VOL. 1—No. 33

OREGON CITY, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1911.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

RECIPROCITY WINS IN HOUSE TODAY

MAJORITY OF REPUBLICANS VOTE AGAINST IT BUT DEMOCRATS SAVE THE DAY.

REPUBLICANS SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT

It Said to Believe It Will Carry in the Senate if It Can Be Brought to a Vote.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—President Taft won in his contention for reciprocity with Canada and the agreement passed in the House tonight. The Democrats supported the measure almost to a man and the bill was carried by a vote of 221 to 92. More than a half of the Republicans voted against the bill and the Democrats saved the day for Taft. At 75 Republicans voted for it, at 75 the Insurgent Republicans a majority voted for the bill. The bill—it is the McCall measure—will now go to the Senate. What will happen to it there can only be conjectured at this early day. The President is reported as having a belief that it will pass there in case it can be brought to a vote. The debate in the House has been bitter at times and the bill was through by the hardest of work.

PORTLAND MAY WIN DOCKS.

Canal Argument Aids Bill's Passage in Senate.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 14.—Picturing the beauty of the ocean-going vessels that will touch the Portland harbor in the Panama Canal is completed showing forcibly what a wonderful thing their canal will mean for Oregon metropolis, Senator Maury's plea caused the Senate to sell the public dock bill last night when previously it had appeared that the bill would have hard going.

PORTLAND JUDGE COMING.

Public Banquet at Gladstone Promises Many Good Features.

Judge Cavanaugh of Portland, has accepted the invitation to speak at the public banquet planned for February 21 by the ladies of the Gladstone Presbyterian church, along with other speakers. It was the desire of the church that the Judge be invited, and with that in mind it was decided of his coming and was soon abroad that he would come. The Judge had not accepted the announcement was first. It is now reported that he has said that he would be game come regardless of the fact that all people anticipated his acceptance. The plans for the banquet are being made on a very high level and are planning for a royal good

Clean Up Seventh Street.

Harry Clark, colored, in jail for 30 days for dissipation, was put to work on Seventh street Tuesday morning. Officer Shaw and did a good job cleaning it up. He preferred to be out in the open to being confined in the jail, and as he made promises to do good was put to the test. He worked faithfully and returned to his lodging. Citizens on the street are pleased with the work done, are wondering whether the city will come along and take the way or leave it till it is scattered by the street again.

Warfare Without Blood or Passion.

scholars in the Presbyterian day school have been divided into divisions, the Blues and the Reds, they are to be given receptacles will hold nickels and then turned to the "fillers" have arrived and Sunday the young folks are to be armed and sent forth to conquer. Victory is to be bloodless, and the seeds will be devoted to peaceful warfare without blood or passion.

TAFT ENTERTAINS CANNON.

The President Follows the Fad as Set By Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Tonight President Taft gave a dinner to Speaker Cannon, in honor of his being the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and one of the few leaders of the party. The idea for a dinner to the Speaker was initiated during Roosevelt's incumbency at the White House, and has no political significance. Taft and Cannon have been at variance on many things of late and there is no effort on the part of the President to heal the breach.

DYNAMITER CAUGHT.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—Caplan, charged with being one of three men who blew up the Times office last September, has been arrested at Idabel, Okla. He has been started for California, requisition papers having been secured.

Dog Insurance Bill Loses.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—Senator Carson's attempt to start a dog insurance plan by placing a license on all dogs to establish a fund out of which to reimburse owners of stock that have been killed by dogs failed tonight. There were 39 who voted against the bill and eight favored it.

Women as Politicians.

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 14.—A convention of women held in the Statehouse yesterday took first steps toward the organization of a woman's party.

14 Hours, Railroad Work Day.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—Under the provisions of a bill introduced by McCulloch and passing the Senate today, all railroad employes such as trainmen and telegraph operators, employed on roads doing an intra-state business, shall work no more than 14 hours a day.

Portland to Have Congressman.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 14.—Oliver's bill giving Multnomah county a Congressional district by itself and dividing the balance of the state into two districts, one in Eastern Oregon and the other in Western Oregon, passed the Senate last night with only one dissenting vote, that of Calkins.

