NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Tellinig of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week-Your Subscripton Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Pete's Mountain

PETES MOUNTAIN. Sept. 27-Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belding accompanied by Mrs. Blanche Clark and children left Thursday to take in the Round Up at Pendleton.

Jake Kruegar and sister, Mrs. Mary Salzer, of Malloy, spent Saturday afternoon with their sister, Mrs. John Mrs. Maud Rypczynski spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Keith of Peach Cove.

Agnes Bernert spent Saturday evening at the home of her brother, Albert in Willamette.

Miss Leone Cole of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived at John Kaiser's Sunday where she will stay this winter while teaching school.

Many of our young folks attended the ball game between Stafford and Canby at Canby Sunday.

Leo Rypczynski and sister, Mrs Wm. Monner of Holcomb spent Sunday afternoon at the Antony Rypczynski's home.

PETES MOUNTAIN, Oct. 4-Mr. and Mrs. G. Notdurf and family were dinner guests at the home of Adolph Volpp of Willamette Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilker and daughter, Metan and Henry Saffran X Tualatin Meadows spent Sunday at the home of Emil Nodurft. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaiser and Mag-er Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hellburg spent Sunday evening at the Emil Nodurft home. E. Knickrehm had visitors from Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Criteser visited at the Bernert home Sunday. Some of the people from the neighborhood gathered at the new school house Saturday to have a final cleanup day. School started Monday with Miss Cole at teacher and an enrollment of twenty pupils.

Mrs. H. Ulahos and son, Marian. and Mrs. J. Hellberg called on Mrs. E. Wilson last Wednesday.

Beaver Creek

BEAVER CREEK, Oct. 2-Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes are entertaining the latter's brother and two nephews. who arrived last week from the East. They are well pleased with the Oregon climate and intend to spend the winter here.

Mrs. Fred Yoeman went to the Oregon City hospital last Saturday, suffering from blood poison. She is now rapidly improving. Central Grange will entertain the here Wednesday, Oct. 11. In the even- last week. ing, immediately after the degree invited.

The local grange held a special meeting here Saturday evening to Bill Jones of Beaver complete arrangements for entertaining Pomona. Also a name was proposed for membership. at public auction, Oct. 10. They will leave for Michigan shortly for caller on Mrs. E. L. Brown on Sunan extended visit with Mr. Orr's par- day.

to give music lessons to several new evening last week. pupils whom she meets at the home of Mrs. G. R. Gwillim of Carus. Mr. and Mrs. Thos, Davies left last | ported doing splendid.

Wednesday for California where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Wilson of Portland visited her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Havill, over the week end. John Schram returned home from the Oregon City hospital Sunday. Several of the local young people at- home last Sunday. tended the dance at Beacon Heights

Saturday evening. ported as doing nicely and are expected home this week, Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore of Clarkes spent Sunday here with their son-inlaw and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foglesong. In the afternoon they all went to a show in Oregon City.

Mrs. Glady Stanifer made a business trip to Salem Saturday. S. P. Londergan's mother, Mrs. Scanlin of Meldrum Station, is visiting at his home here.

Kelso

KELSO, Oct. 2-The Womans Club met at the home of Mrs. X. Decker to tie a comfort. last Thursday afternoon with the following members present, Mesdames Phipps, Kligel, Herz, Peterson, Rathke, Erickson, Obie Jess Hite, Tom Dunn, Gilbert Eri and Miss Vaeretti, and Mrs. Ned Nelson was a visitor. The club planned to give a program and basket social at the school house on the evening of October 21, the proing for the interior painting of the Thomas Dunn, who has been the man lem. on the farm since he finished grammar school three years ago, has now entered the Sandy high school to take up the commercial course.

James and Dock Hite have re-entered the Benson Polytechnic school for another year;

Holman & Pace

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Homelike-Efficient-Courteous

Telephone 86

7th and Water Sts., Oregon City shingled.

cial teacher, respectively of the Sandy high school, were recent dinner guests at the Robert Jonsrud home.

