STATE AID ASKED FOR ROAD MAKING

CAMPAIGN FOR BETTER HIGHWAYS TO COVER PERIOD OF TWO YEARS.

COUNTY COURT TO DESIGNATE ROADS

Improvement Must Be Begun Within Two Years From Passage of the Enabling Act.

An effort is being put forth to provide State aid to the counties for road building. A bill with that view has been introduced into the legislature. We print the text below:

BROTHERS ARRESTED FOR SANDY THEFT

H. M. DOUGLASS INTERESTED IN SHOWING THAT HE WAS NOT AT FAULT.

E. W. Keller and H. M. Keller, of Sandy, were placed under arrest in Portland Tuesday on the charge of larceny. They were operating a restaurant for the past month and on December 20 were accused of packing up the silverware, which was rented property, and after robbing the store belonging to George Ketch, they left for Portland.

ASSASSIN IN HOT WATER.

Uncertain As to How He Should Divide Assessment.

County Assessor J. E. Jack is in doubt as to the division of the assessment of corporation property in Clackamas county. The state tax commission reported 594 miles of wire belonging to the Portland Railway Light & Power Co. This is valued at $480 per mile, making a total valuation of $489,960, but in the mileage is embraced the valuation of other property of the company.

PLANNING FOR A LIVESTOCK SHOW

PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 21 AND 22, ARE THE PLACE AND DATES CHOSEN.

TO HAVE EDUCATIONAL SIGNIFICANCE

Prizes for Best Stock and No Admission Charge to the Show—Lectures By Competent Authorities.

Portland will have a fat stock show March 20, 21 and 22. The affair will be of the same nature as similar shows held in the packing centers of the Middle West and it is expected to develop into a great aid to livestock growing, creating interest in the industry and spreading information broadcast as to methods followed with the most success.

NUMBER AND VALUES COUNTY LIVE STOCK

DR. W. S. EDDY MAKES COMPILATION FOR U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Dr. W. S. Eddy, secretary of the state board of veterinary surgeons, has compiled for the United States department of agriculture an approximate list and valuation of the livestock in Clackamas county.

Filtering Plant for Willamette.

A filtering plant is to be installed in the High School building of Willamette, and upon its arrival from the East, which will probably be next week, will be installed by W. H. Howell, superintendent of the Oregon City works. This has been greatly needed for some time as there was a great deal of sickness in that vicinity last year and it is presumed originated from the water.

Charged With Begging While Drunk.

C. C. Armstrong, who hails from Portland, was found begging on the streets Tuesday, being in an intoxicated condition. Chief of Police Shaw took him in tow and locked him up in the city prison till such time as he should sober up. Wednesday he was taken before Recorder Stipp and given a sentence of 30 days in jail.
