Splendid Program Enjoyed at Grange

SANDY, Oct. 16.—The following program was given during the lecture hour at the session of the Damascus grange at the Boring L. O. O. F. hall Saturday at which about 20 members of the Sandy grange were present. Songs by grange, recitations by Irene Johnson, and Mary Jane Peterson. "Special" treat was the playing of G. E. Peterson on a "violin" which he constructed from a five gallon coal oil can. The numbers were encored. The lecturer was Mrs. H. M. Johnson.

State Master Spence was introduced by Master Chitwood, who gave an instructive talk on why and how the grange income tax bill was not allowed to appear on the ballot at next month's election. Mr. Spence said instead of the grange backing down it would work harder than ever to get this measure before the people. As soon as the legislature adjourns granges will begin circulating petitions for a graduated tax. Some grangers will support the flat tax bill, others will not, according to Spence.

Deep Creek Pioneer Is Called by Death

died suddenly from heart failure, Oct. 7 at the family home at Boring, had not been very well for three weeks, but was not considered seriously sick. He was born in Sweden in 1860, came to the U. S. in '79 and settled at Deep Creek in '82, residing there nearly 40 years. He was 62 years of age, was married to his first wife in '85 and she died in November '94. This union was blessed with 3 children, 2 of whom died in '93. Mr. Host's second marriage was to Miss Lena Sharp of Portland in May '79.

He was a leader in community and church affairs and one of the first settlers in Deep Creek to advocate good roads. He worked for the betterment of all, and will be sadly missed.

The funeral was held at Deep Creek and the burial was at the Sandbridge cemetery. Those taking part in the service were Gideon Sjolander, E. B. Jorkquist, Rev. Andrew Johnson and Rev. W. Bloomquist of Haley, Rev. M. Lindholm, David Niggren, evangelist of California, and J. H. Lilja.

Stirring Lecture Given Sunday Eve

SANDY, Oct. 16—"I would like to hear that man again," was the word passed around after the Sunday night lecture at the community church by the Rev. Wm. H. Reese of Portland, who talked right into the hearts and lives of a most attentive and good sized audience. He told how to turn "troubles into triumphs" in such a simple, easy manner, and touched the lives of everyone with an uplifting word.

Miss Rosemary De Biase sang a solo, the Sandy quartet gave an anthem and Mrs. Richard Mulholland of Portland thrilled the audience with her rich contralto voice in her rendition of "He Shall Feed His Flock," from the Messiah. Oct. 29, will be the date of the next community service program, and Mr. Henderson of the Portland community center will have charge of the evening.

Road Work Rushed In Sandy Section

SANDY, Oct. 16.—They are "shooting" rock on the highway from Peterson's corner toward Kelson at the rate of 100 yards per day, beginning last week, and will keep it up as long as the weather does not interfere.

Monday the rock left in the Sandy bunkers by Palmer was cleaned out and put on the west end of Main street. Rock is still being hauled by two trucks on Market road No. 2. Planning for the road between the Sandy river bridge and Cedar creek is to be hauled this week to repair this almost impassible stretch. The road has been patched from Firwood to Dover. From present appearances the road situation will be much better in this vicinity than last year, though improved connection between Sandy and Sandridge is not yet assured.

Benefit Is Planned By P. T. Association

SANDY, Oct. 16.—The Parent Teachers' association met at the city hall Wednesday night. Mrs. R. F. Dittter presided. It was decided to give a big entertainment on Saturday evening, Nov. 4, at the Odd Fellow's hall to raise funds to make a payment on the school piano. One member was added to the society.

New Floor Is Laid In Lookout Station

SANDY, Oct. 17.—A new floor has been put in recently in the lookout on top of Mt. Hood by C. A. Phelps and Myers, his assistant. The lumber was sawed in 4 foot lengths by the Sandy Lumber Co. mill and was carried on a pack horse as far as the turtle neck, and from there was packed up by hand. The old floor was worn out by corks in the shoes of visitors. Over 8000 visitors registered this season, and it is estimated 1000 persons climbed to the top. Phelps and Myers have also packed up the supply of coal oil for next season.

Individual Buyer Seeks Phone Stock

SANDY, Oct. 17.—Jack Scholtz of Gresham has been going over this section the past week buying up telephone shares wherever possible, and was paying $25 for $50 shares, according to report. Scholtz claims he is buying the stock for himself. A few have sold, but many refuse, naturally thinking if the stock is "sauce for the goose, it must be for the gander."

