Associated With Letters By Washel—Frisco Saves Length For One Last Fight.

STON, Jan. 23.—(Spl.)—Frisco has taken on a new look as if the West were in its effort to secure the position. The whole West has been sending dispatches to Washington and the Western Union is all in a flutter over the demands for a new cabinet.

There is not but sit up and take notice of any prominence in the West. The call of the West is not from one to a dozen men, but from a host of men. Some are short while others are long, but all are in the line of the West.

MUST CEASE STATE REVENUES

SENATOR DIMICK WANTS PERMANENT SUPERVISION OF FUNDS SECRETARY OF STATE.

Dr. Jan. 23.—(Spl.)—The legislature is anything but a model in its handling of the public funds. It is not so much that it has stolen, but that it has wasted the money of the state.

There have been introduced in the legislature bills providing for the personal inspection of the funds and every war that such shall be signed.

A bill providing that no deficiencies in state funds shall be paid by the trustee, or by his bondsmen.

Another bill providing that the vouchers to be employed in person. But in locking the barn after the horse is stolen.

HAWLEY ASKS RECOUNT.

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., January 18, 1911. E. E. Brodie, Editor Morning Enterprise. My dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your issue of the 12th instant, relative to the official count of the people of Oregon City. I furnished this information at the request of the Commercial Club of Oregon City and when advised of the number of people by the Census Office I thought it too small as I understood there were more people residing within the city limits of Oregon City than appeared by the official count. As requested by the Commercial Club, I have taken on the matter up with H. E. Dana Durand, Director of the Census, and have asked that a recount be made. With best wishes, I am, Truly yours, W. C. HAWLEY.

Noted Educators at Clermont. Dr. Edward H. Todd and Superintendent Gary, who are touring the county to visit the schools and make short addresses to the pupils, will hold a meeting at Harmony tonight and at Clermont Wednesday night. There was another engagement announced for Wednesday, but the people of Clermont were so anxious to hear the doctor that there was a change made in the program.

PLANNING TO BUILD IN THE NEAR FUTURE

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WILL EVENTUALLY HAVE VERY HANDSOME PROPERTY.

St. Paul's Episcopal church is being repaired and refurbished under the supervision of Rev. Robinson, the new rector. New carpets are being laid, the chancel is being enlarged and a small pulpit installed. The portion of the floor that the new carpet will not cover is to be finished. Many other improvements are contemplated a little later. Among them is the erection of a cement retaining wall on the bank of the Willamette to protect the church property. At this point the river is continually cutting into the bank, and as fast as the church people fill in the river washes it out. A cement wall will be built, with a stairway leading down to the water about the center of the property. The wall itself will be parapeted in old castle style so as to make a very imposing appearance from the river, the lot filled in to sustain the wall and later a handsome church erected on the river bank and facing the Willamette.

The church owns the property from Main street to the river bank, the Main street corner being occupied by a business block at this time. With a new church edifice on the river, the manse rebuilt in accordance with the architecture of the new church, the river front improved and beautified, the Episcopal people will have one of the most beautiful spots in the city.

Two Very Acceptable Addresses. Rev. R. J. Diven, who was present at the services in the Presbyterian church Sunday, and who spoke twice from that pulpit, made very acceptable addresses that were well received. In the morning he spoke to the subject, "A Clean Life," and in the evening he took for his address, "Confidence in God." This congregation is taking a rapid growth and the enlargement of the house of worship came none too soon.

EX-PRES. RANDALL TALKS PROGRESS

PRESENTS PLEASING ARRAY OF FACTS IN HIS ADDRESS AT THE ANNUAL MEET.

MUCH ACCOMPLISHED WITHIN YEAR

Many Thanks for Past Honors—Boost Our New President and Build Up the City and County.

Following is the speech of Ex-President Randall, of the Commercial Club, delivered at the annual meeting of the club Saturday night. As it sets forth the work of the club the past year it may be read with profit by those interested in the work of that organization. To the members of the Commercial Club, of Oregon City, Oregon: Gentlemen: At this our second annual meeting, it is incumbent upon the president of the club to submit a report of the accounts and general concerns of the club during the previous year, and also to present an estimate of the receipts and disbursements for the current year.

In presenting this, my annual report, as president of the club, I feel that the members fully realize the extent of our operations during the past year, and therefore I deem it not necessary to offer in minute detail every step by which this club has achieved its present position and standing. But, I do want to impress upon you that, by the kind feeling the members have entertained toward one another, the united efforts of your Board of Governors, and the zeal with which all of the committees have performed their duties, we have been united into a prosperous and powerful organization.

