FIFTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING SESSIONS

Officers Chosen for the Ensuing Year—Oak Grove Next Place of Meeting—C. A. Phipps Speaks Tonight.

The Clackamas County Sunday School Association began its fifteenth annual convention in this city Saturday morning with a morning session. The convention was held in the Presbyterian church and the ladies served refreshments in the parlors of the church. The convention was opened at 10:30 a. m. with devotional exercises by Rev. J. J. Eddy, followed with reading minutes after which there were reports from officers and schools. These reports told many encouraging things concerning the introduction of graded classes, and the report from the Mt. St. Helens school showed that it is one of the banner schools in the association. The reports showed marked increase in nearly every instance, and workers were cheered by results. Short addresses were here given on the benefits of organized class work, and an advertised speaker failing to appear, the appointment of committees followed: Committee on resolutions—C. F. Clark, Mrs. R. M. C. Brown, W. J. Eddy, Landborough and C. B. Hysom. Nominating committee—Mrs. D. C. LaTourrette, Mrs. W. C. Green, W. J. Eddy, Landborough and C. B. Hysom. Place of Meeting—Mrs. G. C. Brown, George Rannell and Mrs. C. M. Eddy. The consecration service after the recess was led by Mrs. F. Clark, the absence of her husband, who was sick. The first address of the afternoon was by Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, on "Graded Classes." She said that graded classes stand for: 1. Teaching of God's Word; 2. Study of the Child; 3. New ways of teaching. The speaker emphasized the fact that graded union has needed more than ever in the past graded lessons are being introduced. The motto offered is "Keep the Children Keeping On." An effort will be made to organize such a union here, and the union to meet in the Baptist church Saturday, January 21. Mrs. M. B. Meacham gave "The Primary Lessons for Sunday." She invited those present to become children of the kingdom taking the lesson "Jesus Going Up to Jerusalem." Mrs. Meacham gave a graphic description of the journey, bringing out the things that would be certain to interest the folks in making their first journey to a big city. This was Jesus' first when a young lad and the leader made the most of it in its presentation in a graphic way. A solo by Miss Ivy Roake was the next on the program after which W. J. Eddy, of Springwater, completed a program of the afternoon with a paper on "Condition of Sunday School Work in This County."

COASTING ACCIDENTS MANY AND SEVERE

Miss Martin more severely than at first reported—OTHER MISHAPS OCCUR. Mrs. Joseph Wilson, who lives on Sixteenth street, fell on the slippery pavement Saturday evening and was seriously hurt. She was starting for the business part of town to do some trading, and had just stepped into the street when her feet went out from under her and she fell heavily on the pavement. Her ankle was injured and it is feared there may be a fracture. Carl Schrader, son of E. Schrader of the Royal Bakery, was hurt while sliding on Fifth street, Friday. Miss Effie Dillman, living on Sixth street, near Jackson, was given a severe jolt while coasting Friday night. She and her friends were out coasting on the hill and were just starting for home when she took her place on the sled for a last ride. She was no sooner seated until two boys ran into her from the rear, knocking her off the sled and injuring her head and back. Eva Aldrich, a young Miss, had her leg badly hurt while coasting Thursday. Joe Shinn had his arm fractured Thursday night. While he was severely hurt he said nothing to his folks lest they become frightened of his injury and forbid his coasting any more this winter. He told a girl friend that he split wood and did chores with much vim to make it appear that he was not injured, while in fact he could scarce raise his arm it was so sore. Miss Freda Martin, injured while coasting on Twelfth street Friday night, was more severely injured than was supposed when the case was first reported. She was hit on the head near the left temple. It is feared the skull is fractured and it is certain the nerves lying near the surface at that point are injured. The left arm cannot be raised of her own volition and it is feared the injury to the nerve extends down into the shoulder. Miss Martin is doing nicely, and is improving, but her injuries are more severe than was at first supposed. Prof. Hornar Lectures. Professor Hornar, of the State Agricultural College at Corvallis, gave an illustrated lecture in Parkplace Saturday night on "Rome to Jerusalem." He was on a visit to his daughter, who is one of the Parkplace teachers, and took this occasion to tell his friends of his journey over this old route to which much historic interest attaches.

HARMON FRIENDS WILL BE THERE

OTHER CANDIDATES, TOO, WILL ATTEND THE BANQUET AND JUBILATION AT BALTIMORE.

NOT SO CERTAIN HE IS THE MOSES

Political Pendulum Seems to be Swinging Away From the Doughty Cincinnati Politician.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—The Democrats are to have a banquet and jubilation in Baltimore next Tuesday, and indications from certain quarters indicate that Harmon and his friends have looked upon the gathering as an endorsement for him for the Presidency. Certain other Democrats do not relish the insinuation, and do not accept Harmon as the Moses sought. The latter are now in doubt as to whether this gathering is to benefit or injure the Democratic cause. On second thought Harmon is not to be considered the only man present at the banquet. His friends will shout loud and long for him, it is true, but there will be those who refuse at this time to join in the refrain. Harmon will be present and strive to look in his most receptive mood; all of which will convince some that it is his diplomacy which should stand in his favor when the party is casting about for a man who can please all.

PASSENGERS RESCUED ON GREAT NORTHERN

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES DIG OUT THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN SNOWED IN.

SPOKANE, Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—The Great Northern train that was buried in the snow for four days has been reached and the passengers—17 in number—rescued. The relief train approached within a mile of the one stalled near Fielding, Mont., and took aboard those who had been imprisoned for four days. Passengers report they were made comfortable and suffered nothing but inconvenience. The train stalled Monday night and by morning was buried almost out of sight in the snow. The train was kept warm, the passengers well fed and the road rescued them as soon as possible.

