BURNS FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON AT HOME

REMAINS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY
PIONEER TO BE LAID TO REST IN RIVERVIEW.

W. P. Burns, father of Ex-Chief of Police Charles E. Burns, of this city, and of Mrs. Laura Fuller, of Portland, died at 7:50 o'clock Monday night at his home in Portland. He would have been 88 years of age next month. Mr. Burns had been ill only a short time with pneumonia, and his death was a shock to his relatives and friends.

Mr. Burns is one of Oregon's most prominent pioneers, having crossed the plains in the year of 1852 by ox team. He was born on February 11, 1823. He married Miss Millicent Conyers, in the State of Illinois, who is a half-sister of Judge W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie. Mr. and Mrs. Burns made many friends in this city while residing here. The former filled many years of trust, having for many years been sheriff of Clackamas County, as well as justice of the peace of Oregon City. In 1875 he was appointed deputy United States Marshal and left here with his wife for Portland, where they have since made their home.

Mr. Burns, after arriving in Oregon from across the plains, camped along the Abernethy Creek near the home of Governor Abernethy. The following morning he and his wife packed their belongings and moved to where the G. A. Harding house now stands. Here Mr. Burns built a cabin, and this was where Charles Burns, of this city, was born. From that place they moved on the what is now the A. D. Putrow place, consisting of one-half block.

Mr. Burns, who was taken ill at his home last Thursday night, remarked to his wife and daughter, Mrs. Laura Fuller, that he would not be with them by that time the following week, and strange to say he passed into the Great Beyond only two days before that day.

Deceased leaves besides, his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Laura Fuller, of Portland, his son, Charles, of this city, two grandchildren, Webb and Charles Burns, Jr., of this city, and three great grandchildren, all of this city. The funeral services will be held at their residence in Portland this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

Wedded at M. E. Parsonage.
Rev. E. F. Zimmerman, of the M. E. church, performed the ceremony Tuesday making Joseph L. Miller and Gertrude Helen Rike, both of Portland, man and wife. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in this city. Mr. Miller is city passenger agent for the Harriman lines in Portland. After a short trip through British Columbia Mr. and Mrs. Miller will settle down in Portland.

To suit both those who like beef-steak rare and well done, cut in two and partly cook one piece before putting the other one on.

CORRESPONDENCE

MACKBURG.

Mrs. J. J. Gibson visited her mother at Mackburg Sunday.
Sol. Strubahr, with the help of Geo. Walsh and Mr. Greenwood, is grubbing his ranch at a pace that promises to make it literally blossom, as the rose, the coming season.
Geo. Walsh has been making most effective bridge repairs on the branch of the Molalla that passes his ranch. These bridges fared badly in the recent rains.
Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hepler have gone to housekeeping in their new home.
The wheat crop at Mackburg is looking wonderfully well.
The pupils of the Mackburg high school are preparing to celebrate Washington's birthday by an appropriate and interesting order of exercises.
Mr. Coffin, professor of music, has recovered from a short illness and has returned to his class in the high school building.
The signs of spring are in the air in the Mackburg portion of the Willamette valley. The swelling buds, the lengthening grass and the twitter of birds all seem harbingers of an early and productive season.

NEW ERA.

Frank Kaiser died at the home of his son William, on the west side of the river, Tuesday, of pneumonia, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery here Thursday. Deceased was about 80 years old and leaves two sons, John and William, and a host of friends. Mr. Kaiser has been a resident of this place about 30 years.
A three months old baby died at Doernbecher's mill Tuesday, also of pneumonia, and was buried at Zion cemetery Thursday. The family are new comers here.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgoyne, of Montana, and Mrs. Herman Burgoyne, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burgoyne, of Forest Grove, and Miss Carrie Burgoyne, of Portland, were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burgoyne a couple of days last week.
Herman Mader is circulating a petition to change a short piece of the New Era and Brown's school house road.
P. H. Mead has built himself a stump puller which does good service on his new farm north of here.
Miss Ethel Rief visited several days last week with her sister, Lottie, of Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bratti, of Canby, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. H. P. Wink spent Sunday with Mrs. A. Koehner, of Canby.
Newt Critchfield had the misfortune to mash one of his thumbs very badly with a sledge a couple of weeks ago. The Hoffman twins spent a couple of days with friends in Portland last week.
Mrs. P. H. Mead is on the sick list again.
Frank Rief, of Portland, is a frequent visitor here of late.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

