AUTO JUMPS FERRY; 3 CHILDREN'S LIVES LOST

PORTLAND, July 31.—With the recovery at 7 this morning of the body of Peter Alex, aged 5, youngest of the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alex, who were drowned at 6:40 Sunday night when the automobile in which they were riding was backed off the county ferryboat Lionel R. Webster at the St. Johns slip, the bodies of all the children had been taken from the waters of the Willamette.

City Grappler Brady, who recovered the other two bodies last night, was on the scene and at work again this morning at daylight. The body of the youngest, who was affectionately known to his parents as "Mischievous Peter," was located off the slip, some distance out.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex, No. 121 1/2 Russell street, and the driver of the car, Paul Mesgl, who lives with the Alexes, were in the machine when it plunged into the river, but they were fished out alive. The dead are: Frank Alex, 9; Teddy Alex, 8; Peter Alex, 4.

K. K. K. PLAN TO START WORLD ORGANIZATION

ATLANTA, Ga., July 27.—The Ku Klux Klan is now attempting to organize a world-wide association of "white Protestants," it was learned here today.

J. O. Wood, editor of the Searchlight, alleged klan organ, returned here from Europe and declared he had been in conference with leaders of certain Protestant organizations there with a view to effecting such an organization.

Immediately upon his arrival he went to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, former head of the propaganda department of the klan, where he conferred with officials of the organization.

Wood refused to say whether or not he was successful in creating the nucleus of the international organization, but declared things looked good.

PORTLAND STREET CAR SMASHES INTO HOUSE

PORTLAND, July 29.—Instead of stopping where the trolley stop at the end of East 21st street, south, streetcar No. 482, Brooklyn line, with J. H. Leonard as motorman, kept right on going at 8:05 last night, climbed the curbing and smashed into the front of the house at 716 Bush street, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fryer.

Mrs. Fryer was trimming flowers on the lawn in the gloaming. She looked off street and ran its nose into the front of her house.

Patrolman S. C. Worrel, who was standing across the street, is said to have dashed after the streetcar shouting "Whoa—whoa!" The house buckled and danced from the impact, according to his account given later.

Worrel and Mrs. Fryer both saw the motorman working violently at his brakes, but he couldn't make them catch. The car was moving slowly, however. If it had been speeding it would have rammed through the house.

Auto Plunges Over Cliff; Two are Hurt

WHITE SALMON, Wash., July 28.—A woman had both legs broken and received other injuries and a man had his back perhaps seriously wrenched when the automobile in which they were driving down the bluff road went over the edge and tumbled several hundred feet at 9:30 this morning.

They were picked up by a passing truck and rushed to the Hood River hospital. They are said to be from Dallas, Or.

So far as is known, nothing went wrong with the machine. The beauty of this particular spot tempts drivers to turn their attention from the wheel. The machine turned over four or five times on the way down the cliff and, according to a witness, appeared to bounce 10 feet into the air when it hit the rocks below. The man and woman were thrown out.

SEATTLE MILLIONAIRE KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

CHILLIWACK, B. C., July 31.—Harry Whitney Treat, Seattle millionaire, was instantly killed last night when his automobile slid over a 40-foot embankment on a highway a few miles out of this town.

Accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Greenhow, Mr. Treat was returning from the Kultus lake camp of Captain W. Dixon-Hopcraft, former commander of the Empress of Japan, about 10 o'clock Sunday night.

He took a wrong turn in the road and Mrs. Greenhow got out of the machine while Mr. Treat attempted to turn around. He backed too near the edge of the embankment and car and driver were precipitated down the steep slopes.

An inquest was held this morning and a verdict of accidental death returned. His neck was broken.

MAN IS KILLED IN FIGHT WITH U. S. DRY OFFICERS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 28.—Harry Baker, former police lieutenant, was shot to death and J. L. Mayberry was wounded in a battle with prohibition agents at the Fencible distillery.

Frank M. Colbert, United States guard at the distillery, was arrested. One man escaped. Prohibition Agents De Lozier, Handsbrough, McFarlan and Colbert, who were watching the distillery, charged they saw Colbert signal to a truck which entered the distillery. When the truck emerged the agents commanded the driver to halt.

