MISSIONARY MEETING WITH PRESBYTERIANS

TWO VERY ENTERTAINING SPEAKERS AND TWO INTERESTING SESSIONS ON WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday afternoon and evening was given over to an enjoyable missionary meeting at the Presbyterian church. There were two speakers from abroad—Dr. Hall, who has charge of the mission work for the Presbyterian Board in the Northwest country, with headquarters at San Francisco, and Rev. Milligan, of Portland.

At the afternoon meeting both gentlemen spoke. The general topic was missions, and there were two very interesting addresses. The speakers told of remarkable growth in missionary work in this Northwest country. Dr. Hall spoke of general mission work and Rev. Milligan of home work, and the information imparted had much of interest in it for all those present.

At the evening meeting Dr. Hall spoke at length and his topic was mission work in Corea, where the Doctor had been stationed for about seven years prior to 1907, since which time he has been at home. The Doctor confined himself at the evening meeting to foreign missions entirely. The speakers both proved very interesting in their remarks, and the meetings were of more than the usual enthusiasm.

THE POULTRY YARD.
Warm wheat for breakfast makes the biddies shell out the eggs. Plenty of bone all the time. If you haven't a cutter use an old ax or a hatchet, but break the bone in small pieces.

Fertile eggs taken from the incubator need not be an entire loss. They may be boiled and used as chick food. Pigeon-grass is becoming widely distributed in the East. The seed has much nutritive value and is fine for turkeys and chickens.

Takes more to fat a hen now than it did two months ago, but don't winter the hens that are so old they may die before spring. Feed them well, keep them warm and let them go the first chance you have.

Green food must not be forgotten. Some feed green rye when it can be had, others give sprouted oats, others beans and turnips and cabbage, and others add cut clover hay to the mash. All of the greens mentioned are good.

Salt is as essential for poultry as for human beings or animals. But it is not wise to feed it by itself. The better way is to season the food whenever that can be done. The warm mash in the winter gives an excellent opportunity to supply it.

A little more corn may be added to the evening grain ration, as the hens will need more heating food. On the farm of the writer the winter grain ration consists of two parts whole corn, one part oats, and one part wheat. During the summer only one part corn is given to two parts oats and one part wheat.

If porcelain eggs are used for nest eggs in cold weather, cover them with light flannel, or some other material, to avoid torturing the hens. An artificial egg is always of the same temperature as the atmosphere, while the temperature of a hen's body is about 102 degrees. It may readily be seen that in freezing weather these ice-cold eggs will cause the hens to get chilled.

TWO FARCES ON PROGRAM.
Program at Clermont Wednesday Evening Was An Interesting One. At the weekly meeting of the Clermont literary society Wednesday evening Dr. Beard, who has made a recent visit to the Yellowstone Park, gave a short address on the park and what he saw there. The address of the Doctor was followed with a general program.

Messrs. B. Kuppenbender, John Gaffney and Geo. Kordanant were appointed a committee to see what can be done towards improving the condition of Molalla avenue, which runs out into the Clermont country.

Messrs. Fred Wourms, B. Kuppenbender and Mr. Pugh were appointed a committee to investigate the matter of building a cross-country road from the Molalla road to the Highland, running through the Hood farm.

A considerable discussion was given to the possibilities and benefits to come from the fruit and produce union.

The Clermont society will give a home-talent entertainment on Saturday evening, February 11, at 8 p. m. There will be two farces given, "The Sack of Family" and "The Sack of Family," 7 characters; and "The Book Agent," 4 characters, and a minstrel show. Everybody is invited.

BURNS ASSOCIATION MEETS.
New Members Admitted and Important Matters Discussed. The Robble Burns Association of Oregon City met on January 31 and completed their organization by adopting a constitution and a code of by-laws.

Two new members were by vote admitted to membership: H. G. Bigger and Mrs. O. E. Freytag. Several matters of vital importance to the association were discussed at this meeting, the most important being membership. It being finally settled to the entire satisfaction of all present, that any person, male or female, being of good moral character, and lovers of Robert Burns, could by vote of the members present at any regular meeting become members of the association, the fees for membership being 25c; monthly dues 10c.