Barlow

parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kloster of time for the last show and Mr. Peters Barlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gardner and daughter, Thelma, who have been picking hops at Independence, Oregon, returned home Thursday. E. Boord was in Portland Thursday on business Stanley Pietka of Barlow had the misfortune of breaking his arm Monday while playing ball at school, but is improving rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Art Potter are the proud parents of a baby boy born to them Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parmenter spent few days of last week at Pacific City. Mrs. Hays has been quite ill with lumbago, but seems to be improving.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Oct. 3-A, N. Orke gie visited at the home of Frank Kais. and M. Dhulst spent Sunday afternoon at the farm home of Mr. Orke. Mrs. Will Douglass, Mrs. Ray Woodle and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were calling on Mrs. Rosa Baker last Friday after-Roy Douglass made a business trip to Portland one day last week.

Carl Rheustrom was the guest of his wife and children last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and children were calling at the homes of Ed Douglass and Mrs. Viola Douglass Sunday afternoon,

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson were guests at the home of Cleve Heiple Sunday afternoon Miss Ruby Hoffmeister was visiting with Mae and Edna Evans Sun-

Pay Douglass and family, Fred Hoffmeister and family; Ray Woodle and family; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass, Mr. and Mrs.Will Douglass and Mr. Murphey, were guests at the home of R. B. Gibson Monday evening and feasted on water melons.

Carus

CARUS, Oct. 3-Mrs. Peter Faurie, sister of Mrs. George Bliss was visiting at their home last week. John Griffiths and Fred Spangler Clackamas County Pomona grange made a trip/to Meadowbrook one day

Miss Mary Davis, sister of Mrs. G. work, there will be a literary pro- Guilliam, started Wednesday for Calgram to which the public is cordially ifornia, where she will spend the winter with friends.

George Stewart is now working for O'Leary were afternoon visitors at the benefit of the public library, it and formerly of Dodge were visitors

Ted Hughes Sunday. ning to sell their household furniture Fisher is visiting at the latter's home. attendance. Children will have the Mrs. J. R. Lewis was an afternoon

The O'Leary family were dinner Mrs. A. Thomas began last Saturday guests at W. Witherbies' home one Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Magness a baby daughter. Both are re-

Estacada

ESTACADA, Oct. 3-Mrs. Richards of Oregon City, sister of Mrs. W. W. Rhodes, was a guest at the Rhodes

Late Monday afternoon a tree fell on the cabin belonging to Ed Doug- uous by their absence. Roy Meyers Mrs. Gertrude Watts and baby, who lass, which is located at his sawmill of Eagle Creek, was the only one are in St. Vincent's hospital, are re- near Eagle Creek falls, and broke present from that place. Finally the down the building, wrecking a bed president appointed three men from room set and destroying over 200 the Currinsville, Eagle Creek and Barquarts of canned fruit. Fortunately ton districts, as committees to attend the family were not in the house, the November meeting of the Com-The same day Ed stepped on a nall munity club, to talk over the road and has a pretty sore foot thus prov- question. The president also appointing that singly."

W. J. Moore received by express last Saturday, a very fine pedigreed ens and J. E. Gates. The refreshment Irish Setter pup from Illinois. He committee are Mesdames C. S. Allen, has already established his rights Julius Kreager and J. R. Hughes, Afat the Moore home and they think ter adjournment Mr. Bartholomew inhim about the smartest dog in the vited those present to the Marchneighborhood.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church met at the church Tuesday

J. E. Gates has secured the Re- the program for the evening. New-Em outfit and will clean and press clothing in the L. O. O. F. building.

Miss Mabel Wilcox is suffering with a bad case of poison oak, which ning from a few days stay in Portnearly covers her face. Messrs. Gohring and Smith of the firm of the Estacada Meat Co., transceeds of which will go toward pay- acted business in Portland Tuesday. The Estacada public library has just received a box of books from Lloyd Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. the State Traveling Library of St. These books are free to all to Thre is a good selection.

Ed Miller, for 37 years a resident of the Viola neighborhood, leased his brary. He will be accompanied by a farm and left with Mrs. Miller Tuesday for an extended visit in Califor-

A plumbing shop has been opened by A. G Ames, in the Pesznecker building on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deming and chil- day. Mr. Drill is connected with the banks." dren of Portland, visited relatives in P. R. L. & P. Co. and was on a tour Estacada last Sunday.

from Portland, where she spent the week end. Misses Greta Brumage, Esther Ward, teachers in the grade school, spent the week end in Portland. The manager of the local picture show, V. G. Cleworth, had quite an experience last Saturday night, which might make a good screen picture could it be reproduced. He went to

Max Kligel is having his house re- | Portland to bring out Louis Peters, hingled.