Work Is Rushed on Salmon River Trail

SANDY, Oct. 17.—The government still has a crew of 11 men at work on the Salmon river trail, according to A. G. Jackson, forest examiner. The foreman, P. K. Taylor hopes to build within a half mile of the big drift yet this fall. Four miles have been built through the dense heavy wood this summer. The channel of the river moved and took out a good deal of the big drift recently, which had been there for 40 years.

COMMUNITY S. S. OPENS

SANDY, Oct. 17.—A new floor has Sunday school opened again last Sunday morning and will be held regularly at 10 o'clock. A. M. Mrs. A. S. Gentry was elected superintendent. Mrs. A. C. Baumbach, assistant; Mrs. R. S. Smith, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Reed, organist and Bernice Duncan, librarian.

ALL HOUSES OCCUPIED

SANDY, Oct. 17.—Every residence in the town of Sandy is occupied now. The latest arrivals here are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clifford, who have moved into the Sykes house, and Mrs. Edna Goheen, who is moving into the Proctor house recently vacated by the Kesterson family.

MRS. PROCTOR ILL

SANDY, Oct. 15.—Mrs. W. A. Proctor, wife of Commissioner Proctor, was taken suddenly ill yesterday morning and was unable to speak for some time. She is much improved today and the alarming symptoms are under control, to the great relief of her family and friends.

MOVIES IN CHURCH

SANDY, Oct. 16.—"Movies" were held here at the community church two nights recently by Rev. F. M. Jasper, conference Sunday school superintendent of the M. E. church. A lecture was also given by Rev. Jasper during the projection of the pictures.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Oct. 16.—A. G. Jackson, forest examiner, was here recently and reported the Summit ranger station was closed last week for the season. J. A. Graham, ranger at Summit put out 26 fires, 20 of which started from lightning in the Clackamas lake district.

Wire is on hand at Summit station to build a telephone line to Devil's Peak next summer. Jackson and W. C. Kelley have been selecting the route for the new line. From Devil's peak it will follow Kienle creek to Welch's. The construction will be difficult as there will be much rock work.

A splendid program for the Parent Teachers' entertainment on Oct. 4 is being arranged by the committee, in which children from the grades will take part, and there will be attractive numbers by the grown-ups too. There will be a "grab bag" in charge of "somebody" and refreshments will be served after the program.

Oct. 15 was the date of Henry Herman's birthday, likewise his brother-in-law, Walter Krebs claims the same natal day and the twin of them celebrated with a big dinner at the Henry Herman home which was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Krebs, Gus Dahners and family and Mr. and Mrs. F. Lohman and the Herman and Krebs families.

Remember the big entertainment at Kelson tomorrow night under the direction of the Women's club. Miss Miller will read. Fine time promised.

The budget meeting for the Sandy grade school will be held at the city hall, Thursday night, Oct. 26 at 8 P. M. Remember to "get busy" at once and look the house over for some trinkets for the grab bag, and take them to Scales' store in good time for the Parent Teacher entertainment.

O. A. Palmer was out a few days ago and asked his creditors to come to the city and get paid off.

MANY NEW ACCOUNTS

are opened at this bank by new settlers in this community, many sending their funds to this bank in advance of their coming, having been advised by their bankers in the East that they can rely on a bank carrying the emblem shown at the bottom of this advertisement. We will be pleased to open an account for you, and furnish you checks to your liking without cost to you.

First State Bank

GRESHAM, OREGON

Rev. A. S. Hisey, of Gresham, Rev. G. S. Berryman of Pleasant Home and Rev. F. M. Jasper of Portland were here three afternoons of the week making calls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed are riding around in a new coupe that is built for just two and the baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hagan and daughter, Thelma drove their sedan to the city Wednesday on a shopping expedition.

Ruth, Alta and Gertrude De Shazer spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Updegrave and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Updegrave visited their home folks, the De Shazers on Sunday evening.

A prominent dairyman on the outskirts of Sandy, who quit selling cream to the Sandy creamery some time ago and has been selling milk, says in counting up the loss incurred by not being able to raise hogs and in having no milk for chickens, finds he has gained nothing by the change except there is no separator to wash.

The reason given for Portland milk dealers being so anxious to buy milk out this way is because of so many going out of dairying near Gresham and going into the berry business.

