

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

CAUCUS COMMITTEE FOR 1923 NAMED BY CANBY

CANBY, Oct. 17.—At the political meeting held in the city hall on Monday evening to nominate a city ticket, there were 51 votes cast. There were several candidates nominated for mayor, but refused to run for the office, except Mayor William S. Mayor, who will again be a candidate for the office after serving a two-year term. Other candidates for the city council are: W. F. Weysandt, Earle Bolsby, C. H. Sheldon and Otto Krueger. There were four other candidates for councilmen. These were Ralph Swansby, M. J. Lee, Carl Lucka and Peter Hornig. The first four men received the majority of the votes in the first ballot.

At this meeting a committee to arrange for next year's political meeting to select candidates for the city offices were appointed. This is composed of Clarence L. Eld, Dr. H. A. Dedman and Judge Charles N. Wade. John Eld was nominated for the office of city treasurer, the office he is now holding. Eld was appointed to this office at the resignation of Lee Eckerson, Eld resigning as councilman at that time. M. J. Lee was then appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Eld. C. H. Sheldon was also appointed to fill a vacancy in the council about the same time when Ora Syster resigned.

W. H. LUCKE TO ATTEND NATIONAL CHURCH MEET

CANBY, Oct. 12.—W. H. Lucke, commission merchant of this city, left on Wednesday morning for Detroit, Michigan, where he has gone as an delegate to the uniting of the Evangelical Association and the United Evangelical church into one church—the Evangelical church.

Lucke was selected from a large number of candidates and he will represent the states of Oregon and Washington as their delegate to the big convention at Detroit. He expects to return about November 1st.

Pied Piper Is Put In Shade By K. O. Hills

CANBY, Oct. 14.—The Pied Piper of Hamelin had nothing on K. O. Hills of this city, when it comes to rounding up rats. Hills claims he is the champion rat catcher of Clackamas county. On Wednesday night he set his trap at his home, and was rewarded the following morning to find eight good-sized rats in the trap. The rodents were still alive when Hills covered by Hills, and found it necessary to drown them.

Hills claims that this is no rat story, as he had plenty of proof to verify it.

The rat trap is of cage design, and guaranteed to catch 'em.

Fire Escapes Added To School At Canby

CANBY, Oct. 13.—Fire escapes have been added to the Canby high school building. This has been accomplished during the three days' vacation while teachers were attending the three days' session of the teachers' institute held in Oregon City.

Benefit Is Held For New Grange Building

CANBY, Oct. 17.—The proceeds from the chicken supper served by the members of the Warner Grange at the grange hall in New Era last Tuesday evening amounted to $30.20. This will go into the treasury to be used in erecting a new grange hall in the near future. Another chicken dinner is planned for November.

WOMAN OPERATED ON.

CANBY, Oct. 16.—Mrs. H. C. Kanne, of Canby, Route 2, underwent a serious surgical operation in the Oregon City hospital this morning. From late is resting comfortably.

"500" CLUB MEETS

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—The first meeting of the Canby Five Hundred Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bair on Thursday evening of this week.

Plans are being made by the members to have a number of enjoyable parties during the coming season. The club, organized several years ago, has had many delightful affairs including card parties and picnics.

Reminiscences of Pioneers Recalled

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Nancy Anne Kesselring, wife of George Kesselring, of Canby, a prominent early Oregon pioneer, who celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary on May 18, 1922, has the distinction of riding horseback across the plains. Driving cattle owned by the parents, Daniel and Mahalia Riggs, the girl followed close behind the prairie schooner that contained the parents and the other seven children. One child of the Riggs family was born on the plains, but lived but a short time after arriving here.

Mrs. Kesselring well remembers the time when crossing the plains, and although just a girl in her teens she had no fear of the Indians that were causing the whites trouble. The party composed of the Riggs family and several other families had no trouble with Indians from the time they started across the plains until reaching their destination—Portland, Oregon—where the family camped in a grove, which is now a business center of that city.

Requiring six months to cross the plains from Missouri, the Riggs family welcomed Portland. Remaining at that place for some time the father decided to take up a donation land claim in Adams county. The family took up its claim near Canby, and is now known as Gribble Prairie, where the property is still owned by members of the family.

