

LOCAL BRIEFS

E. Hottman, of Clarks, was in this city on business Thursday. C. D. Latourrette made a business trip to Salem on Wednesday. Butter for sale 75c at Beeley's. Emil Gordon, of Canby, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday. A. Rakel, of Canemah, moved to his mountain homestead on Thursday. Stock of new pianos just received by A. H. Sturges, 401 Seventh street. The choir of the Presbyterian church will meet in the church this evening for its weekly practice. Dancing parties wishing to hire auto make reservations with C. Elliott today. J. Byron and J. Rice, of Oil Creek, were in Oregon City on business Thursday. Dr. George Hoeye, Dentist, Caulfield Bldg., Oregon City. Ray Cole arrived from Estacada, where he is engaged in surveying, and attended the Commercial Club ball Tuesday evening at the Busch Hall. Miss Madge Hollowell, of Gladstone, was given a surprise Wednesday night by a score of her girl friends at her home in that city. There was a very enjoyable evening spent with games and music, followed by refreshments and the close of a very pleasant event. County School Superintendent Gary was called to Salem last night to assist in the passage of the salary law giving County Superintendents and others a raise in salary. As the School Superintendent receives but a $1000 a year it is easy to see that his salary can be given a material raise and still be within what is the dues of a man as capable as Mr. Gary has proven himself.

PEOPLE POINTED OUT

Mrs. Claus Peters, of Stafford, was in Oregon City on business Thursday. Mrs. John Luenberger, of Clackamas county, was in this city on Thursday. Mr. Richard Harrison, draftsman at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co., is suffering from an attack of grip. Mr. A. B. Beedle, grocer on Lower Main street, has been wrestling with a mean case of the grip for the past week, but is better. Master Marlon Miller, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, has been sick the past few days with a serious attack of winter dysentery. Messrs. Melane, Sheahan and Puss, from among the men of prominence at the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co., were passengers on the evening train for Salem. Miss Olga McClure, stenographer for U'ren & Schuebel, who has been very ill for the past 10 weeks in the Good Samaritan Hospital with typhoid fever, is now able to sit up, and will probably be removed to her home on Sunday.

ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 16.—Theodore Roosevelt will speak at the University of Oregon on April 5. A telegram received yesterday from the ex-President, states that if arrangements can be made to stop his train long enough, while passing the Oregon campus, he will speak from the rear of his car to the students. Hewitt—Does the climate agree with your wife? Jewett—That's more than I'd expect of any climate.—The Marat Set.

TENDERLOIN DISTRICT WANTED.

John Hutson spent some time in Portland last week on real estate business. Real estate business is getting lively in our village since fall weather. The high winds of Monday twisted the telephone wires again, and most people on the line were cut off from central. Mrs. Chalupsky, who has been very ill, is improving slowly under the splendid nursing of her sister, Miss Strangie. The buyer for the Southern Oregon Commission Co. was in Wilsonville for some days last week buying potatoes. Henry Beckman was installed as president of the M. B. A. lodge at the first meeting in January. Mr. Beckman has been a very enthusiastic member, and will doubtless keep this growing lodge up to a high degree of excellence. Mr. Darby was installed as secretary, and his splendid business ability makes him well fitted for the position. Jake Peters, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Darby, Matt Baker and his family of boys have been among the residents near our village afflicted with the grip. Many Wilsonville people were in attendance at the funerals of Meint Peters and Henry Elligson at Stafford last week. The St. Valentine Ball, given by the members of the dancing club, at the M. B. A. hall on Saturday evening, was much enjoyed by those who attended. A road meeting for district No. 22 was held in the Pleasant Hill school house on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock to discuss the best way of building roads to accommodate the farmers of the community. Meint K. Peters, who died at the family home at Stafford last Tuesday evening, was one of the progressive German farmers, who with their energy and skill have been such great factors in the development of this country. He was the father of our highly respected townsmen, Jake Peters, and to this noble son, as well as to the widow and other members of the family, we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. Henry Elligson, who died on last Tuesday morning at Stafford of quick consumption, was always greatly admired by his host of friends on account of his happy, jovial disposition. The funeral was largely attended by the numerous friends of the deceased and the M. B. A. lodge of Wilsonville attended in a body, performing the ritualistic work of the order in a very creditable manner. The funeral offerings were numerous and handsome, paying tribute to the memory of one beloved by his many friends.