Mrs. Richard Mulholland and little daughter, who are staying at Lauree's for a few weeks spent the summer at Tawneys. Mrs. Mulholland is trying the climate here for her daughter, who is afflicted with asthma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ganger were over from Bull Run recently and were "shaking" with friends here.

Miss Rosemary De Biase, teacher at Hill Crest was a Sunday evening supper guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller.

Mrs. R. F. Dittter was called as nurse to take care of Mrs. W. A. Proctor on Monday. Mrs. Dittter is going to open a private hospital at her home here.

Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Lindell, Miss Walling and Mrs. Connors all heard Geraldine Farrar sing at the auditorium last week and were delighted with the artist.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller was a dinner guest recently of Mrs. Geo. Perret and family in Portland, and was also a guest of Mrs. Perret at the Matzenauer concert at the auditorium which was another big musical event of the week.

Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Lindell, Miss Walling and Mrs. Connors all heard Geraldine Farrar sing at the auditorium last week and were delighted with the artist.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller was a dinner guest recently of Mrs. Geo. Perret and family in Portland, and was also a guest of Mrs. Perret at the Matzenauer concert at the auditorium which was another big musical event of the week.

The Sandy creamery paid better last month than it has for the past two years, and had more cream than for some time.

Joe Decker was plowing with his tractor last week and was trying to rush fall grain before it rained.

The high school building is lathed and the plastering is rained. The building is showing up in splendid shape and everyone is proud of the looks of it.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Stone are enjoying their handsome new home on the Sandy road east of Boring.

There are only two girls in the Dover school since the Devlins are moving away. There are about 15 boys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller counted it a privilege to have a Sunday evening supper guests, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. H. Reese and small son, Daniel, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jonard and little Phillip. The Reese family remained over night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall and family went to Woodburn on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Hall's sister, who passed away very suddenly on Saturday from heart disease. Mrs. D. Jack of Seaside Station is a sister of the deceased.

P. M. Holst, whose funeral occurred Wednesday of last week had just completed the new family home at Boring, and was going to settle down and enjoy life. Mr. Holst had a large circle of friends and his death is a great shock to both the Deep Creek and Boring communities as well as other neighborhoods where he was well known.

The name of Helen Beaver was left out of the school program at Sandridge last week by mistake. Helen gave the opening speech at the entertainment.

It was stated at the Damascus grange Saturday that only 63 per cent of our voters in Oregon register, which fact "works greatly against the efficiency of the ballot."

B. Nelson, prominent Kelson citizen was in town Monday. His mother, Mrs. Hannah Nelson, is feeling fine since she had an outing at Moffitt Springs. She gained 15 pounds while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius G. Sture drove to the Crissey gardens Sunday and enjoyed the beautiful display of dahlias and other flowers that were still defying Jack Frost.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. DeShazer, Florence and Grant, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell and Helen Beaver all drove to Estacada Sunday to visit Mrs. Viola Douglass and partake of a delicious dinner at the cosy home of their mother and grandmother.

Macq Thomas caught a bear in his traps last week and the Thomas family and neighbors have been eating bear steak which they say was very sweet and tender.

Loris Child of Boring is home again from Pendleton where he spent the summer at work.

Chas. Bartlomey and son, Perry, of Rock Creek, Eastern Oregon, was back to Deep Creek on a business trip last week and called on some of his Boring friends while there.

Miss Lucile McCarter came out to see her friends here before going to the Sellwood hospital to enter training. She signed up for three years.

PREACHER-BANDIT FUGITIVE TAKEN AT LOS ANGELES

Millionaire Murderer and Two Friends Who Escaped From California Jail Captured Without Putting Up Fight.

ABANDONED AUTO IS CLUE TO DISCOVERY

Officer Acts On Hunch And Locates Trio; Convicts are Surrounded by Armed Men.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—Herbert Wilson, the "millionaire bandit," Guido Spingola, alias "the Mouse," pay- roll bandit, and Adam Ward, convicted murderer, who escaped from the county jail yesterday morning, were captured in a house at West 12th and New Hampshire streets at 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The men surrendered to Sheriff Traeger and a squad of deputy sheriffs and police detectives who surrounded the house without putting up a fight. Wilson and Spingola walked from the house with their arms in the air shouting "don't shoot." Ward followed them a minute later, also with his hands in the air.

The house in which the men were hiding was occupied by Tom Garwood, an ex-convict, and a woman who gave her name as Mrs. L. A. Stange. Garwood and the woman were arrested and taken to the county jail with the three escaped prisoners.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Bright discovered the hiding place of the three men after the automobile in which they had fled from the jail had been found abandoned in front of a house in West Pierce street.

