Levitt was in Portland visiting with friends. Boyer, living on Division street, is reported among the sick. Jennings Lodge, was in the city on business yesterday. Portland, is visiting the guest of Mr. Quait, who is in the city. Schoenheinz and Miss Van Hoy, of Portland, were visited with friends in the city yesterday. Livermore, of Pendleton, was in the city, guest of Mr. Beattie. Marsh, of Canby, who returned to that city from Lebanon, is conducting business in Oregon today. Wood, of Astoria, who is visiting at the home of Mr. Canfield, returned to the city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Canfield, who has been in the city for several years, came to the city yesterday afternoon, leaving from his illness. One of the prominent estate men of Canby, was in the city on business Wednesday. He recently purchased several acres of land.

PLEASE NOTICE. To introduce The Morning Enterprise into a large majority of the homes in Oregon City and Clackamas county the management has decided to make a special price for the daily issue, for a short time only, where the subscriber pays a year in advance. By carrier, paid a year in advance, $2.00. By mail, paid a year in advance, $2.00. People who gave our canvasser a trial subscription for one or more months, at ten cents a week, can have the daily delivered for a year for $2.00 by paying a year in advance. People who gave our canvasser a trial subscription, by mail, for four months at a dollar, may have the paper for a year for $2.00, if paid a year in advance. Subscribers to The Weekly Enterprise may change their subscriptions to the daily, receiving credit for half time on the daily that the weekly is paid in advance. When they choose to add cash to the advance payment equal to a full year's advance payment they may take advantage of the $2 rate. We make this special price so that people who have paid in advance on some other daily and wish to take the Morning Enterprise, may do so without too great expense.

GOVERNOR WEST'S SUPPORT SECURED

GOOD ROADS CAMPAIGN BEGUN BY THE OREGON STATE ASSOCIATION. ONE OF STATE'S GREATEST NEEDS. Plan to Issue Bonds Embraces Scheme to Let the Roads Over the State Help Pay for Themselves. Governor West's strong indorsement of the Good Roads cause in his message to the Legislature has given the better highways movement tremendous encouragement and strength. "We may sing the state's praises to the sky and spend a fortune in advertising our resources to attract home-seekers and settlers," said Governor West, "but we will have but little success unless we can point to some movement toward the construction of good roads over which the products of the farm may be handled to market."

NEW ORLEANS AUTO RACES. Annual Mardi Gras Event Billed For Feb. 25 to 27. The new year's automobile racing in the south will begin in February. The third running of the so-called New Orleans Mardi Gras speed carnival will be held on Feb. 25, 26 and 27. All arrangements have been completed. Their conditions promise a big field of cars. The prize list totals $3,500. The events range from five to fifty miles, and there are two one-hour contests. Efforts are being made to secure all the prominent drivers in the country. The prizes have been divided so as to tempt the star drivers. Arrangements have been made to make the track unusually fast. It will be scraped, oiled and packed more firmly than ever. The Mardi Gras races are always a feature of the southern speed season. New Orleans always staggers at that time under the press of the festival seeing crowd. The auto races are a relief from the monotony of peaceful pageants, fancy dress parades and other Mardi Gras doings. Moreover, a New Orleans show will be held in February at the fair grounds during the progress of the meet.

M'GRAW TO PLAY AGAIN. Manager of Giants Proposes to Get Himself into Condition For Season. The latest celebrity to make an effort to "come back" is John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants. McGraw has given it out that he proposes to get himself in perfect condition this spring, as he intends to play in many of the Giants' early games. McGraw got out of harness because of an injured leg. This has been well rested and may have entirely healed, in which event there is no doubt that McGraw would still be of great service to his team. There never was a cleverer batter than this same McGraw. He could tantalize a pitcher more than any of the great sluggers, for there was nothing about the art of worrying a pitcher that McGraw could not do. Of course McGraw may be like some of the other old fellows—when he starts to train he may find it too strenuous work to continue and give up the idea of playing again.

Lacrosse Teams For Olympic Games. B. Floorman of Vancouver plans to take two lacrosse teams to play at the Olympic games in Stockholm, Sweden, July 19 and 21, 1912. Floorman figures on the Vancouver and New Westminster teams as the ones in line for the trip, and his plans propose an extended tour of Europe in addition to playing at the Olympic games. He proposes to play a couple of games in eastern Canada and one in New York city before leaving America. In Europe he plans to play in London, Paris, Bordeaux, Hamburg, Berlin, Copenhagen, Christiania and Stockholm.

Trotting Futurity Worth $21,000. The list of nominations announced recently for the twenty-first renewal of the Kentucky trotting futurity, for foals of 1910, which has a value of $21,000, contains 814 weanlings. The entries come from thirty-five states, England and Canada also are represented.

Horse Racing in Australia. In Australia racing goes on every day in the year. It's the favorite sport of the antipodes. The Melbourne cup is worth $50,000 to the winner, while the Derby pays $20,000.

Yes, After All, It's Up to Us! PROGRESS, which spells Prosperity, is but another way of spelling PUBLICITY. In ADVERTISING, in making things known from man to man, from woman to woman, lies the secret of SUCCESS for which individuals and communities seek. The day of waiting for BUSINESS to step in at the door and SUCCESS to blow in at the window is past. We must go out and corral BUSINESS and coax SUCCESS. And the one way to do it is spelled: P-U-B-L-I-C-I-T-Y.

TOM LYNCH'S METHOD OF HANDLING BALL PLAYERS.