J. A. Hodges and family have moved out to a house near Latourette bridge on the Highland road.
E. W. Gerber, of Portland, was transacting business in this vicinity last week.
Mrs. Garrett, of Mt. Angel, was visiting her father, D. C. Robeson, last week.
Mrs. J. P. Kroll is confined to her bed this week. Her two sons, Will H. and A. L. Jones, visited her Sunday.
Miss Emma Vanhoy spent Friday evening and Saturday at Portland with her sister Mrs. Ada Jennings.
J. F. and Willie Quinn went to Mt. Angel last week, Thursday, to attend the burial of their father, Rev. J. H. Quinn.
Mrs. Hattie Merrill spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Portland visiting with her children.
Mrs. Schott and Mrs. Bullard were visiting Mrs. Warner on J. Q. Adams street last week, Wednesday. Mrs. L. Warner is quite poorly this winter.

Mrs. Hattie Merrill spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Portland visiting with her children.
Mrs. Schott and Mrs. Bullard were visiting Mrs. Warner on J. Q. Adams street last week, Wednesday. Mrs. L. Warner is quite poorly this winter.
Miguel Burley, of Center street, spent last Saturday among playmates in this vicinity.

J. H. Dorsey, of Pleasant avenue, who worked in the blacksmith shop with Ralph Grove last month, is now working in Sellwood.
Mrs. J. Knotts, of Mulino, was the guest of Mrs. F. M. Darling Sunday night.
D. C. Robeson, who has been seriously ill the past week, is improving. He still has a pain in his chest which keeps him very weak.
Ed Confer had the misfortune to cut his thumb while splitting wood Monday morning. The doctor dressed the wound and he is getting along fine.
J. W. Barto, who lives in W. W. May's cottage on Duane street, has bought property of C. Tooze and will build next summer.
The hop yard is surveyed into lots and many lots sold.
Mrs. Cromer and daughter, of Springfield, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewellen this week.
Harvey Everhart, of Molalla, was visiting his brother George Tuesday.
The Mountain View Improvement Club met in regular session last Friday evening with J. E. Calaran in the chair. The routine of business was transacted. The lecturer, Mrs. D. W. Griffin, had a fine program prepared as follows: Instrumental solo, Adalene Curran; recitation, Miss Blanche Merrill; debate—"Resolved, That Single Tax is Better Than our Present System of Taxation." A large audience was present. Popcorn and peanuts were served to those present at the close of the meeting, and dancing was indulged in until midnight. Members from Clairmont Literary Society were present and all had a fine time.

MEADOWSBROOK.

Mr. Robinson and Mr. Johnson, of Canby, were surveying the J. W. Staudinger property, which was recently sold. They also were running some lines on the R. R. Cooper place, for irrigation ditches or railroads, I don't know which, as they were not very explicit.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colvin were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bonacker Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holman and son Charles took dinner at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Cooper Sunday. Mrs. Staudinger, Edna and Willis, were callers in the evening.
Mrs. O. T. Kay is staying with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Staudinger, of East Meadowbrook. The whole family is well with the measles.
John Hensley, head sawyer for the Schafer Lumber Co., has moved his family from Portland into the residence formerly occupied by John Allen on Water street.
Roy Donegan, of Canby, was in town Saturday transacting business for Baty Bros.

Baty Bros have a force of men cutting piling and have established camp at the Moon sawmill.
Mr. Allen made a business trip to Barlow Friday.

The debate at the high school was a success in every respect. The question was "Resolved, That the State of Oregon should adopt the Henry George System of Single Tax vs. Property Tax." The debaters were R. P. Cooper and Herman Chindgren, affirmative side, and P. O. Chindgren and Ralph Holman, negative side. The debate was opened by R. P. Cooper, followed by Ralph Holman on the negative, and the judges deciding one for the affirmative and two for the negative. At the close of the debate the subject was opened to the house for discussion and the firing soon became general along the line, and when the smoke settled it was decided that it be sent to the legislature with instructions that the State of Oregon wish to adopt single tax.

CANBY.

