

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Sawmill Man Visits

Fred Lammer, sawmill man formerly of Beaver Creek, now of Cottage Grove...

Severs Connection With Bus Line

J. H. Cain, who has been operating a bus line between Canby and Oregon City...

County Commissioners in City

Among the Oregon City visitors on Wednesday and Thursday were W. A. Proctor, of Sandy, and W. F. Harris of Beaver Creek...

Visits Oregon City

Vera Holmes, whose home is at Estacada, was among those visiting in Oregon City on Thursday afternoon.

Came to County Seat

Among those to come to the county seat on Thursday was Mrs. Marie Steiner. Her home is at Hoff.

Mrs. Polin in City

Mrs. C. E. Polin and Mrs. E. L. Pillster of Boring, were Oregon City visitors on Thursday.

Mulino Man in Oregon City

Among those to come to Oregon City on business Thursday was O. F. Johnson. His home is at Mulino.

M. P. Sailor From Molalla

M. P. Sailor, of Molalla, was in Oregon City on Wednesday and Thursday.

Canby Woman in City

Mrs. J. W. Morris, of Canby, was a visitor in Oregon City on Thursday.

Eagle Creek Represented

Mrs. H. H. Udell, of Eagle Creek, was in this city on Thursday.

Came From Molalla

Mrs. Charles Lyle, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday.

Came From Logan

H. W. Hagemann, of Logan, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday.

Grant Mumpower in City

Grant Mumpower, of Carver, was among those to transact business in Oregon City on Friday.

Came From Farm Home

E. B. Gaze, of Briarwood Place, near Milwaukie, was in this city on business Friday.

Came From Boring

Among those to come to Oregon City on Friday was C. Blomwick, of Boring.

W. B. Robbins From Hoff

W. B. Robbins, of Hoff, was in this city on business Friday.

Paul Fletcher in Oregon City

Among those from Mulino in Oregon City Friday was Paul Fletcher.

Milwaukie Represented

Mrs. Lenna Batton, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Friday.

Miss Henri in City

Miss Mary Henri, of Lents, was an Oregon City visitor Friday.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Paul Peters, of Clackamas, was operated upon at the Oregon City hospital Saturday morning.

Mrs. Tremayer in City

Mrs. Annie Tremayer, prominent resident of Barlow, was in this city Saturday.

Came From Wichita

George Cook, of Wichita, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday. He came here on business.

Jessie Wade in Oregon City

Among those to visit Oregon City Saturday was Jessie Wade, whose home is at Molalla.

From Carus

Mrs. E. T. Fisher, of Carus, was in this city on business Saturday.

Makes Visit

Dorothea Mc Cord, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Milwaukie Represented

Elmer Ivey, of Milwaukie, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Came From Estacada

Mrs. Bertha Jacobson and Mrs. E. C. Jacobson, of Estacada, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Go On Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dodds, of Twilight, left on Saturday on an extended trip through California.

Hoff Represented

Mrs. Charles, of Hoff, was among those to come to Oregon City Saturday.

DR. WM. KRASSIG DENTIST Specializes in Extraction of Teeth Crown and Bridge Work "Plates That Fit"

Child Ill in California

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Walker, of this city, from their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Knick, nee Louise Walker, saying that her little daughter, Maralee, was seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Knick are residing at Placentia, Cal., and are to take their little daughter to Los Angeles, where they will consult a specialist. The child is suffering from stomach trouble.

Return to Mount Pleasant

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stroupe, who have been making their home at Gladstone for the past two years have returned to the Mount Pleasant. They formerly resided at that place, where they have property interests. Mr. and Mrs. J. Humphry, who arrived here some time ago from Alberta, Canada, who have been occupying the Stroupe place at Mount Pleasant, have taken possession of the McCarthy place. The latter farm is near the Stroupe property.

Mary Hawker in City

Mary Hawker was among those coming to Oregon City on business Saturday. Her home is at Milwaukie.

Canby Represented

Mrs. E. L. Critser, of Canby, was among those coming to Oregon City Monday.

Came on Business

Mrs. John Hart, of Canby, was in this city Monday transacting business.

Came to Oregon City

Mrs. Larkins, whose home is at Hoff, was among those coming to this city Monday.

