A Noble Dog—The body of an unknown woman was found about four leagues from the shore on the ice on the northern coast of Newfoundland by some fishermen in search of seals. She lay with her face on the ice, being quite dead, and a dog was lying across her back. The men found great difficulty in driving the dog from the body. Having tried gentle means first, one of them kicked him, but the dog caught hold of the man's foot and pleased it through with his teeth. They at last succeeded in driving the animal off with a dealing gaff or pole, when they took the body to shore. The woman is supposed to have been hunting for seals, and the wind springing up carrying the ice out to set, and thus she perished.

Potter—A steamer of the P. T. Company was dry this week brought down and landed at Miller's place near Milwaukie nearly three thousand and earthen flower pots manufactured at Buena Vista pottery.

A Victory—The return game between the Benedicts and Bachelors of Clackamas county club was played on Thursday resulting in favor of the latter by 46 points. In justice to the married men we would state that they did their best but signally failed.

Water Pipe—C. W. Pope and Company are busily engaged in manufacturing water pipe for the Oregon City Water Works Company.

Penitentiary Not Worth Much—The Herald thinks that the old penitentiary building in Portland is hardly worth $3000. The democrats built it a few years ago at a much greater cost than that. How times have changed. The Oregonian handled the "pimps" as they deserve.

Cut Off—The Salem Daily nose rag has cut us off its exchange list. This is all right.

Company Arrives—Captain Sprague's company, the last of the First Oregon, arrived in Jacksonville on Saturday from Ft. Klamath, and will be mustered out of service at once.

The Womens Relief Corps gave a very enjoyable lawn party at the home of Mrs. George Broughton Thursday night. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and ice cream and cake were served. The attendance was good, but the festivities were cut on account of a shower.

Last Sunday morning Rev. Lucas presented his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church and called a business meeting for Thursday evening to take action upon it. The resignation will take effect in September.

President L. L. Hawkins, of the Astinworth National Bank of Portland drove a jolly loan of Portland people to Oregon City Sunday in his "tally ho", "Jupiter."

Mrs. H. E. Cross is visiting relatives at Bradbury, Columbia county.

James Roske has invented a new kind of lawn sprinkler to be attached to the muzzle of a hose. It is on the principal of the turbine water wheel inverted and without the outside case. It is vastly better than any of the high priced affairs now on the market and it can be sold for a few cents instead of costing dollars. He is going to get a patent and engage in the work of manufacturing the contrivance.

There was a cheerful ball given at the armory last Tuesday evening. The weather was favorable for dancing, the music was good, there was a congenial crowd and a good time was enjoyed by the young people.

Baseball Games—Two games of baseball were played here last Sunday. The first between the Oregon City and the North Portland and the second game between Oregon City and the Farmers & Mechanics of Portland. The first game was a fine exhibition game as was ever seen in Oregon City. The score stood 9 to 2 in favor of the Oregon City boys. The second game was a complete walk-over for the Oregon City boys again, the score standing 15 to 2. Felix Fields umpired both games. The features of the first game were the battery work of the Oregon City boys—Rhoades and Kelly; the fine playing of Gilbert Hedges; the heavy batting of Eugene Hedges, Fields and Reckner, of the home club and first base playing of Paterson of North Portland. The second game features were battery work of Fennimore and Kelly and the heavy batting of G. and E. Hedges, Fields and Reckner of the home club and Plymouth of the visitors, and the fielding of G. and E. Hedges, Sheehan and Fields, and the catching of Willis.

The club will run an excursion to St. Paul next Sunday to play the

MEDFORD NEGRO GIVEN PROTECTION OF STATE

MEDFORD, July 26.—"Lip" Arthur Burr, the negro bootblack of heroic proportions who has and will yet figure very prominently in the Ku Klux investigations now being conducted by the Jackson county grand jury here, is scheduled to come back across the Oregon border on Friday next for the first time since that dark night in March when he was told by the hooded band of inquisitors up in the foothills of the Siskiyou mountains to "Go away and keep going."

When the ultimatum was delivered to Burr on that eventful evening, Arthur he had been swung up by the neck and revolver bullets had kept his feet doing the double shuffle while they were on the ground, he sped away in the darkness headed for the California line, and he has not been in Medford or Jackson county since. When he stopped he was in Modesto and so indelibly were his experiences imprinted on his memory, that it has required some coaxing and definite promises of safe conduct and protection while here to toll him back across the border.

