

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Old Ballot Found.

In disposing of some old papers in the basement of the courthouse, Thursday, J. S. Jones, janitor of the building, unearthed one of the early ballot forms, used before the Australian system was started. Among the candidates listed on the republican ballot are D. P. Thompson for governor, Binger Hermann for congress, Phil Metschan for treasurer, T. A. McBride for prosecuting attorney for the fifth district, E. L. Eastham for state senator, E. M. Hartman and James M. Tracy for representatives, John W. Meldrum for county judge, H. H. Johnson for clerk of courts, W. H. Samson for sheriff, S. B. Calif for treasurer, John W. Noble for treasurer, and Alex Thompson for school superintendent.

Robert Krueger Displays Fish.

Robert Krueger, at one time resident of Oregon, now residing on the Clackamas about six miles from Oregon City, was in this city on Monday. Mr. Krueger brought in a string of fish, the kind he always gets when making fishing trips, and these were placed in the display window of the Huntley-Draper Drug Company, where they caused much favorable comment, especially among the anglers.

William Beard Visits Relatives.

William Beard, who made his home in Clackamas county for a number of years, engaging in farming in the Maple Lane section, now residing at Sellwood, was in this city on business Monday. While here he also visited his granddaughter, Mrs. Moore, and her family, of Twelfth and Washington streets.

Hunting Party Returns.

A hunting party composed of Harry Draper, Dr. Guy Mount, of this city, Charles Parker and Ralph Parker, of Portland, who went to Southern Oregon on their annual fall outing, returned on Sunday evening. The party returned with the limit of deer meat.

Robbins Family Attends Fair.

Mrs. and Mr. Herbert Robbins and Miss Rosalyn Robbins, of Robbins station on the W. V. S. line, were among the visitors at the county fair at Canby Thursday. Mr. Robbins won a number of awards on his poultry entries.

Estacada Group Here.

Visitors in Oregon City, Thursday were W. H. Wade, M. D. Marshall and J. P. Woodie, justice of peace, all of Estacada. They transacted business at the courthouse and visited with friends while in the county seat.

In City For Day.

Among the out-of-town residents who made business trips to Oregon City Saturday were A. R. Cummings, of Canby; Gust Jaeger, of Sherwood; D. Harms, of Aurora; Dan Davies, of Milwaukie; and E. White, of Mulino.

May Locate in Oregon City.

W. H. Johnson, formerly of New Era, now making his home at Canby, was in Oregon City on Monday. Mr. Johnson may take up his residence in this city in the near future, having come here to look for a location.

Road Men Here.

Among the county road supervisors who visited the highway department on business Saturday were Frank Jackson, of Yoder; William Braatz, of Carver; and J. E. LeCroy, of Estacada.

Leaves for O. A. C.

Douglas King, of Mount Pleasant, has gone to Corvallis where he will start his freshman year at the Oregon Agricultural College.

Milwaukie Is Represented.

Mrs. Nellie Adams, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on Monday, where she came to look after property interests.

Goes to St. Helens.

John Graves, of Mount Pleasant, has accepted a position with a lumber company at St. Helens, and left last week for that city.

Son Arrives.

Born on Thursday, September the 21st to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Evon of Molalla a seven pound boy, who has been named, Cyril Lester Evon.

Oak Grove Woman in Oregon City.

Mrs. L. V. Wright, of Oak Grove, was among those coming to Oregon City on business Monday.

Estacada Man Here.

I. W. Hull, of Estacada, spent Friday in Oregon City, transacting business.

Barlow Resident Here.

S. V. Berg, prominent Barlow resident, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

Here for Day.

Mrs. C. L. Conrad, of Estacada, transacted business in the county seat Friday.

Seelys Have Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman F. Seely, of Sherwood, Route 2, are announcing the birth of a son, Saturday.

Here from Hoff.

C. Bohlander, of Hoff, was in Oregon City Saturday.

DR. WM. KRASSIG
DENTIST
Specializes in
Extraction of Teeth
Crown and Bridge Work
"Plates That Fit"
10-11-12 Andressen Bldg.
Oregon City, Ore.