Miss Margaret Miller and Miss Gernight, They left Portland in good trude Walling, principal and commer- time, but when near Barton the gas became exhausted. Forty minutes was consumed in procuring the gasoline and then when they reached Eagle Creek the batteries gave out. They procured another machine at the garage there and proceeded with only a few minutes to make the trip BARLOW, Oct. 2-Mr. and Mrs. Ad- on time, when their lights went out. riad Newstrom of Carrie, Oregon, are They sure were "up against it" then, spending this week with the latter's but finally arrived in Estacada in > sang A partition has been removed and more room made in the Sanitary barber shop, which is located in the Reed building on Broadway.

> O. E. Smith has returned from Ba ker, Oregon, for a few days visit with his family. Miss Minerva Richey went to Portland Friday and spent the week end > with Mrs. C. J. Pimm. Avin Tracy, a freshman in the Estacada high school, was injured the first of last week while playing football. His shoulder was fractured and he will be laid up for some time. W. F. Cary was a business visitor

> Mrs. Will Clossner visited Portland last Friday and "took in" a few picture shows. Mrs. A. T. Elott and little daughter, were week end visitors with relatives in Portland, Mr. Elott joined her Sunday morning. The Peoples' Store building is being enlarged at the rear, with a 60x24 feet addition for warehouse purposes. Miss Ethel Douglass, of Portland, was home last Friday. She is employed at the Purity Eats restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell of Sandyridge were in Estacada last Sunday visiting at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Viola Douglass. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens motored over near Mt. Angel, last Sunday, where Mr. Stephens had to appraise some property. Mrs. Bert Twining came over from Portland last Wednesday and was a guest at the A. E. Sparks home until Mrs. N. B. Ecker returned home with her daughter, Mrs. M. H. Boyle, the plate. Saturday evening and visited in Portland until Sunday night. Raymond Lovelace has entered the dental college in Portland. Miss Helen Wooster came over until Sunday evening, a guest of Estacada friends. Herman Wallace, manager of the Estacada Telephone and Telegraph Co., is attending Reed College in Portland. Mrs. G. H. Lichthorn was moved from the Lovelace hospital at this place to St. Vincent's in Portland, Tuesday. Her condition is still very serious and an operation will probably be necessary. The entertainment entitled "Father ly good attendance. Goose" will be held at the high school auditorium next Tuesday night, to Portland last Friday. Miss Erma Caseday and Maude Oct. 10. As this entertainment is for is sincerely hoped by the committee at E. Lacey's home Sunday. Mrs. Brown, sister of Mrs. E. O. in charge, that there will be a large principal part and quite a number will music and songs, dancing, pantomine and tableau. Mrs. Lee Bronson and son, Beverly, were week end visitors at the Charlie Bronson home. Last Friday evening the first meeting of the Community club was held, after the summer vacation. The place of meeting was in the rear room of the I. O. O .F. hall. Fred Battholo mew, the new president, called the meeting to order and then opened the discussion on the roads proposition. A number who were expected to be present from the different localities around Estacada, were conspic-

in Portland Friday.

"misfortunes never come ed a program and refreshment committee. The program committee was. Mesdames W. J. Moore, H. C. Stephbank confectionery where he treated them to ice cream and cookies. few selections of music and a reading by Miss Ruth Dillon comprised managing a laundry for the past few months. Dr. Emil Enna, pianist, of Portland, problems.

Frank Harkenrider and daughter, Edith, visited relatives in Portland last Sunday.

has been secured by the Library Association to give a lecture recital in Estacada, on the evening of October terest his audience.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Drill, of Portland, of the company's new line up the Mrs. Perry Dawe returned Monday Clackamas, inspecting the new work. tion at the Gem theatre last Satur- out. Garbe, Clara Nelson and Dorothy day night. They both were from Portland. W. E. Clossner and family are planning on leaving Estacada in a short

Mrs. J. Moss was a passenger for Portland last Sunday. Mrs. C. F. Howe and Miss Leila

INITIAL GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES Mathilda Erickson Passes on Satur

New York Nationals Overcome Heavy Lead in 8th Inning; Hard Smashing Attack For

WINNING CIRCUIT MADE OFF OF HOYT

Joe Bush Is Pounded Out Of Art Nehf Fights Battle For a 3-2 Score.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 .- The unconquerable spirit to keep on trying when success doesn't come at first carried the New York Nationals to a smash ing victory this afternoon in the first clash with the New York Americans for the 1922 title of world base ball champions. The score was 3 to

To overcome a 2-to-0 lead that the crushed Joe Bush, the Yank speed- Geo. Williams. ball pitcher, and tied the score. Hoyt The winning machine climbed up the when Bush and Art Nehf, the Giants' duel, the Nationals couldn't score with two successive singles.