After arriving at that place and grown to womanhood Mrs. Kesselring married Andrew Gribble, a son of early Oregon pioneers, who had also taken up a donation land claim. After his death Mrs. Kesselring remained single until her children were grown, then married George Kesselring. For a number of years she and her husband have resided in Canby, but still own a farm in the Gribble Prairie section, a portion of the old homestead of the Riggs family.

Mrs. Kesselring was born in Mercer county, Missouri, in 1837, and when a young girl took up weaving, and when 15 years of age was considered an expert at the art. In her little home Canby will be found works of art in the weaving line. Rugs, with woven roses, carpets of stripes, well matched and patchwork quilts of unique design are all made by hands of this pioneer woman. Owing to her advanced age Mrs. Kesselring says she has retired from such work, but now delights in looking after her pure-blooded White Leghorns that are "making good" at the Kesselring home.

Among Mrs. Kesselring's children of Clackamas county, is A. D. Gribble, prominent Jersey breeder of Gribble Prairie.

Plans Are Made For I. O. O. F. Convention

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—Everything is in readiness for the fourth semi-annual Clackamas County I. O. O. F. District convention to be held at the Canby I. O. O. F. temple on Saturday, October 21. The chairman of the various committees is W. H. Bair, P. G. G. A. H. Knight, president of the convention, chairman of the program committee, has his part of the program arranged.

The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock. The afternoon session called to order at 7:30 o'clock. Arrangements are being made to entertain about 200 members of the order. Garrett's orchestra is to furnish the music for the event.

GRANDSON ARRIVES

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—K. O. Hills, prominent resident of Canby, has just received word that he has another grandson, born at the Butte, Montana, hospital to Rev. and Mrs. Archie Atkinson. The Atkinson home is in Idaho. Hills' daughter, Mrs. Clarence Nipper, is superintendent of the hospital, and the mother of the new babe, was connected with the hospital during the world war, when the sisters and a brother had charge of the institution. The other sister is Mrs. Dickerman. Rev. Atkinson is pastor of a Methodist church in Idaho.

MOVES TO CANBY

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—Mrs. J. C. Haynes, wife of the late Judge Haynes, of Oswego, after residing at that place for over 40 years, has come to Canby to make her home with her son, Clarence Haynes, who is connected with the White garage. Mrs. Haynes and son have taken the Deyoe home in this city. Mrs. Grant White is the daughter of Mrs. Haynes.

Mrs. Haynes for over 30 years resided in the home she has just left. Her husband held the office of justice of the peace at Oswego for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes came to Oregon from Ohio 43 years ago by way of Cape Horn.

PRUNES ON MARKET

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—Some of the 1922 dried fruit crop is now being brought into the Canby market. Among that brought to the local market on Tuesday by Mr. Abrahamson, two hundred pounds of this variety brought a retail price of six cents. These prunes are unusually large, and appear to be about the size of the ordinary prune. Several hundred pounds of blue prunes also arrived. All are of delicious flavor and are well prepared for the market.

"PIED PIPER" BUSY

CANBY, Or., Oct. 18.—K. O. Hills, the "Pied Piper" of Canby, recently catching eight good sized rats in one trap at one "catching", has caught four more, making a round dozen caught in three days. Hills says now that he is after the "old man," since he has caught the mother rat and her family.

The rats were caught in a woodshed near the Hills home, where the family cat was unable to clamber after.

CANBY LOCALS

CANBY, Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eccles, who have been in Oregon City visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter, returned to Canby the latter part of last week. Mr. Eccles, principal of the Canby grammar school, attended the teachers' institute held for three days at the Oregon City high school.

Mrs. W. H. Bair and Mrs. Grant White were in Portland last Thursday. They attended a card party given by the Daughters of the Nile, an auxiliary of the Shriners' order. Mrs. Bair and Mrs. White are members of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sias, of Portland, who resided in Canby before making their home in that city, have been guests of friends in Canby. Mr. Sias was a druggist in this city for a number of years.

Six new sewing machines have just been purchased and installed in the Canby high school building. These will be used in the textile department, with Miss Avey Dougherty as instructor of needlework.