GOVERNOR WEST

Invited to Speak at the Next Congregational Banquet. County School Superintendent Gary is a member of the Congregational Brotherhood and takes an interest in all brotherhood matters, whether in connection with the brotherhood with which he is affiliated or not. Mr. Gary was called to Salem on legislative matters Thursday, and before going he was asked to write there inviting Governor West to come to Oregon City and speak at a Brotherhood meeting in the near future. The Governor will be invited to come at the next regular meeting, but if he cannot come at that time he will be asked to set the date when he can come, and then the Congregational Brotherhood will conform plans to the spare time of the Governor. Governor West is a very interesting speaker and if he elects to come will undoubtedly add greatly to the interest on the occasion that he may grace with his presence. QUILTING BEE HELD. Home of Mrs. James Burgess Given Over to the Pastime. On Wednesday evening Mrs. James Burgess gave an old fashioned quilting bee at her home on Clackamas Heights. A bounteous dinner was served, and a good time enjoyed. It was an event which will be long remembered by those attending. Those present were, Mrs. Alex Brown, Mrs. Charles Livesay, Mrs. A. G. Kinder, Mrs. H. Rambo, Mrs. J. Aldrich, Mrs. Edna Aldrich, Mrs. J. J. DeFord, Mrs. A. Rittenhouse, Mrs. A. Fleming, Mrs. George Mann, Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. M. L. Shortlidge, Mrs. George Shortlidge, Mrs. Julia Roberts, Mrs. J. W. McNulty, Mrs. James Burgess, Miss Genevieve Aldrich, Miss Mary Burgess. Bert Kent, of Woodburn, was in Oregon City Thursday, having come here on business, and before returning home visited his brother, John Kent, of Parkplace. Mrs. James Goodpasture, of Portland, spent Thursday in Parkplace visiting relatives.

MUSICAL COMEDY AT ELECTRIC THEATRE.

The Electric Theatre will change its policy next Sunday, Feb. 19, from moving pictures to musical comedy. The management has arranged for the LeRoy Osborn Musical Comedy Co. to play musical comedy for an indefinite period. This company comes well recommended and is well known in the Eastern States and part of the Pacific Coast. They just closed a five weeks engagement in Vancouver, where they established a good reputation. Manager Osborn will change his program three times a week, giving an entire change of program Sundays, Tuesdays and Fridays. This company has a large chorus of beautiful girls, in which they demonstrate to you approved beautiful songs and dances. Manager Osborn has with him two of Oregon City's favorites—Miss Mamie Haslam and Walter Stegfried, who are playing the leading roles. Miss Marguerite Doyle, who has played characters for the LeRoy Osborn Musical Comedy Company for the past two seasons, has established a great reputation, and is known as one of the best character women on the Coast. Her make-up and work is a revelation. We might mention that this is a few of the many excellent features of the company, which will make its initial bow to the Oregon City theatre goers on next Sunday afternoon. Oregon City has always wanted musical comedy and at last the proprietors of the Electric have secured an excellent organization to occupy the stage of their play house. Capable principals, funny comedians, pretty girls, excellent dancers, all go to make a good company and the patrons are assured of at least getting what Oregon City has wanted for a considerable time—GOOD, CLEAN, REFINED MUSICAL COMEDY. Manager Osborn guarantees the public there will be nothing seen or done that will mar the most refined taste. The prices will be popular and the performance will be the equal of anything of its kind on the Coast.

WILSONVILLE.

Miss Helen Murray spent some days last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tooze, of Gladstone. Mrs. Aubrey Woods returned from Oregon City on Friday, where she had been attending the teachers' examinations. Potato raisers from San Jose, Cal., were in Wilsonville last Monday, buying fancy seed potatoes. Eva and Mae Baker spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Mrs. Norris Young had quite a siege of the grippe last week. Prof. Bethune, of the local school, attended the teachers' examinations in Oregon City last week. Allison Baker returned from a trip to the county seat last Friday. Mr. Lowry was in Wilsonville on business Thursday and Friday of last week. Ira Seely went to Newberg on Monday, returning the same day.

JENNINGS LODGE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson have been quite ill for some time, and Mrs. Johnson is still confined to her bed. Dr. Mount, of Oregon City, is in attendance. Miss Lillian Westerfield, of Jones Mill, and Mrs. Meredith, were among those who have visited at the school during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Silas F. Scripture, of Oregon City, on Sunday. Mr. Glenn Seely, of Medford, has returned home from a two month's visit with his grandparents at Summit, Oregon. Mr. H. H. Emmons returned from Idaho on Saturday where his business interests called him for the past week and on Sunday was accompanied by Mrs. Emmons when they spent the day at "Stone Gables."
