SAD DROWNING HERE

Small Slaze at the Kelsey Home— School Meeting Saturday. MARQUAM, Jan. 48—(Epl.)—The sad news of the drowning of the little daughter of John Perguson, while with her mother and small brother, has reached here. They were crossing the Marquam Brafich, near Scott's Mills, on their way from their home which is located about 24 miles from Scott's Mills. Grappling hooks are being deed, but up to a late hour all efforts to find the body have failed.

It has also been reported that Mr. Kelsey's house at Scott's Mills was in danger of a fire, which had been started by a little boy while playing with matches. Not much damage was done only to some curtains and a few

OSWEGO GRANGE HAS

REGULAR GRANGE AND JUVENILE GRANGE OFFICERS TAKE UP BURDEN OF OFFICE.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather about fifty grangers, staunch and true, met at their hall in Oswego blican members of the and the officers of both the grange and juvenile grange were installed on Saturday, January 14. Prof. Gary, our stalling officer. He was assisted by Mrs. C. T. Dickenson and Mrs. Lane. Mrs. Lane has been a very efficient matron of the juvenile grange for the past year and Marjorie Tiedeman has been her assistant, both having gained the love and respect of all the members of the juvenile grange. Stone, of Springbrook, will take her place for the coming year. Perhaps it is not generally known that any children between the ages of 6 and 14 can join the juvenile grange, whether their parents belong or not, by the payment of a small fee and obeying the rules and regulations laid down. Its teachings tend to uplift and form good traits of character which will go with them into the busy scenes of manhood and womanhood.

Prof. Gary, among other good things said when he was asked to install the officers of Oswego Grange, and its juvenile grange, he felt glad to be able to do it and fold the story of the man who searched the world over for the bed of diamonds, and they were found at his own door. Therefore we may not have to look to the Far East for the great and good; they may be growing up in Oswego juvenile grange. The Professor, who has been a successful teacher for a number of years, claims never to have seen a bad boy.

The juvenile grange has an organ and have various exercises dear to the heart of every boy and girl, and the time passes quickly for them.

The have their own officers of 13 who carry on the meetings under the gone. supervision of the matron, and they have their separate table in the dining room, a trifle better laden perhaps than the other.

A. J. Thompson, who was elected steward, resigned and Mrs. Geo. Stevenson, who was elected Ceres, also sent in her resignation, as she was very ill. Mr. Milan was elected stew-ard and Mrs. Milan, Ceres.

The worthy master, C. C. Borland, who succeeded himself, told of a card shower given him on his birthday, the 3rd of the month, he having received 113 from grangers and other

DAMAGING FLOODS

CITY AND COUNTRY SUFFER LIT TLE, HOWEVER, WHEN TOTAL RAINFALL IS CONSIDERED.

Washouts on Country Roads Are Severe-Many Dollars Will Be Necessary for Repairs.

This section has been visited by one of the heaviest rainfalls-consider ing the short space of time that it rained heavily—in its history, and the depth of water on certain streets in this city was great. The rain began Tuesday and by Wednesday there was no uncertainty as to its earnestness. The rains fell up the river, down the river and to both sides of the river. At times the water came down in sheets and the streets were streams of swiftly moving waters. Added to this was the large volume of snow on the hillsides that melted with the Trouble began at an early hour Wednesday, but not until Thursday was there disturbance of consequence in the traffic arrangements of railways entering this city. But during the greater part of Thursday and Thursday night traffic was greatly interrupted and to a large extent suspend-

There was a two-foot raise at Eugene early in the trouble. This was no larger from the fact there was little snow in that section to melt and the bed of the stream had to carry only the rainfall. The first raise in this city was in consequence only fluenced by the bedry rains.

Many of the streams of the county are overflowing their banks and have done serious damage to property. The Clear Creek bridge at Fischer's Mill went out Wednesday afternoon. There is no confirmation of this disaster but as it is an old bridge, and has stood many viscissitudes, the report is considered as true will had a span of from

The Abernathy in this city is greatly swollen by the heavy and continued downpour, and a few of the residents near Fifteenth and Washington streets are in readiness for a quick move if worst comes to worst. There is a had slide on the Abernathy road going to Redland, and the river road on the east side of the Clackamas is impassable. Many culverts are out on several of the main roads in the county. The bridge extending over the gulch at Fourteenth and Madison streets is unsafe, and it has been closed to pedestrians and teams

On Twelfth street, near Washington the city sewer, a large one, gave way, causing a rush of waters beneath the newly filled street, which resulted in a cave-in of about 15 feet in depth. On this same street, but nearer the county superintendent, acted as in- railroad track, the sewer broke in another place, causing another rush of waters overflowing the flat beneath the railroad track. By the bursting of the sewer on Twelfth street, near Washington, it has caused the lower part of the property of Mrs. Mary Barlow to become a lake.

The bridge at Oswego has been closed to traffic, it having been so badly undermined in places that there is danger of loss of a portion of the structure. The County Court was notified yesterday and requested that every precaution be taken.

