Youngsters Given Halloween Party

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Maple entertained with a Halloween party for the younger set of boys on Monday evening.

The long living room was arranged with witches, cats, wise old owls and Jack o'lanterns where the games of the Halloween season were entered in with a zest.

Among those receiving head prizes for the games and contests were Junior Hole, Harold Briggs, Theo. Bechtel and Hugh Allen Wilcox. Consolation favors going to Donald Robbins, Teddy Pierce and Kerl Jones.

Clever costumes were worn by Llewellyn Jones, who came as the gray cat and Kerl Jones as a black cat which added to the evening's merriment.

In the rasin contest Hugh Allen Wilcox and Newell Ford were the captains, the former side winning. Music on the Victrola announced the refreshment time had arrived. Sprays of autumn tinted dogwood blended harmoniously with the Halloween colors used in the dining room, where a table was arranged for the 14 little boys. In the center of the table was a grotesque pumpkin which held the fortunes of those present. He favor napkins and place cards all being suggestive of All Saints Eve. Those present were Harold Briggs, Junior Hole, Charles Holloway, Keith and Hugh Allen Wilcox, Jack Humphreys, Kerl and Llewellyn Jones, Halmer and Hugh B. Roberts, Theodore Bechtel, Teddy Pierce, Donald Robbins, Newell Ford.

Pot Luck Lunch Served At Church

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 2.—About thirty attended the pot luck lunch at the church on Wednesday last. Mesdames Losey and Hooker had charge of the tables where the appetizing lunch was served. The table was attractive with a bowl of nasturtiums.

At the repeat birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. Wm. Jacobs and Mrs. Hooker as their birthdays had occurred. Each one was called upon to give their favorite author and a verse of their writings.

In the afternoon quite a few more came in to assist with the sewing for the annual bazaar, which will be on December 8.

The committees are busy arranging details and it promises to be one of the best ever given by the women of Grace Guild.

Mrs. Sam Stewart, Sellwood; Mrs. Harlowe, of Milwaukie; Mrs. Mayo, of Oregon City and Mrs. Wm. Jacobs of Portland, added to the delightful day by their presence at the meeting.

Betty Bretcher Is Hostess To Friends

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 2.—Miss Betty Bretcher gave a very pretty Halloween party on Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bretcher. The decorations were very pretty, all suggestive of the Halloween time and the games and favors also were appropriate for the occasion. A pumpkin in the center of the table held the favors for the guests who were also furnished with pretty caps as they arrived. Seated at the table were Evelyn Moritz, Winnifred Gardner, Lucile Randall, Ruth A. Lawrence, Beth Humphreys, Louise Smith, Alice and Pauline Nelson, Walleen Hendry, Gretchen Thompson, Victoria Boetzer, Loraine Pooler, Lillian and Verna Ouellette, Betty Bretcher.

REFUSAL TO GIVE MEDICAL AID TO POOR IS CHARGED

County Judge H. E. Cross Cited in Affidavit Signed by John Beers; Reduction of Pension Allowance Claimed

STATEMENT BACKS RECALL ACCUSATION

Requests For $1 To Have Ulcerated Tooth Extracted Said Refused By Official.

Charges that County Judge H. E. Cross refused aid to county poor for medical attendance was made yesterday in an affidavit signed for the recall committee by John Beers, who is on the list of county pensions. This charge, so far as is known, is the only one which the recall committee has made definite to substantiate their general accusation that the county judge has been making a practice of curtailing pensions and holding down the expenses of caring for the county poor to the detriment of their well-being.

The affidavit charges: "That before the last general election in November, 1920, Harvey E. Cross, then running for County Judge, met my wife and I on the streets of Oregon City and asked us how much help my brother and I were getting from the county. We told him $30.00 per month. He stated that was only one-half as much as we ought to get. After he became county judge he cut our allowance down to $20 a month.

"Also, that several months ago when I had an ulcerated tooth that dentists and physicians said ought to be pulled out, and had no money with which to pay for it, Judge Cross then asked to allow me $1 for it refused and told the dentist to tell me to take a hammer and knock it out."
