Hook and Ladder Co. ball this evening, in Busch hall. David Catto was a Portland businessvisitor on Tuesday and continued his journey to St. Johns, where he visited his brother. There was a very enjoyable banquet There was a very the Christian church last Began This Morning and You Can't at the Gladstone Christian church last Began This Morning and You Can't Afford to Miss it. night, with speakers from abroad and good supper before the speaking.

Chas, Dickey is the first purchaser lot in the new C. T. Tooze addito give a contract for the erecion of a new house. It will be the first house in the allotment,

The Builders Supply Co. has purchased a new team and is getting ready for a busy spring, when it hopes to sell and deliver many loads building materials, There was a concert in W. O. W.

hall Tuesday evening for a benefit to Will Curtis, so long ill. The affair proved enjoyable and profitable. Wal'Titeser, of Willamette, is making extensive improvements on his place by erecting new fences and otherwise improving the appearance of his property. building a bungalow for Mr. Smith. It will be 30x40 and according latest style of bungalow art. The ladies of Circle C, of the Presbyterian church, gave a China shower Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Dye gave her entertaining address on the Hawallans, where she so recently visited, C. T. Tooze has purchased the Graves home at Falls View and is having it remodelled and put into shape for occupancy. When the work is finished it will be a most convenient and commodious home. The young people of the Catholic church were busy Monday evening mailing out invitations for their dance.

to be given Monday evening, February 27. Plans are making for a very pleasant affair. There was a bunch of nice apples received Tuesday from local growers by the Union and sales have been made of nearly all of them. The more fruit and produce the Union has for sale the more buyers will come and make inquirtes.

The sunnger set of lads took it upon themselves to charivari a young married couple on Center street, who had been married for three months, Tuesevening Having seen the older boys" in their endeavors to "act foolish" the little fellows followed suit and started in on people who had been married long enough to have been im-

The literary meeting at Twilight Saturday night was well attended and the program gave general satisfaction. Hayworth, of the Baptist has In preparation a George Washington service for next Sunday evening, at which time he will speak on the topic, "George Washington and The White Light," showing the moral ide to his life and life work.

The girls in the Congregational Sunday school are planning for a hard mes social in the church parlors on Friday evening. The purpose is to make money for the piano fund, in which they are contesting with the boys of the school. There will be a prize for the best hard times costume; also a program and candles and re freshments for sale. All are invited.

PEOPLE POINTED OUT

Mr. L. R. Kaylor and daughter, the and, were calling on friends in the city Tuenday.

Mrs. Young, of Portland, accompaned by her daughter, Mrs. Dale Forest Young, of Sellwood, arrived in Oregon City this week, to attend the Wentworth-Marshall wedding, which was demnized last night at the Canemah

Hon. Frank J. Miller, one of the raiload commissioners who came to this city Tuesday morning to attend the hearing of the passenger rate of the 0. W. P. & Railway Company, is the est of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bollack. Mr. Miller is accompanied by his wife. Miss Nellie Derby, a clerk in the office of County Recorder Lloyd Williams, who has been ill for several days, was taken to her home in Salem Tuesday morning by her parents, who arrived Monday night in Oregon City. Miss Derby will return to Oregon City as soon as she is able to resume her duties.

Walter Sigfred

OH YOU JEW

L. ADAMS' SPECIAL SALE

L. Adams' special remnant sale, ad vertised in the Morning Enterprise and Weekly Enterprise, opened up today. This is the season of the year when the wise merchant goes over his stock and marks down many good goods that happen to be seasonable some months in the past. These goods are just as good now as a month ago but Dame Fashion decrees that you must march on fast and hence these sales are designed to sell you things that would soon go out of style while yet in style. In this sale there are many things that are great bargains that Mr. Adams is willing to sell at a close figure to make room for new goods coming in. You may as well participate in these bargains as to let your neighbor get all the good things The goods are still new, they Ed Surface has the contract for are yet in style, but they must be sold while yet seasonable to make room on Fifteenth street, Kansas for newer stock. If you have not read his advertisement you should do so.

A Girl's New Year's Resolution. I'm going to be giad. Who knows what nice things may be just around I'm going to be all dressed before I leave my own room and then forget it. I won't sit bias in a street car. won't gossip so it hurts any one; just nice interesting, harmless little tnika

I won't always tell all I know. I won't tell my friends of holes in their clothes when they are far from home.