LOOKS OUT WINDOW

While Old Comrades March By Bearing Old Glory Aloft.

Mr. D. K. Hill, who was taken suddenly ill last week is reported much better and on the road to speedy recovery. Mr. Hill is commander of Meade Post No. 2, that attended church in a body at the M. E. church Sunday. Mr. Hill's illness, together with the inclement weather, made it imperative that he stay at home and not venture forth. But Mr. Hill could not forego the opportunity to crawl to the window and see the old comrades march by, dropping a tear for the old flag as its colors were borne in on his vision. Mr. Hill is a patriotic old soldier and is making an enthusiastic commander of the local post.

High School to Be Completed.

The board of directors of the city schools Tuesday let the contract for the plastering, marble work, painting and heating plant for the new high school building, and engaged C. W. Vonderhabe to proceed with the construction of the building. Work will be started at once, and will be completed as soon as possible.

VALENTINE SOCIAL GIVEN BY THE BOYS

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH PARLORS DECORATED FOR THE OCCASION MONDAY EVE.

A Valentine social was given at the Congregational church parlors Monday night by the Lambda and Gamma Club, organizations composed of the boys of the Sunday school, who are in a contest with the girls' club to purchase a piano for the Sunday school room.

CHANGE IN NAME FOR PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

REV. BAUER ADVOCATES ADOPTING SOMETHING DISTINCTIVE, IN NAME AT LEAST.

Rev. Phillip E. Bauer, pastor of the First Congregational church at Salem, was in the city Tuesday transacting business. He was here to assist his father in the purchase of a home at Willamette, where the father and mother may enjoy their last days in peace and comfort.

TIME RIGHT FOR A DAILY.

(American Bulletin.)

On January 8, the Enterprise, of Oregon City, Oregon, appeared as a morning daily, a bright new paper, four pages of a seven-column. Oregon City and surrounding country is growing rapidly, and Edward Brodie publisher, has thoroughly canvassed the field and concluded the time was right for a daily. Mr. Brodie has met with great success in publishing the weekly Enterprise, and we wish his equal success with the daily.

AN INCIDENT IN THE AWAKENING OF CHINA.

The idea of the Chinese to dispense with their cuss evidently was not inspired by the barbers, but——the hat dealers are under suspicion.

MONEY FOUND ON BODY BONE OF CONTENTION

EFFORT BEING MADE TO RETAIN MONEY FOR STATE UNLESS DOUBT IS CLEARED UP.

Following the suit of the State of Oregon, through Frank Hesse, special counsel appointed by Governor West to bring proceedings to escheat the money of the estate of F. A. Williamson, who died in 1876, application for a writ of review was made Tuesday by Fred Hargreaves, administrator of the estate of Bernhard Halst, who claimed that the body of the man found three years ago near Oswego was that of his brother, Christian Halst.

RAILWAY TO MOLALLA TO DEVELOP SECTION

LARGE SECTION OF RICH COUNTRY WOULD THEN BE MADE TRIBUTARY TO THIS CITY.

Through the Live Wires of the Commercial Club an effort was made Tuesday to revive the project of the construction of an electric railway from Oregon City to Silverton through the Molalla Valley. It is tentatively planned to go about the proposition in a small way, first obtaining the profiles, maps, plats and other data secured by F. M. Swift, who worked several years on the project and abandoned it after spending about $15,000.

WIFE HAS TEMPER

If Husband's Allegations Are True, As Recited in Petition.

John J. Kuntz, who was married in St. Joseph, Mo., April 10, 1888, Tuesday filed the suit for divorce against Louise M. Kuntz, through Attorney John B. Ryan, of Portland. Kuntz charges that his wife possesses a nagging disposition and scolded and vilified him before their five children, ranging from 5 to 22 years of age. In 1909, while they were living at Jefferson, Or., she took poison in a fit of temper, but was not successful in taking her own life. Kuntz seeks to bar his wife from claiming an interest in his property.

EGG PRICES BREAK.