In the seventh inning they banged out three singles in a row and could not score. The Giants simply went back in the eighth inning and kept or pounding out singles until it was impossible for the stubborn Yank defense to prevent them from crossing Howe visited Portland on Saturday. The W. C. T. U. county convention was held at Clackamas, last Friday. from Portland Saturday, remaining Those who attended from this place were, Mesdames Hassell, Ed Linn, J. P Woodle, Gerald Wilcox and E. E.

Hannah. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Moore visited her parents in Portland last Monday.

Dodge

DODGE, Oct. 2-The Sunday school commenced last Sunday with a fair-

M. Pedersen made a business trip Tom Watson and family

School commenced on Monday with Miss Ten Eyck taking the upper grades and Miss Funk teaching the be required. There will be orchestra first to the fourth grades. We are proud of the accomplishments of last term and are hopeful of as good success this term also.

J. Reichle has sold his place and expects to leave this week. Ralph Enquist is attending the Estacada high school. Hhe was one of the successful eighth grade pupils at

Dodge last term. HARDING PLEAS FOR U.S. AID IN EUROPE FINANCE

Harding today urged the financial in- ful relic brought by Mrs. Deter to NEW YORK, Oct. 4.-President terests of America to aid in the fin- the affair. It contained a number of ancial and economic reconstruction of the world. In a message to the American Bankers' association convention, the chief executive declared the increasing appeals of the world for American cosulting frm the war "cannot be de- ily Bible of 1844 with a record of Those appeals, Mr. Harding said, 'call for an application of the same spirit of wide and willing cooperation which is the very basis of the development of our banks."

"Today our country, the world, all human kind, are demanding that cooperation be extended to wider remains." he added.

After referring to the part that the bankers played during the war, the Neal Bronson returned Sunday eve- president's message said: "I wish to appeal to your great organization in behalf of my conviction G. E. Lawrence returned Sunday that another, a more inclusive and from North Bend where he has been perhaps a more difficult opportunity of service is presented to you. ways cooperated splendidly in national

"The banking community has "Today our country, the world, all numan kind, are demanding that this 25, proceeds for the benefit of the li- cooperation be extended to wider realms; to those social, moral, ethical reader. He gave a concert at this problems which are crying for underplace two years ago. He is master standing attention. They cannot be deof the piano and never fails to in- nied; they grow increasingly insistent. They call for an application of the same spirit of wise and willing coopwere in this vicinity last Wednes- eration which is the very basis of the

When a man makes up his mind to spend a quiet evening at home and Louis Peters, vocalist and Miss his wife makes up her face to go out Lavelle Long. pianist, were the attrac- it is easy enough to guess who wins

> WHOLESALE PRICES Mulino Flour Mills MULINO. OREGON

FLOURS AND FEED

JENNINGS LODGE

Passes on Saturday

JENNINGS LODGE, Oct. 3-Mrs. Mathilda Erickson passed away at her home on Saturday morning with rheumatism after being bed ridden most of the time for the past seven years. She was the widow of the late Victor One Base Hits Turns Tale. Erickson who preceded her in June.

The deceased is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Wm. Turner of Puyallup, Wash., and two sons, Oscar Erickson who was at home with his mother when the end came and Arthur Erickson of Skagway, Alaska.

Mrs. Erickson had lived in Clackamas county many years and had mothers. been a resident here for about 11 years. The funeral services were from here allup, came to attend the services.

Unique Relics Are Featured at Party

JENNINGS LODGE, Oct. 3-The Yanks had acquired, the Glants, turn- Old Relic Day party given by the ed back in all their previous assaults Grace Guild on Wednesday last, was upon the American leaguers' defense, one of the most interesting affairs crashed out four singles, one right given for some time at this place. after another, in the eighth inning, Mrs. Babler presided at a short busiand then crowned their furious attack ness meeting and the social part of with a sacrifice fly The four hits the afternoon was in charge of Mrs.