Harry E. Storrs and wife, who were here assisting Evangelist R. E. Johnson in conducting the union meetings at the large tabernacle, returned Monday to Chicago, where Mr. Storrs is engaged at the Moody Institute.
During the meeting up to the present time there have been about sixty who took a stand for Christ and who will doubtless become affiliated with one or another of the churches of this place.
Rev. Johnson's 3 o'clock service last Sabbath was largely attended and his address on the "Saloon" will long be remembered. Many of his illustrations and comparisons were the same as those used by Billy Sunday in his address at Oregon City last fall.
These meetings which will have been in progress for five weeks are costing the citizens of Canby about $800, but it can never be estimated in dollars and cents the benefits derived from them. All of these expenses have been met except about $70, we are told, and that this amount will doubtless be secured this week before the meetings close. The expenses were more than the committee had anticipated as they had expected that the transportation charges of the workers as well as the Evangelist would be from North Yakima instead of Chicago and it was also expected that they would go from this place and hold similar meetings elsewhere, in which case the return transportation would have been assumed by the other place.
F. F. Hannah is busy packing up his household goods. He is planning to leave Canby, since he has sold out his business interests here, but has not as yet decided on a definite location.

J. L. Combs and L. L. Tuft spent the last day of January at the capital.
I. Hein sold his farm south of town to Geo. L. Winkler, of Echo, consideration $5,500. Mr. Winkler will arrive in a short time with his family and take possession.
John R. Newton made a business trip to Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderzee, who have been running the Brandes farm, north of town, have resigned the position which is now filled by a man and his family who have just arrived from Holland.
W. C. Repass, from Portland, was in Canby on business Tuesday.
W. H. Shenefield, from Portland, spends every Saturday at Canby, having secured office quarters above the printing office.

Ralph Knight, who has been dangerously ill with pneumonia at a Portland hospital, is reported much better.
J. A. Cobb, who has a severe attack of pneumonia, is reported much improved. His brother from Roseburg made a visit this week.
J. R. Newton has hauled a new piece of machinery for his pump to his ranch which will enable him to secure the best possible results from his deep well.

W. S. Maple is again on the streets after his long seige of illness. Everyone is glad to see his smiling face again.
Messrs. Mack and Butterfield are preparing to incorporate and get busy publishing their unique and beautiful Flower Map. We understand that a small amount of stock can be purchased.

Jas. Adkins has purchased the lumber in the tabernacle, having bought the building as it stands. He will be given possession after Sabbath's services.
Owing to the services in the tabernacle there will be no church services in the various churches Sabbath, except Sabbath school, which service is in session at 9:30 a. m. This arrangement does not include the services in the German Evangelical church.

The program for services in the tabernacle is as follows: Every evening at 7:30; Sabbath a. m. at 10:30; Sabbath p. m. at 3:00; Sabbath p. m. at 7:30. Everyone is cordially invited.

OKAY GROVE.

Mrs. Louis Brandt received a letter from her son Ralph, who is serving in the army. In the Philippines Ralph reports they are working and improving the Islands all the time. He is well and only 17 more months to serve.
Grandpa Rowley is quite sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Riley. Geo. Brownell, of Oregon City, has purchased ten acres of land just across from his home at Concord station.

Mrs. V. Riley and Miss Coulburn were Portland visitors Wednesday.
Mrs. Price received word that her grandson was quite sick.
John Smith is at home sick with a gripe.
Earl and Ruth Sutler are improving slowly.
Mr. and Mrs. Julius Broetje were visiting in Portland Tuesday evening.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Mr. Todd, the vice-president of the Willamette University, gave a splendid lecture Monday evening in the church for the benefit of the school children.
Superintendent Gary paid the school a visit Monday.

The graduating class is studying hard for the June examinations with 15 pupils in the class.
One hundred and twelve pupils are enrolled, daily attendance, 105; per cent of attendance, 93.
Surprise Party.
A surprise party was given Walter Wetzler at his home on Courtney avenue, January 26th. Those present were Kate and Mary Stein, Edna Schubert, Hilda Stromer, Elsie Shelby, James Hefty, Irving Hanson, Alfred Livingston, Arthur Schiefer, Robert Cosgriff and Edwin Schubert.

MILWAUKIE.

M. E. Moffitt is contemplating building on the fraction of a lot next to the postoffice. Small frontage but extremely good location. This would shut out travel to and from the shingle and pulp mill via Homer Mullan's.

W. R. Kennedy has moved his family to Unity, Oregon.
Where is the dog marshal that he don't take in some of the worthless dogs running at large that dirty up the front doors of the stores and public places, waiting for their masters to come out. None of them have tags on—what's the use of laws if not enforced.