EDITOR OF TELEGRAM IS NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

O. C. Litter Made Defendant In Action Brought by Wife; General Charges are Cited.

O. C. Litter, managing editor of the Portland Telegram, is being sued for divorce by his wife, H. Heulah Litter, in an action filed in the circuit court here Friday. General charges of cruel and inhuman treatment, and personal indignities, are made in the complaint. No specific charges are listed other than that the plaintiff states that her husband during the past six months has habitually avoided her.

Custody of their one child, 13 years of age, is asked by the plaintiff. The complaint states that the matter of the custody of the child has been agreed to by the defendant.

Permanent alimony of $100 monthly for herself and the child, is asked by Mrs. Litter.

The letters were married on March 13, 1905.

Illness Is Fatal to Dolly F. Loughary

Mrs. Dolly F. Loughary, wife of W. D. Loughary, died at the family residence on Tenth and Jefferson streets Saturday morning, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Loughary had recently returned from Rockaway, Oregon, where she had gone for the benefit of her health, and her death came as a shock to her many friends in Oregon City.

Deceased was born in Jackson, Calif., February 28, 1873, and came to Oregon with her parents in 1881. She was married on June 1, 1889. She was an active worker of the Methodist church, and also member of Rebekah Lodge and Women of Woodcraft. During the world war Mrs. Loughary was one of the most active workers in the Red Cross of this city.

Mrs. Loughary is survived by her husband, of this city; a daughter, Mrs. Lela Deffer, of Los Angeles, Calif.; her brothers, W. M. Benjamin, of Sacramento, Calif.; O. H. Benjamin, of Gervais, Oregon. Her parents died some time ago.

Mrs. Loughary was loved by all who knew her and had a host of friends here.

The brief funeral service was held in the chapel of the Portland crematorium this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. A. H. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. During the service "Nearer My God To Thee" was sung by a soloist, also "No Night There." The remains were laid to rest in a mausoleum at the crematorium. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Council To Act On Ordinance Seeking To Curb Jay Walker

An ordinance to prohibit jay walking in Oregon City, and to make the pedestrian portion of the populace "cut 'em square" at the intersections, is being framed for presentation to the council at its next session, or some special session during the month of October. The framing of the ordinance is in compliance with the request of the council at its special meeting last week when the matter was considered and sufficient sentiment declared in favor of such action to put it to formal consideration.

Whether Main street alone or other improved streets are to be included, is not yet definitely decided.

Three Portlanders Arrested by Titus Are Fined $10 Each

Three Portland men were convicted in municipal court here Saturday on charges of drunkenness and possession of liquor. The men, W. A. Tindala, E. W. Abramson, Standford Adams and Charles Dear were arrested by Officer Titus Friday night at Fifth and Main streets. They were in a light truck owned by Dear and had a gallon jug of blackberry moonshine in their possession.

Marriage Licenses Granted 3 Couples

A marriage license was granted yesterday to Frank Gribbler, 23 Portland and Katherine Hurlas, 22 Canby. Licenses were also granted to LeRoy Forsythe, 22 Oregon City, and Lucile G. Case, 17 Parkplace; Hugh Cutting, 27, Molalla, and Esther B. Orein, 20, Mulino.

Grace Baxter Named As Administratrix

Grace D. Baxter was yesterday appointed administratrix of the estate of William Wilcox, who died in estate November 22, 1911. The estate is valued at $250.

License Is Granted To Clackamas Couple

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Alfred Hauglum, 27, of Berling and Iva Wing, 31, Cherryville.

Divorce Is Granted By Judge Campbell

A decree of divorce was granted by Judge J. U. Campbell Monday in the case of A. O. against William C. O'Brien. The two children's custody was granted to the plaintiff.

IN SOCIETY

The annual reunion of the Dallas family was held at Gladstone park, Sunday, September 17, with a large attendance. After a bountiful dinner at the noon hour, the children of the different families gave an entertaining program. Mrs. S. S. Dallas gave several readings. Mrs. Charles Hatton was re-elected president of the reunion organization for the coming year. Those attending the affair were George Dallas, Miss Mary Dallas, Mrs. Effie Sunderland, William Jacobs, from Portland; J. R. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hatton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hatton and children, of Carver; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dummire and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dallas and children, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dallas and daughter, of Boring; Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Swan and son, of Oak Grove; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dallas, of Portland; and Mrs. Owen Hatton's guest, her father, Mr. Lee.