Forty-six women sat down to the succeeded Bush, and on his fourth de- old fashioned tables which were declivery gave the sacrifice fly which orated with marigolds and where scored the deciding run of the game. ginger bread, apple butter and tea were served, Mesdames Hendry, Hole, hill in low speed. Early in the game J. W. Jones and H. Roberts, serving. Mrs. Woodbeck, who has been a southpaw, were fighting a scoreless worker for 44 years in Ladies Aid work was chosen as the toast mistress, and proved equal for such an occasion. The charter members of the Guild all responded on the past > complished in the future. Mrs. Childs of Gladstone and Mrs. Tucker of Portland were out of town visitors, The silver offering was taken in a silver basket given to Mrs. De Forrest on her wedding day which occured 54 year ago. An old time song in which all joined preceded the refreshment Attired in a white shawl over 60 year old, and worn with a long skirt, Mrs. Edward Pearson displayed a black shawl of net, hand embroidered, made by her mother 63 years ago. which attracted much attention.

The largest individual collection was brought by Mrs. Woodbeck, a newspaper of 1842, a copy book of Mr. Woodbeck's grandmother over 100 years old, a grammar printed in 1782, her grandmother's wedding ring worn in 1830, and two silver teaspoons made from two silver dollars in 1830, a cover lid made from eotton, spun on an old plentation in Virginia, a compass used by her father in 1856 were among the interest ing relics shown by Mrs. Woodbeck. A relic of more than local interest was a fire helmet worn by the late Thos. J. Spooner, when he was one of the First Volunteer Hook and Ladder fire department of Oregon City about 54 years ago. The hat was manufactured in New York. Mr. Spoon er was born in 1836 and wore the helmet when he was 32 years of age. It was brought by Mrs. Langdon Spoon-

Mrs. Blinstone wore the pantalette costume which was in vogue 50 years ago. She had a hand made beaded portfolio made years ago by an aunt. Mrs. H. J. Hooker had brought a white satin vest which was worn by Mr. Hooker's father on his wedding day which occurred during the Civil A unque mahogany chest inlaid with pearl and brought from Japan over 70 years ago was a very beauticompartments. Mrs. Bess Bruechert had a big display of old time articles, among them were a fish knife and fork. which her great grand parents had when they kept tavern in Ohio in 1827. A rare vase of 1836 and a famticles. Mrs. J. W. Jones had a jewel box al most 200 years old and a letter written by her father to her mother during the first year of the Civil War. Mrs. P. D. Newell had a coverlet woven in 1850 of a rare and beautiful pattern. A pitcher, plate and carving knife over 50 years old were also shown by Mrs. Newell. Wearing an old time shawl of red and black. Mrs. J. W. Smith came to the party, bringing a tin type picture of her sister and self.

Mrs. Julia Ulabrand had a picture of her father taken over 70 years ago Mrs. Swart was charming in her own silk wedding dress with leg-omutton sleeves. She brought a large American flag which floated near the Boston harbor at the close of the Civil War, which had been given to her mother. Mrs. Sylvia Wilcox wore a handsome brocaded shawl and brought with her some of the family silver teaspoons of an old time yet beautiful pattern, which were over 100 years old Mrs. Susan Losey had a Bible 1842. And a hymn book of 1856. Mrs. R. L. Newcomb wore a pretty lace shawl which belonged to her ancestors and a sampler made by her grandmother is now placed in a serving tray, which will add to its preservance for years to come Bessie Maple brought a gold dollar which she is the 5th generation to possess. It contained the Lords prayer on one side and the family name on the other. Mrs. Maple wore a fichu which belonged to her great, great grandmother, born in 1806. Mrs. Dell Tucker brought her father's wedding coat which was

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent in 1860. And also her mother's white > wore her own wedding bonnet. Mrs. Geo. Williams was dressed in white with gay sashes and neck bows; dressed as she used to be when Geo, spent his Sunday evenings at her home. She wore a handsome shawl which she purchased with her first school money over 50 years ago. A table spread, hand woven from flax grown on the old home in Pennsylvania more than 100 years ago, was of much interest.