"When I managed the New Britain club in the Connecticut League," says President Tom Lynch, "all of my men weren't blue ribbon boys. We had been having a terrible slump, and I took hold of the team as a last resort. "We won something like twenty-three out of twenty-five games in a month," said Lynch recently, "capturing ten double headers. How did we make such a showing in bargain bills? Well, I'll reveal the secret. Some of them liked their bottle of beer, and they particularly enjoyed it on a hot day. "My boys would win the first game of a bargain bill, and then I would let them go to the clubhouse, where I had installed an icebox, in which there were several bottles of beer on ice. "The players who wanted to indulge in the beverage that made Milwaukee famous could do so without being lined by the manager, who was myself."

BOWLERS READY FOR TOURNEY. St. Louis Plans to Make A. B. C. Ever's Best Ever Held. NEW WAY TO HANDLE SQUADS. Idea is to Have Men Shoot Individual Entry in Same Manner as Doubles. Thereby Having on Alleys Two Squads of Bowlers at One Time. The eyes of the bowling world will be turned toward St. Louis during the last week of January and the first of February, when the mighty tournament of the American bowling congress will be on. Twenty thousand games will be rolled during the two weeks of the tournament on the six teen alleys used for that purpose. Not one other ball than a ball to count scores in this tournament will be rolled in this building or on the alleys to be built. It places all on an equal footing, and it guarantees to the visitor a square deal in the game he has traveled a long way to support. The foundation of the game is laid in sociability and squareness, and St. Louis will furnish both. The St. Louis people are preparing to entertain the bowlers or give them a golden opportunity to entertain themselves, and the American bowling congress is preparing to see that all get a square deal. The tournament building is one of the largest in the country, and the floor space is enormous. Entries cover a large territory, having been received from Vancouver to New York and from Montreal to Mobile. To Try Out New Feature. A new feature will be tried out this year. In former tournaments, when two full squads of five men teams shot the eight previous, it became necessary the next day in order to take care of the doubles and singles of all members of these five men squads to start bowling in some instances as early as 7:30 a. m., and this has caused considerable discontent among the bowlers so early scheduled. There hardly seemed any remedy for this, but it has been found by Secretary Abe Langtry, and he has had the Illinois Bowling association, also the Chicago Bowling association, try it out for him in two tournaments since the last national tournaments, and they have found it worked to a charm. How the Scheme Works. The idea is to double up the individual squads and have them shoot their individual entry in the same manner as they would the doubles, thereby having on the tournament alleys at one time two squads of individual bowlers while heretofore there was only one squad shooting. A great deal of time has been lost with individual squads in checking them in at the paddock, and in addition to that the greatest loss of time was when one bowler started to lag, either waiting for his ball or from fatigue, as the pace set in the individual event was rather fast. Now, to shoot the bowlers in double squads will give each man a short period of rest, which will not only work to his advantage, but to the advantage of the tournament secretary, and in doing so it will save about five minutes to a squad, and when you figure from twelve to fourteen squads daily you will readily see a saving of one hour and over and the starting of the tournament that much later in the evening. This is surely a great boon to the bowler who shoots the night before, as he can snatch a few extra winks and be satisfied. This he will thank the American Bowling congress for, and other tournaments will surely follow the lead within a year or two when they see the advantage of the system. Chic Joans Take Up Javelin Throwing. Physical Director Martin Delaney of the Chicago Athletic association plans to give western track enthusiasts a novelty by introducing the javelin throw as an event for his track men to train for. The new event has been a feature of the Olympic games for some time past and has been included in the programs of several eastern meets, but it came to the west as an innovation. Delaney believes the new event will add greatly to the entries in any meet which includes the new event on its card.

EXPENSIVE SIMPLICITY. The Party Gown That Looks Cheap, but Isn't.

PARTY GOWN FOR GIRL.

Very sweet and simple looking is the girl's party gown seen in the cut, but it is a simplicity that makes father's pocketbook fatten out to an appreciable degree when the bill is sent in for the creation. The material is gauzy figured net in lovely nuances of pinks and greens, and the underlay is of silver tissue. The pretty rose decorations are of silk and made especially for the gown. Miss Taft's Fondness For Brown. Pink and brown are the White House colors. Helen Taft prefers brown and constantly uses it as a theme in her dresses. Her mother clings to pink. The president's daughter looks very attractive in a rough brown homespun suit, the skirt a modified "hobble" with ample proportions for a graceful stride, and the coat semimiting and trimmed in dark brown velvet as to cuffs and collar. She has a beautiful golden afternoon gown built on brown messaline, with touches of old rose and gold in the underlining, while the main material is fluted almost completely covered in wrought designs of thick brown silk. She has a natty brown fur coat, and with it she wears a fur turban with one big red rose on the right side. Mrs. Taft likes the old fashioned china pink more than any of the more modern hues, such as rose, shell and salmon. One of the state gowns of Mrs. Taft is of heavy satin in peachblow, embroidered in deeper shades of pink.

Choice of a Wife. Jeremy Taylor very aptly summed up his opinion of the unwise choice of a wife in the following words: "A very fool is he that chooses for beauty principally. His eyes are witty, but his soul is sensual. It is an ill band of affection to the two hearts together by a little thread of red and white." These are indeed true sentiments, and the man is both unwise and unlucky who merely selects his wife because she is a pretty girl. Prettiness alone never yet made for happiness. The girl who can be a true friend, a devoted companion and a loving wife is worth a great deal more to her husband than "the little thread of red and white" which the old time divine condemns. When the Grapes Hang High. To paraphrase the rhyme "Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high," everything is right up to the moment in fruit decorations when the grapes hang high on a silver holder made expressly for the purpose. In other words, it is the latest way of arranging the big, luscious bunches of household grapes when they are used as a table centerpiece. Go to Secret's for that hot lunch successor to Lents, 610 Main street.
