An "S. O. S." call for clothing has been made by the W. C. T. U. rest room committee. Mrs. N. M. Aldredge, acting as hostess of the room Friday, reports that three girls of high school age, who are badly in need of clothing called at the rooms and asked for aid, and a man, who has been ill for some time and unable to work without a coat, and was in need of underclothing. The women of this organization, who have done much towards relieving the needy of Clackamas county since war times, have maintained a chest in the rest room at Seventh and Main streets where cast-off clothing is kept in case of necessity. Many times has this chest been filled and distributed to deserving people. At this time of the year there is an unusual demand for wearing apparel and those having clothing which they have discarded and desire to donate can send them to the rest room.

EXEMPTION CLAIM IS DENIED IN PLEA FOR CITIZENSHIP

William Herzog of Route 2,
Tells Court He Did Not
Attempt to Refuse Army
Service; Lawyer Is Blamed.

FIVE-YEAR WAIT FOR PAPERS IS ORDERED

Naturalization Is Granted to
Four; Thirteen Are on List;
3 Fail to Make Appearance.

Monday he expected to become a citizen. For five years now, baffled by circumstances, he must wait, still an alien, before he can again apply for the examination which will grant his naturalization.

In the fall of 1919 William Otto Herzog, a native of Germany, living on Oregon City route 2, registered under the compulsory draft bill. The form was a laborious one, more than somewhat complicated. Herzog went to an attorney, and the papers were filled out.

Monday, to the surprise of his witnesses and ostensibly to himself, it developed that he had claimed exemption from military service because he was at that time technically an alien enemy.

Action is Mandatory
No citizenship papers were granted. Under the supreme court rulings, such action on the part of an applicant makes it mandatory upon the court to deny admission as a citizen—deny it with prejudice—so that the man is the same in the eyes of the statute as if he had just landed in the country today.

Herzog in court claimed that he had no intention to ask exemption, and in his case is a parallel with a number which have somewhat perplexed the naturalization examiners since the orders to admit natives of the central powers again to citizenship were issued.

In good faith, it seems, attorneys instructed their clients that it was their only course, if a native of Germany or Austria, to claim exemption from the draft boards. Perplexing red tape, martial speed, were to blame. In nearly every instance the error was made in good faith.

Some Offer "Alibi"
At naturalization hearings since the ban has been lifted, numerous applicants declare that they believed that to claim exemption was the only thing they could do. Or they say that this advice was given them as "legal," or that an attorney filled out the blank for them answering the question pertinently in the firm belief that there was only one answer to be given.

In some cases the excuse is camouflage, a mere alibi, for no man applying for citizenship will admit temporary disloyalty. Yet in others it is sincere. But the statutes make no point of difference. Under the United States supreme court ruling, there is only one course for the presiding judge to take. And laconically yesterday Judge Campbell declared the ruling.

The situation is one about which, ostensibly, nothing can be done. It is a case where the innocent suffer with the guilty so that the guilty may be justly punished, the officials say, and that is all.

Four Are Admitted
At the hearing Monday 13 had applied, but only four were granted their papers. One was denied, three failed to appear and the remainder were continued for additional study.

Those admitted were:
John Nelson McKillican, England, West Linn.
Rasmus Peterson, Denmark, Woodburn, route 3.
Robert A. Waddell, England, Oregon City.
Joseph Schmidt, Germany, Hoff, route 1.

The examination was conducted by V. N. Tomlinson of Portland.

FINAL REPORT IS MADE ON OPERATION OF FERRY

The Oregon City-West Linn ferry company, formed by local businessmen to provide for vehicular traffic during the period of construction of the Willamette River bridge, was dissolved Saturday at a meeting of the board of directors. A surplus of $457.46 was left in the hands of the board of directors as a trust fund for whatever civic purposes they may desire.

The ferry was placed on operation March 6; after the state and county had refused to make arrangements for other pedestrian traffic. It operated continuously until December 6 with the exception of a month's period when it was closed down due to the low water. During the period it carried 26,741 vehicles according to the report of A. G. Beattie, secretary.

The ferry, which was installed and operated by the Oregon City Sand and Gravel company was financed by individual contributions by the merchants of the city, amounting to $296.75. Clackamas county and Oregon City each contributed $500. The receipts from operation were $6,792.88. The total expenses of operating and installation were $10,205.17. The directors were: W. A. Huntley, president, James Brady, vice president Henry Larsen, Wm. Andersen, Hiram Straight, Linn Jones and Clarence Farr.

