VANCOUVER MINISTER GETS GIFT FROM KLAN

VANCOUVER, June 22 .- The Rev. C. C. Curtis, pastor of First Christian church here, was kidnaped Wednesday night by several masked members of the invisible empire and taken to a local hall, where he was surrounded by many more klansmen in full regalia. He was much frightened by the speech making and gesticulations of his hooded captors, he declared afterward, and when commanded to pull a string attached to a box resembling an infernal machine, he did so in fear and trembling.

Expecting an explosion, he jerked at the string and out popped a new one dollar bill. At the behest of the Lumber is our basic industry, and is therefore of first importance. Coastal movements of lumber have improved of late with the resumption of building in California. Since the annuncement of impending cuts in freight rates, shipments of lumber across the country have slackened a bit They have not been cancelled, however, but are merely being held up until such time as the lower rates go into effect, which will be July 1, since shippers naturally wish to receive the benefits which will accrue from the lower rakes. That the vol ume of this cross country movement will be greatly increased after July 1, lumbermen have no doubt, and indica tions are that the fall trade will be very heavy. Shipments to the Orient

Movie censorship is a fine thing, and it is to be hoped that unfit pic tures may eventaully be ruled out. But that glorious day has not yet arrived The responsibility still rests with Mother to decide which pictures her children shall see.