Fall Violets Bloom In Garden at Canby

CANBY, Oct. 17.—Fragrant violets in the garden of Mrs. George Kesselring of this city, and new blooms appearing on the twining Dorothy Perkins rose bushes are attracting attention of those passing the Kesselring home. The violet plants have bloomed constantly during the hot summer months and from indications will still be blooming until the frost makes its appearance.

Administration Is Highly Praised By U. S. Vice-President

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 18.—The present administration stands in no need of apologies, Vice President Coolidge said here in an address before 250 Republican leaders of New Hampshire and Vermont.

"The administration has a record to be proud of," he added. "The United States is more free, more independent, stronger than ever before in its history."

Mr. Coolidge claimed for the administration that it had relieved those who suffered in the world war; put the railroads and agricultural interests on their feet through credits; settled the unemployment question; reduced expenditures, adopted a budget system, and reduced the army and navy. He mentioned also the revenue bill, the tariff, the merchant marine, recovery of foreign debts and the Mexican and Russian situations.

Official Overlap Must Be Curtailed, Is Hoover's Theory

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 18.—Reorganization of the government machinery so as to eliminate overlap and waste must be accomplished in the opinion of Secretary Hoover, if the administration is to carry through completely its economic policy.

"The administration has the firm purpose of securing such organization," Hoover declared here Tuesday night, in an address of "Eighteen Months of Business in Government."

"As a result of hammering for economy in every direction," he said, "the expenditures of the federal government have been reduced from $5,538,000,000 for the year ended June 30, 1921, to an expenditure not exceeding $3,770,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, for which appropriations have already been made and the budget settled. There has, therefore, been a reduction in expenditure by $1,768,000,000."

Armour Refuses To Make Statement On Wheat Speculation

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—J. Ogden Armour the packer, refusing the stand today in the federal trade commission hearing on trading in grain "futures," declined to furnish the commission information relative to his purchases and sales from July 15, 1920, to May 31, 1922.

Wheat dropped from $1.46 to $1.16 a bushel during the last 12 days of last May. Other witnesses had testified that the Armour Grain company and the Rosenbaum Grain company both of whom were "short" on the market, were the principal concerns to benefit by the sharp decline in the market.

Asked on what grounds he refused to give the information to the commission, Mr. Armour said: "I don't know that I can give you the definite objection—it is on the advice of counsel."

MAN IN JAIL FOR ALLEGED THREAT TO BLOW UP HOUSE

Wealthy Portland Italian Is Held By Police Following Black Hand Letters Sent To Resident of Milwaukie.

DELIVERY OF LIQUOR IS DEMANDED IN NOTE

J. A. Parenti is Detained on Suspicion, Charged With Heckling Caterinn Petorto.

J. A. Parenti, said to be a wealthy member of the Italian colony, was arrested in Portland yesterday on charges growing out of black hand threats to blow up the home of Caterinn Petorto in Milwaukie.

The warrant on which the arrest was made charges Parenti with extortion. He is alleged to have written a letter to Miss Petorto in which he said he would blow up her house unless she delivered fifty or sixty gallons of whisky and wine at the corner of Forty-seventh and Division streets. The letter, which had been pinned to the public market stall where Miss Petorto daily markets farm produce, was found October 7 by a friend of the woman.

He turned it over to Miss Petorto. The letter was in Italian. It demanded that the liquor be delivered not later than the night of October 9. The letter was turned over to District Attorney Myers, who began an investigation resulting in the arrest of Parenti by Deputy Sheriff Christofferson and Federal Agents Tom Word and P. E. Marriann. Parenti was taken into custody at 105 1/2 Third street, where he operates a store. He has been bound over to the grand jury under $500 bail.

Parenti is said to have stated that he wrote the letter as a joke.

Postal Examination In Oregon City Set For November 18

The United States civil service commission announces a postoffice clerk-carrier examination, to be held on November 18, for the purpose of establishing an eligible register from which selections may be made to fill the vacancies as they occur in the position of clerk or carrier, postoffice service. The salary is $1400 per annum.