Holman and Pace Buy Residence of Minister to Siam

R. L. Holman and G. A. Pace, undertakers, have purchased the home of E. E. Brodie, minister to Siam. The property is at the Corner of Seventh and Jefferson streets. The consideration was between $7000 and $8000. The sale was made through J. E. Hedges, attorney representing Brodie.

It is the intention of Holman & Pace to move their undertaking parlors from the Corner of Seventh and Water streets to its new location as soon as the residence on Seventh street is remodeled. A chapel, private room for the movers and a display room for the caskets are to be on the first floor, while the second floor will be used as apartments. These apartments are to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William De Hondt, Mrs. De Hondt being woman assistant in the undertaking business.

Holman & Pace are to take possession of their newly acquired property about January 1st. R. L. Holman moved to the present location about seven years ago. Two years later O. A. Pace became associated with him.

The property to be vacated by the undertakers consists of one lot and a ten-room building. This was owned by the Chase family years ago.

QUALITY RESTAURANT IS DAMAGED BY FLAMES

What will be Oregon City's fire loss for 1922? With the damage ledger totaling conservatively already more than $350,000 from blazes of natural and incendiary origin, the past seven days have seen four fires.

The last occurred at 11 o'clock Monday morning, in the rear of the Quality restaurant. Only the sudden checking of the flames by the fire department prevented its spread to adjacent wooden buildings and the threatening of the entire block which contains, among other structures, the Electric hotel.

The fire started while the cook was frying meat. The grease in the pan caught fire and extended over the smoke vent and caught in the ceiling. Damage was done by fire at the rear and water in the building amounting to about $1500.

The building is owned by the Logus estate, and is located at Fifth and Main streets. George Newton, restaurateur, has occupied the building for over a year.

"MORE AND BETTER FRUIT"

A new discovery—Nature's way of production greatly improved. The fruit buds mature and produce much larger and more wholesome fruit. Extremely large cherries and they do not fall Bear in mind that fully fifty per cent of our cherries fall before maturity. This may be saved, except for weather conditions, the first year by the application of "Morehouse's Orchard Invigorant," applied by expert horticulturists. All fruit made to bring forth an abundance, as the "Invigorant" feeds the fruit bearing buds. The serious bleeding, as well as Bacterial Gummosis, in the cherry, soon overcome, thru the perfect circulation of the sap. Roses and all the flower kingdom made to respond with brighter tints, all cereals, vegetables, forced into heavy production. Practical pruning, spraying, budding and grafting done in proper season. All sprays have the invigorant added free. "The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." Write or call for information.

SESSION HELD BY WOMAN'S CLUB

At the meeting of the Woman's club held in the Commercial club parlors Thursday afternoon Miss E. Ruth Rockwood of the Portland library and formerly of Oregon City, opened the program with an address on "Achievement in Scientific Higher Education of M. Carey Thomas," president of Bryn Mawr. As Miss Rockwood is a graduate from Bryn Mawr, she was well versed upon her subject, and she brought out many important points as to the importance of higher education.

Mrs. A. B. Rintoul, of this city, spoke on "The Abuse of the Prohibition Law Does Not Defeat Its Purpose." Mrs. Rintoul illustrated her subject by a number of anecdotes. She was a former president of the local W. C. T. U. of this city.

Others giving talks of interest to the assembly were Mrs. George Eberly and Mrs. Carl Price Richards of this city. Mrs. Eberly's subject was "Those Who Carry On" and Mrs. Richards' "The Scottish Vernacular, Caste and Creed."

Miss Lorraine Lee, a popular vocalist of Canby, was the soloist of the afternoon and delighted her hearers with several numbers, responding to hearty encores. Miss Lee's numbers were "Tes Yu" by Rabeby and "Ladle" and "Dawn" by Curran. Miss Lee possesses a sweet and expressive voice, and gave these numbers in her sweet and charming manner. She was a pupil of Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, of this city for several seasons. She has appeared on the chautauqua platform and will soon leave for California to continue her studies at Los Angeles. Mrs. Arthur Beattie was Miss Lee's accompanist.

During the business session the medical schools of Asia were discussed, and at the next meeting of the club, which will be December 28, a report will be made as to the funds to be raised by the local organization to be sent to that country. Several pledges from members were made at the Thursday meeting.

Another subject for discussion was the Christmas seal campaign drive that is now being carried on by the Clackamas County Health association. As cash prizes are to be given to the students from all over the county for the best essays, the Oregon City Woman's club subscribed $15 towards the fund. Mrs. Carl Price Richards gave $5. It is probable that the Clackamas county Health association will increase the prize fund by adding $10.