Miss Gerda Weseberg, of Maple Lane, and Oscar J. Pearson, of Portland, were married at a quiet ceremony at the Lutheran parsonage, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock with Rev. W. R. Krueger, pastor of the church, officiating. Miss Weseberg is the daughter of William Wesebergs, of Maple Lane. Mr. Pearson's parents live in the east, and he is in business in Portland, where the couple will make their home.

Springing a surprise on their friends in this city and Portland, Ora Lee Dunn, of Portland, and Charles Winkler, of West Linn, slipped over to Vancouver, Wash., last Saturday, and were married at the parsonage of Rev. Luther B. Deck. Mr. Winkler is a bookkeeper for the Bank of Oregon City, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Winkler, of West Linn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dunn, of Portland. Mrs. Dunn attended the ceremony at Vancouver, but the young couple kept their plans a secret from their other friends. They will reside at West Linn.

Mrs. Carrie Arnold was the honor guest at an afternoon party given by her daughter, Mrs. Victor Gault at her home at West Linn Friday afternoon. The event was in honor of Mrs. Arnold's birthday anniversary, and the guests were former classmates of Mrs. Arnold. Mrs. Arnold has been living in Portland until recently, but she will make her home with her daughter this winter. The guests who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. George A. Harding, Mrs. Henry W. Cooke, Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Miss Kate Barclay, Mrs. Charles Burns, Mrs. M. E. Church, and Mrs. David Catfield, of this city, and Mrs. Arnold's sister, Mrs. Mary D'Arcy, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayward entertained at their home in West Gladstone Monday evening in honor of their son, Delbert, who celebrated his sixteenth birthday anniversary on that date. The Hayward home was decorated with asters and autumn leaves. Mrs. Hayward was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her daughter, Miss Matilda. The evening was devoted to games and music.

Those present were: Misses Veatrice and Vivian Rauch, Mary Louise Merrick, Dorothy Shearer, Lola Vedder, Mary Meeds and Matilda Hayward and Alfred Rodan, Roy Willis, Dean Vedder, Fred Meeks, Delbert and Johnnie Hayward.

The high school girls of Gladstone met at the home of Misses Mildred and Dorothy Kyler Monday evening and organized the "Monday Evening Sewing Club."

Miss Mildred Kyler was chosen president and Miss Leona Fox secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George E. Williams, Monday evening.

The boys of the Gladstone Christian church met at the church Friday evening and organized an Athletic club which will be known as "The Victory Boys' Athletic Club." Rev. George E. Williams will be their leader.

The boys will be coached in all athletic sports and a social hour spent in games afterward.

The officers chosen were: Robert Ellis, president; Wayne Vedder, vice-president; Melvin Carrothers, secretary and Floyd Carrothers, treasurer. The charter members are: Rev. Williams, Burlin Niles, Elmo F. Eby, Floyd and Melvin Carrothers, Robert Ellis, Wayne Vedder, Theodore Langley, Lacy and Raymond Wallace.

Portland Teacher Found With Girl Held On $5000 Bail

A statutory charge carrying a bail of $5000, was placed against Grant Gleason, 44, director of the Gleason Music school, Journal building, by the police late Friday night after he was arrested at No. 574 Front street, where he was found in company with a 10-year-old girl.

The name of the girl was withheld at the request of the police department. Her mother is a waitress in a downtown restaurant and works on a night shift. Her daughter is therefore left alone at night.

King of the woman's protective division of police and Patrolmen Smith and Green of the morals squad took up a vigilance near the apartment Friday night and, after seeing Gleason enter, they battered down the door and went in. The police state that both Gleason and the girl were partly disrobed when they entered.

Judge Stops Court To Marry Couple

Judge J. U. Campbell took a short recess in the middle of the naturalization hearing in the circuit court Monday afternoon to marry William E. Farlien, 19, Willamette, and Nettie Andrus, 17, of West Linn.

TO YEAR OLD BOY RIDES BRAKE BEAM 125 MILES

Samuel Brakel Goes on Visit While Officers Search in Willamette Near Eugene.

Samuel, age 10, went visiting in Eugene, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brakel reside, they dragged the Willamette for the boys body. The police conducted a general search, but no Sam.