I won't fuse over things I cannot beip.

I won't hurry more than half of the time I'll try to be pleasant and not lie, but I won't lie to be pleasant. A good natured flar makes every one mad in the stage. Finally John Dunn persuaded long run. I won't lend money. I'll just give it and get the credit. When "lo company" I'll talk, whether I have anything to say or not.

I'll try to keep all my old friends and make as many new ones as possible. for some of the old will surely drop out. It is better to be on with the new before you are off with the old. Last, I'll try to keep some of these resolutions, all the easy ones anyway.

An Ironing Board In Disguise. When you have read about the wonders of the ironing board seen in the cut you will think it is the most practical, economical and handlest convenlence you have seen in a long time. When not in use as an ironing board part forms a convenient hamper eithe for clothes to be froned or for thos that have undergone the treatment.

Woman's World

Press Agent For the Biggest Show In New York City.

MRS. CHANNING POLLOCK.

"She's the best press agent in the Greetings ......"
"Be a Live One" ..... country," so said a man recently who is in a position to judge of such matters concerning the publicity work of in the professional world as Miss Anna Marble.

Mrs. Pollock comes of several generations of stage folk and seemed pre destined for a cureer as an actress. but as she herself says, "I had no hankering for the limelight, but my relatives kept heading me toward the me to become press agent for 'Flora dorn,' which he brought to America, and my work has been cut out for me ever since." From that time on Miss Marble has bandled the publicity for Oscar Hamwhen she first came to this country. At present she is press agent for New York's mammoth show, the Hippo drome, and in odd moments she writes vaudeville sketches and magazine Brides as Business Women.

Certain bushands now contend that brides should be educated in business methods. They are not satisfied that their wives are excellent cooks, superb housekeepers and gracious and tactful at the dinner table. They think women also should be sufficient ly acquainted with business to be companions to them in affairs of vital importance. Said one man: "I think a wife should be educated in business. My wife is a perfectly model woman in every way except that she cannot help me tfl any way in a business mat-She cannot understand business simply because she never had any instruction in it. Now, if my wife had studied a little about architecture she could have given me important advice on the question of letting a contract to a builder for the construction of our home. I certainly think wives should have a practical knowledge of business matters, including finance."

Have you overworked your nervous ystem and caused trouble with your kidneys and bladder? Have you pains in loins, side, back and bladder? Have you a flabby appearance of the face, and under the eyes? A frequent desire to pass urine? If so, Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you-Druggist, Price Williams Mfg. Co., Props., Cleveland, O. For sale by Huntley Bros.

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET HELD MONDAY EVENING

SECOND ANNUAL GATHERING OF FRIENDLY BIBLE CLASS OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Friendly Bible class of the Presbyterian church gave its annual parlors of the church. The banquet was set for 8 o'clock and at that hour a merry throng sat down to enjoy the feast of good things, knowing that the flow of reason to follow was to be equally as refreshing to the spiritual man as the bounty before them was the physical. Following was the menu

Stuffed Dates Waffers Jelly Cold Ham Leg of Mutton Pickles Fruit Salads Salads Brown Bread

Assorted Cake Candy Coffee The tables were set lengthwise of the church parlors, and between them, banked into every available space, were green ferns while on the walls were class pennants, class pictures and streamers, in red and white and blue. Suspended from the ceilings were air ferns as a finishing touch to the pretty decorations for the occasion.

After the joys of the banquet came the pleasures of the program, given as follows:

Invocation ..... Rev. Landaborough Piano duet, Misses Volkman and Byron "Birds of a Feather" ... Ralph Eddy Piano solo Mrs. Channing Pollock, better known Address, "Ideals" ..... Mr. Phipps Oscar Woodfin Miss Maxwell Vocal solo How to Catch Fish Paul Burrows Wilbur Andrews Clarinet solo..... Harry Peters accompanist

Address'..... Rev. Landsborough Selection ... Double Quartet "When Dreams Come True". ..... Miss Kidder

Harry Miller was toastmaster for

Rev. Phipps, who was the principal speaker for the occasion, made an ad- on the Grand canal at Venice. dress on "Ideals." He said: "I be-lieve that the success of this class in the past has been due largely to their ideals. I am very certain that your success in life, not only as members out reply. merstein's grand opera, press agented of this class but as members of soseveral vaudeville bouses and went ciety and of the great human family, out on the road shead of Nazimova depends upon your ideals. You are at a time in life when ideals mean a great deal to you. Whether you have the right ones or not you are taking upon yourselves some kind of an impress. We are going to bear the impress in our after life of the one who has been our ideal."