As a result of the continued heavy rains a landslide occurred in the yard of Mrs. Richards, who resides on Twelfth street, near Washington. Tons of dirt came down from the land adjoining, belonging to Mrs. J. B. Robinson, and crossed the land of Mrs. Richards, striking against the latter's house, but no one was injured. It will take several days to remove the de

The boats and boat houses that were moored at the foot of Eleventh street, have been securely fastened, and there is no danger of these floating away on the seething waters of the Willamette. Many logs are floating down the river, some of which are being caught and brought to shore.

The bridge extending across the Abernethy Creek near Maple Lane to the farms of Calgar, Morris and Heater, was yesterday washed away. Some of the fences in that vicinity are also

George Brown, one of the well-known residents of Maple Lane, states that during Tuesday and Wednesday of this week 9½ inches of rain fell at Maple Lane. This is the heaviest-rainfall known in that vicinity for many years and caused all of the many years, and caused all of the small streams there to become raging

Much damage has been done on the South End road near Canemah Park. The streams above having been swollen caused rocks to become loose and to fall on the highway below. Street Superintendent C. C. Babcock has a force of men at this work repairing the road, but it will be almost a month before the roadway will be in its proper shape, and will cost the city about Mr. Babcock has a force about 20 men making repairs that have been caused by the rains.

The O. W. P. Company has brought many of its flat cars to this city, and these have been placed on the com-pany's track near the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company's Mills in the southern part of the city.

The culvert of the O. W. P. located in the Chinese garden near Green Point was yesterday washed away, and the passengers are now transferred to another car at Parkplace. The company is able to operate its cars from this city to Portland, but on Wednesday many of the cars passed through water that had covered the tracks at a depth of two feet. People of this city who were in Portland were

Waldron, the mail carrier of Moialia, returned from Moialia yes-terday evening at 5:30 o'clock, and reports that the people of Milino are experiencing a flood. Milk Creek has overflowed its banks, and the waters of that stream have never been known to be as high. This stream has done a great deal of damage already. ushing waters have brought drift of all kinds down, which broke the head gates of the mill race of the Howard Mill at Mulino. The water on the road at the mill is over two feet deep, and the smaller wagon bridge at that point is in danger. Mr. Waldron, anxious to complete his trip to this city, crossed the bridge without mishap. The Molalla river is not as high as that of last year, but is badly swollen Every Garage Will Put On Gala Attire and in many places over its banks The water from Milk Creek has not reached the interior of the Howard Mill, so far. Mr. Waldron will con-tinue to make his daily trips to Molalia carrying passengers and mail,

Traffic on the Southern Pacific has been again opened up and trains are assuming their usual regularity. On the O. W. P. an effort is made to maintain the schedule, with two transfers of passengers between here and Portland. Taking it all in all railway companies are doing nicely considering what they have had to contend with, and the magnitude of the storm and the damage done to

BIG BORAX DEPOSITS.

Lake County, Oregon, Has Deposits Equal to Death Valley.

What is said to be the second large est deposit of borax in the United States is located in Lake county and will be worked extensively during the coming summer. The borax lies in the Albert, Summer and Alkali Lake valleys and there have been 3400 min-eral locations made within these districts. The borax is said to be almost pure and compares in value with the large deposits in Death Vailey, Cal., and the Lake county beds are easily accessible at all times.

Will Preach Here Sunday.

Rev. R. J. Diven, in charge of the Sunday school work in this Presby tery, comprising six counties in this part of the State, will speak at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and be in attendance at the session of the Sunday school. He will be here in the interest of the Sunday school work in this part of the State.

PAUL'S CHURCH HOLD BUSINESS MEET

PLAN FOR A PAPER WHOSE COL UMNS WILL BE USED FOR NEWS PURPOSES.

Brotherhood of the St. Paul's Episcopal church was held on Wednesday evening at the rectory. This was also a meeting of the vestrymen, and business of both organizations was brought up for discussion

Among the business brought up for discussion was the issuing of a paper of pure reading matter pertaining to the work of the church, but no adver-tising matter, that will be published by the parishioners for the parishioners of this church once a month. It will be of four pages, the first issue to appear in the month of February. It is planned to have a representative from the St. Andrew's Brotherhood Vestry, Ladies of St. Paul's Guild, the King's Daughters, the choir, and the St. Andrew's Brotherhood, Jr., the latter of which is soon to be organized by the rector, and rector, to write for tee having this in charge consists of William Hammond, Dr. L. A. Morris and John R. Humphrys, with Rev. Charles Robinson, rector, at the head

It was proposed several weeks ago to purchase a new organ for the church, and there has been one on trial, but the one that has been in use in the church for several years has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, by an experienced man Portland, so that the committee charge has decided to retain this in the church instead of purchasing

-Don't Miss This Great Show In Any

One of the most novel automobile exhibits ever held on the Pacific Coast is to be held in Portland during the week between Saturday, January 21 and Saturday, January 28. Portland's automobile dealers are to hold open house during that week and every man, woman and child in the city is invited to visit the various garages and see the new models on exhibition

Saturday will be featured by the Journal's big reliability run for commercial trucks, also open at night. Monday there will be a parade. Tuesday a number of specialties the nature of which has been kept a secret, will be pulled off, while Wednesday will be society night. Thursday there will slow and obstacle races. Friday will be truck day and the big commercial motor trucks will be put through their steps for the edification of the merchants and others interested. Saturday will end the grand finale and will be the occasion of a real feast for the dealers and their friends.