All citizens of the United States who meet the requirements, both men and women, may enter this examination; appointing officers, however, have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Age limits, 18 to 45 years on the date of the examination. Age limits do not apply to persons entitled to preference on account of military or naval service.

For further information and application blanks may be received from Royal H. Trullinger, local secretary, board of civil service examiners, at Oregon City, or the secretary, Eleven U. S. civil service district, 303 Postoffice Building, Seattle, Washington.

Michael Moehnke Is Injured By Fall

Michael Moehnke, a resident of Oregon City, who is past 80 years of age, is suffering from internal injuries received Wednesday while engaged in erecting a home on his place about thirteen miles from Oregon City in the Clarks county.

Moehnke accidentally fell over a joist, striking on his back. The injured man was brought to this city by his son, Otto Lyman, a relative, and the family physician, Dr. C. Strickland, summoned. He found the man suffering from internal injuries as well as bruises about his body. The injured man found difficulty in breathing while being brought to Oregon City, and it was feared that the injuries were of a serious nature, but his condition is somewhat improved this evening.

This is the fourth house that Moehnke has erected on this place, three of which were destroyed by the fire. The last house, which was occupied by his son and the latter's wife, was destroyed during the big forest fire of 1904, when a number of other houses were burned in the same neighborhood. At that time the Moehnke family lost all household furniture and personal belongings.

Moehnke is now engaged in erecting a two-story house, containing seven rooms, and is doing the work without assistance, although past 80 years of age, and even now claims he is to finish the building as soon as he is able to be at work again.

Willamette Road From West Linn To Close For 30 Days

The road from the Oregon City West Linn Bridge, to Willamette, will be closed to traffic Monday, October 23, according to the announcement of West Linn officials. A concrete pavement is being laid on the road for a distance of one mile and because it is impossible to construct a servicable detour, all traffic will be expended. The Willamette Falls railway, operated by the Southern Pacific has made arrangements to handle freight in addition to the regular passenger travel.

The modern skirt has fewer hooks but more eyes on it.

Woman's Club Report.

Delegates to Tillamook Convention Tell of Federation's Work

The report of the delegates to the Federated Women's clubs convention at Tillamook, was made at the initial meeting of the Oregon City women's club Thursday by Mrs. Morris Hodden. Her report follows in its entirety:

Federation meetings, and similar conventions comprised solely of women are usually pictured as something of a compromise between a bargain day rush and a meeting of the Ladies' Aid. We had vague ideas that we were to be lobbied, harangued and steamrolled. We were prepared for anything from a fashion show to a session with the champion boiler riveter, and were accordingly delighted with the personnel of the delegation. On Mrs. Bloomer, Doctor Mary Walker and other pioneers of advanced thought were making their fight for the blessings we now so casually accept, the newspaper files of that day picture with horror an age when Amazons with short hair and bloomers might rule and ruin the world. In two short generations bloomers have made their way into the politest of society and short hair no longer carries with it the stigma of brains! There were no delegates at Tillamook whose appearance or apparel would cause even an old-time newspaper man to view them with alarm.

Some press reports rather gave the impression that debates were tinged with acerbity. As a matter of fact, the session throughout was most harmonious. While all naturally could not see everything from the same viewpoint, the delegates seemed without conscious effort to be following the admonition of St. Paul: "Be ye kindly affectionate in honor preferring one another."

We greatly admired the personality and ability of our president, Mrs. Callahan. If a debate threatened to become heated, her sense of humor could be depended upon to ease the situation. For example: an argument developed over the question of whether there were thousands or merely hundreds of women confined in the state insane asylums. Mrs. Callahan came to the rescue by remarking: "I understand there is also a long waiting list." Her good nature and kindness, as well as her just rulings, contributed largely to the harmony of the convention. The Federated clubs may well be proud of their state officers and committeewomen.

There are 123 clubs federated, with a membership of 10,000. These cover a most amazing field of thought and activity. There are study, library and music clubs, clubs of railroad women, graduate nurses and college women, coffee clubs and welfare clubs, New Thought, civic and rural clubs. Think of the possibilities! Associations, clubs, bureaus, auxiliaries and councils, their purposes ambitious and their achievements range over the whole wide world. Women show the same individuality in clubs that they do in their homes and dress. Some care principally for study and cultural lines; others are interested only in civic and community matters. Many of our most intelligent women are intensely interested in school affairs, tariff and bonus, but will horse-trade could not drag them into an early Ming art. Federation officers showed nice discrimination in selecting subjects of interest to all, as a glance at the program will disclose.

