SQUABBLE OVER TARIFF IS ENDED BY CONGRESS

Immediate Action By Both Houses in Congress To Be Result of Recommendation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The senate will end its four months' tariff fight late today with the passage of the administration bill by an overwhelming majority. With the absence of two Republican senators generally credited as in opposition, it was expected that not to exceed three votes would be cast against the bill on the majority side. The general belief was that these would be offset by at least that many votes in support on the Democratic side.

According to neighbors near the Hansen home, shortly after 11 o'clock last night they heard Mrs. Hansen screaming "get out of here." This was followed by four or five shots. The neighbors rushed into the house and found Mrs. Hansen dead in a pool of blood in her room, all of the shots having taken effect.
