ter for the past week.

ESTACADA, Nov. 23-The injury to Mrs. C. S. Womer's arm, which she sustained two weeks ago when she fell down the stairs at her home, is worse than at first supposed, as it is now thought that the bone was cracked. She is still carrying her arm in a sling, but says that it is getting better all the time.

The Estacada high school had another rally last Thursday night, in anticipation of the coming game Friday with Canby, which resulted in a shut out for the visitors.

· Albert Hannah, who accompanied Otis Wagner to California a short time ago, has returned to Estacada. Mrs. G. H. Lichthorn was brought home from St. Vincent's hospital last Sunday. Her many friends are hoping that she will improve more quickly now and soon be able to be around

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Allen of Marmot were here Tuesday night to attend the O. E. S. meeting.

Mrs. B. H. Zimmerman is quite ill at her home over the People's Store. Mrs. Harry Kitching returned home Saturday from St. Vincent's hospital where she has been nursing Mrs. Geo. Kitching for the past two weeks. She reports that Mrs. Kitching is improving from her operation for appendicitis, very slowly. The revival meetings at the Christion church continued over Sunday. Quite an interest has been shown and 14 new members, some by letter, were added to the church roll. O. P. Burris, the singer who was assisting in the services, spoke on Sunday morning. Members and friends of the church. enjoyed a basket dinner last Sunday at the church.

Little George Lawrence, son of Gordon Lawrence came from Washington Saturday night to visit his father for a week Mrs. Myrtle Belfils and Mrs. C. F. Howe were business visitors in Oregon City last Saturday. The marriage of Virgil Yonce, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Yonce, former residents of Estacada, was solemnized at the Yonce home in Oregon City last Thursday, November 16, when he married Miss Edith Freese, also of Oregon City. the auspices of the P. T. A. at the pavilion, was a good representation of the old-time carnival with its numerous attractions and concessions, blowing of whistles, merry laughter and the yell of the hawkers at the numerous booths. The admission was 25 cents, but as you entered the room, G. P. Rose, acting as banker, gave in ex change for the twenty-five cents, $40 in bills of the "stage" variety, and Miss Lella Howe gracefully adorned the heads of the revelers with fancy paper caps. With many, such a large sum of money to spend so lavishly, was a new sensation. There were negro doll booths where you received three ball and a chance of knocking down the babies, all for one dollar. A carnival without a "fortune teller" would be very uninteresting, and so the management of this thought, for there were two of them-and their booths were more generously patronized than many others. The nine pins attraction proved a popular booth and hundreds of dollars were lost trying to knock down the pins. The large crowd was a merry one and realized all the enjoyment there was to be had, but easily subdued when the police officer's star flashed before them, worn by a lady. Popcorn balls, candy and punch constituted the refreshments. Everybody had a good time and the committees in charge of the entertainment are to be congratulated upon its success.

when Mountain Chapter, O. E. S. entertained a large delegation of Star members from Waverly and other chapters in Portland. The guests Fred Wilsons live. came in a special car, arriving at six o'clock. They were met at the depot by the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of this chapter and escorted to the lodge room. After being received by the reception committee, slips of paper with portions of a rhyme printed upon them and numbered, were given out, each number containing a group of five. This idea was to do away with formal introductions and everybody to meet everybody. Consid- ning at cards. Music and dancing raspberries were much larger with erable amusement was created and finally when all numbers were united, they proceeded to the dining room. The tables and decorations were very pretty but the delicious chicken dinner served gave a more substantial pleasure. There were five candidates for initiation, the Waverly degree team putting on the work. The ceremony was a very pretty and impressive one, and could not have been improved. As a surprise to the home chapter, was the floral degree conferred upon the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of the Estacada chapter, by the Waverly chapter. The recipients of this most beautiful ceremony were almost overwhelmed with appreciation, Following this a very enjoyable hour was taken up with speeches from visitors and also members of the home chapter.