Through this organization a publicity department was organized, and largely through the efforts of that department have we seen our city develop and increase in population, notwithstanding the report to the contrary from the official census bureau. If we will but pause a moment from our strenuous and progressive activity and look about us for improvements that have been going on with leaps and bounds during the past year, we will observe dwellings going up in all parts of the city, brick blocks constructed, a $35,000 high school nearing completion, a mill equipped and manufacturing tissue paper, one of the finest amusement halls in the Northwest, the construction of an electric railway on the West Side, surveying of the Willamette river and falls for government locks and a deeper channel to the sea, and thousands of dollars expended in the grading and improvement of streets.

This progressive spirit has largely been brought about by this Commercial Club. For, if this Commercial Club had not been organized, and taken the initiative, it is more than probable that the publicity department would never have been born, also the Live Wire organization may never have sprung into existence, and it is largely through these adjuncts to our club that we have been able to accomplish the activity and growth mentioned.

Also, through the activity of this club, the same tenacious spirit was manifested when it became necessary to combat the division of our county. The result of which you are well informed.

Also, during the year just closed, we have added to our club rooms another billiard table, beautified the club rooms by giving them a fresh coat of kalsomine, partly equipped a gymnasium, and increased our membership from 128 to 210, an increase of 82 members.

These matters of interest to our city should inspire each member with renewed activity, and during the year of 1911 greater, grander and better results should be attained. From the report of the treasurer of the publicity department it is shown that that department has received and disbursed, during the year commencing January 1st and ending December 31st, 1910, as follows: Receipts from all sources, $3245.10. Disbursements for advertising, etc., $2824.80. Leaving a balance in the treasury on December 31st, 1910, of $420.30. This department has accomplished a great deal of good, for our city and county, through their untiring zeal and by sacrificing a great deal of their valuable time from their business occupations. I believe I express the sentiments of every member of this Commercial Club when I say, "Well done good and faithful servants, enter thou for another year into the same duties with renewed energies."

On January 21st, 1910, when I took my oath of office as president of this club, there was in the treasury of the club, $518.10. During the year we have collected as fees and dues from the members, $2467.80. From other sources we have received $1153.25. Making the total receipts for the year $4139.15. During the year we have disbursed for Booster Day, Fourth of July celebration, entertaining individuals and different organizations, receptions to the members of the club and their wives and friends, partly equipping a gymnasium, kalsomining our club rooms, installing an additional billiard table and other fixtures, salaries, cigars, etc., the sum of $3680.17. Leaving a balance in the treasury, according to the secretary's report, of $458.98. The present revenue derived from monthly dues, rents, billiard and pool tables, should be ample to conduct the affairs of this club in a most satisfactory manner, except, of course, extraordinary conditions. At this time I desire to say that our present secretary has made a most efficient and progressive office, and to his efforts is due a great deal of credit for the standard this club maintains. I would recommend that

8-HOUR BILL IS BURDEN ON LABOR

CONTENTION RAISED BY PAPER COMPANIES THAT CUT IN WAGES WILL FOLLOW.

LEBANON EMPLOYEES FILE PROTEST

Charge is Made That Measure of Diminution is Discriminatory and Would Check Increase of Factories.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 23.—(Staff Correspondence.)—Representatives of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co. appeared before the legislative committee to-night with information relative to the bill of Senator Dimick, providing for an 8-hour day in the paper mills. There was represented to the committee a protest, signed by more than 70 employees of the Lebanon Paper Co. and by all of the business men at Lebanon, against the Dimick bill. The protest was forwarded by special messenger to Salem, addressed to the Oregon legislature, and was handed to Senator M. A. Miller, of Linn County, at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the meeting of the committee on Commerce and Labor. The protest follows:

An Eight Hour Law, such as has been proposed by Senator Walter A. Dimick, is unsatisfactory for the following reasons: 1st. It will take away one of our Constitutional rights. 2nd. It will reduce our Liberty. 3rd. It is sure, eventually, to cause reduction in wages. 4th. It is not liable to materially increase the number of men employed. 5th. Reduced wages means poverty. 6th. It will be almost as much a burden on labor as capital. 7th. It will make working hours on shift work very unsatisfactory. 8th. It will be a discrimination against our employers as their competitors in the Middle West, and in British Columbia will not then be working under same conditions. 9th. It applies to one industry alone. If a law is enacted it should apply to all industries. 10th. It will be liable to prevent further increase of production of Oregon factories.

