Splendid Meeting

SANDY, Oct. 12-The Cottrell Parent Teacher meeting last Friday night was illustration of what united community interests can do. This was a regular meeting of the organization but was as entertaining and enjoy able as the verage pay program.

The program was in charge of W L. Crissey, who secured Gresham tal ent for the following numbers: piano solos, Miss Florence Honey; vocal railroad, which road is being builded Miss Alexander, euphonium numbers, Dr. Harry Ott. Mr. Tibbets of Orient gave a banjo selection and a reading, and the Cottrell orchestra played selection

Mrs. A. J. Alt presided during the short business session, at which time it was decided to order electric lights installed in the school building. There was a large attendance, free refreshments were served and everybody had a fine social time. Beautiful flowers were brought by W. L. Crissey for
