There is much to say in favor of double tax. State aided road building, and there is much to say in favor of building your roads by counties. Perhaps one could find considerable to say in favor meets this evening and Rev. Hayworth of building roads by communities if is on the program for an address. he was pushed real hard for something to say. The principal question is how to get good roads and have them built economically and to the satisfaction of the man or men who are called upon to pay for them.

Think of a young man-eighty years old-riding a spirited horse about the streets of the City of Mexico with the agility of a cowboy! That's Diaz. Think of a man of fourscore, stalwart, alert, every fiber of body and of mind tingling with life and verve and determination! That's Diaz. Think of an octogenarism, for a quarter of a century the president of a republic, wearing still the cares of state and bearing still the burdens of sovereignty like a youth! That's Diaz. Think of this same old man being inaugurated for the eighth time president of Mexico and tripping the light fantastic at his inaugural ball with the most charming of the senoritas and senoras of his capital! That, too, is Diaz. It is reported that President Diaz has a revolution on his hands, but one never would know it by seeing him these days. Down in the state of Chibushus and perhaps here and there in other states battles and skirmishes are being fought every day or so, according to the reports that come up to this country. And, according to other reports, battles are not being fought. General Diaz himself has engaged in a revolution that was a revolution, so perhaps he is inclined to belittle these guerrilla engagements in Chihuahua. "Diaz is Mexico now," recently said a close observer who has traveled in that country, "and after Diaz-what?"

POLK GAZETTEER IS OUT.

Complete Information for Northwest Given.

Book Just Off Press Has Business Directory of Cities in Oregon and Washington.

(The Morning Oregonian, Tuesday, January 17, 1911.)

Commercial institutions of the city are receiving the annual gazatteer of the R. L. Polk & Company, which is out for the states of Washington and Oregon. 'It is the most complete work of its kind issued in the Northwest. It contains an accurate business directory of Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Portland and every city, town and village in the two states. It also contains the names and addresses of country merchants and professional men, lumbermen and others, who are located in the smaller places.

There is a complete list of the Gov ernment officials, commissioners of deeds, state boards and stitutory provisions and terms of courts, names of the postmasters, postoffices, express, telephone and telegraph offices, jus tices of the peace, a list of the daily and weekly newspapers, and a world of information carefully compiled. A short descriptive sketch of each town and much valued data is given.

An important feature of the publica tion is the classified business directory, which enables the seeker of information to ascertain at a glance names and addresses of all of the different firms engaged in any given line of business. The directory has been compiled to meet the wants of the business community and has been in spected thoroughly for the discovery of any errors which might exist. No publication in this section will supply the exacting demands of business life like this one just from the press. It was only by the expenditure of a large sum of money that the facts were gath ered in the form that they were. The data is absolutely reliable, so that it is perfectly safe for a concern to issue steam. Sit down in the chair, coverprove any address desired by referring or compiling such line as they wish from the book. The official data with reference to the list of Government, state and county officials will be found to be especially valuable. It is corrected so that the results of the last election are all in and in consequence the book is thoroughly up to date.

VALENTINE FAVORS.

New Effects For Cupid's Celebration on Feb. 14.

BOSS PAYOR AND BEART SHAPED PIN-

St. Valentine now claims attention, and one must be original in the art of gift making to attract this little god of love who at some time or other shoots his arrows at every boy and girl. Can you sketch? If so, then make out a valentine menu card for the absent friend. An appropriate menu would be something like the following Candy kiss souffie, heart salad, turkey in the straw, nectar of the gods (coffee), trifles (cakes), returned affection (ice cream), jealousy (pickles), and create anything eise that has a bearing on the day. Then sketch a picture of each item, using India ink. The saucy waitress should be drawn with a platter above her head, and she should be placed at the top of the card. Next sketch a saind and mark the ingredi ents with sigh, hopes, fears, etc. As you begin the work you will discover countless ways to decorate each menu.

To paint a pretty card show Cupid pushing a wheelbarrow full of love up a steep hill. At the top of the hill have a girl and tiny signpost showing the town or city in which she lives. Write beneath the picture the words, "Love's beavy burden."

Another suitable picture for a postal could show Cupid with an immense sack on his back just departing from the mail box on the corner. Write the recipient's name on the unii bag.

If a fancy bag is destred cut a heart shaped piece of cardboard, cover it with satin ribbon and shirr a ribbon to the heart to make the bar Gather it at the top and place a draw string of cord or ribbon at the top. A minlature china Cupid can for tied to the draw string.

A dainty picture to send to some dear old lady is that of an old couple pid keeping up the fire- of love. The sentiment "Love never grows old" is appropriate for a picture of this kind. The favors illustrated, used in the Delineator, are unique and pretty for the St. Valentine cotiliton.

Oregon City Quotations.

Market conditions are slow at this time in nearly all lines. There is some little activity in lines that are nearly exhausted, because the regular season is over and the cold storage nearly so, but outside of this there is little activity manifested. Vegetables are firmer but quotations have not changed.

APPLES-The apple market is still firm with large stocks still on hand. Demand is good with prices from 60c

POTATOES-Good stock is getting scarcer every day with the natural sequence that the price is stiffening somewhat if not actually advancing Good stock is bringing from $£40 to $1.50, and something real fancy might spring that price a trifle Farmers still hold back a little in the hope of getting more. Sweets are now al cellar stock, and none to good.

VEGETABLES-Onions are strong at 2c pound; carrots, parsnips and tur-nips plenty with selling price at $1 sack; beets 3 bunches for 10c; plenty of all kinds but market free. Cabbage and celery all California stocks. FLOUR-The inclination is downward in sympathy with wheat, which is off one cent a bushel. Local flour $5.25, hard wheat brand $5.50, CORN—Selling $1 ton cheaper making rates $1.65 to $1.75 hundred. Feed about same prices—bran 85c, shorts $1,25, barley $1,20. HAY-Merchants paying $14 for clover, $17 for timothy, and $15 for out hay; selling alfalfa for $20 ton. Plenty of hay to meet demands as yet. BUTTER-There is no strength to the market and they are paying 60c to 65c; butter is selling at 75c. Cheese slow as are all cream goods. EGGS-There is a weaker tone to he market and the price is down to