The Chief, Chas. S. Noble, appointed several committees, which, together with the constitution, will be given to the press as soon as transcripts can be made.

The next meeting will be held in the basement of the Congregational Church, corner Main and 11th, on Monday, the 6th day of February, at 7:45 p. m. At this meeting the question of permanent quarters will be brought up and a full attendance will be appreciated. The meetings heretofore have been held in the tailoring apartments of William McLarty.

LOCAL BROTHERHOOD

Holds Its Business Meeting Wednesday Evening With Mr. Avison.

The Congregational Brotherhood met at the home of E. T. Avison Wednesday evening for its regular business meeting of the month. Principal among the business items up for consideration was that of preparing for the next banquet of the Brotherhood, to be held on Tuesday evening, February 7.

At the coming banquet the speaker will be from abroad, and it is expected that Judge McGinn, of Portland, will make the principal address. The subject chosen will be a patriotic one, with much of the time devoted to Lincoln. The musical program is in preparation, and the ladies of the church will provide a bountiful repast. The Congregational Brotherhood is a very active organization and has increased in numbers very fast the past few months. The attendance at the Wednesday evening meeting was very large and enthusiastic.

CORRESPONDENCE
BARLOW.
Mrs. Kydd and her children leave for Glasgow, Scotland, tomorrow. The postoffice has been moved from its old place to B. J. Berg's store. W. S. Tull, who has been quite sick, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Ausve, who has been very sick with pneumonia, has taken a turn for the better. Woodie Andrews has gone to McMinnville to help in the revival meetings held at that place. Mrs. Crescraft, our school principal, has been quite sick at her home in Portland. We have had no school for a week.

Joe Willett has gone to Cottage Grove to see his little girl, who is not expected to live. Mr. Irwin's have just had electric light put in their home. Mr. Osborn, of Oregon City, has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Burdette since Saturday.

MEADOWBROOK.
Wednesday was quite a rainy day at this place. M. J. Lee, the secretary of the Canby Canal Company, was in town Monday. Roy Donegan is in town again shaking hands and talking politics, as usual.

Warren Baty's family moved out to the camp Monday. J. G. Wanhouse, State Organizer of the Socialist party of Oregon, will speak at Meadowbrook school house Monday evening, February 6 at 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited to come out and hear Socialism explained.

WEST SIDE.
Miss Dorothy Gray, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray, is very ill at her home on the West Side. Arthur Pressey, of Portland, visited his mother, Mrs. Robinson, and little daughter Ruth, on the West Side Monday.

Miss Sadie Robinson, who has been in Portland for over a year, will visit at the country home of her brother, W. M. Robinson, of the West Side. Mrs. Bester, of Portland, visited at the home of Mrs. Gray to be with her daughter, B. C. The ground hog will surely see his shadow today, which means six weeks more of bad weather.

WILSONVILLE.
Prof. Bethune went to Portland on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seely, of Molalla, visited their son Sherman, last week. Norman Say and son Harold went to Portland on Monday.

Mrs. Chalupsky has been very ill, but is now somewhat improved. Bold Zutter, a distant relative in this vicinity last week. John Butson was in Portland Monday on business.

Mrs. Ed Baker spent a couple of days in Portland the first of the week. Real estate deals have been rather numerous lately near our village. Mrs. Elmer Jones returned from the Rose City on Monday, where she visited friends.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitte of Union district on Tuesday, the 24th of January. The bridge in front of Chas. Epler's old place, known as the Epler bridge, is still out of repair.

The late winds and rains played havoc with the telephone wires last week, and talking over the wires was like a medley of tin-can serenades, for a time, but the repairs were made as quickly as possible by those having charge of the different lines.

Mr. Chalupsky sold the small house on the grounds adjacent to his spacious dwelling a few days ago to some parties from Oswego, who will come here to reside.