Americanization matters received considerable attention, and among other speakers, Norman F. Coleman rather touched bedrock when he said: "More and more America is demanding citizenship, and this calls for a living wage for all workers with some leisure for study and the maintenance of decent standards of living." Given these, it is at present problems that many of our present problems will solve themselves.

Turkey and India seem very remote to most of us. Gandhi is thought of only as "that Indian who is getting the natives to boycott all things English." Most of us either say in passing that it probably serves them jolly well, right, or that it is nothing in our lives. How many of us realize that with his tremendous self-reliance Gandhi has been promoting a union of the colored-races to wrest from the white man a share of the world and its fruits? He has done the seemingly impossible in overcoming the ancient antagonism between Hindus and Mohammedans, and these many millions are now a unit in a movement which may menace the white race and Christian religion. In discussing this Mr. Irvine contended that broader education is the only weapon with which these forces can be combated.

Aside from the benefit to those who attend the conventions, they are one means of serving notice on aspiring politicians that the 10,000 women members are watching them and the movements they sponsor. United, we can wield a tremendous influence along these lines.

The meeting showed that all over the state bodies of women like ourselves are working together, not merely for their own intellectual improvement but for the betterment of general conditions and to add their voice to the safety and sanity of our land.

The homeward-bound special train was stopped at Timber and about two hundred women disembarked for a few minutes. A man standing at the station remarked to another: "I'd hate to wash all the dirty dishes these women will find when they get home" which served to remind us that while we are interested in the welfare of the whole world, we are, after all, primarily home-makers.

IMPORTANT DEAL ON "I notice Mr. Graboon and Mr. Wadleigh in earnest conversation." "Well?" "The financial world trembles at their nod. They are probably talking in terms of millions." "They may be, but their very earnestness makes me suspect they are swapping bootleggers."

I. O. O. F. CORNER STONE TO BE LAID OCTOBER 22

Ceremony At New Hall Set; Judge Thomas F. Ryan Will Officiate; Work Progresses.

The corner stone of the new I. O. F. Temple now under construction on Seventh and Washington streets, will be laid with due ceremony on Sunday afternoon, October 22. The program will begin at 2:30 o'clock. Judge Thomas F. Ryan, past grand master of the order, will be pastor of the ceremonies. There will be prominent members of the I. O. O. F. Lodge from various parts of the state represented at the exercises.

When completed this building will be one of the most substantial and attractive I. O. O. F. Lodge temples in the state. Nothing has been left undone by the building committee, to make it complete in every detail.

The structure is of two stories, with full concrete basement. Two store-rooms face on Seventh street. A stairway leads from Seventh street to the main lodge room, while at the rear and opening from Washington street is a second stairway leading to the banquet room. The lodge room is 40x56 feet; banquet hall 25x40 feet; men's club room, 23x27 feet; women's club room, 23x27 feet. A kitchen adjoins the dining room, and where built-in fixtures will be installed.

The building is fire proof.

The dedication ceremonies will take place about Christmas time, and big plans are being made for the event.

The building committee is composed of John Scott, James Shannon, J. L. Waldron, E. W. Scott, John Lowery, Irving Rau.

The present I. O. O. F. temple was erected in the early '70s. The lodge was instituted on December 31, 1853, the first lodge building, having been destroyed by fire many years ago.

The new building is being erected at cost of $35,000.

The I. O. O. F. Lodge has increased in membership each year and now numbers over 220 active members.

Residence Is Planned.

L. A. Bernard, of Portland, who has the contract of renovating the Presbyterian church, which was badly damaged by fire several months ago, has purchased a lot on Twelfth and Center streets in Oregon City from Mrs. Eva Noble, of Portland. Bernard is having the ground filled with dirt from the excavation from the basement of the church, and this will be leveled to Twelfth street.

