INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE BY COMMISSION

Frank Redding, of Tillamook, and Edward Arrance, Falls
City, Victims of Accident.

SALEM, Aug. 30.—Frank Redding, of Tillamook, 40 years old, was killed outright, and Edward Arrance was injured so seriously that he died before arriving at a local hospital when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a northbound freight train on the Oregon Electric railroad, at a crossing about five miles south of Salem, shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Redding and his wife and four children had been employed in the German hop yards for several days while Arrance had been working in the Bell yards. Both yards are located near Livesley.

The men were en route to Salem at the time of the accident and apparently did not see the approaching train. The train struck the car squarely, with the result that it was carried for a distance of about 15 feet and hurled against a telegraph pole. Both Redding and Arrance were thrown clear of the track. Redding's body was badly mutilated.

Arrance was picked up by the train crew and brought to Salem. He died as he was being placed in an ambulance at the station preparatory to being taken to a hospital. He bodies later were turned over to an undertaker.

Redding's body probably will be sent to Tillamook for burial, while Arrance was said to have relatives at Falls City. The automobile in which they were riding was reduced to debris.

The crossing is raised at the scene of the accident, and there is an unobstructed view in either direction.

Members of the Oregon public service commission were notified of the accident and will conduct an investigation tomorrow.

Coroner Rigdon probably will hold an inquest, he said.

TESTIMONY HEARD ON G. G. GREEN FISH BILL

Fish Packer States Offer Was Made to Invalidate Names
On Petitions for $10,000.

SALEM, Aug. 30. (Special to the Enterprise)—Judges G. G. Bincham and Kelly, of the Marion County circuit court, today took the matter of the legality of the signatures to the petition to place the G. G. Green bill on the fall ballots under advisement. Testimony from the group to whom it is alleged Green offered to sell certain information which would invalidate his petitions, was heard during the day.

Fred Barker, general manager of the Columbia River Packers' association, testified that he was present when Green appeared before a group of cannery men and offered to sell information for $10,000 which would make the petition which Green was promoting invalid. According to Barker's testimony a dictaphone was used at this meeting to secure a detailed report of what took place. Attorneys Ralph King and W. Laird Thompson of the office of McCamant & Thomas of Portland, were on the stand for a couple of hours pointing out the irregularities of the names on the petitions.

The Deputy Secretary of State also testified as to the filing of the petitions.

McNary is Praised After Passage of Reclamation Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Senator McNary, of Oregon, is being congratulated for his able fight in getting the senate to adopt the reclamation measure as an amendment to the soldiers' bonus bill by a vote of 43 to 26. Senator McNary, facing a difficult task, emerged with much credit for the manner in which he handled it.

Some of his friends who were eager to secure a general reclamation measure were fearful that the addition of the reclamation feature would cause senators who otherwise favored the bonus measure to oppose it. For a time the discussion promised to last another day. However, when the final vote was announced the amendment had more votes in its favor than any one had anticipated.

Complaint Is Filed in Circuit
Court by Harry Berdine;
Claims Entitled to Job.

A complaint filed in the circuit court Wednesday by Harry Berdine, of Oregon City, asks for an injunction preventing the mayor and recorder of West Linn from entering into a contract with the Parker & Schram construction company, of Portland, for grading 1500 feet and paving 400 feet of the gap on the Willamette road. Bids were opened a week ago, and the council voted to award the contract to the Portland firm at a price of $11,387.10, while Berdine claims that his bid of $10,311.55 entitled him to the work. According to his attorney, Arthur G. Beattie, the West Linn city charter makes it mandatory to give the work to the lowest bidder, provided he is responsible.

Judge Campbell has issued an order for the West Linn officials to appear on September 7th and show cause why they should not be enjoined from proceeding with the contract.

Senate Not to Act On Taking of Mine And Rail Property

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Congress will not enact emergency legislation authorizing seizure of the railroads and idle coal mines except in the immediate presence of an absolute crisis—such as does not exist now.

This, a virtually complete poll of sentiment in both the senate and house showed today, is the reaction on Capitol Hill to the official White House statement that President Harding wants congress, before it adjourns, to invest him with the power to take over the rail and coal properties as a last resort and operate them in the public welfare.

Women the Greatest Buyers in the World

THERE are 22,000,000 homes in the United States. The women who buy for these homes spend on the average $500 each, or a total of $11,000,000,000 each year. That is more than $36,000,000 every working day. Every year it amounts to half as much as America's Liberty Bond issue.

Each woman is a part of this army of buyers, and each, if she will, may be guided to wise and economical purchases if she will but make up her mind each day to read as many as she can of the advertisements which manufacturers are printing for her benefit.

The advertising in every newspaper and every magazine is a buying guide for this greatest buying force in the world. This advertising makes it safe and easy for every member of this buying army to make her purchases.

It establishes in her mind a buying habit and gives her a preference of one brand of goods to another or an advertised article to one that is unknown.

It identifies for her a certain product as being standard, so that she may easily dodge the wiles of sellers who tries to sell something that is not so good.

It fixes merit as an everlasting adjunct to certain articles.

It makes her know that the manufacturer who is proud of his product and jealous of his reputation and character cannot do otherwise than make his product at least as good as he says it is.

More than likely it is better.

Advertising points out where this greatest buyers in all the world's history may find quality goods by showing her picture of them over and over again which enables her to recognize them easily and quickly.