Washington had been his ideal from boyhood. He thought of him as the greatest man-not as he managed and directed the Continental army-but as the man at Valley Forge and at the crossing of the Delaware, especially so as he led his men to prayer. He had esteemed it a privilege to visit Washington's home a short time ago. He thought it a fine thing to put deals into the life of any human be-He paid a high tribute to Lincoin, to Lincoln's mother and to the influence for good which these lives had had in molding the lives of others. life you are going to take upon yourself the image of that life, and men and women will know you have been with Him because you have taken into your life the ideals which are to derelop into the splendid character which we not only predict but expect from the members of the Friendly

There was a full attendance of the lass and the event proved to be one which carried with it more than ordinary interest. The address of the vening, together with the other numbers on the program, were each well received. This class has done a splendid work in the short time it has been organized but if the enthusiasm of Monday evening is a token of the future there is to be a wonderful work for good in this community by this

After the banquet and the program came a short season of social con-verse, followed by the warm good cheer of the partings of the evening and another milestone in the life of his class became a part of the past,

Read the Morning Enterprise.

MARQUAM. Mrs. G. W. Bentley is slowly im-

Rev. Mr. May's wife is no better. A few cases of measles in our neigh-

Our schools are progressing fine with a full attendance under the management of Miss May Hews and Miss Fred Myers has several men sorting apples and getting ready to ship. It is well nigh time that the people Oregon City were waking up to their interests in regard to an electric railroad leading up through this coun-There is a movement now toward line from Woodburn to Scott's Mills. The people of Scott's Mills are quite enthusiastic over the movement-that is only 21/2 miles from Marquam. that is built the trade will go to Woodburn instead of Oregon City.

Potato buyers are around contract ing for the California market. Quite a lot of improvement is going on in the way of clearing off land.

MACKSBURG.

Jimmy White is at home again after nearly a year's absence in the gold mines of Idaho.

Miss Hazel Loring is working for the Pacific States Telephone Company in Portland.

Put Yourself in the Ad-Readers Place...

When you write your classified & or any kind of an ad-try to & ad—or any kind of an ad—try to the information to also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helis, of same also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helis, of same city, attended the dance Saturday evening at Logan.

If you do this to even a small to exist your ad will bring Re to SULTS!

One night recently a farmer was awakened by his dog barking. He

L. O. Gerber and wife, of Sellwood, also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helis, of same city, attended the dance Saturday evening at Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duse, of Currina wille, visited their daughter, Mrs. N. L. Kirchem, over Sunday.

One night recently a farmer was awakened by his dog barking. He

CARPENTERS ATTENTION—A barn

AN ACCOUNT CLOSED

By JOSEPHINE SHELTON Copyright by American Press Asso-

The Countess Paula Kronevna step ped from her gondola and went into her miazzio. Not that she lived at a heavy and expensive haul, too, but Venice: she lived nowhere very long the people are in a hurry to get the banquet on Monday evening in the at one time, but she was rich enough bridge. to h're a palace now at Rome, now at Florence, and when she was in Paris, down on a visit and to pay taxes. Beriln or Vienna, there being no pal aces for rent in those capitals, she would usually take some notable dwelling. The countess had no more fixed position in society than in the matter of residence. Entering her drawing room, found a man waiting for her. There duty free, but protection for the was nothing in his apparel to indicate that he had called upon the countess as a visitor. He was ten years her senior, but looked twenty years older than she. His hair was perfectly white. His face was furrowed and bore automobile. Auto trucks are fast suptraces of having endured suffering, erceding the horse drays. Then, does His eye gave evidence of the same strain.

"You wish to see me?" asked the countess, scrutinizing the man as one cheap feed, and labor too, there. Here who fears every stranger lest he come it is different. Here the people have on an errand of revenge or justice. Mrs. Andrews the afternoon being fine and your ladyship doubtless having enjoyed your trip on the Grand canal, I would not have hurried you for the world. 1 have been looking forward to this to quit business. Creameries too. meeting for years. Surely minutes, even Having been dairying 25 years, can an hour or two, could not make much difference."

