She was a woman of a very bright intellect and beloved by all who knew her. The remains were taken to Heppner, Oregon, for burial, where she formerly resided, the two sons accompanying. Frederick Burns was in Estacada a part of last week visiting friends. While Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks were attending the picture show one night last week, burglars entered their house by the kitchen door and by every indication, leisurely went through the entire rooms taking what they thought were valuable articles and over $5.00 in cash. Besides the money there were Thrift Stamps to the value of $55.00, two valuable rings, a revolver and two watches. The burglars had put the silverware in Mrs. Sparks' traveling bag, but no doubt were frightened away by the appearance of Mr. Sparks, returning earlier than usual, and left the bag on the floor. To get the silverware, the burglars jimmied a drawer in the sideboard. They brought a pitchfork found in the yard and put it under one of the beds. While operating, one of the burglars picked a choice apple from the sideboard and ate it, throwing the core on the floor. The watches were found later on the springs under the bed. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. TO THE TAXPAYERS

It has been stated publicly that H. W. Hagemann, candidate for County Commissioner of Clackamas County, was in the field to beat Judge Cross. This is not so. The reason is we need a just and equitable distribution of the immense amount of money available for road construction in Clackamas County in the next four years also to cut down taxation to a point where it will not impair our government. In the last few years taxes have increased beyond reason and the end is not yet if a halt is not called this fall. There have been authorized by the people and are ready for issue $1,950,000 in 5 per cent bonds, of this amount approximately $300,000 have been issued leaving a balance of $1,650,000. Interest on the total will amount to $97,500; add to this our warrant indebtedness of approximately $346,000 at 6 per cent brings the yearly interest charge up to $138,260 or $324.00 for each day in the year. Of this interest the farmer and home owner will pay 82 per cent and corporations and public utilities the balance. Under our present law 70 per cent of the general road taxes are returned to the districts, cities and towns from whence the money came and is used to keep up existing roads and especially by roads. Our County Judge has stated that he is going before the legislature next January Session and have this law changed so ALL the General Road Taxes will be at the disposal of the County Court and nothing returned to the cities and districts. Should the law be changed to this effect, the taxpayers will have to make special levies in addition to the regular tax, and where are we going to land? The Judge told the writer District 31 should levy a good special road tax and "The Judge" would put the same amount to it or even go a little better so they could start improving. Great scheme, isn't it? First he levies a 10 mill road tax and then compels the people to levy a 10 mill special tax in order to get the General Road tax back. Only 20 mill levy. But what about the Market road and other funds where are they to go? I'll leave this to the reader. Why is it that Judge Harvey E. Cross is doing everything he can to elect C. W. Kruse for commissioner.

TO THE PEOPLE OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

As a recall candidate for County Judge, I wish to state that I have paid taxes in this state for thirty-three years, thirteen of them in Clackamas County. I have always favored good schools and good permanent roads. I believe the county's business should be run on the same basis that a good successful business man would run his own. I do not believe in extravagance in either private or public affairs. I am not an office seeker—I think the office should seek the man and the people should not be influenced by any candidate. I have no political motive. If elected, I will devote my entire time for the good of our county and when through serving the people I can return to my business. Thanking the people of Clackamas County for past favors, I am, Respectfully yours, F. D. SHANK. (Paid Advertisement by F. D. Shank)

TO THE VOTERS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY, OREGON

Out of 3000 asked, 2600 voters of Clackamas County signed the recall petition against Judge Cross, giving as their reasons for making said demand: "That the said Harvey E. Cross, in the conduct of his office as said County Judge, has been CARELESS, EXTRAVAGANT and UNBUSINESS-LIKE in the management of the county business, and in proof thereof we cite the following facts: 1. That the county warrant indebtedness during his incumbency has increased from $359,636.62 on December 31, 1920, to $426,197.72 on September 1, 1922, although his campaign was based on economy." The figures stand as solid as the rock of Gibraltar and do not refer to bonded indebtedness nor net indebtedness as twisted by friends of the Judge. The warrant indebtedness on October, 1922 was increased to $457,126.99. Mention might also have been made of the fact that $22,000.00 or more has been spent by citizens of Clackamas County for temporary detour over Willamette River on account of new bridge because, according to Judge Cross' own admission, he failed to get in writing the verbal promise of Mr. Booth, Chairman State Highway Commission, that the State would handle the detour across Willamette River during the construction of the new bridge. 2. "That he is AUTOCRATIC, DISCOURTEOUS, OVERBEARING and DISRESPECTFUL to persons calling at his office on business." An avalanche of proof to the above could be cited. Statements by the Judge to taxpayers and county officers such as: "If you stay at home and run your farm and I stay here and run this Court, we both will have plenty to do." "If you do not get out of my way, I will make it as 'rough sledding' as I possibly can for you." "If there was another man in Clackamas County big enough to handle the affairs of this county, as well as myself, I would resign." "Now you are such a Big man, what would you do?" "Yes, it is my duty to order this election, but I will not do so unless compelled by the Judge of the Circuit Court at the end of mandamus suit." etc., ad infinitum. 3. "That he has sentenced juveniles to the State Training School without a fair and open hearing, and after refusing to admit their parents to the hearings." The committee holds affidavits in support of the above accusations. 4. "That his chief source at a show of economy has been by reducing the mothers' pensions and refusing to assist paupers." When asked to assist a county dependent in having an ulcerated tooth pulled, he informed the dentist to tell the man to take a hammer and knock the tooth out. When asked to pay rent for widow and four children (at that time receiving no county aid) said: "If she can't pay her rent, put her out in the street." 5. "That he habitually promises to visit roads and to make road improvements but does not keep his promises." Many instances can be cited of his unkept road promises. TO THE VOTERS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY, OREGON