Mrs. H. R. Hendry had a $2.50 gold piece bearing the date of 1846, which was one of her wedding presents. Little Gail Newcomb wore a white cap which was her great, great, grand

Mrs. Hugh Roberts had a number of old coins, one bearing the date held on Tuesday at the late home of 1732 and a silver 3 cent piece and were in charge of the Holman & coined in 1835. In a leather album Pace, undertakers, at Oregon City. given to her grandmother in 1869 Many friends attended the services were displayed old fashioned photos some bearing the Civil War revenue The son-in-law, Wm. Turner, of Puy- stamp and some were taken previous to 1854. A coverlet woven in 1840 by Ashland Wm. McClellan was also

> Mrs. J. W. Dain wore a gold brooch, family hair under glass which was brought a loving cup which was given to her grandfather as well as some silver of her ancestors. A pretty and unique mat made by > the mother of Jerry Madden 63 years ago was the novelty brought by Mrs. Madden who wore a colonial dress to the affair. Mrs. Waterhouse brought ' her mother's first glass lamp, which was over 60 years old. The crocheted baby dress brought by Mrs. Wm. Moritz, the hand work of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith was of much interest. Attracting a great deal of admiration was the long baby clothes so handsomely embroidered and of such remarkable needle work was shown by Mrs. Truscott. They were made over 55 years ago for Mrs. Truscott's husband's christening robes and what they would like to see ac-An appliqued quilt "Gentlemen's fancy" pattern was an unusually pretty spread made by Mrs. Russell's mother many years ago. Mrs. Harry Williams brought an old time basket and a book.

A rare bracelet and a jewel box from Japan were shown by Mrs. Geo. Gardner. Mrs. MacHargue brought one of the irst tax receipts given in Oregon. A Bible printed in 1829 and two solid among the many articles shown by Attired in a white shawl over 60 years old and worn with an old time costumes, Mrs. Edw. Pearson was very becomingly dressed which carried out the spirit of the occasion. A very beautiful black net scarf, hand embroidered by her mother, 63 years ago with a square of the family linen was very much admired by those

Hoop skirts and poke bonnets with Many others too numerous to mention were displayed with interesting bits of information. Many requests are coming to have it repeated and have the display so arranged that more time can be given to review the old keep sakes. JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

Mrs. R. W. Havens and Mrs. Wm. Osborne of Elmira, New York, are enroute by auto to visit Mrs. J. Blair Miller. A telegram from Omaha stated they would arrive in Portland this

A. L. Hampton went to Pendleton on Friday to visit a son for a few

The delegates who attended the county convention of the W. C. T. U. at Clackamas report a goodly attendance and an excellent program. A dinner was prepared by the Clackamas union. Mrs. Arthur Smith of this place was elected as financial secretary.. Rev. Jones, F. J. Tooze and Rev. Ware spoke during the noon hour. Mrs. Schoenborn assisted with the music and Mrs. F. Fisher of Milwankie led the devotional, Mrs. Hugh Roberts of this place gave a paper on the evils which led to law enforcement. Sixty-six were present at the convention. Miss Wilma Bruechert has accept ed a position in the recorder's office att the Clackamas county court house. Mrs. Florence Moore has been named on the resolution committee of the county division of the State Teachers Asociation. A special meeting has been called by the president for Saturday. School closed on Friday to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the state fair at Salem. Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Snider motored to Cherry Grove for a few days last week and were the guest of Mrs. Snider's mother, Mrs. Patton. Virgil Sayre and sister, Miss Hattie Sayre and Miss Dorothy Finch of Wodburn were week end visitors, at the H. Roberts home.

Old friends here of E. O. Seeley were sorry to hear of his passing away at Independence, Oregon, Friday last. Both Mr. Seeley and his son, J. Earle Seeley, resided in the Meldrum district and their many friends are extending sympathy to the wife, daughters and son in their

The J. Blair Miller and J. W. Jones family have built additions to their homes during the nast month.

Mrs. S. H. Bechtel and their new baby daughter Ruth have returned from the Sellwood hospital. Those wishing to register may do so at the home of Mrs. Julia Ulabrand,

The books will be closed on Oct. 7. satin wedding waist. Mrs. Tucker Miss Nettie Kruse who has spent two years in New York has returned to Oregon City and paid a call of Mrs. Gus Wamblad. Miss Mildred Kruse will remain in the East until spring

Roland Truitt has returned from Oakland Oregon where he assisted in harvesting the prune crop on their ranch

Geo, Pooler and Mr. Schearer are business visitors at Hood River this week Mr. and Mrs. Vasek have returned from a month's stay at Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin of Sellwood were guests of the H. J. Hooker family on Tuesday.