The automobile dealers themselves will hold a convention lasting all week. Out of town dealers from every section of the state are planning to come and at least 2000 automobile admirers and hardware men will be in attendance at this convention. The Oregon State hardware and implement dealers are to hold their annual convention during that week and will be invited to attend the opening convention in a body.

One of the most complete systems of transporting the guests has been adopted. A line of over 200 automobiles will carry passengers from one district to another. They will have regular running schedules, and will be kept on these schedules by regularly appointed inspectors, much after the fashion of the street cars.

The public need feel no apprehen-sion as to the sights they are going to see, for the cars on exhibition are among the finest that have ever shown on the coast. The automobile world has never known such a year for real beauty of design and elegance as it is going through new. Every manufacturer seems to have vied with the other to see who could turn ou the most excellent piece of work, and the creations are surely wonderful.

Every care has been taken that visitors may make the rounds of the various establishments with a minimum of effort and inconvenience. On the back of the program prepared will be a map of that portion of the city-inwhich the motor car dealers are located; while listed are automobile show dealers by name and cars by name which will enable either to be quickly

During the hours from 2 to 10 p. m., number of motor cars will be assigned to covering a route which will include all of the dealers' establishments on the list of exhibitors. cars will stop to take on and leave visitors at each establishment, and there will be plenty of them to accom modate all visitors.

GOV. WEST, MAYOR SIMON AND OTHER NOTABLE PERSONS WILL ATTEND.

PORTLAND, Jan. 19.-Washington's birthday will be the occasion of the annual rose planting here, this having become an annual custom throughout the city. Great interest is being taken in the forthcoming event by the people of the Peninsula district, who will hold special exercises.

The Peninsula Rose Festival Association has ten affiliated improvement, clubs and all will have a part in the rose planting. Each club will make its own choice of roses to be planted.

The rose planting will take on statewide importance for Governor West will be one of the speakers, while Mayor Simon will represent the city. President Hoyt. Manager Hutchin and Secretary Drake of the Rose Festival will participate, as will Mrs. A. C. Panton, president of the Portland Rose Society.

President Sherbrook, of Seattle's rose society, will be invited to repre-sent that city and speak on behalf of the Puget Sound rosarians.

While public rose planting will be confined to the parks and squares there will be many hushes set out throughout the city by householders who take occasion on February 22nd to add to their rose gardens for the coming season. The coming Rose Festival in June will see a tremendous increase in blooming roses over any former year.

Pure Drugs.

There will be a meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club at the Betz green house on next Wednesday evening, January 25, at 8 o'clock, at which time all who are interested in the growth and welfare of the county are cordially invited to attend, whether a member or not. This club was organized last Wednesday evening, and there will be much important matters brought up for discussion.

PAPERMAKERS TO DANCE.

Great Preparations Making for Saturday Evening.

The Papermakers of this city are making great preparations for the ball to be given at the Armory on Saturday night, January 21, one of the features of the evening to be a prize waltz, which will take place at 10:30 o'clock. The Farmer orchestra will furnish music for the dancing. As many of the departments of the paper mills have been temporarily closed on account of the high water it is probable that the dance will be largely attended. This is the first dance of the season given by these men, and a good time is promised all who attend.

Judge Samson, who has many years of experience as an auctioneer, had charge of the disposing of the baskets, and kept the people in good humor by his wit.

MOTHER RESCUES BOY LITTLE GIRL DROWNS

CHILDREN BOTH FALL FROM FOOT BRIDGE INTO LITTLE MOUNTAIN STREAM

Mrs. John Ferguson, living near Scott's Mills, was drowned Wednesday after noon while crossing a small stream near her home. The girl, her mother and little brother were on their way to Scott's Mills to do some trading and in crossing a small wet west stream, as they passed through the fields, both boy and girl fell from the foot bridge into the water below. After much effort the mother succes in pulling the boy out of the water, but in the meantime the little girl had disappeared from view.

Search was at once instituted for the girl. Not finding her at once, being unable to determine where could have disappeared to in so sho a time, the alarm was given at friends soon joined in the search.

Search was continued until late at night but with no success. Thursday morning the search was again taken up and about 8 o'clock the body was found in a pool a short distance from where she fell into the stream.

Ferguson lived in Clackamas county near Russellville and also near Marion county line, and was in the habit of going to Scott's Mills to do trading. The stream in which the tle girl was drowned is an ordinary pools during freshets such as have been experienced the past few days When found the body was entan in the debris that usually settles into the pools that form a part of these wet-weather streams.
