Oswego State Bank Opens on Thursday

OSWEGO, Dec. 27-The Oswego State bank opened its doors and was ready for business Thursday. The stock holders of the bank held a meeting Monday night and elected John Bickner, William Cook and Charles J. Sadilek as directors, who in turn elected the following officers: presiier, Charles J. Sadilek.

The bank officials have firm faith in the community of Oswego and will strive to give the best possible service. The new bank building was designed by Carl L Linde, of Portland, who also prepared the plans and specifications, and the structure is declared to be one of the neatest and most commodious banking houses of similar size to be seen anywhere,

The building has been equipped vices making it as burglar proof and year. fire proof as is possible.

Pupils of Oswego

OSWEGO, Dec. 27-The pupils of the Oswego grammar school gave an interesting program at the Congregational church on Friday evening. All of the kiddles taking part deserve much praise as do Miss Hamilton and Mrs. Purcell and their able assistants who worked hard to make the affair a success.

The program opened with songs by the children of the lower grades, was followed by a clever sketch, "The party in the shoe." The and Mrs. Riley of Portland, well known fairy tale of the old woman and her children in the shoe, who basis upon which the playlet was founded and it was well rendered. Destroyed By Fire

SANDY, Dec. 26-Shortly after twelve o'clock last night fire broke out in the H. G. Mullenhoff dairy barn between Sandy and Pleasant Home and the barn which was a large modern building was destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated. The family had been enjoying their Christmas celbration until about midnight and just as they were retiring the fire was discovered. It is thought that the fire may have been caused from the lighting system, although that is merely "guess work." The cows were all saved but three. The bull, a very fine animal, was badly burned. Stanhope Bell Johanna, an 'almost' world celebrity of the Holstein breed was saved. The barn was insured but the loss has not been es timated as yet.