"That is not surprising. One doesn't retain a smooth cheek at Kara. Be- are. sides, I have been through a number of hunger strikes. Then traveling through an ice wilderness for months would not bring the same ruddy complexion as being rowed by a gondolier

The bloom in the countess' face was whitened like a rose touched by a frost. She knew now who the man was and stood listening to him with-

"You remember a little maid, the daughter of a peasant living on the estate of a nobleman in Russia? No flower in his conservatory possessed the exuberant beauty of this child just about to bud into womanhood. And she had a mind to use it, too, to what she considered the best advantage. During her early teens she captured Mr. Phipps went on to say that with it the son of the nobleman on whose estate she lived. She married him.

blood being mixed with the peasantry and being convinced that her motives were not of the purest, would have nothing to do with her. But they paid her well to stay away from them and, her young husband discovering that her heart was as cold as the bloom in her cheek was warm, let her go. Indeed, she did not ask him to go with "The next he heard of his little wife

The parting word to the class was was at St. Petersburg. She had more "God has set before you an ideal-a money than she had received from her face and life, a splendid life, the one husband's family, but it was not you study in the Bible class, that of known from whence it came. A cer the incomparable Christ; as you study tain grand duke was attentive to her, that life and take that ideal into your so much so that, since grand dukes with royalty. tion suffered. But she was playing a bold game. She willed that her imperial lover should marry her. But, having a husband already, this was impossible. It might not be impossible if she could get rid of her husband,

"One day when out shooting he was attacked by a party of men. Having captured him, they took him to the superintendent of police, and he joined the next caravan setting out for Sibe-

"His wife had made a failure. He was to have been executed, but the crar would not consent.

"But if she might not be a grand duchess she might at least possess enormous wealth. Her imperial lover lavished millions upon her-millions that her husband, among others, was taking from the Kara mines, impelled to work, whether able to do so or not. by the knout. For twenty years he helped to add to these riches that were lavished upon his wife. Then one day an opportunity occurred; he escaped from the prison and started for a land of freedom. "And now he is here to quit once more his peasant life." He ceased to speak, and the countess stood waiting for him to continue. Since he did not she asked:

"And what are your intentions concerning me?" "I have no intentions concerning you. But there is a transaction that has not appeared in the story I have told, and the Russian government has intentions which will be made manifest through the king of Italy."

The countess caught at a piece of furniture near which she stood and swayed like a reed shaken by the

"A generation has passed," the visitor continued. "The grand duke is dead, and there is a new czar of Rus-

The woman summoned voice to ask "When will they be here?" "Not soon enough to occasion undue haste on your part, but too soon to enable you to leave Italy. The countess walked to a cabinet opened a drawer, took out an ivory landled revolver and, putting it to her temple, pulled the trigger.

Half an hour later the government police of Italy entered the countess' palazzio and found her lying on the floor dead. There was no one else

CORRESPONDENCE

LOGAN.

Everybody and his dog has a cold G. Friederick lost one of his horse; this week.

Those attending the ball at Logan report a very enjoyable time.

L. O. Gerber and wife, of Sellwood, went to investigate the cause and saw a man leaving his barn with a sack of something on his back. He has a pact-lock on his granary now, others are doing likewise.

Jacob Babler, of San Francisco, brother of Henry Babler, has been critically ill at his home there but is reported slightly improved. F. Gerber was around looking for gravel for the concrete abutments to the new bridge at Fisher's Mill. 'Tis a bad time for that kind of work as the gravel has to be hauled from the Clackamas River, making a long haul;