When Bright learned the bandits' car had been located he acted on a "hunch" and went to the home of Garwood, whom he knew to be living in West Twelfth street, and in whose place he believed the prisoners might have sought refuge.

Garwood's residence was surrounded at 12:30 a. m. by officers, all armed with rifles and revolvers. At 5:30 o'clock this morning Detective Sergeants Steieriede and Bean approached a rear door of the place. As the officers neared the place Wilson's head appeared from a side window. He instantly recognized and his head drew in with a jerk.

Wilson was the first to surrender. A few steps behind him was "the Mouse," who was a wry smile on the "millionaire bandit's" face as he came out. He held his hands high in the air and shouted, "don't shoot, boys."

Spingola, his hands high above his head, also shouted "don't shoot."

Raymond E. Smith, Zig Zag ranger, was here last week on his way to Portland to spend a few days.

Mrs. Maud Kjosse is still nursing the thumb that she so severely cut while working at the Scales home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith entertained Rev. F. M. Jasper Saturday night and Sunday and found him a very pleasant guest.

Miss Anna Lemmertz drives up here every Saturday evening to meet her father when he comes down from the Sandy Lumber Co. mill.

B. S. Dittter has installed a telephone which greatly pleases little Edward Burmeister, who tried it at once to "see how it worked."

Geo. Beers and Mrs. Maronay furnished the music for the Brightwood dance Saturday night. Mrs. Maybee, mother of Mrs. Maronay, also went to the dance.

Mrs. L. Lehfeld entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. Barber and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snedden and daughter, and Mr. Spieker of Portland Sunday, serving a fine and delicious dinner, piano music for the occasion.

Mrs. John Mitchell went to Portland last Friday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Coleman, returning Monday.

L. Lehfeld was called back to work on the Salmon river trail and Mrs. Lehfeld says she is "surely" earning her board and keep "as she has to take care of 8 cows, five head of hogs that are in the pen beside doing all the other necessary work."

Mr. and Mrs. John Maronay drove to Portland Monday on a business trip. Maronay is still up in the mountains at work on the trail.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins and Fred Radford of Cottrell drove over Sunday night to hear Rev. Wm. H. Reese, and were wonderfully pleased with the address. They also enjoyed the contralto solo by Mrs. Mulholland.

Chas. Krebs says he dried four tons of prunes this fall, but finds the market is very poor at the present time.

W. W. Smith, recent creamery manager, left for Idaho the first of the week and said he hated to leave Sandy when the time came to go.

J. C. Duke has stopped working as night watchman at the Bruns mill as being up nights got to be a little too strenuous for him.

Miss Bernice Duncan furnished flowers and tidied up the church for Sunday school and the community program also.

"Come right in, Henry—he won't hurt you," said Hiram Hoskins, as his neighbor hesitated to open the front gate. "You know a barking dog never bites."

"Yes, I know that, but how am I to know how one's going to stop barking?"

Why is it a mother will permit her husband to select a life partner for their daughter, but she won't let him pick out the wall paper for the back hall.

Conditions on Farms Better, Says Harding

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Predicting a "new era of activity and prosperity" for the United States, President Harding today promised the nation's farmers that they would be among the first, in that new era, to get "the substantial recognition" which they must have.

Agriculture To Receive Added Recognition in New Era of Prosperity, Declares Chief.

The president's promise, coupled with a statement that the Harding administration has already done much for the farmer in helping restore prices and markets, was read to a farmers' gathering at Washington Court House, Ohio, this afternoon by Secretary for Agriculture Wallace.

Harding said prices for farm products are still too low. It is apparent, he said, "that the farmer is not being adequately compensated. The Washington administration has recognized this condition and has done everything in its power to restore normal balance between prices and costs of production. A great deal has been accomplished and I am glad to see that the trend is strongly toward better conditions for the farmer."

The president predicted that the American farmers never would unite on a program of decreased production, such as has been threatened recently by some farmer leaders.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL STAND PAT UPON BONUS

CONVENTION HALL, New Orleans, La., Oct. 18.—Demand for a roll call of American Legion delegates that the "World may know where we stand on the bonus question," followed a viva voce affirming the report of a resolutions committee, which declared the legion will continue to fight for the legislation until "it is enacted into law."

A division called for by Commander Mac
