Dodge

DODGE, Dec. 11.—Oliver Hendren is quite ill with pneumonia. Dora and Jennie Ten Eyck from Portland spent the week end with their sister, Rosa B. Ten Eyck and attended the basket social.

At the monthly meeting of the Community Club held on Saturday evening, a special effort was made to raise the money to pay for a piano which the club has bought for community use. The effort took the form of a negro play and a basket social. Before the play several musical numbers were given. Mrs. F. Horner and Mrs. H. Horner played "Post and Peasant" Overture as a piano duet, Harold Horner sang a tenor solo entitled "Meagan", and a cornet solo was given by Earl Lankins of Viola, also a trio by piano, violin and cornet was played by Fred Horner and wife and E. Lankins. The play opened with a pathetic negro scene which brought tears to the eyes of many, but soon turned to more happy and humorous parts. Special scenery had been built and painted for the occasion and helped to make the play effective and enjoyable. Many songs were sung by all and different characters after an old fashioned barn dance to music made by a fiddle played by Old Black Joe, the curtain was drawn amidst applause which continued until the dance was re-enacted. The sale of baskets was enjoyed by all and brought in $80. Refreshments were sold to those who had not bought baskets. The proceeds from the whole amounted to $36.70 which was considered very satisfactory.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Dec. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn and children, of Washougal, Wash., were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas.

Mrs. B. O. Sarver visited her sister at Gladstone last week-end.

Mrs. H. C. Stephens visited in Portland last Monday.

The Mother Goose fair, as arranged and carried out by the W. C. T. U. ladies of Estacada, and held in the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday night, was a great success. The articles that were on sale at the different booths, found ready purchasers and when the fair closed at 8 o'clock, after a short program of music and readings, everything had been sold except one quilt, which had a price of eight dollars placed upon it. Even a pound of butter left over, was sold. There was a good patronage for the waffle supper, and while the fair necessitated very much work on the part of the ladies, they feel that their efforts were appreciated and the amount of money raised for the Children's Farm Home more than repaid them for their untiring efforts. There were a few small bills, and after all were paid the total amount was $92.00.

J. E. Gates, Estacada's funeral director, had an accident last Saturday while on the way to Portland to bury Mrs. Linglebaugh. At Eagle Creek he ran into a telephone pole and damaged his car to such an extent that he had to abandon it. No one was injured, however.

Obituary—James S. Duncan was born March 1, 1837, in Ayrshire, Scotland, and came to the United States over fifty years ago. He passed away at his home in Estacada, December 6, 1922, after a short illness. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Carrie Bell Duncan, and two sons, Charles and Robert, who reside at Gardfield and one daughter, Isabel, who resided here with her parents. Deceased located in the Gardfield section in 1893, where he remained until about four years ago when the family moved to Estacada. Funeral services were held from Mt. Zion church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was in the Mt. Zion cemetery near the church, under the direction of J. E. Gates, Rev. Demoy, an old friend of the family, officiated and Mrs. Harry Kitching sang.

The second annual banquet in honor of the Estacada football men, was given last Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall, by the junior class. The seniors, the faculty, school board and their wives, Dr. Midford and the entire football team were present. The room was tastefully decorated in the high school colors, green and white. A miniature gridiron upon a small table occupied the center of the room and the two large dining tables also carried out the color scheme with Oregon grape. Green and white baskets were used for place cards and favors. The five course dinner was served by six of the sophomore girls. Floy Harlan acted as toastmistress and Marian Tucker, captain of the football team, was the first to respond. Ronald Burnett, president of the seniors, Superintendent Elnarson, Gerald Wilson, president of the school board, G. P. Rose and Dr. Midford were the other speakers. After the banquet the tables were removed and a variety of games were played under the leadership of Mrs. Elnarson and Dorothy Phillips. Later dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Stamps to the value of $100, $20 in cash was stolen and the postoffice building at Gladstone badly damaged when yeggs blew open the postoffice safe about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Water rents, amounting to about $700, collected by a deputy in the postoffice, were deposited in the Oregon City bank Tuesday. It is believed that thieves were expecting to find these funds.

The discovery was made early Wednesday morning by Elmo Eby, a paper carrier, who notified Chief of Police T. E. Gault of Gladstone and Mrs. A. F. Parker, postmistress.

The safe was blown through the partition which holds the individual mail boxes. Damage to the building is estimated at $250 and to the boxes and their contents, $300. The building is owned by Mrs. Parker.

The robbery is the second attempt made on the postoffice during the past three months. Yeggs broke the safe knob three months ago in an attempt to rifle the office and took only some loose change found in a drawer.

