Estacada

ESTACADA, July 26-J. K. Ely has records of the National Record Exchange and with an unusually good phonograph has a concert every evening in the front of his store, which is quite an attraction.

A busy place in Estacada just now is the cannery of the Estacada Packing company. At present the pack is almost entirely of loganberries, with a few raspberries. And they are of a good variety mostly, those not coming up to the standard, show the lack of cultivation. Nearly all the fruit growers of this section are patronizing and there is a continual stream of trucks and wagons enroute for the cannery. There are about twenty men and women engaged in taking care of te fruit and the pay roll is quite large during his absence. for a business just in its infancy. A delightful time was enjoyed last Saturday evening by the many neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loucks, who gathered at the Lad Hill Club house to entertain them with a farewell party. About 120 guests were present and the evening was spent mostly in dancing, after which a bounteous supper was spread. Reed Graham presided at the table as toastmaster and every one called upon responded most heartily with a witty toast or a good joke. Mr. Graham proved himself well qualified as toast master and his short stories and jokes were t' oroughly enjoyed by all present.