N. F. Nelson in City

N. F. Nelson, of Oak Grove, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

S. A. Yoder Transacts Business

S. A. Yoder, of Hubbard, was in this city on business Monday.

Mrs. Anderson in City

Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Woodburn, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

Mrs. Meeks in City

Mrs. George Meeks, of Canby, was in this city on business Monday.

Boring Man in City

Theo. Zoeg, of Boring, was in this city on business Monday.

Came From Milwaukie

Annie M. Park, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Monday.

Toedtemiers Rejoice

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Toedtemier, of Willamette, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son. The baby was born at the Oregon City hospital Sunday, November 5.

Receive Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Killo, of Wilsonville, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son. The new arrival made his appearance at the Oregon City hospital Monday.

Della Siler in City

Della Siler, of Mulino, was among those coming to Oregon City Tuesday.

MAYFIELD WINS

(Continued from Page One)

lican, from the 211 counties being 132,510. Governor Neff's vote was 162,209 and Atwell's 29,699. Mayfield will be one of the youngest members of the United States senate. He was born April 12, 1881, at Overton, Texas.

BERGER AGAIN STRONG

MILWAUKIE, Wis., Nov. 8.—One hundred and forty-eight precincts out of 152 in the sixth Wisconsin congressional district give Berger, Socialist 28,899; Stafford, Republican, 25,205.

Oregon City Eleven Wins From Portland

The Oregon City football team defeated the Waterfront eleven of Portland to the score of 21 to 0 Sunday afternoon on the Hawley Park field. The Oregon City team was outwitted but speed of the locals offset the visitors. Both teams used the aerial attack but the visitors were by far the most successful as most of the yardage was gained in this way.

The Oregon City lineup was: 1, e. Laurs; 1, t. Story; 1, g. Shulson; c. Martin; r. e. Murphy; r. t. Finucane; r. e. Stanich; 1, h. M. Sullivan; f. Stone; subs, E. Mass for Stanich; Mickels for Shulson; Rothe for Finucane; E. Larus for J. Sullivan; D. Larus for Doneley.

Oregon City Stores Are Not to Close Upon Armistice Day

Owing to the fact that there will be no celebration of any kind in Oregon City on Armistice day, and in order that the out-of-town customers may not be inconvenienced, the merchants of Oregon City will not close their stores November 11. The action, according to the officials of the Clackamas County Business Men's association, meets with the approval of the America Legion.

PRETTY THICK

Pike: "Why are you wearing so many coats on such a hot day?" Mike (Carrying a paint can): "I'm going to paint me fence and it sez on this can to obtain best results, put on at least three coats."

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. J. N. Kyler entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Gladstone Christian church at her home Wednesday afternoon. The living room was prettily decorated with fall flowers.

The afternoon was spent in needle work for the annual bazaar. Mrs. Kyler was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Miss Mildred Kyler.

Enjoying the afternoon were: Mrs. Grant Olds, Mrs. Thomas E. Gault, Mrs. Fred Hayward, Mrs. James Prater, Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. F. D. Ellis and Mrs. F. P. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prater entertained at their home in Gladstone in honor of Mrs. Prater's 63rd birthday anniversary Sunday.

The color scheme for decorating being red and green, sylvias were used. Dinner was served at one o'clock. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prater, Mr. and Mrs. John Hollowell, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Prater.

Mrs. Julia Tingie and her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Cross, entertained the Missionary Society of the Gladstone Baptist church at the former's home on Arlington street Wednesday afternoon.

The rooms of the Tingie home were decorated with dahlias and ferns. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. W. Marrs led the discussions and presided at this meeting. Present were: Mrs. Joseph Butler, Mrs. W. W. Marrs, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. G. W. Porter, Mrs. Dave Lund, Mrs. Rowan, Mrs. Whitcomb, Mrs. Covert, Mrs. Eugene Noon Good, Mrs. Julia Tingie and Mrs. H. E. Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bolle entertained at their home near Edgewood Tuesday evening with a hallowe'en party. The rooms were decorated with festoons of orange and black crepe paper. Witches and black cats were also used. Dahlias to correspond with the orange colored crepe paper were arranged in baskets and bowls. Mrs. Lawrence Bucky assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The evening was spent in cards and dancing. Mrs. Golda Heater won high score, and Miss Ida Gray was awarded the consolation prize.

Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Bucky, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bolle, Mr. and Mrs. John Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Heater, Miss Ida Gray, Hone and Lucile Bolle and Harry Gray.

Rev. and Mrs. George E. Williams entertained the "Polly Anna" club at their home in Gladstone Monday evening. The home was decorated with orange and black crepe paper and cut flowers.

The evening was devoted to needlework and music. Mrs. Williams was assisted in serving refreshments and entertaining by Mrs. Flora Gatchel.

Attending were Mrs. Fred Hayward, Mrs. Thomas E. Gault, Mrs. Burch of Portland; Misses Matilda Hayward, Lola Vedder, Leona and Dorothy Fox, Grace Owens, Vera Miranda, Mildred and Dorothy Kyler and Mabel Whitcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinke, of Bolton, entertained in a delightful manner at their home on Friday, October 27th. This occasion was in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary, when a family reunion was held. A few friends were also in attendance. A dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, when places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Williams Reinke, of Hollywood Gardens; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reinke and son, Charles, Jr., of Willamette; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinke, of Bolton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reinke, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barbur and children, Marguerite and Edgar, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. N. W. McKillican and daughters, Mildred and Bertha, Mr. and Mrs. James McKillican and daughter, Opal, of West Linn; Herbert Dunn, of Portland; Earl Jones, of Portland; John Found, of Bolton.

The table was decorated with cut flowers from the Reinke garden, and previous to partaking of the feast, Mrs. C. H. Reinke, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinke, brought forth a handsomely decorated "wedding" cake of her own handiwork. This was used in centering the table.

The rooms of the Reinke home were prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers.

During the evening the host and hostess were presented with a number of pretty gifts including silver and Chinaware.

The evening was spent in a social manner.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James McKillican of Bolton spent a most enjoyable evening at their home in Bolton on Saturday evening, October 28th.

Assembling at a nearby home and donning costumes appropriate for hallowe'en the merry-makers started for the McKillican home. After reaching their destination they "favored" the McKillican family with a charivari. This was in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. McKillican.

After responding to an invitation to enter the home a "mock" marriage was performed.

Following the "impressive marriage" ceremony, the guests removed their masks, after which a huge basket containing pretty and useful gifts was brought forth and presented to the host and hostess.

Cards were features of the remainder of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. N. McKillican, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLarty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schoenheinz, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Reinke, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McKillican, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mrs. Ella Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Butler, Mrs. John Lowry, Mrs. Maggie Martin, Mrs. August Christiansen, Mrs. Dan

Hogan, Miss Meade McKillican, Miss Mildred McKillican, Miss Bertha McKillican, Miss Ella Reinke, Miss Alice McDonald, Miss Opal Hogan, Glen Irish, John Found, Frank Hogan, Wm. Raines, D. Larons.

The Enterpean club met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hempstead in Gladstone Thursday afternoon.

The roofs of the Hempstead home were prettily decorated with marigolds. The color scheme was orange and green.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. R. M. McGetchie had charge of the Art study.

Legislative measures to be voted upon at the next election were discussed. The Compulsory Education bill was discussed by Mrs. T. E. Gault and Mrs. Frank Nelson. Mrs. Frank Oswald and Mrs. A. F. Parker discussed the "Income Tax."

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Noon Good.

Mrs. Hempstead's guests were Mrs. T. E. Gault, Mrs. V. C. Gault, Mrs. William Hammond, Mrs. Eugene Noon Good, Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. A. F. Parker, Mrs. L. A. Read, Mrs. Frank Oswald, Mrs. J. W. Leonard, Mrs. F. P. Nelson and Mrs. W. E. Hempstead.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hempstead of West Gladstone attended the Hallowe'en ball given by Captain and Mrs. L. Milner at the Clackamas Rifle Range Tuesday evening.

Dr. Hempstead was an officer during the world war. Many of the guests at the affair were officers whom he met while in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ashenfelter entertained Tuesday evening at their home in Gladstone.

Decorations were in keeping with the hallowe'en season.

