REPUBLICAN SENATORS DO NOT OBJECT TO OREGON SYSTEM BUT TO BOURNE METHODS

SALEM, Or., Jan. 19.—(Spl.)—Congressional action on a resolution introduced by Senator Kellaher in which Oregon is declared to have the "best system of government in the world."

The apogee of the whole matter was that Senators who do not like Bourne, or his methods, discussed the resolution without regard to the feelings of Bourne or his friends.

Others could see only a new method of advertising but a method that was distasteful to them. The resolution was not favored by the Senate committee, and it was taken to the floor of the Senate through the minority report.

On vote for resubmitting the resolution, the Senators stood as follows: Ayes—Albee, C. A. Barrett, W. N. Barrett, Locke, Malarky, Wood, Von der Hellen.

Noes—Abraham, Bean, Bowerman, Burgess, Calkins, Carson, Chase, Dimick, Hawley, Hoskins, Kellamer, Lester, McCulloch, Merrymad, Miller, Norton, Nottingham, Oliver, Patton, Sinnott, Selling.