B. C. Hawley, a former resident, of this place, but now of Corvallis, is President Taft seems to think the farmers of the United States are not worthy of any consideration. If reciprocity with Canada is good for all concerned why do they not have all other things duty free? Meats, such as the farmers have to sell-cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry, etc., are to be dressed or prepared article. Manufactured goods are protected. It is the farmer who has to suffer the loss all around. Hay, oats, grain, etc. The oat and hay market is now on a de cline with the increased use of the Mr. Taft think that farmers in the United States can compete with Canada in the dairy industry? They have high wages, high taxes, and when a "I have waited an hour for you. But, farmer has to cultivate crops for forage for his cows he simply cannot do it and come out even. If Canada can flood our markets with 18 cent butter means this, that fully one-half of Clackamas county dairymen will have > than any other one set of individuals Many who live in cities think it "dream life" to live on a farm but try it a few years; milk cows, raise chickens, to raise a mortgage and fam ily too, then, and only then does that dream" get a "jolt" and the awaken ing soon follows. If we must have reciprocity, then, in justice to all, take the duty off of everything and show a litle justice to the American farmer Farm implements are an expensive luxury too, yet we have to pay the price or let them alone.

speak with some knowledge on this matter. Farmers are not to blame for the "high cost of living" any more

MACKSBURG.

The weather of the past week has been charming; the frosty nights and clear bracing mornings reminding one of New England, while the sunshiny days, with the song of hirds filling the air, transport us in thought to the south of Europe.

Mr. Coleman, formerly of Macksburg, has been appointed principal of 75 acre tract good land, no rocks, 3 the Barlow school. Miss Ella Schultz is working at Mr

Mr. and Mrs. Roth are living in their new house near Nofzinger's mill. S. N. Strubhar and wife were Port land visitors today. John Etzel is making a grand cleanup of his stumps. Miss Lilly Harm, who has been suffering with a bad felon is, once more, able to attend to business. The home of Chris Nofzinger has been gladdened by the arrival of a boy, weighing nine pounds. Miss Margaret Zinger, who has been working at Aurora for some time, is at home again. Mrs. Henry Brush and her son, Francis, are living in their own home again. Francis is tearing out the grubs like a Kansas cyclone and is success fully demonstrating that his high school course, though it has developed his brain, has not weakened his mus-

Mrs. Lorenz is enjoying a visit from her sisiter, Mrs. Maddox, of Des Moines, lowa. Both of these ladies visited the Macksburg high school las; week. Billy Miller is working for the Hart wig Hardware Co. in Aurora. The Washington Birthday exericses at the Macksburg school were well attended and everyone seemed to enjoy them

Following is the program; Song by the school, "Marching Georgia:" "Washington's through Grave," Gertrude Barth; "The Village Blacksmith," Second Grade; "A Wash ington's Birthday Wish," George Luib bin: "Johnnie on George Washington," Thuserelda Kraxberger; "How Sleep the Brave," Bertha Koch; "Like Washington," Merril Seward; song by the school, "Columbia;" "Warren's Ad "Warren's Address" by Herman Etzel; "The Small Boy's Diary," Francis Kraxberger; "The Castle By the Sea," Frieda Zinger; "A High Resolve," Eric Roeche; "The Daffodils," Frieda Kraxberger; song, "America," school.

The Mulino shingle mill started up ngain Thursday, after a long rest.
Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ashby were called to Salem last week by the serious illness of Mrs. Ashby's uncle, who was stricken with paralysis a few days before. Mr. Ashby returned Monday but Mrs. Ashby is still there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manning are the happy parents of a new daughter, born St. Valentine's day.

Claude Howard will soon have his greenhouse in operation and then Mulino will be supplied with early veg-Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. Churchill went to Oregon City Friday on busi-Uncle Nick Darnall is on the sick list, being afflicted with rheumatism.

J. J. Mallatt has moved to Oregon

City to engage in the real estate busi-C. T. Howard lost a valuable horse

Saturday. The horse was taken sick some time through the day and died before night. It is supposed to be colle that ailed it, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wallace were Macksburg visitors Sunday.

Wants, For Sale, Etc.

Notices under these classified headings will be inserted at one cent a word. First insertion, half a cent additional lisertions. One inch card, $2 per month; half inch card, (4 lines) $1 per month.

Cash must accompany order unless one has an open account with the paper. No financial responsibility for errors; where errors occur free corrected notice will be printed for patron. Minimum charge 15c at W. P. Harris' residence at Har-ris saw mill, out 5 miles near the Highland road.

FOR SALE-10 acres orchard land; 7 acres planted to apple trees; 7 room house, small barn; 1% mile from Oregon City on good road; $3,500; terms for quick sale. Tele-phone Farmers 213. S. R. Cogan, R. F. D. No. 2, Box 189, Oregon City, Oregon.