At 10:30 the guests unmasked and refreshments were served.

The evening was spent in dancing and games.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ashenfelter, Misses Elsie Turell, Sally Turell, Olga Turell, and Margaret Ashenfelter and Wayne Vedder, Lucy Wallace, Glynn Shockley, Clinton Wade, Kenneth Hamlin, Charles, William and Albert Ashenfelter.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church held an enjoyable all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Leisman, of Willamette, Wednesday.

During the day needlework occupied the time of the members, and before leaving for their homes two comforters were completed.

A feature of the day that was thoroughly enjoyed was the dinner served from 12 to 1 o'clock. The long table, laden with good things to eat, provided by the members and Mrs. Leisman, was prettily decorated.

The next business meeting was arranged for. This will be held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Mark on Eighth and John Adams streets Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Leisman's guests were Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. Ada Pearl, Mrs. Johnson, of Portland; Mrs. J. M. Mark, Mrs. John Lowery, Mrs. Julia Haskell, Mrs. Osborn, Mrs. Charles H. Caulfield, Mrs. George DeBok, Mrs. Epler, Mrs. J. A. Ream, Jr., Mrs. J. A. Ream, Sr., Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, Mrs. J. W. Moffatt, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. J. W. Thornberry, Miss DeBok, Emery Reams.

The sophomore class of the West Linn high school entertained at a hallowe'en party in the auditorium of the union high school at West Linn on Friday evening, October 27. The guests of honor were members of the Junior class.

Many of the students came en masque.

A varied program was given during the evening that was thoroughly enjoyed by the assembly.

Games and music were featured.

In order to award the prizes a grand march was formed. Gordon DeBok was awarded the first prize, who represented a preacher, Mary Zaniker won the girls' prize, when she was attired as a lad.

Referees of the committees who had charge of the affair were: Arda Cox, games; Esther Graw, refreshments; Adilene Oldham, prizes; and Lola Vedder, decorations, which were autumn leaves and strips of orange and black paper.

Judge Thomas Ryan To Go To Convention

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, of the Bank of Commerce, left Sunday for the east where he will attend a convention of the Eastern Star. Ryan is past grand patron of the Eastern Star and goes as one of the 15 delegates from the state of Oregon.

The convention is to be held in Washington, D. C. for a period of a week. Judge Ryan will also visit other eastern cities, including Chicago, New York and Boston, visiting correspondent banks of the Bank of Commerce.

Broom Factory at New Era Is Started

The first broom factory to be established in Clackamas county is now in operation at New Era. The manufacturing establishment started last Friday.

The first shipment of material for manufacturing the handles arrived at New Era a few days ago.

The building is erected close to shipping points, accessible to both river and Southern Pacific.

1922 VALUATION IN COUNTY SHOWS GAIN OF $210,315

Assessment Roll Is Completed For Current Year; Equal Increase in All Divisions Shown; Exemptions Larger.

IMPROVEMENTS UPON CITY PROPERTY GROW

New Tract of Timber Added to List; Big Jump Charged To Weyerhaeuser Company

Clackamas county's valuation for 1922 is $210,315 above the valuation for the year of 1921, figures completed by County Assessor W. B. Cook Saturday disclosed. The valuation of the county on which the 1922 tax roll will be computed is $24,682,816.

The assessment roll shows an actual increase over last year's figures of $179,660. But this year $30,665 more was allowed in soldiers' exemptions than last year. The total exemptions under the act this year are $96,450.

The increase, according to Cook, is seen uniformly in practically every classification. An increase of $55,000 in the value of improved land is listed. Town lots increased $35,000 and town improvements $79,000.

The largest single increase in assessment during the year was in that of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, of $26,250. The purchase includes 2400 acres of timber land near Estacada, bought from the Northern Pacific, held as non-assessable under the government land grant until the time that it changed hands.

Added Subscription For Rest Room Of W. C. T. U. Asked

An effort is being made by the W. C. T. U. of this city to increase the subscription list for the rest room established and operated by the organization, since winter is approaching and extra wood and other necessities are needed. A number of the business houses and banks of this city each month have subscribed an amount, but this has been found inadequate to purchase wood, paying for the rent and telephone service as well as purchase dishes. One of the members said, "We need about five more subscriptions of about one dollar each. Last Saturday the rest room was visited by 126 people, a large number of these were from the country section, who had to come to the city to get their Saturday shopping. They enjoyed the comforts of the room. During the past week there were 429 visitors at the room."