As citizens of the State of Oregon, and as workmen affected, we hereby protest against Senate Bill number Sixty, becoming a law and petition your Honorable Body to give us a favorable hearing. Official Makes Statement. An interview of those in charge of the large pulp and paper mills in this community by a representative of this paper discloses some very interesting data in connection with the proposed eight hour law now in the hands of Oregon Legislature. First of all Senate Bill No. 60 provides an eight hour law only for such industries as are now running 23 or more hours out of each 24, which is termed a discrimination against the paper and pulp mills of this state, they at the present time being about the only industries which find it necessary to run 24 hours each day, 6 days per week.

An official of the company says: "Should this law pass it will be a great burden upon the people interested in these industries, not alone on account of the increased pay roll, but on account, first, of the shortage of the right kind of help and, second, on account their chief competitors in the Middle West, in the State of Washington and in British Columbia, running their plants on the two shift basis. Reduced Wages Contemplated. There will be only one course left open for those in charge of these great plants. First, reduce the daily wage of the men employed in proportion to the number of hours they work under the new law as against their old day's work; reduce the number of men employed in each department to the lowest possible number and then fill in the vacancies, if any, with new help. The publicity department of the Commercial Club has for many months been endeavoring to supply the mills in this district with family men. There are now about one thousand men employed in and about Oregon City in the paper and pulp mills, one quarter of which number are foreigners, about which considerable complaint has been made by the citizens of our state and county. The publicity department learned that all family men located in this district would be given employment, and on bringing a large number, all were employed by the various mills until all the vacant houses in the city and suburbs were filled and it was necessary for a number of family men to leave on account of their inability to secure homes for their families. The natural result has been that foreigners have been employed, for those in charge of the mills must keep full crews and turn out full product. It is therefore patent that the natural result will be, in case a larger number of men are required, the employment of more foreign help. A number of them now reside 10 or 12 to the house and some in tents. Hardship Upon This City. "A reduction in the daily wage of the men now employed will be a hardship upon a large number of residents of Oregon City. As at present the men are able to provide for their families and save something, a number of them now owning or paying for their homes. If the wages are reduced, as it almost seems sure they must be, the men alone can't tell what the outcome will be. If three men are paid in the future what two men now receive, it will work a hardship on someone, if not all, and the business men of this district will feel it worse probably than anyone else. If an eight hour law must be passed, it seems that in fairness to the people who now have large interests in the paper and pulp industry that this eight hour law should apply to all industries doing business within the

SERMON TO MASONIC MEMBERS ON SUNDAY

REV. CHAS. ROBINSON MAKES ANNUAL ADDRESS BEFORE ORDER AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Masons of Oregon City attended public worship in a body at the Episcopal church Sunday evening. Rev. Chas. Robinson delivered the discourse of the evening. We give a few of the main points brought out in the address. Text: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy which temple ye are." I Cor. III: 16-17-18.

WHOSE IS THE MONEY FOUND ON THE DEAD?

GOVERNOR WEST TAKES A HAND IN THE EFFORT TO SEE RIGHTFUL HEIR WIN.

A case in the courts here that has furnished no end of contention is that of the estate of the old man found dead with near $500 in gold on his person. It was thought the man's name was Williamson and a woman named Effie B. Robinson lay claim to the estate and set up the claim that she was his daughter and that her maiden name was Williamson. During the time covered by the legal contention it was claimed the body was made that her name had been Williams and that two letters had been added to the marriage certificate for the purpose of securing the money. The final windup in the county courts was the order of Judge Beattie for the County Treasurer to pay the money over to the woman.

The last move in the case came with Governor West on Saturday appointing Frank C. Hesse special prosecutor to begin escheat proceedings for the money. That means that the State of Oregon will review Judge Beattie's order for error on the grounds that no decree can be vacated after the term in which it has been rendered has been passed. This case was decided by Judge Dimick in January, 1910, and this renews the controversy.

Mr. Sartelli, who will speak at the Baptist church Thursday evening, at the hour for regular prayer meeting service, is the head of the Italian mission work in Portland and comes well recommended as a speaker. He will tell of his work in Portland for the salvation of the Italians in that city.

Marriage Licenses. License to marry was issued by County Clerk Mulvey to Mary Kurnik and Matthew Skoff.

SCANDAL GROWING

The Probe Strikes Pay Dirt at Every Thrust. DANVILLE, Jan. 23.—(Spl.)—The more the scandal of election frauds is probed the greater the number of victims and the higher up the guilty parties. The City Attorney, Sheriff and a judge seem to be guilty of gross error. Two newspaper men have testified to the offer of bribes if they would disappear and forget to come back. Loss of memory is at a premium. Indications are that many "high-craps" will be taken in the drug net and it seems as if the chance of covering up was long since past.
