By Dimick If He Finds They Have United to Defeat This Labor Measure That He Fathers.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 2 .- (Spl.)-The Dimick bill was re-referred to the Sente committee on commerce and labor today. Opponents of the measure are seeking to have the measure so amended as to apply to Oregon City mills, exclusively; they, do not want other manufacturing enterprises included. The committee is divided on the subject and it is hard to tell what kind of a report will be made. Both houses adjourned this afternoon until Monday morning. Members of the legislature will go to Eugene to examine into the needs of the school there.

A big news agency is sending out the following, for publication:

Senator Dimick of Clackamas received a dressing down from President Selling this morning, when he at tempted to have his eight-hour bill, which was recalled from the house, reconsidered and referred yesterday. changed from the committee on commerce and navigation to the indus-FRUIT BUSINESS MEET

President Selling insisted the bill COMMITTEES MAKE REPORTS. was properly referred and said Dimick had no right to take exceptions to it.

"I have passed the bill three times when it could have come up out of courtesy to the senator from Clackamas," said the president. "He has received more favors from me than any other member of this senate, and he has no right to complain."

When Dimick's motion to recall the bill from commerce and navigation was put it failed in a chorus of noes It stays with that committee which Dimick regards as unfriendly. Stormy Scene Enacted.

DITION AFTER MAKING CARE-FUL EXAMINATION OF IT.

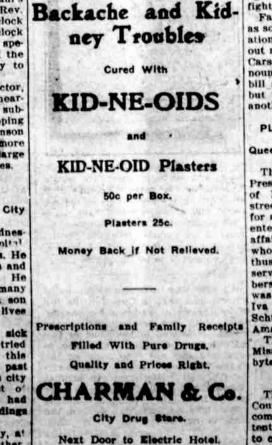

An expert bridge man has been en gaged to examine into the condition of the Seventh street suspension bridge, and will soon begin the work There is some fear that the bridge is not in a safe condition, and that repairs should be begun at once. To this end the County Court plans to ascertain just what the condition is, and not permit people to use it if there is danger every time one crosses

It is only a few years ago that con siderable money was spent in repair-ing this bridge, but if there is any doubt as to the safety of its further use that fact should be demonstrated as soon as it can possibly be done. Report has it that it will take sev eral weeks of the time of an expert to find out the real condition of the bridge. A prominent tax payer de-murred to the time limit, and said the work could be done in a week.

"If it is in so bad a condition it must needs be abandoned, as some up. surmise, then a week is not necessary for its examination," says this taxpayer: "If it is to be repaired and the County Court wants details as to its condition and what to do and how to do it the three weeks may not be time wasted." In any event the people are inclined to have confidence in the judgment of the new Court, and the outcome of this investigation will be awaited with great interest.

Dimick. He said the bill is radical and while he would vote for it if the conditions are as bad as stated by Dimick, he does not believe the senate has information enough to yote intelligently.

Dimick said he had been accosted one of the lobbyists for the mills and told he was "A hell of a fellow." He said the rights of humanity should prevail and made an earnest plea against reconsideration, but lost the fight by a vote of 16 to 12.

Fate of the bill remains in doubt, as some of those voting for reconsideration made it plain they did so with out reference to the merits of the bill Carson of Marion, for instance, an nounced he was firmly convinced the bill should pass and will vote for it, but is willing to give the other side another hearing.