Parent Teachers' Group Holds Long Meet In Milwaukie

Jacob Kanzler, judge of the juvenile court of Portland, Attorney W. S. U'ren, of Portland, Percy T. Shelly, of Sandy, took part in the program given at the Grange hall at Milwaukie on Wednesday, when the Parent-Teachers association held an all-day session.

Kanzler and U'ren gave brief talks as did also W. Williams, of Portland. Shelly sang several numbers. Among these were "Mother Machree" and "Chasing Rainbows."

Mrs. Shelly was elected vice-president of the association. She is president of the Woman's Club of Sandy and an ex-mayor of that city, and also ex-school teacher, having taught in Hood River, Oregon, Chickitay county, Gray's Harbor and Chehalis, Washington.

A dinner was served by the women at Milwaukie, when about seventy-five partook of the feast.

Thief Pleads Guilty; Is Given Jail Term

On a plea of guilty in the circuit court Monday, James Bee, charged with thefts from men at the McDowell camp at Estacada, was sentenced to six months in the county jail by Judge J. U. Campbell. Following the report of the robbery, Bee was picked up in Portland at the request of Sheriff Wilson.

Mrs. Rachel Ford Of Tualatin Is Dead

Mrs. Rachel Bird Ford of Tualatin, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Hodges, of Tualatin, on Thursday of last week, her funeral having taken place at Tualatin on Saturday. The interment was in the cemetery near Tualatin.

Mrs. Ford, who was the mother of Mrs. J. W. Noble, for many years a resident of Oregon City, and for the present at the home of her son, Judge E. C. Noble of this city, would have been 82 years of age had she lived for one more month.

Deceased was born in Illinois and is survived by seven children, 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. The children are Mrs. J. E. Hodges, with whom she made her home at Tualatin; Mrs. J. W. Noble, of Reedley, Calif.; A. S. and H. P. Ford, of Portland; Mrs. Harriet Hyer, Mrs. H. E. Jenkins of Portland; Mrs. J. F. Weckert, of Sherwood.

Every Day a Checking Account Will Prove Its Worth. If you have a bill to pay, if you want to send money out of town, if you need ready money but do not want to risk having a large amount with you, if you want an accurate record of your expenditures— A checking account with this bank solves your problems completely. Simply make out a check for the amount required and we do the rest of the work for you. BANK OF OREGON CITY OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY Organized Forty One Years Ago

$200 DONATION IS GIVEN TO HOME OF W. C. T. U. SISTER LUCRETIA TALKS TO 2 CROWDED HOUSES

Mrs. I. S. McArthur, of New Era, has donated $200 towards the Boys' and Girls' Farm Home, a home for orphans to be established at Corvallis. This is a gift from the New Era W. C. T. U.

This amount donated by Mrs. McArthur was realized from the sale of a small building on the ground owned by the union at New Era since 1883. The members of the organization have been scattered, while some have died and others moved to distant states. It was decided to turn over this amount to be applied to the fund to be raised by the local union. There will be a further gift of about $60 when the transaction is finished.

Child Playing With Dynamite Cap Has 3 Fingers Blown Off

Dynamite left by workmen at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Caradoc Morgan, on Tenth and Washington streets, Tuesday afternoon resulted in the loss of thumb and two fingers of the left hand of their four-year-old son, Graham.

The child found the cap and in playing with the same the dynamite exploded. The child's mother was absent from the home for a few minutes, and the father, who is pastor of the Congregational church, was also away. Workmen, who are engaged in making a basement beneath the Morgan home, carried the injured child to the Oregon City hospital, a short distance beyond. An operation was performed on the child's mangled hand, but the thumb and fingers were so badly lacerated that it was impossible to save them.

Oregon City Eleven Beats Estacada 6-0

On a muddy field, and with their squad weakened by men out of the game on account of colds and injuries, Oregon City High School's football squad Friday defeated Estacada at Estac