Yesterday, toy pistol and all, the lad turned up in Oregon City at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stone. Mrs. Stone is Samuel's aunt and the boy had come here to pay her a call. Sunday afternoon the little chap left his home, going toward the river. He jumped a freight train and road the brake beams as far as Portland, 125 miles. Monday he walked to Oregon City, and tried to locate Mrs. Stone. He got to within a block of the house but didn't find it.

Monday night, Sam slept in a box car.

Tuesday he found his relatives, and Tuesday evening Mr. Brakel arrived here to take the lad back to Eugene.

During the two days Sam had three apples and a few prunes to eat. He got them from a farmer.

The lad evidently had no notion of running away. Ordinarily rather taciturn, his action cannot be accounted for. He had no dislike for his home, and was possessed of none of the usual motives which prompt run aways. He and Dad are going home today.

DRIVING WHILE DRUNK BRINGS FINE, JAIL TERM

After less than a half hour's deliberation, jury in the justice court here Tuesday found Joe Hagseth guilty of driving a car while in a condition rendering him unable to operate the machine properly. Hagseth was arrested on complaint of Charles Lyon and Ed Hayworth Monday, following an accident in which Hagseth and Lyon's cars were involved Sunday near Gladstone.

Hagseth was fined $100 by Judge E. J. Noble, and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. Evidence introduced during the trial was to the effect that Hagseth had been intoxicated at the time of the accident.

Women's Gym Class May Be Organized

Plans are being made for the formation of a women's gymnasium class in Oregon City, this to be for both married and single women, and those interested in the organization of such a class are invited to be at the high school building this evening. R. W. Kirk, city superintendent, has offered the high school auditorium for this evening's meeting. If such a class is organized, it is probable that arrangements will be made for holding the classes in the gymnasium of the Oregon City high school and also for securing of an instructor.

Japanese Woman Sues For Divorce

Two suits for divorce were filed in the circuit court yesterday. They were Hira against Zenjiro Sunoda, married in Seattle May 10, 1919 and Harry against Edith S. Wylie, married in Walla Walla October 30, 1912.

Bill Providing U. S. Coal Price Control Signed By Harding

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Harding signed the Borah-Winslow bill providing for a federal investigation of the coal industry and the Commins-Winslow bill providing for control of coal prices during the winter by the extension of the embargo and priority power to the interstate commerce commission.

Both of these measures were urged by the president in his recent message to congress on the acute industrial situation growing out of the coal and rail strikes.

U. S. Expects to Be Unofficial Viewer In Near East Meet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The United States, while keeping strictly aloof from the political squabbles and intrigues that have brought Europe to the verge of another war, probably will be represented at the Near East conference soon to be held in Rome or Venice, it was stated today in official quarters.

The American representation, however, would be confined solely to "an unofficial observer who would take no direct power in the conference. Such observation would be maintained in the name of the information and guidance of this government and would be conducted along the line followed by the American observers at the Genoa conference last March.

Twenty Two Women Taken In Portland Clean Up Campaign

PORTLAND, Sept. 26.—Twenty-two women were arrested of the morals squad over the week end. This is just a part of a quiet police campaign to clean up the city. The trials of these women will probably be going on for two weeks. There are already four cases of men being charged with being macaqueaux on the municipal court docket awaiting jury trial.

GLADSTONE LOCALS

Mrs. Addie Nelson of Portland visited with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Strickland, of this place, during the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost returned to their home in West Gladstone. They had gone to Yamhill to work in the fruit but were compelled to return to their home on account of Mrs. Frost's health.

George Fromong is recovering from a severe attack of small pox.

Mrs. La Shay, formerly of this place but now of Salem, recently fell from the front porch and fractured three ribs and cut her face severely.

Mrs. LaShay is the mother of Mrs. Fromong of West Gladstone.

Mrs. F. D. Ellis and son, Robert, have returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Centralia, Wash. While in Centralia they attended the Southwest Washington fair. They were accompanied to their home by Mrs. Ellis' father, G. L. Ashton, who will visit here during the winter.

The Gladstone grammar school held "Clean-up" day Friday afternoon. Everything on the grounds was picked up and burned (except the baseball bases). Saturday evening a motion picture was given under the personal supervision of Professor Lehndt. A seven reel "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" was enjoyed and two reels the African Explorer pictures. "The Lion Killers" were shown.

A new volley court has been completed and new sports goods will be purchased in the near future.