Be careful how you vote on the amendment. No one has seen a copy of it yet and it is a good idea not to vote for a cat in a bag not knowing how it is worded.
Mrs. W. H. Edwards is back from a trip through Idaho and Washington with her husband, the genial traveling man.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to give your "big" orders for stamped envelopes to your local postoffice and the small order to Portland. Just reverse the matter and in this way reverse your own locality. Think it over.
R. E. Lee injured his eye quite seriously sacking lime this week.

R. V. Anzier has completed a log house on his property adjoining S. M. Webber, neat and unique in appearance. Too bad it isn't near the street car line. It would sell in a jiffy.
Mrs. Ella Maple spent Wednesday in Portland.

Suey Bees is still in the St. Vincent Hospital and in a very critical condition. Miss Barnes underwent three operations for appendicitis.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reddaway, from Lewiston, Idaho, are visiting Mrs. J. E. Elkin. Mr. Reddaway will settle in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hanson returned home Saturday. Mr. Hansen went to Fargo, North Dakota, on business and Mrs. Hansen visited her sister at Lyle, Washington.
Carroll Howard has accepted a position as news agent on the Southern Pacific train.
J. A. Snyder was in Oregon City Wednesday on business.

While Lealie Harlow was giving orders to his men through the elevator shaft from the sixth floor of one of the large buildings in Portland Tuesday afternoon, a descending elevator hit him on the head and cut his face in several places. Mr. Harlow saw the shadow of the elevator and got in just in time to avoid a serious accident.
One of Milwaukee's prominent young men, James Leo Duffy, was married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Wittlinger, in Waukon, Iowa, to Miss Marie Margaret Wittlinger. At home at Sunnyside, Brook Farm, Gaston, Oregon, after March 15, 1911.

Mayor Streib, Herman Loeding and Judge Kelso spent Tuesday at Salem visiting with the legislature. They all favor the Malarkey bill and are anxious for it to pass.
On the 10th of February the Milwaukee Commercial Club will give a Smoker.

Women's Work Club met at the home of Mrs. Maggie Johnson Wednesday. Owing to the bad weather a very small number were present. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Ella Rawie; vice-president, Mrs. Adna Paralus; secretary, Mrs. S. V. Lewelling; treasurer, Mrs. A. L. Caato. Next regular meeting February 25th.

An interesting meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' Club was held Thursday afternoon. A good attendance. A short program was rendered by the pupils of the school. The club will give a play the middle of February and all the proceeds will go to the gymnasium.

The Portland Turn Verein will give an athletic entertainment at the City Hall Saturday evening, February 4th. Forty voices will be heard in the chorus. The Turnverein are giving the entertainment through the efforts of Mayor Streib, absolutely free for the benefit of the Boy Club and gymnasium.

Mayor and Mrs. Streib, Mrs. Maggie Johnson and Miss L. Albee attended the Turners' entertainment at the Heilig theater Monday evening.
Church Notes.
Evangelical church, E. Hadebaugh, pastor. Evangelistic services will continue over Sunday.
The Day of Prayer for missions will be observed next Sunday, Y. P. A. at 7 p. m.
Services at 8 p. m.
All are welcome.

HARMONY.
Superintendent Gary and Dr. Todd were speakers at the school house last Tuesday.
Measles and grip are raging in this burg.
Mrs. Boatman was taken to the St. Vincent's Hospital and operated upon, but under the conditions is slowly improving.

Arleigh Millard, from Seattle, is here visiting with relatives and friends.
Mr. Pollock and family have moved into Mr. Kirtin's house.
Mrs. Batlin had a phone installed in her home Saturday.

Robert Rosenau, who has been up to Sheridan visiting with his parents, has returned.
Quite a number from here attended the social at Nitchita last Saturday night.

DOVER.
Harry Morrison was out from Portland Saturday and Sunday.
William Berghouse is in Portland this week.
Miss Mollie Ahnert left for Portland Monday, where she will enter High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf leave Dover this week to take possession of the Sandy hotel and saloon, which they recently purchased.
Mrs. Ahnert and daughter, Miss Mollie, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bewes Sunday.
Jim Wolf will have charge of his father's farm this year.
Mr. Garver is on his ranch at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf gave a farewell party Saturday evening.
MOLALLA.
Our school is doing good work this winter under the instructions of Prof. Owen, Mrs. Jay and Miss Lay.
There was joint installation at Molalla Grange No. 310, last Saturday, caused by Mrs. Mackrell appearing on the scene with her juveniles during lecture hour.