The order was disregarded, agents reported, and when they blocked the road with their auto, they say, the truck crashed into them. At the same time, they charge, three men in the truck opened fire.

Bullets from high-powered rifles of the agents riddled the truck.

YAKIMA, July 27.—Brooding over the disgrace he felt on being charged with an assault on a 6-year-old girl, Herman Domesse, 75, a rancher living in the suburbs, shot and killed himself here yesterday. He was found unconscious in a shack where he lived alone with a bullet wound in his head and a pistol in his hand. He died before he reached the hospital. He protested his innocence when arrested, and the prosecuting attorney who was investigating the charge was preparing to drop it, saying the state had no case.

FIRE ON EUGENE CAMPUS CAUSES $50,000 LOSS

EUGENE, July 31.—Buildings that have stood on the University of Oregon campus for the last forty years and are dear to hundreds of students, are today a heap of coals and charred bricks as the result of the fire which swept the campus Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, causing a loss of more than $50,000.

The art building, the physical education building, which was formerly the woman's gymnasium, were destroyed and the journalism annex gutted by the flames which have left these departments homeless.

ALBANY YOUTH IS SHOT ACCIDENTALLY BY MAN

ALBANY, July 28.—Brookshire Wise, 16-year-old son of Mrs. Guy Newton, of North Albany, is in a doubtful condition at a local hospital as the result of a bullet wound through his chest an inch below the heart, inflicted accidentally, it is said, by C. D. Walker, also of North Albany.

Young Newton had come up on Walker at the Walker farm while the owner was shooting with a gun at a target, according to the wounded boy's mother. Walker, evidently not seeing the lad, she said, shot at the target. The bullet entered the boy's chest. Unless the wound becomes infected, the attending physician says, the boy stands a good chance for recovery.

Prejudice Is Filed In Sheriff Recall Case At Medford

MEDFORD, July 27.—An affidavit charging that an application for injunction against the recall of Sheriff Terrill, scheduled for Saturday, was inspired by "a sect opposed to the public schools," has been filed in the circuit court here. The affidavit further alleges the injunction is part of a "political plot to secure votes for Governor Ben W. Olcott."

An affidavit was also filed against Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Douglas county, charging prejudice on the ground that the defendants in the complaint "are alleged to be knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The pleas were granted and Judge Calkins took the bench.

PEOPLE VOTE TO BUILD NEW GYM AT GRESHAM

GRESHAM, July 28.—At a special meeting of the voters of Union high school No. 2, held in the auditorium of the school Monday evening, it was voted that a bond issue of a trifle over $50,000 be authorized. This issue will take care of outstanding warrants of practically $27,000 as well as an old bond issue of $3,500. The balance of $20,000 will be used in the erection of a new gymnasium for the school. The board will make an inspection trip to Oregon City, Silverton and Mount Angel in the near future for the purpose of looking over the gymnasiums at these places, and immediately following work will commence on the new building in Gresham.

STATE LEGION WILL HOLD CONVENTION AT SEASIDE

THE DALLES, July 29.—Seaside was this morning selected as next year's meeting place for the Oregon state convention of the American Legion, the vote being unanimous after the delegates had listened to a spirited talk by M. F. Hardesty, president of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce, who made a flying trip to The Dalles to urge his city upon the Legion. The dates set were September 6, 7 and 9.

Selection of the meeting place this morning instead of this afternoon, as had been planned, was made because of delays in reports of committees that were to have been ready to read to the convention.

The affidavit further alleges the injunction is part of a "political plot to secure votes for Governor Ben W. Olcott."

An affidavit was also filed against Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Douglas county, charging prejudice on the ground that the defendants in the complaint "are alleged to be knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The pleas were granted and Judge Calkins took the bench.

Prejudice Is Filed In Sheriff Recall Case At Medford

MEDFORD, July 27.—An affidavit charging that an application for injunction against the recall of Sheriff Terrill, scheduled for Saturday, was inspired by "a sect opposed to the public schools," has been filed in the circuit court here. The affidavit further alleges the injunction is part of a "political plot to secure votes for Governor Ben W. Olcott."

An affidavit was also filed against Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Douglas county, charging prejudice on the ground that the defendants in the complaint "are alleged to be knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The pleas were granted and Judge Calkins took the bench.