The base ball game played between Parkplace and Gladstone, Wednesday, proved a one sided affair resulting in a score of 21 to 4 in favor of Gladstone. Lacy Wallace and Robert Ellis pitched for Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Riley of West Gladstone and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baxter of Oregon City are spending the week with friends in Salem and Monday they are making the trip by automobile.

Rev. E. F. Swander of Portland will preach at the Christian church Wednesday evening. At this time Mr. Percell of Parkplace will be ordained.

Mrs. Ross has taken possession of her home recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hassler, who have moved to Oak Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eiter and daughter, Miss Vivian, and son, Glenn of Salem are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rowan over Sunday.

Vernon Chandler of Portland was in Gladstone visiting friends Friday. Vernon resigned his position with the Oregon City Manufacturing Company to attend high school this winter.

The young people of the Gladstone Baptist church held a "weener roast" on the banks of the Clackamas river Saturday evening. Judge H. E. Groves led. The evening was spent in games and music.

Misses Fanny and Kate Porter of Oregon City were guests of Mrs. L. H. Strickland and Mrs. Harry Wheeler, the first of the week. Mrs. Wheeler, who was run down by an automobile a month ago is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Wheeler is getting along as well as can be expected considering the seriousness of her injuries.

The "Loyal Sun-shine" class of the Christian Church Bible school are meeting each Thursday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Geo. E. Williams, to make articles for the Thanksgiving and Christmas boxes to be sent to the old peoples home in Walla Walla and the Childrens home in St. Louis. The girls of this class are doing some remarkable work for girls of twelve years.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. E. Williams have as their house guest this week Mrs. Lloyd Robinson and children, Kenneth and Janice, of Bend.

The sewing club which is being organized by Mrs. George E. Williams met with Misses Mildred and Dorothy Kyler Monday evening in an informal meeting. Plans were made for a meeting to be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George E. Williams next Monday when a name for the club will be selected and regular work scheduled made. The club is for all high school girls.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Nelson Sunday for Miss Alma Gabona and Irwin Pynn of Portland. Rev. George E. Williams read the impressive marriage ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The young couple left immediately for their ceremony for a short honeymoon after which they will be at home to their many friends, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green have moved into their new home which was recently completed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Leete, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw and Miss Nesper Leete motored to Camas, Wash., Sunday where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and were escorted through the paper mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wellman of Damascus and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ketels spent Thursday at the fair in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Edwards of Beaverton were in Gladstone Wednesday, looking after property interests.

Ernest Freytag is attending the Oregon City high school this year.

Mrs. Florence Brendel has purchased the Brown property on East Beatrice street and will take possession the first of October.

Ernest Niles is making his home with his aunt, Mrs. J. E. Hammack in Portland, while attending the Behnke-Walker Business college.

S. M. Eby of Vancouver, Wash. and his son, E. W. Eby, are spending the week end with the former's granddaughter, Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, of Gresham.

Clarence McMannus of Camas is

Catarrhal Conditions

Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. It therefore requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the system. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE gives the patient strength by improving the general health and assists Nature in doing its work.

All Druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Every Up-To-Date, Progressive Bank Realizes That Its Own Wellbeing and Growth Hinges on the Extent of Its Usefulness of the Business Life of the Community.

It INVITES Business. Just as every merchant is eager for as large a volume of trade as his establishment can properly handle, so we are eager for the banking business or reputable merchants, manufacturers and individuals, to the limit of our ability to care for it—and WE INVITE IT. Our officers welcome conferences on any business or banking question.

BANK OF OREGON CITY

OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY
Organized Forty One Years Ago.

the week end guest of his mother, Mrs. Sarah McMannus. Mrs. McMannus and son, James, will leave for Taft, California, about October 1st.

Rev. and Mrs. George Williams and Mrs. Thomas E. Gault spent Friday with friends in Portland.

The boys of the Christian church met at the church Friday evening to organize a club. Rev. George E. Williams will be their leader.

S. M. Eby, who has been the house guest of his son, E. W. Eby and family of this place, has received an announcement of the birthday of his thirty-first great grand child. The little one is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wells of Portland. Mrs. Wells was formerly Miss Dorothy Taylor. The little girl has been named by her great grand father, "Madaline Malissa."

