Auto is Hit by Train, Driver Slightly Hurt

George Sinn, of Maple Lane, was injured when his automobile was hit by the train between the post office and the meat market. The accident occurred at 11:30 yesterday morning. His car was thrown completely out of control, and his driver, who was greatly excited, was slightly injured. Mr. Sinn was taken to the hospital, where he is now recovering from his injuries.

Address of winners, Ida Pasch, first prize; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson, second prize; Mrs. Eodi Mansfield, third prize; Mrs. M. W. Johnson, fourth prize; Mrs. F. S. Johnson, fifth prize; Mrs. E. E. Riddle, sixth prize; Mrs. A. H. McIntosh, seventh prize; Mrs. A. H. Jorgenson, eighth prize; Mrs. A. H. Jorgenson, ninth prize; Mrs. A. H. Jorgenson, tenth prize. The winner of the coveted "Pigeon" was Mrs. A. H. Jorgenson, who was also awarded a prize of $100.

Oregon City Enterprise, Dec. 29, 1922.

Our Depositors Are Entitled to All the Service We Can Render

Whether in the handling of loans and deposits or in the more personal matters of business advice and co-operation, probably you have not realized how helpful your bank can be to you. Bring your next business problem to one of our officers and let us talk it over.

Bank of Oregon City
Silent Bank in Clackamas County
Organized Forty Years Ago

Former Resident of Oregon City

Miss Rebecca Turner, well known throughout Clackamas county, died at her home in Washago Thursday, when Mrs. R. H. Turner was at the residence, the body was removed to the Colorado City Cemetery for burial.

Pneumonia Fatal to James Monroe Mark

James Monroe Mark, prominent of Oregon City, died suddenly last Wednesday at his home. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mark, and was born in Oregon City. He was a well known business man in the city, and was a member of the board of directors of the Bank of Oregon City.

Last Rites Are Held For Joseph Swarts

The funeral services of Rev. Joseph Swarts, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, took place at 11 o'clock at the church. The body was reposed in the church, and the services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Clark, pastor of the church, and Rev. J. H. Smith, of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland. The burial was at the West Lawn Cemetery.

$20,000 Is Stolen in Bold Chlorform Robbery in Chicago

Chicago, Dec. 29—A gang of six men, described as members of the "Big Four" gang, broke into the Chicago Bank of Commerce, at 120 East Washington Street, at 11:30 this morning, and made off with $20,000 in gold and silver. The police have not been able to find any trace of the gang, and the investigation is being conducted by the police department.