Ed Bawer's young folks had a Friday party in their home on a dancing evening. The trustees of the Wilsonville school had a meeting lately and decided to put a new floor in the school building. John Butson sold some property at Tigardville, on Monday to Lewis Hillman, consideration being $2500.

The Methodist church is holding services as usual at the A. O. U. hall, to which all are cordially invited.

about two miles from our village, directly in front of Aubrey Woods' residence, the editor of the Oregonian so strong that it was noticeable to these men who were not used to its new, bent breath. Persons interested had the shale examined, and although experts differed in opinion as to its value, the oil-man has pounced upon it and an offer for a lease of Mr. Wood's property has been the result. It is not certain at this time whether Mr. Woods will accept the proposition, but if he should do so, we all hope he may strike a Lakeview gusher.

JENNINGS LODGE.
There was a large attendance at the special meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club on January 25. The new club had the pleasure of the presence of four prominent men of the Oregon City Commercial Club, who gave them encouragement in their new organization. The committee of the Oregon City Club was composed of Messrs. L. Stipp, G. L. Hedges, T. P. Randall and Harry Draper.

The following committees were appointed, for better telephone service, J. A. Johnson, H. C. Panton and A. F. Russell; electric lights, P. D. Newell, Chas. Redmond, A. G. McFarlane; for improvement of sidewalks, Messrs. Cook, Ross and Armstrong; for better drainage, Messrs. George Shaver, Thompson and Will Ross. Much interest is being manifested by all the members, and a number more signed the application blanks for membership.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 1, at 7:30. Mrs. Bevin, of Williamette, was a visitor at the H. C. Panton home on Friday and Saturday of last week. Miss Carrie Scripture spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Silas Scripture in Oregon City.

A wedding of some interest to Lodge folks was that of Robert J. Steinhaus and Miss Inez L. Cravette, which took place on Saturday evening, January 21, at the L. S. Spooner home in Portland. The bride is well and favorably known here, having spent the last two summers with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Spooner, of this place. We are glad to see Mr. Clyde Newell able to be about again without the aid of his crutches.

Mr. Ed Johnson has been confined to his home, "Rock Lodge," with rheumatism for several days. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith spent Sunday at their cottage on the river. Prayer meeting will be held as usual at the Chapel on Thursday evening at 7:30. Mr. G. D. Boardman is leader. All are welcome.

Miss Leah McGovern left on Friday for a few days' visit with an uncle at Gresham, Oregon. Miss Ellis, a minister of the Advent Christian church of Hillsboro, Oregon, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Erickson, near Meldrum. Miss Ellis has spent some time in California and this is the first visit to her sister in five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons and family removed to Vancouver, Washington, on Friday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hogan, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Gibbons. While we shall miss this family very much, we wish them well in their future home and hope they yet will decide to build on their acreage at this place.

Mr. Waldron, of Iowa, purchased an acre on County Road and Jennings avenue, of Mr. Chas. Slocum. This is a very fine location and has nearly fifty bearing fruit trees and small vines. The consideration was $1500. Mrs. H. H. Emmons and Mrs. Albert Barnes attended the Women's Club meeting in Oregon City on Thursday. Mrs. Barnes, who was a resident of Honolulu for fourteen years, gave a short talk on the Hawaiian Islands, which was very interesting.

Mrs. William Ross, of Orchard, Washington, came over to care for her son who was ill for a few days. She was accompanied by her daughter Edna, who has recently returned from a school in Vancouver, B. C. Mr. J. A. Soesbe, of Newport, is spending a few days at the Lodge looking after his business interests here. He reports that his son Arthur has accepted a very fine position with one of the business houses of that place.

Mrs. Gladys Watson and two children, of Seaside, are having a delightful visit with her parents, P. D. Newell, and also with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Newell. Mrs. L. Wilcox was a Portland shopper on Wednesday.