STATE BOARD MEETING CALLED BY SECRETARY

SALEM, July 25.—Secretary of State Kozer today issued a call for a meeting of the state emergency board to be held in Salem Tuesday, August 1, to make provision for deficiencies that have been incurred in several state appropriations and departments. Mr. Kozer has not yet made an estimate of the total amount that it will be necessary for the board to provide for.

Other items present a similar situation.

MAN FOILS BANDITS AND BECOMES TOWN HERO

WALFORD, Iowa, July 21.—A muffled explosion in the Walford bank early today awakened W. S. Serbousek from his slumbers. Two minutes later Serbousek was engaged in the business of firing shot for shot at three bandits. None of the shots took effect, but the bandits were foiled in their attempt to loot the wrecked bank vault. They fled in an automobile. The townspeople turned out of their beds and lionized Serbousek.

ACID PUT IN WOMAN'S EYES; BLINDNESS RESULT

WASHINGTON, July 21.—"Find the woman." In this command to the police of Washington and Baltimore and the officials of Prince George county, Maryland, is believed to rest the solution of one of the strangest and most cold blooded murder plots in the police annals of this part of the United States. The intended victim of the plot is Mrs. Louis Brooks, pretty young wife of Nace Brooks of Mount Rainier, Md., a suburb of the national capital. With her eyes heavily bandaged she hovers tonight between partial loss of her sight and total blindness, the result of an attack with acids. But for police intervention, it is declared, her body now would be lying in an old, abandoned vault on a near-by farm, where the plotters had planned to take her after carrying out their murderous scheme last night.

NATION MAY BE PUT ON WAR TIME FUEL BASIS

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The nation will be put back on a wartime fuel basis, if coal production is not resumed in the near future. With many parts of the country already feeling the effect of a coal shortage that is growing more alarming each day, Secretary of Commerce Hoover is framing plans for the rationing of coal. Hoover has agents throughout the country reporting on coal conditions, and under the direction of these officials that organization would be expanded into a vast voluntary agency. The whole plan will depend upon voluntary cooperation of local and state officials and public spirited citizens, but Hoover is confident such a plan would be successful in alleviating the effects of a fuel famine.

Daughter of Ex-U. S. Senator Confesses Killing of Uncle

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 21.—Mildred Willis Brewer, 15, granddaughter of a former United States congressman, was held in the county jail here today pending investigation into the death of her uncle, A. Portis McKethen, 36. Miss Brewer surrendered to the police late yesterday, declaring she killed McKethen. Since then she has refused to talk.

The recital given at the Gladstone Christian Church Wednesday evening by the violin pupils of Andrew Emile Deschamps was very largely attended. Mr. Deschamps was assisted by Miss Elenora Schiewe, accompanist, and Miss Cecelia Tenney, pianist, both of the Becker Conservatory of Music in Portland. This was attended by about 60, including ministers from various parts of the West as well as a number of Eastern ministers who had attended the convention. Among those in attendance were members of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society of this city, who had gathered at the cafeteria during the session, who enjoyed the hospitality of the ministers having charge of the affair.

During the evening amusing stories were related and games and songs enjoyed. Rev. Jenkins led in the community singing when many of the old time songs were sung. Rev. Winton, of New York, who was among those taking part in the evening's exercise was royal host when he served watermelon to the guests while seated about the big bonfire and greatly relished. The evening's exercises closed by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Mrs. Clara Fields, prominent pioneer of Canemah, celebrated her 74th birthday anniversary at her home on Tuesday evening, July 18, when a number of her friends called and spent the evening, enjoying a social time.

Ice cream, cake and candy were enjoyed during the evening, and the hostess was presented with two birthday cakes, one of which came from Portland from her son, Clarence Fields, and the other from Mrs. William Ven Eman, of Canemah. Mrs. Fields was also presented with a number of useful and pretty gifts. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin and son, Robert, Mrs. E. H. Hartwell, Mrs. Jane Hingsman, Ott, of Portland; Mrs. Jane Hingsman, Mr. and Mrs. William Ven Eman, Miss Ada Bedwell, Ivan and Mildred Midlam.