The hostesses of the meeting were Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. Samuel Stevens and Mrs. John Gaffney Jr. Mrs. E. E. Cross was to have been one of the hostesses, but owing to the death of her mother, Mrs. Julia Tingle, did not take part in the affair.

At the next meeting to be held December 28, a program suitable for Mothers' and Daughters' day is being arranged. At that time there will be a number of university and college girls on the program. Among these will be Miss Virginia Shaw, president of Pullman college; Miss Margaret Beattie, of University of Oregon; Miss Maude Mattley, a graduate of the University of Oregon. Miss Maude Legeson, former student of the University of Oregon, will sing a number of college songs, as will also a quartet. At that time Mrs. Victor Gault will give "Beasley's Christmas Party."

The hostesses will be Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. H. B. Evans of Canby, Mrs. P. D. Forbes and Mrs. W. C. Green.

Rebuilding of Jail in Courthouse Is Begun

Rebuilding of the county jail in the basement of the courthouse has been begun, practically a year after the appropriation for the work was made by the budget committee. E. J. Blessing of Portland is installing the new equipment.

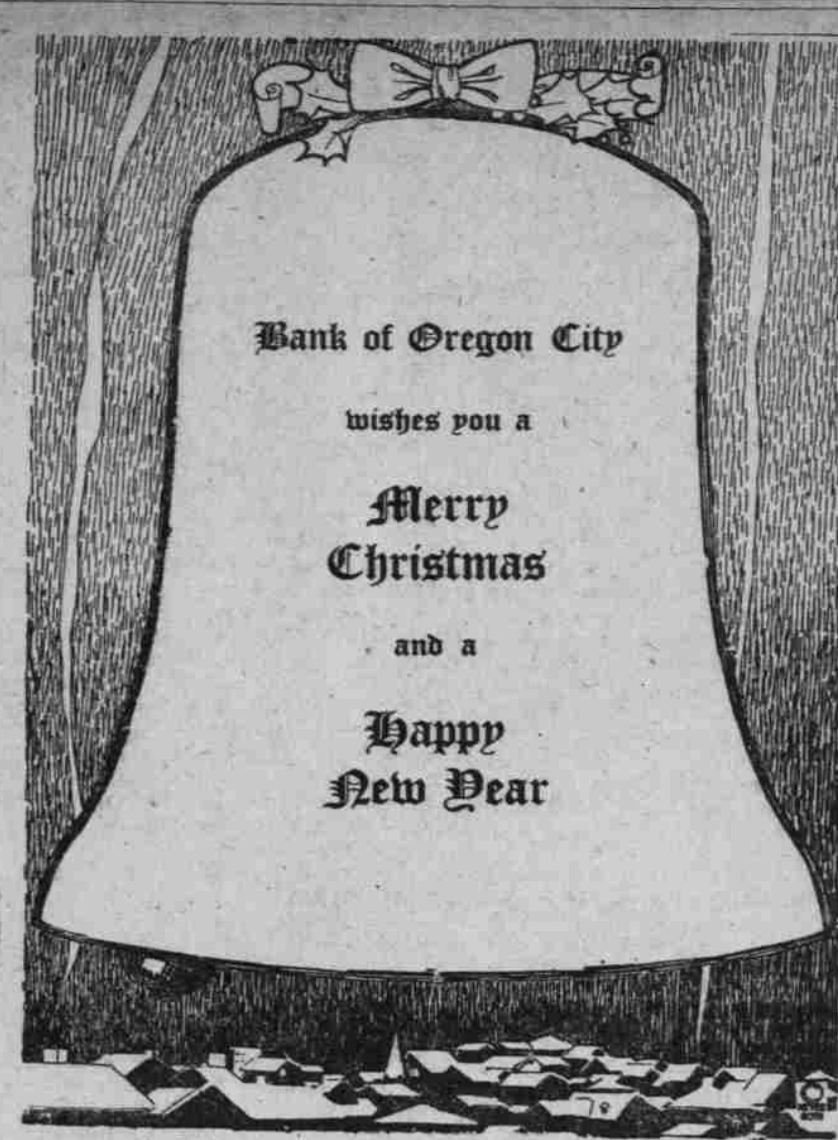

A series of steel cages, replacing the old single corridor are being built, together with provision for women's and juvenile quarters.

The old jail, the subject of numerous grand jury reports, has been in such poor condition that prisoners could break away practically at will. In order to prevent further "dehorries" Special Deputy F. C. Burto has been in charge of the jail during the night hours.

Mrs. Kerr has resided in Clackamas county for many years. She is making many improvements in the annex. There are 16 rooms in the building, well lighted and ventilated. J. J. Tobin, former proprietor of the establishment, has retained the Electric hotel on Fourth street.
