LABOR MEASURES A MOOT QUESTION

MORNING

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT TO DISCUSS 8-HOUR BILL.

DIMICK REQUESTED TO BE PRESENT

Paper Companies Intimate Proposed Law Would Be Followed By More Foreign Labor and Reduced Wages.

The 8-hour labor bill introduced in he state senate by Senator W. A. Dimick promises to provoke an interesting discussion in this city tonight at a public meeting to be held at the Commercial Club at 7:30 o'clock. The Live Wires informally talked over the proposed measure at their weekly luncheon yesterday and the suggestion that a meeting of everyone interested be held met with the unanimous approval of those present.

There seems to be a wide difference of opinion over the merits of the bill. OBJECTS AND AIMS OF UNION TO Its framer is said to have promised the laboring men of Oregon City to do his utmost to secure the passage of an 8-hour law, providing he was elected to the state senate, and there is no doubt that Mr. Dimick received scores The friends of the movement insti- of votes because of his position rela-Senator Dimiek believes it is up to tion promises, for he can consistently take no other course. The bill now is the purpose of disseminating ick is a member, and may be reported to the senate this week. If it is passed by that branch of the legislature it will then go to the house.

The measure provides that no emmovement, among them those who ploye of a concern operating 22 hours have not yet taken membership in the a day or more shall work more than nimed at the paper mill industry and paper companies, three at Oregon City, employing 1000 men, and one at Lebanon where nearly all of the employes and all of the business men signed a protest against the bill, and sent it to Senator M. A. Miller of Linn County, At the meeting Friday speakers will at Salem, last Monday by special mes-

Officials of the paper mills here make their position very plain. They say the bill is pure class legislation, membership with his friends and that the paper mills should not be singled out for attack, and that the bill would not be constitutional, for it takes away the personal liberty of the laboring man and does not permit him yesterday, and the garment strikers matter what may be his desire. The Willamette Pulp & Paper Co. provides employment for 630 men, and last month the wages averaged $70 per man. B. T. McBain, of this corporation, states that if the company operated three shifts, instead of two, that the annual payroll would be increased by $168,000 if the present minimum wage of $2 a day was maintained, which, he says, would be utterly out Eugene voters are to say yes or no of the question. He also calls the attention of the business men of Oregon City to the fact that it is now impossible to secure dwelling houses for the married men who come here in search of employment; that the company is therefore unable to employ this class of workmen and is forced to hire foreigners who live 10 and 15 in a house, and are a very undesirable class of citizens. It is strongly intimated that if the paper mills are forced onto an 8-hour basis, in competition with the Wash ington mills, which run two shifts, that wages will be cut to meet the al-tered conditions, and this would result in more foreign labor being employed here than under present conditions. This, in fact, is the main question that is agitating the minds of the business men, and it is likely that the meeting tonight will be well attended by representatives of all class-

Senator Dimick has been invited to be at the meeting and present his arguments for the enactment of the proposed law. Paper mill representa-tives will also be there, and a free and full discusion of the matter is in

Week.

Council met in special session Tuesday evening with Messrs. Andresen, Meyers, Burke, Holman and Hall present and Mayor Brownell in the chair. Recorder Stipp read communications from the City Engineer relative to the condition of the Madison street bridge, the flooding of Center street, sewer on Twelfth street and other matters of interest. His report on Madison street bridge was to the effect that the middle bent was badly damaged but that it had been repaired so that pedestrians might use it with safety

BRIDGE CONTROVERSY and teams within a day or two.

Discussion in Council indicated that the Engineer had gone ahead on his own initiative, not just in accord with past precedents, but it was agreed that in the present instance it may have been an opportune turning aside from regular precedent.

Engineer's report indicated that sewer on Twelfth street is too small hence the trouble that ended in the destruction of the sewer and much filth deposited in low places in that neighborhood. Eighteen inch sewer recommended. Referred to committee on streets for consideration and report back to Council.

The extension of Twelfth street to the river, with slight changes in grade. reported favorably on by the Engineer. At this stage of the proceedings the or street committee of Council be required to look after these matters was report but Council to have last recmmendation. The hiring of Harry Jones to fix Madison bridge not according to past plans but as cost was under $100 might be permissible.

Mr. Holman thought it wise to let Engineer have more latitude but suggested that he give bond of $10,000. Mayor and others of same mind and satisfied. Mr. Andresen wished to have matter put over to regular meeting in hopes of a full attendance; others felt likewise and it was so put over. Mr. Halt made an earnest plea for the safety of the hill people during the discussion

Mayor Brownell suggested that committee of three be appointed to investigate question of fill on Twelfth street. Had been told city was getting cheat ed $1000 or $2000; referred to City Engineer for investigation.

Mr. Lindsay wanted to call Council's attention to the road to Canemah. Said rallway company had raised the height of dam, which meant additional water during a flood, without raising the roadway. This shut public off the road sooner when there was flood stage in the river and did not think it was right. Wanted it investigated and matter remedied; will come before Council at regular meeting.

An ordinance for the improvement of Center street was read first time and ordered published. Three bids were received for Sixth street improvement; referred to street and public property committee and Engineer to report next meeting.

Mr. Holman called attention to filthy condition of certain portions of city, committee of citizens had waited on Contractor Moffatt said the breaking of a sewer on street on which he was working had made some com plaint but that he was anxious to work with committee on health and police n an effort to remedy the matter.