LOST.

LOST—Old fashioned pin, between Fifteenth street and Electric Theatre. Leave at Pacific telephone of BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR.

HARRY JONES-Builder and General Contractor. Estimates cheerfully given on all classes of building work, concrete walks and reinforced concrete. Res. Phone Main 111.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY LOANED-We are acquaint ed with the value of all farm lands in Clackamas County and can loan your money on good safe security. Farm loans made one, two and three years at 7 per cent. Abstracts of title examined. DIMICK & DIMICK, Lawyers, Andresen Bldg., Oregon

ATTORNEYS.

O. D. EBY, Attorney-at-Law, Money loaned, abstracts furnished, land titles examined, estates sattled, general law business. Over Bank of Oregon City.

UREN & SCHUEBEL, Attorneys-at-La., Deutscher Advokat, will prac-tice in all courts, make collections and settlements. Office in Enter prise Bldg., Oregon City, Oregon.

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE.

V. R. HYDE, Abstract Office Land titles investigated, conveyancing, notary public.

PRITICS COMPLIMENT COMPETITORS COPY Room 7, Barciay Bldg., Oregon City.

DENTISTS. DR. L. G. ICE, DENTIST-Rooms 4. 5 and 6 Beaver building, Main St.

Oregon City. Phones: Home A-198 and Pacific States 1221. REAL ESTATE. miles from Oregon City, 11/2 miles from O. W. P. car line. Good fruit land. Cut into 7 and 14 acre tracts,

$100 to $225 per acre. Enquire of D. K. Bill & Co., Room 9, Beaver

Bldg., Oregon City. E. H. COOPER, For Fire insurance and Real Estate. Let us handle your properties-we buy, sell and exchange. Office in Enterprise

Bldg., Oregon City, Oregon.

FREYTAG & SWAFFORD, Real Estate Dealers, have choice bargains in farm lands, city and suburban homes, good fruit lands and pouitry ranches. See us for good buys Near S. P. depot.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE.

MANY TIMES you can buy just the article you want, just as good as new, at a small fraction of the cost of new, if you go and see YOUNG, the second hand man. His collection contains New and Second Hand Furniture, Hardware, Tools, Curios, etc. See him; it costs nothing to

Notice of Fire Election. NOTICE is hereby given that an election will be held on the 6th day of March, 1911, for the election of a Chief Engineer, an Assistant Engi-neer and three members of the Board of Fire Commissioners. Election will be held at the Fire House, at Fountain Hose Company's hall and the polls will be open between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4

resident Board of Fire Commisioners,

GEORGE C. BROWNELL,

Electric Hotel 411 Main, Between 4th and'Sih Sts.

OREGON CITY, ORE. J. J. TOBIN, Proprietor.

PLEASE NOTICE.

To introduce The Morning Enterprise into a large majority of the homes in Orego City and Clackamas county the management has decided to make a special price for the daily issue, for a short time only, where the subscriber pays a year in advance.

By carrier, paid a year in advance, $3.00.

By mail, paid a year in advance, $2.00.

People who gave our canvas-ser a trial subscription for one or more months, at ten cents a week, can have the daily delivered for a year for $3.00 by paying a year in advance.

People who gave our canvas-mail, for four months at a dol-lar, may have the paper for a year for $2.00, if paid a year in Subscribers to the Weekly Enterprise may change their subscriptions to the daily, recelving credit for half time the daily that the weekly is paid in advance. When they choose to add cash to the advance payment equal to a full year's advance payment they may take advantage of the $2

We make this special price so that people who have paid in advance on some other daily and wish to take the Morning Enterprise, may do so without too great expelled.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY C. A. Lancaster MAMIE HASLAM

THE MAN FROM ARIZONA

Everything different nothing repeated. songs, new dances.

CHORUS GIRLS CONTEST THURSDAY NIGHT TWO SHOWS 7:30 and 8:45-15c, 20c Entire Change of Program Again Friday

WILLIAMS' KIDNEY PILLS.

it forms the most practical settee that could be imagined. The hamper under the ironing board forms the seat part of the settee and the ironing board the back. For use as an ironing board the wooden knobs are thrust through the holes in the board proper and the stand, and there you are. The under-

Electri (Theatr E

LE ROY OSBORN

To-Night