Bernard, who is erect two modern five-room bungalows, with full concrete basements, and a double garage between the two residences. The houses will be equipped with living and dining rooms, built-in kitchens, each to have two sleeping apartments.

The work of constructing these new homes will be started as soon as the Presbyterian church is finished.

The lot purchased by Bernard is 65x105 feet.

Trees that have long lined the sidewalk on the property have been removed by the workmen, and already the property has enhanced in value by the fill that has been put in during the past two days.

Bungalow Completed.

Catto & Rankin are completing a bungalow for the Dustin family. This is erected on an attractive lot on Jefferson street, between Seventh and Eighth streets, and when completed will be one of the most attractive and modern homes in the city.

A living room with fireplace, dining room with built-in cupboards, a Dutch kitchen having every convenience and breakfast room, two sleeping apartments and bath. linen closet are on the second floor. A stairway from the dining room leads to the attic.

Among the pleasing features of this home are the large windows, which allows plenty of light to each room.

$275,000 In Jewels Taken By Bandits In Chicago Hold-Up

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Police today are making systematic search for four bandits who late last night kidnaped and robbed Max Moser, a diamond salesman and broker of New York, of gems valued at between $275,000 and $300,000.

The robbery occurred downtown on Michigan Boulevard just as Moser had entered the automobile of a friend (Charles J. Morris, a representative of the New York Life Insurance company, to be driven to the railroad station to catch a train.

Guns were leveled at Moser and Morris. When they protested they were forced into the back of the car, driven away and robbed.

Moser told the police he met Morris at a dinner earlier in the evening. Moser said he represented the New York diamond firms of Jacob Schoen, 6 Maiden Lane; Louis Whitelaw, 68 Nassau street; and Samuel Lenkowsky & Son, 71 Nassau street. Gem robberies totalling more than $2,000,000 have been reported to the Chicago police in the last two years.

Editor: "I don't like this line in which you say, 'He bit the dust.' That's the old Dead-eye Dick stuff." Author: "But I assure you it's all right in connection with my story. The character referred to was a mere pedestrian."

CRYPTIC ATTACK ON U. S. IS SEEN BY KU KLUX KLAN

Exact Character of Danger is Not Described; Defense of American Institutions Is Claimed by Mystic Empire.

RESOLUTION OK'D BY OREGON CITY ORDER

Invisible Investigation Into Cause of Social Unrest Is Basis for Statements.

Sensing a cryptic and organized attack upon Americanism the local Ku Klux Klan, Willamette falls chapter number 6, has adopted a resolution condemning the nefarious practices which they do not delineate in detail. The resolution was approved at a konclave understood to have been held by the Klan several days ago.

Klan officials intimate that the resolution passed by the local order is similar to that requested by the national body from every group following a "quiet investigation of the real causes for the present social, industrial, and moral unrest," said to be existing in the nation at present.

The text of resolution as drafted by the local Klan is substantially as follows: Whereas it has been brought to our attention that there is concerted and organized effort now under way in this county to break down our existing order of Government, to bring about social and political chaos, and to displace the Christian ideals, standards and traditions handed down to us by our Forefathers, who were the founders of this Republic; and Whereas such revolutionary movements as Bolshevism, Socialism, Syndicalism, I. W. Wism, Liberalism, and Nationalization are contrary to the fundamentals of our Democratic form of Government; and Whereas all of these movements are gaining headway in this country and thereby jeopardizing the best interests of the American people; therefore:

Be it resolved that this Klan in regular Klanklave assembled hereby condemns all such revolutionary movements and pledges itself to take an active part in combating the sinister influences, propaganda and growth of all such movements; and

Be it further resolved that the Klan pledge its whole-hearted support to national headquarters of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and to all fellow Klansmen in riding our beloved Republic from the course of these elements of disorder.

W. C. HAWLEY TO SPEAK IN OREGON CITY OCT. 26

Hon. W. C. Hawley, republican candidate for congress, will speak in Oregon City October 26, according to the announcement of Ed. Johnson, head of the county central committee. It is the plan of the committee to have a number of the republican candidates speak here before the election. Musical programs have been arranged in addition to the talks. Hawley is to speak at the Star theater.
