officiating. J. Newton Graham and Miss Edith Glaspool of this city.

CHERRY PARTY—Mrs. Theodore W. Clark gave a cherry party last Saturday evening in honor of the Symphony club. There was enough cherry-eating to give the party its name, and cards and other games and dancing were introduced to make the occasion enjoyable.

Canby Will Celebrate—Canby will celebrate the Fourth in true style, when William Knight will be president of the day, with Lewis Rogers as chief marshal. Molalla brass band will play for the day, and there will be a parade. Bertha Knight will read the Declaration of Independence, and S. A. D. Gurley will deliver an address.