The many friends here of Master Harold Pratt were pained to hear of the accident which befell him when he was thrown from his pony on his way to Canby on Saturday. He received a broken wrist. At present he is waiting his grandparents in Oregon City, while nursing the broken arm.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Lehman at their home in East Jennings Lodge on Saturday evening, the occasion being Mr. Lehman's birthday anniversary. About twenty couples were present and the evening was pleasantly past in dancing. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Lillian Westerfield has been the guest of the Misses Ethel and Fern Hart for a few days and called on other schoolmates before her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hodges are rejoicing over a baby girl, which arrived at their home on Saturday evening, January 28. Master Newton Strain entertained a number of his little friends at his home on Tuesday evening, from four till six, when it was his tenth birthday anniversary. Checkers and other games were enjoyed and Mrs. Strain served delicious refreshments to Herschel Meredith, Donald McFarlane, Harry Sladen, Charles Ryan, Arthur Roberts, Glenn Russell, Willard Slocum, Clyde and Frank Jones and Harold Pratt, from Canby.

Mr. P. D. Newell accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Watson, to Portland on Tuesday, where she will visit a short time with Mr. Edwin Newell, and family, before returning to her home at Seaside.

Messrs. G. D. Boardman, Chas. Redmond, Hugh McGovern and Mrs. T. C. Rice were business callers at the county seat on Wednesday. Mr. Crampton, of Portland, was looking after his business interests at this place on Wednesday.

CARUS.
The Carus literary society held a very interesting meeting January 27. The subject for debate was, "Resolved That War Produces More Misery Than Interference." The judges decided in favor of the negative. The subject for debate February 3 is "Resolved That There is More Pleasure in Pursuit Than Possession." The debaters are: Affirmative, A. Thomas and Chas. Casto; negative, J. L. Ashton and Al Moshberger. The society will give a pie social after the debate. Everybody invited.

TWILIGHT.
C. E. Swick visited the school one day last week and was very favorably impressed with the school under the able management of Miss McDonald.

Lazelle B. Melnd, of Portland, is making his grandparents a week's visit during his mid-winter term vacation at Mountain Ash farm.

Miss Anna Whitehart was visiting her sister, Mrs. James Hylton, last Tuesday.

Through the efforts of the literary society many needed wants have been added to Twilight hall.

Miss Leslie McDonald was a guest last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dodds, to a dinner given in honor of W. A. Dodd's 65th birthday anniversary. The day was very pleasantly spent and will be long remembered by those present. His many friends wish him many more such happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodds and Geo. Lazelle attended Warner grange last Saturday at New Era.

William Wyatt was calling on old friends last Sunday. He at one time lived in this neighborhood but now resides in Monrovia, Cal.

After so much rain, snow, and sunshine we are all glad it isn't as bad as they have in the Eastern states, as it never gets very cold here or stays stormy very long. We all think Oregon is good enough for us.

Mr. Caldwell is still improving his place with new buildings. The school is progressing nicely with Miss McDonald as teacher.

C. E. Swick is improving his farm by pulling out the stumps. Mr. Nash is helping him.

George Schriener is making several improvements on his place. It looks like the people of Twilight have begun to make things look prosperous. I hope we all will be proud to say, "Why, yes, we live at Twilight," and all will know that it is in Clackamas County.

The literary society will meet again Saturday night at the hall. All look forward to the coming meeting as the evening is most enjoyably spent by all that attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lazelle attended the whist party at Mr. Harvey's Wednesday night and spent a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Hoopes was calling on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Sunday. Mr. Myers is quite feeble. He is in his 82nd year.

Mr. Harvey is cutting wood. He must be looking for some more snow. We hope he will not have to be bothered with it for a quite a long while, now.

Grandpa Hylton is trimming his fruit trees and expects to have some choice apples this fall.

STAFFORD.
The snow, followed by such an unusual down-pour of rain, succeeded by mild weather, has given almost everyone bad colds, in grippe and kindred diseases. Hardly a house but has sick ones to care for, and doctors are receiving their harvest.

Of those who have been under a physician's care for some time are Mrs. Ben Athey, Mrs. William Schatz, Henry Eligsen, who are about the same, with slight improvement.

Otto Peters is improving slowly. Meint Peters is no better. Helen Rable is quite ill in bed from having taken a severe cold the day Mrs. Turner was buried.