Mrs. Samuel Clay returned to her home in West Gladstone Thursday from the hospital in Portland. Mrs. Howard Leete is in attendance. Mrs. B. F. Clay of Cornelius is staying with her son and daughter-in-law for a time while Mrs. Clay Jr. is in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rivers and sons, Alden and Arrel and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Allen of Redlands, motored to Pacific City Saturday and spent the week end enjoying fishing. They returned Monday bringing some fine salmon.

Mrs. J. F. Ketels of Holcomb is caring for her sister, Mrs. Fred A. Miller and baby daughter, who arrived Tuesday.

Miss Erma Roache is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Miller and attending the West Linn high school, this being her third year there. Miss Roache spends the weeks ends with her mother, Mrs. J. F. Ketels of Holcomb.

Misses Veatrice and Vivian Rauch were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckover in their new home in Parkplace Thursday.

Glenn Shockley of Silverton is staying with his aunt, Mrs. Carl Simmons and attending high school in Oregon City.

Maxine Simmons spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Riley while her mother and father made a business trip to Silverton, while there they were the guests of the latter's brothers, T. R. and G. O. Shockley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freytag and daughter Miss Alice and son Ernest of this place motored to Corvallis where they spent the day with friends. Mrs. Moir and son Walter, left for their home in Arizona the first of the week. Mrs. Moir has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Parker during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheeler are rejoicing over the arrival of a seven and half pound son, arrived Saturday. The little one has been given the name of "LeRoy Collister." Dr. Mounr and Mrs. Sol. Wheeler, grandmother of the boy, are in attendance. Mrs. Wheeler was formerly Miss Opal Hall of Oregon City.

Maniac Slayer Is Thought Captured By Freight Crew

EPHRATA, Wash., Sept. 21.—The alleged "beast man," arrested at Irby, Wash. this morning through the officers of a Great Northern freight train crew, was lodged in the Lincoln county jail at Davenport.

Mob violence in Grant county, with almost open threats against the man if he should prove to be the fiend who attacked the Bonjorni family near Wilson Creek, was given as the reason.

The man refuses to talk, or even to give his name. He has a crippled foot, walks with a limp, and, according to the authorities who have the man in charge, answers the description of the murderer of little August Bonjorni.

The suspect was attempting to beat his way when the train crew discovered him, and finding he answered the description of the Wilson Creek maniac, held him for the authorities.

Joe Bonjorni, father of the dead boy, is reported to be recovering from a bullet wound in the right temple; Alfred, another son, was shot through the arm, and Mrs. Bonjorni is still suffering from shock as the result of her narrow escape from a bullet fired by the maniac.

Attempts are being made to identify the captive as the man who assaulted the O'Hara family near Olympia last week.

Six Aviators Are Killed As Plane Burns and Falls

MINEOLA, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Six occupants of a Martin bombing plane were killed tonight at Mitchell field, when the machine fell in a nose dive following war maneuvers for the instruction of reserve and regular army officers.

The plane, piloted by First Lieutenant Raymond E. Davis, United States army, burst into flames on striking the ground. It was a twin motor bomber, the heaviest machine at the field, and had participated in an aerial attack on the theoretical fortifications.

After the war maneuvers and the judges had decided the raiders had won, the airmen engaging in a "flying circus" illuminated by huge searchlights and cheered by thousands of persons who had gathered from all parts of Long Island and New York city to watch the military spectacle.

SENATOR WATSON DEAD: ACUTE ASTHMA CAUSE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—United States Senator Thomas E. Watson of Georgia died suddenly at his home here early today. Death was said to be due to an acute attack of asthma, from which Senator Watson had suffered recurrently for some years.

Although failing health had interrupted Senator Watson's attendance at senate sessions frequently in the last several months, he was in his seat Friday when the senate adjourned and his friends believed that he was improving. He was stricken suddenly after dinner last night and passed away shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. He was 66 years of age.

Abernethy Grange To Make Plans For Building New Hall

A meeting of the Abernethy grange will be held at the assembly hall in the Parkplace schoolhouse on Friday evening, September 28, when arrangements for the meetings in the future will be made. The hall owned by the grange was recently destroyed by fire, and on Friday evening a place for the future meetings will be discussed.

MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM AND CITY PROPERTY

Philip Hammond, Lawyer
Beaver Building
OREGON CITY, OREGON