Mrs. Kate Johnson of Chicago, Ill. is a house guest of Mrs. A. Nelson on the river Mr. and Mrs. Mellie Kern are leaving this week for Garibaldi. Ore.

Chas Kern and bride will take up their residence here and care for the father, E. A. Kern, who is an invalid. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stevens have returned from the Pendleton Round Rev. Henry Speiss has been grant-the center contained samples of the family hair under class which was residence at his home on the Oatover 100 years old. Mrs. Dain also field road. His two sons, Adolph and Henry Speiss have returned from Eugene and have left for Myrtle Point, and Stanfield, to take the superintendency of the schools of those places. H. M. Hayles, of Airlie, is a business caller at the Lodge this week. Hayles motored to California with Mrs. McCowan Rinearson and while at Oakland is the guest of Mrs. Irene McCowan Campbell, Will Thompson has been entertaining a brother, S. E. Thompson of Alabama, who has been attending the Episcopal convention in Portland. The Thompson brothers attended the Pendleton Round Up. Mrs. Wm Gardner entertained the Saturday night club of the Oregon City Congregational church on Monday evening at her home, About 25 were present. Assisting in serving the delicious refreshments were Mrs. Julia Haskell; Mrs. W. A. White and

Mrs. Earle. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith of Willamette spent Sunday with their son Henry D. Smith. The Junior Endeavor has taken up its fall work and are meeting at the church at 5 p. m. on Sunday afternoon. Mrs Snider is their leader. Mrs. Mary Tripp and son, Jr., and Mrs. Mee of Salem, are Portland shoppers this week and are paying a visit gold beads over 75 years old were to the former's mother, Mrs. Bess Bruechert in the evenings. On Tuesday Mrs. Bruechert asked in Mrs. A. F. Russell, Mrs. Al Peterson, Mrs. J. C. Maple and H. Roberts to meet > was served. Among those attending the state fair at Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Swart. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dain, Mr. and Mrs. H. Babler, Mrs. Bess Bruechert. Mrs. Henry Henrici entertained the Salem visitors and a dainty tea with a birthday dinner honoring her daughters, Mrs. Louis Barry's anniversary on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Starker and chfldren were additional guests. Mrs. E. B. Miller will spend this week at their ranch near Canby. The grapes at the Miller ranch are at their best this week and Mrs. Miller is assisting in picking. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden returned from a fishing trip to Sauvie Island and stopped at a neighbors to divide their good catch. Mr. Madden dropped his over coat, if the party who picked it up will return it to Mr. Madden he will be glad to receive it. Mr. and Mrs. William Hale and children of Astoria motored up to spend a few days with the Geo. Card family. Mr. Hale has disposed of his business interests in Astoria and will locate in Portland.

livering wood to residents here. Cecil Rosenberry is taking a course in lithograph at the Benson Polytechnic evening school. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Card attended a house warming at the home of Mr. Card's sister in St. Johns on Sunday

Louis Welch of Beaver Creek is de-

Miss Ruth Nelson entertained a

Cards announcing the birth of a few Portland friends on Sunday at her home in East Jennings Lodge.

daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Zellar of Portland, Mrs. Zellar will be remembered as Elsie Betz, second daughter of Joe Betts, who were former residents. Mrs. A. B. Smith and Mrs. Geo. Gardner will represent our Sunday school at the state convention in Portland on Oct. 10, 11 and 12. Mrs. Geo. Gardner entertained her former co-workers of the public schools with a luncheon on Thursday. honoring Mrs. Harry Jones, who has recently returned from England. Covers were laid for 12.

tained the Christian Endeavor society at their home on Saturday ave-Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Tye, Ore, visited the W. I. Blinstone family en route to the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Starker enter-

Wireless waves were proved to exist long before they were ever experimented with. In 1877 a man named Clark Maxwell worked them out theoretically, and predicted that before long they would be demonstrated

J. P. Finley & Son

Telephone Main 4322 Montgomery at Fifth Portland

> Our chapel and equipment are always available for out of town calls