APPROPRIATION UP TO LEGISLATURE

BILL VETOED BY GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN TO ASSIST RESTORATION OF MCLAUGHLIN HOME MAY BE VOTED UPON NEXT TUESDAY.

An appropriation of $1250, made by the last legislature for the preservation and care of the home of Doctor John McLaughlin, was vetoed by Governor Chamberlain. The reasons given showed that he was laboring under a misapprehension of the facts in the case; only one of the reasons given being true, which was that the building has been moved from its original location. This removal was made necessary from the fact that part of the property on which the building was located belonged to The Hawley Pulp and Paper Co., and was needed for manufacturing purposes. The question of giving the building a permanent home on one of the most slightly and prominent park blocks in the city was voted on by the citizens of Oregon City and adopted by a large majority. The McLaughlin Memorial Association, with a membership extending over all of Oregon, has expended over $2000 in moving and restoring the building to its original condition. The work has been done under the direction of Mrs. M. L. Myrick, grand daughter of Doctor McLaughlin, and has been pronounced well and faithfully done by pioneers familiar with the building when occupied by Doctor McLaughlin. The appropriation, though a small one, will be of great assistance to the Association in making the building of greater historic interest and a monument to the "Father of Oregon," of which all citizens have reason to be proud. The McLaughlin Memorial Association, incorporated for the purpose of honoring the memory of Doctor John McLaughlin and the pioneers of Oregon, feel that the important part taken by Dr. McLaughlin in the early history of Oregon, his sympathy and benevolence to the pioneers, justify the Association in asking for this appropriation. The people of Oregon City sincerely trust that when this bill comes before the present legislature, for action on the veto, that it will receive the practically unanimous vote by which it passed the last legislature.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GORDON.

Last Sad Rites Will Be Said This Afternoon. The remains of Mrs. W. J. Gordon were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lagason on Main street, being brought to the city Saturday afternoon. Members of the family and close friends accompanied the remains. Arrangements have been perfected for the funeral, to be held from the Congregational church this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. W. M. Froctor, pastor of the local church, will have charge of the funeral and he will be assisted by Rev. O. Z. Cressy, of Canby, pastor of the church in that place where Mrs. Gordon worshipped. There were many gifts of flowers by those who were close friends of deceased when she lived in this city. The Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Gordon was an honored member, will attend the funeral in a body and participate in the last sad rites to the dead. The pall-bearers—from among those who knew her well in life—will be C. H. Dye, O. E. Freytag, W. A. White, L. Adams, J. M. Mark and John Crawford.

MAGONE TO BE HONORED.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—It is said to be a foregone conclusion that Magone, of Clackamas county, will be given the chairmanship of the fisheries committee in the Lower House. As Mr. Magone stands well with his delegation this honor to him will come with due congratulations.

BUBONIC PLAGUE SCARE.

Harbin Reports 150 Deaths, Mukden 30 More. MUKDEN, China, Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—Thirty deaths from bubonic plague have been reported here. A systematic fight has been instituted. A dispatch from Harbin indicates it is even worse there, 150 deaths having occurred. The alarm started at Pekin has subsided as investigation shows not one case there.

PRISONERS MUST WORK.

Salem Chief Will Clean Up the Town. SALEM, Or., Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—City prisoners were today put to work on the streets. They were put to work scattering sawdust on the slippery walkers. This is a move of Chief Hamilton in an effort to make the prison self sustaining. With warm weather the men will be set to cleaning the alleys in the city.

HAIR-PULLING CONTEST

Was in Sight When the Police Were Called In. TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—The women suffragists here ended a convention today in a row; tears were shed and sighs expressed, but without avoiding hot words. It was necessary to call in officers to keep down a worse scene.

THERMOMETER GOES DOWN.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 14.—(Sp.)—High winds prevail here, with a low temperature. Ten below zero is reported for tonight.

BUILDING BOOM IN OREGON CITY

MANY FINE RESIDENCES HAVE BEEN ERECTED IN TOWN AND ITS SUBURBS.

GLADSTONE COMES IN LEADING PLACE

First Church of Christ Constructing New Edifice on Ninth and Center That Will be Credit to Society and City.

During the past six months there has been somewhat a building boom in Clackamas County. Many of the homes that have been constructed are occupied by the owners themselves, and as soon as one is completed to rent it is eagerly sought for. At present there are very few desirable residences vacant that are for rent. Among those who have built this year is Attorney John W. Loder, whose home on Ninth and Center streets has attracted no little attention. This home is modern throughout, with a full cement basement, stationery wash-tubs, fireplace, den, and its large airy rooms makes it one of the most desirable homes in the city. Mr. Loder, before having this home built, assisted by the contractor, J. D. Renner, arranged for its convenience, and from all appearances he had exceptionally good taste. There are two verandas, one fronting on Center street, while the other overlooks Eighth Street. The grounds are to be beautified as soon as the weather permits. Opposite the Loder home is the First Church of Christ, Scientist, which is under construction. The members of the church, although not many in number in this city, have worked diligently to build a structure of their own, where they may hold services instead of the hall, which they are now occupying. Two beautiful and slightly lots were purchased from Captain J. T. Apperson, formerly owned by Carey Johnson, and as soon as these were in the church's possession the members set to work and planned for the edifice. The building is in charge of C. B. Huyck, one of the prominent builders of this city. The auditorium is 42x35 feet, and will accommodate about 150 people. Fronting the building are two entrances, the main entrance and the vestibule. Swinging doors have been installed between the vestibule and the auditorium. At the rear of the church is the platform, and on each side are two smaller rooms, 12x12 feet, the one in charge of C. B. Huyck, one of the prominent builders of this city. The auditorium is 42x35 feet, and will accommodate about 150 people. Fronting the building are two entrances, the main entrance and the vestibule.