Robbins Brothers attended the retailers' convention and auto show last week, when the half dozen clerks had full charge and lined themselves up for a picture representing "forsaken." Among all the legislators not even "Church" has introduced a bill to protect the churches from "importers."

A "peculiar people" that claim to speak where the New Testament speaks and are silent where said Scriptures are silent, have gone a step further in fixing up the deed to their church property and have "spoken" where the New Testament is silent and now cannot place a bell in their church steeple, without violating the terms of their deed; so now the money collected for purchasing the church bell must be returned to the subscribers; nothing like fixing things up good and strong.

Mr. Bliss, Miss Tillie and E. K. Dart purchased lots in South Molalla last week.
Mrs. Nancy Engle has been quite ill for several days.
Miss Gladys Looney is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.
Fall wheat looks splendid, the volunteer oats looking as if they had been slightly "struck."

Miss Anna Gipson, who has recently returned from Missouri, paid the folks at home a visit last Sunday.
EAGLE CREEK.
Mrs. H. G. Huntington returned home from Spokane last week, where she had been visiting with her son, Carl Huntington, for the past three months.

Miss Rosa Moehnke went to Oregon City the latter part of last week.
Mr. Strauss, a sawmill man, who lives near Sandy, took dinner with Dick Gibson Friday. He was out looking for milch cows. He wanted about fifteen.

Ed and Miss Bina Douglas started for Molalla Tuesday morning; got down the road a short distance when they found the buggy tongue was broken, so they returned home and got another buggy. We hope they get to Molalla safely.

SANDY.
Road Supervisor Chas. Krebs is busy with a crew of men opening the new road south from Sandy. This will open up a fine country and also give a more direct route from Sandy to Dover and Eagle Creek.
Vic Fosberg has moved to the Peterson place.

George Wolf takes charge of the Sandy Hotel as its new owner, "Dad" Hart, who formerly had charge of it will probably open up a restaurant in the Douglas building.
I. O. O. F. Lodge has placed carpet on its floor.

Sandy will have one of the best social affairs that has ever taken place here on February 11 at 7:30 p. m., when all of the best of talent of Sandy will be heard at Junker's hall, and all the prettiest girls will bring big artistic baskets filled with the most delicious lunch to be sold at

COLTON.
The water in the Mill Creek has been higher this winter than for the past 10 years. While the water was high Chester Gorbett and a crew of men were busy floating shingle bolts. There are about 750 cords of bolts in the creek now, and as soon as the water raises again the last drive will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bonney and daughter, Nellie, were visiting with Grandma Dix last Sunday.
Mr. Anderson, of Colton, was a business visitor at Elwood last Saturday.

Gust Gottburg, who has been down with the measles, is able to be up and around again.
W. E. Bonney transacted business at Oregon City last week.
Mr. Peterson and sons are busy slashing for Mr. Johnson.

Rev. Gordon was summoned to Estacada last week, where his brother is very ill.
J. J. Jones, who left for Highland, returned again last Wednesday on account of the snow.
Joe Carlson is doing some plowing for E. Erickson on the Lindell place.

E. Lindstrom was busy hauling hay a few days last week.
Robinson brothers, of James, were called to Oregon City last week on account of the serious illness of their father.
Hiale Warner, who had been away visiting with friends and relatives at Portland, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stromgreen were business callers at Colton Monday.
Our trappers are doing rather slow business lately.
The report has been made that E. Lindstrom has sold his farm.

Johnny Countryman, while logging for W. S. Gorbett last Monday, slipped from a log and had the misfortune of cutting his foot with his ax, but not seriously.
Mr. and Mrs. Birt Leeson, of Highland, called on the former's father at Colton last week.
U. S. Dix was the proud discoverer of a hen's nest containing two eggs last Saturday.

ELDORADO.
Alfred Moshberger and Merle Jones were the guests of Sidney Smith on Sunday.
Mrs. Maple, who recently underwent a serious surgical operation in Portland, has regained her health so that she is able to come home and Mr. Maple brought her home Sunday. We are all glad to see her smiling face again and to have her back with us.

Mrs. Ed Farse, who was so very ill, is much better at this writing.
Will and A. L. Jones, of Eldorado, went to Oregon City to see their mother as she is very ill with a serious cold.
Mrs. Kate Groucher has bought a little home in Mulino near her sister, Mrs. Daniels, and is contemplating moving when the weather becomes pleasant.