The looting Wednesday morning was done with the aid of chisels, punch and sledgehammer stolen from the Charles Dauchy blacksmith shop at Parkplace, just across the Clackamas river from Gladstone. The tools were found on the floor of the building and Sheriff Wilson traced their ownership. The thieves had entered the blacksmith shop by jimmying the lock just sufficiently to allow it to spring. When Dauchy and the sheriff entered the building the first time they did not notice that the lock had been tampered with and were at a loss to determine how the tools had been taken. Subsequent examination showed the jimmy marks on the door.

People living near the postoffice building, which is located in the center of the town, heard an explosion about 4 o'clock but none got up to investigate. Postoffice inspectors from Portland took over the investigation yesterday.

That the robbery is the work of practiced yeggs is the opinion of Sheriff Wilson who finds little relationship between the affair yesterday morning and the petty pilfering which has been going on in Gladstone for the past few months.

The Oregon City town team will open their basket ball season Friday evening on the O. C. High School gym floor against the fast North Pacific Dental College team of Portland. The Tooth Pullers have one of the fastest teams in Portland this year.

Though the local boys are going up against a strong team they feel confident of a victory. The locals have several new men on its team this year.

Among new faces to be seen on the floor Friday are Dr. Hausler, formerly of the Peninsula Athletic club of Portland. Hausler played guard on this team the year they won fifteen out of sixteen games. James Kaufman, a tall Idaho boy, will be seen at either center or forward, being able to hold down either position. Layton, an O. A. C. man though kept out of practice, due to illness, will be on deck and ready to play a first-class game.

Walter Smith, though a new man at the game, will develop into a good player before the season is over. Glenn Hankins, captain, will be seen directing the team from his old position at forward. This is the sixth year Hankins has played on the local team. Albert Roake, another old man at the game is holding down his regular berth at guard and will make the best of forward play the limit to get by him.

Ed Godwin, Roake's teammate at guard, is as shifty as ever and has developed a good shooting eye over his last year's playing. Clyde Green, the local's fighting center, is back in the game again this year. Green has played center for the town team several years, and the best centers find him a hard boy to outplay.

"Dutch" Kruger, former all-coast man from O. A. C., will play his regular position, forward. Kruger is one of the fastest men Oregon City has ever seen on the basket ball floor.

THE MEANEST MAN
The meanest man on record is said to live in Shrewsbury, Mass. He sold his son-in-law one half of a cow, and then refused to divide the milk, maintaining that he sold only the front half. The buyer was also requested to feed the cow and carry water to her three times a day. Recently, the cow hooked the old man, and now he is suing his son-in-law for damages.

Bazaar and Supper At Lodge Success

JENNINGS LODGE, Dec. 13.—The annual bazaar given by the members of the Grace Guild at the Community church Friday evening came fully up to the expectations of the committees in charge in a financial way, although the inclemency of the weather kept some away.

The supper netted over $62.00. The tables were attractive with baskets of potted ferns and were presided over by Mesdames Arthur Smith, C. C. Hole, S. Shepperd, R. G. Thompson, Wm. Moritz, R. H. Hendry. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. H. J. Hooker and Julia Ulbrand.

There was the best display of fancy and useful articles ever shown at a local fair.

Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Geo. Williams and Mrs. Maple were in charge of the booth.

The parcel post department was well patronized and hundreds of articles were given Mesdames Dain and Blinstone for their booth.

Mrs. Olin Ford and Mrs. Geo. Gardner found a ready sale for the delicious home made candy.

The church and the booths were decorated with red and green suggestive of the Christmas time.

About $250 was realized from the affair.

At the bean guessing contest at the booth arranged by Mrs. Babler's class Mrs. R. L. Newcomb was the lucky contestant and won a small prize. The booby prize was won by Gretchen Thompson.

Mrs. Flora Dill, a former resident, leaving soon for Lawrence, Kansas, will spend some time with her son, who is connected with the University of Kansas.

Rev. Crocker preached a very able sermon Sunday. A mens' quartette composed of Frank Knoll, C. R. Hollowell, Dr. Grover and W. I. Blinstone, rendered special music, which added to the services.

The minstrel show given by the young men of the community under the direction of Mrs. R. H. Hendry, promises to be one of the big affairs of the week. It will be held at the school house Saturday, Dec. 16. The proceeds are to be used as a piano fund for the church.

Harry Wilson celebrated his 14th birthday on Dec. 8 and it was very prettily observed with a birthday dinner given by his mother, Mrs. Fred Wilson.

Mrs. Dora Kelly has returned from a three weeks visit in Seattle, motoring down Tuesday.