Blame Laid to Drought of Last September.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—A break of 5 and 6 cents a dozen in the price of eggs last week has brought values to the lowest level touched in February in many years. Extra eggs closed 21 cents a dozen, while seconds brought only 8 to 10 cents. Last September, following the long period of drought suffered by the country, eggs came forward in excessive quantities, and dealers placed them in cold storage in order to keep prices from declining. At that time they believed the heavy movement from poultry farms would not be of long duration and that they would have little difficulty in clearing holdings at a profit later in the year. Receipts continued

MILWAUKIE GETS A FACTORY.

Chicago Men Start Label and Carton Establishment in Suburb.

Through the efforts of N. M. Dean, of the Dean Land & Improvement Company, a new industry has been secured for Milwaukee in the shape of an establishment for the manufacture of labels, cartons, bottle boxes, etc., for the drug trade. The business will be carried on under the name of the Portland Label Company, with J. W. and Fred A. Kinzel, recently from Chicago, as managers.

Pioneer Dies at Eagle Creek.

James Smith was born near Dundee, Scotland, November 12, 1822, died at Eagle Creek, Or., January 31, 1911, at the age of 88 years. He left his home in Scotland in 1876, arriving at Eagle Creek, Or., the same year, where he resided until his death.

VISIT MOUNT HOOD JOURNEYING ON SKIS

DEEP SNOWS ENCOUNTERED EN ROUTE—SIGHT PRESENTED ONE OF GREAT BEAUTY.

Charles H. Caulfield and two sons, Raymond and Wallace, returned to Oregon City Monday night, after making a successful trip to Government Camp, where they had the pleasure of viewing old Mount Hood with its heavy mantle of snow, a sight that very few people in this city have witnessed in mid-winter. The boys, who are attending the University of Oregon, and who had made a record two years ago of making the quickest climb to the summit of Mount Hood of any party that summer, have been enjoying their week's vacation in this manner.

WANTS $5,000 DAMAGES.

Claims Company Did Not Take Necessary Precautions.

Edward Richardson yesterday filed a suit against the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co. for $5,000 damages for the loss of three fingers in the mill of the company April 12, 1909, while working as an oiler. He charges that he was a new and inexperienced man and knew nothing of the risks that beset him. In his work he had to pass between a pump, a wall and a huge fly wheel that revolved at a high rate of speed, which, he says, was installed in a negligent manner, and was open and unprotected by a railing and not guarded by any safety device.

SECOND ANNUAL BALL OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED FOR A VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR—TWO SHORT ADDRESSES.

Everything is in readiness for the Commercial Club ball to be given Thursday evening, February 16, at which time the Busch handsome new ball will be opened to the public. Over 600 invitations have been issued by the committee having charge of the affair, and many will come here from Portland. There will be a special car to return to Portland, after the ball. Prasp's orchestra of seven pieces will furnish the music for the dancing. The grand march will commence at 8:30 o'clock. Preceding the grand march Mayor George C. Brownell and Father Hillebrand will make a few appropriate remarks. There will be 15 dances with three extra on the program, and many of the latest selection will be given.

MISS VEDA WILLIAMS HOSTESS AT THE HOME OF HER SISTER.

Miss Veda Williams entertained the members of the Gypsy Club at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Miller on Seventh street, Saturday evening at a Valentine party. The rooms were very attractive with their decorations of hearts, and the place cards were of the same. The evening was devoted to instrumental and vocal music and guessing contests, the prizes being won by Miss Zida Goldsmith. Refreshments were served during the evening. Miss Williams being assisted by Mrs. Miller.

STONE WELL SHOWS OIL AND GAS AND INDICATIONS FOR PAYING FIND ARE ENCOURAGING.

STONE, Or., Feb. 14.—(Spl.)—Everything is all activity around our oil well again after a short period of inactivity. The well has been cleared of debris since it was shot ten days ago and just what is in the well is known to the owners and operators. Oil and gas were secured in the shooting but the quantity was not satisfactory for the drill has been again started downward. The indications are flattering, it is said, and now that the company knows that there is oil they are encouraged to go on deeper in the hope that it may be found in paying quantities.