Out of 3000 asked, 2600 voters of Clackamas County signed the recall petition against Judge Cross, giving as their reasons for making said demand: "That the said Harvey E. Cross, in the conduct of his office as said County Judge, has been CARELESS, EXTRAVAGANT and UNBUSINESS-LIKE in the management of the county business, and in proof thereof we cite the following facts: 1. That the county warrant indebtedness during his incumbency has increased from $359,636.62 on December 31, 1920, to $426,197.72 on September 1, 1922, although his campaign was based on economy." The figures stand as solid as the rock of Gibraltar and do not refer to bonded indebtedness nor net indebtedness as twisted by friends of the Judge. The warrant indebtedness on October, 1922 was increased to $457,126.99. Mention might also have been made of the fact that $22,000.00 or more has been spent by citizens of Clackamas County for temporary detour over Willamette River on account of new bridge because, according to Judge Cross' own admission, he failed to get in writing the verbal promise of Mr. Booth, Chairman State Highway Commission, that the State would handle the detour across Willamette River during the construction of the new bridge. 2. "That he is AUTOCRATIC, DISCOURTEOUS, OVERBEARING and DISRESPECTFUL to persons calling at his office on business." An avalanche of proof to the above could be cited. Statements by the Judge to taxpayers and county officers such as: "If you stay at home and run your farm and I stay here and run this Court, we both will have plenty to do." "If you do not get out of my way, I will make it as 'rough sledding' as I possibly can for you." "If there was another man in Clackamas County big enough to handle the affairs of this county, as well as myself, I would resign." "Now you are such a Big man, what would you do?" "Yes, it is my duty to order this election, but I will not do so unless compelled by the Judge of the Circuit Court at the end of mandamus suit." etc., ad infinitum. 3. "That he has sentenced juveniles to the State Training School without a fair and open hearing, and after refusing to admit their parents to the hearings." The committee holds affidavits in support of the above accusations. 4. "That his chief source at a show of economy has been by reducing the mothers' pensions and refusing to assist paupers." When asked to assist a county dependent in having an ulcerated tooth pulled, he informed the dentist to tell the man to take a hammer and knock the tooth out. When asked to pay rent for widow and four children (at that time receiving no county aid) said: "If she can't pay her rent, put her out in the street." 5. "That he habitually promises to visit roads and to make road improvements but does not keep his promises." Many instances can be cited of his unkept road promises. Miss Nyquist gave a Halloween party for the scholars Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant time was spent playing games and tricks after which a delicious lunch was served consisting of sandwiches, cake, apple salad and cocoa.

Surely there must be some reason for it. Should it be that Mr. Kruse will obey the Judge's orders or what is at the bottom of it. Respectfully yours, H. W. HAGEMANN, Vote 40 X W. H. Hagemann. (Paid Advertisement)

42 Jailed In Raids By Portland Police On Gambling Clubs

PORTLAND, Oct. 28.—Forty-two men were gathered in from card rooms clubs in a raid conducted by police in the north end late Friday night as the first step in carrying out Chief L. V. Jenkins' order to round up all fillets as a curb to the "winter crime wave." The net dragged in 17 persons from the Oregon Liberty club, No. 311 Pine street, and 11 from the London club in the Buchanan building, between midnight and 1 o'clock. Sergeant Olesner and a morals squad detachment, together with Sergeant Schad and a group of uniformed men, manned the raiding party. Charges of vagrancy were placed against 40 Greeks, one Chinaman and one negro. Friday Chief Jenkins ordered a roundup of uncoupled idlers in an early effort to forestall the expected crime wave which had already assumed some proportions with a series of burglaries and minor crimes. Statements by Chief Jenkins that the winter crime wave is getting a good start appeared verified somewhat this morning with the report of three burglaries and five stolen automobiles on the daily police bulletin. The home of J. B. Robertson, No. 585 Montgomery drive, was burglarized and a watch and several pieces of men's clothing were taken. C. E. Robertson, No. 187 Stafford street reported his home had been ransacked but so far he has not been able to determine what was stolen. Two purses containing $28 were "taken from the home of Mrs. L. F. Reynolds, No. 433 Holland street. The house was ransacked from top to bottom and furnishings thrown into wild disorder. The list of stolen automobiles included one luxurious touring car of expensive make and four light machines.
