REJECTED BY SENATORS

WASHINGTON, July 15 .- The senate agricultural committee today voted 9 to 7 to reject the offer of Henry Ford for development of the Muscle

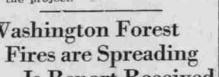

Shoals nitrate project, The nine senators voting against the Ford offer were: Norris, McNary, Keyes, Gooding, Norbeck, Harreld, McKinley, Kendrick and Page. Supporting the Ford offer were: Capper, Glass, Smith, Ransdell, Harrison, Heflin and Caraway. None of the offers mustered suffi cient votes to warrant a majority report and consequently only two minority reports will be submitted to the senate. One will favor the Ford project and the other the Norris plan. This action will leave allocation of the development contract entirely to the senate body.

As a result of the vote, two minority reports will be submitted to the senate favoring the Ford offer and the Norris plan for government operation
