Mrs. Swanson was an Oregon City visitor Friday. A great many of our citizens are seen making trips to the Sheriff's office these days to look after their taxes.

To the Lovers of Good Coffee

We wish to advise you that we have installed in our store a new Electric Coffee Mill.

This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it, as by the old method.

All coffee mills heretofore used will only crush the berry mutilating the minute oil cells, allowing the coffee oil to evaporate, thus impairing the strength and flavor.

By this new process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the essential oil (food product) cannot evaporate and the coffee thus retains its fine flavor in its full strength. This is one reason why a pound of coffee out in this mill will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground the old way.

We steal out the coffee the right fitness for percolators or French Drip Coffee Pots.

Try a pound of our coffee out on a steel cut mill and we know you will be satisfied with the results.

Special coffee at 25c the pound can't be beat at the price. Others at 30c, 35c and 40c pound. Respectfully yours to serve, J. E. SHELLEY.

Oregon City, Oregon.

Walter Vignes left for Rickreall, Oregon, this morning to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilbert spent several days visiting relatives and friends here last week. Mr. Gilbert has charge of a big ranch near Salem.

Two Pups By Express. A. B. Buckles received two Spitz pups yesterday by express from J. H. Robbins, who is the owner of the mother and father, "Trixie" and "Spitz," the latter of which won first prize at a kennel show in New York, and both winning first premiums at the Portland Exposition. The dogs are of fine breed and have attracted great attention when on exhibit. Mr. Robbins purchased "Spitz" at Stanford University about six years ago.

K. P.'s at Baptist Church Today. The topic for this evening's preaching service at the Baptist church will be, "Moral and Religious Character of George Washington." The Knights of Pythias will attend the service in a body and the character of the sermon will be of a patriotic nature. The lodge will assemble at the Woodmen hall at 7 o'clock, and march from there in a body. This lodge has a membership of over an hundred, and a good turnout is anticipated.

STRONG MEN WANTED.

Rev. Landsborough Will Tell His Hearers About It This Morning. Evidently the pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Landsborough, has been reading the accounts in the daily press concerning what has been going on at the meeting of the legislature in Salem. He will preach this morning on "Strong, Watchful, Faithful Men."

That's the kind that are needed at Salem, and one who has followed the dog-in-of-that body this winter can scarce but talk on the subject as expressed in the topic from which Mr. Landsborough will preach; and he is in a position so that he may talk to some purpose—as he no doubt will this morning. There were a few of that class of men at Salem, but it might be wise to increase the percentage.

THE POULTRY YARD.

Make it a rule to count the biddies every day. Some folks never do this. They might be robbed and never know it.

I have heard the advice given to feed the chicks all they will eat up clean. That won't do. They will eat up clean (the first week or two) more than they have any business eating, without having to be gnawed all the time by insect pests. Look at your setting hens once in a while and be sure they are free from enemies of this kind.

You can make money by getting a good rooster right now. Mate him with some of your best hens and set the eggs. Your basket will get full a lot faster after those pullets get to laying.

Particularly at this season of the year, do not set a hen until it is positive that she is thoroughly broody. If she does not have the full fever, she is apt to desert her charge, often after setting a week or two.

LATEST MARKETS

Oregon City Markets. APPLES—There is little to note in this market and the tendency is about as it has been—to pay good prices for nice stock and to act indifferently towards that which is below grade. Prices range from 50c to $1, with the very choicest fruit commanding a little more.

POTATOES—Potatoes are in active demand with buyers from outside the State making inquiries but not bidding too high. Quotations range from 90c to $1.10, with this fact prevailing, that real choice stock will always spring the market a trifle. Good home grown stock is being offered quite freely.

Good Form

Let Him Play Most. Grant the boy the privilege of having his friends to meals as often as you can conveniently arrange for it. Perhaps you are among those fortunate ones who have a large family with a big table where the addition of an extra plate counts for little. If such is the case your way is simple. Should there be several sons to plan for consider a system of rotation that each may have his guests in a fair ratio. If your family is small, so that it is desirable to have a little notice in advance before adding another hearty boy's appetite to those you have reckoned for, fix on a certain time when your boy may ask a friend in to dinner or supper. Boys are delightfully uncritical creatures, bless their hearts! Give them a cordial welcome and plenty of food and they will never miss trills of serving.

Study other compensations for the absence from natural racketing you are obliged to demand from your boy while he is at home. Provide him chances to let off steam elsewhere, in places intended for just such relaxations. Send him out into the open on holidays and give him the means of pursuing any athletic sport which attracts him. Be sure that there is a good playground connected with the school he attends. Encourage him to work in the gymnasium.

All the compensation you offer the boy need not be limited to the possession of a pleasant room and the other privileges I have mentioned. Don't forget that when he displays the consideration demanded of him in a well regulated family he is putting a restraint upon himself you can hardly understand, no matter how close your sympathy with him. Many comments have been made upon the wonderful self control displayed by the child who submits without protest to a prohibition or grants prompt obedience to a command beyond his comprehension. Largely a matter of habit possibly, but there is a great deal of thought going on inside that small head, and oftener than we imagine we parents are being held before a child's mental judgment seat and condemned unreservedly or with recommendation to mercy.

"How Do You Do?" Merely a Greeting. It is a wise person, man as well as woman, who when asked "How do you do?" responds by saying he or she is well.

"How do you do?" is really, generally speaking, a casual greeting, accepted by custom as being the simplest form of addressing a person. If either individual takes the greeting seriously and answers that she is not well the other person frequently is much astonished and almost without exception is bored. With close friends a woman—or man, either—may be frank, but with acquaintances it is better to be casual and answer, "Very well" to the salutation "How do you do?"

A fact persons learn with advancing years is that each individual, as a rule, prefers to talk about himself or herself rather than bear others talk.

Nor is the dislike to listening to such topics strange. We feel sympathy only toward those of whom we are fond; to others it is necessary to appear sympathetic, and this is not an easy matter when we would rather be talking on gay topics in which we are really interested.

The person who is most popular is she who amuses others generally, who goes about with something lively rather than something doleful to tell. In nine cases out of ten a doleful person will be avoided, while the gay one will be sought.

Pestard Etiquette. As a general rule a postal card should not be used except for business purposes. Socially it is only to be employed for rather impersonal communications, such as announcing the meetings of a committee or society or forwarding an address. If it is an absolute necessity to send one to a friend or a member of one's family, as when stopping for a moment at a railroad station, one wishes to send a line home, the sentences should be short and to the point, with an apologetic word for its use. The communication it bears should not be prefaced by an affectionate salutation. All personal messages should be omitted as well as the intimate termination that is proper in a social letter. The signature should be simply the initials of the Christian name and the full sur-

LIFITON ONE OF AMERICA'S BEST HOCKEY PLAYERS

Crescents' Great Center Has Been Playing Wonderfully For Ten Years.

Artie Liffiton, who is considered one of the best hockey players developed on American ice, is going at his regular speed this season. Artie has always been one of the few men on the ice who calculate and execute every move with deliberation and forethought.

Liffiton has been playing hockey with the Crescents for perhaps the last ten years, and at either center or cover point his playing is hardly to be equalled.

Most of the hockey players who are now in the front ranks are graduates from some college or school in Canada. Up on the other side of the line the youngsters have hardly any other sport than skating and practically from the time they leave the cradle until they get through the schools they indulge in the pastime. Therefore they are, with few exceptions, the best hockey players in the world.

But getting back to Artie—he played hockey in one of the public schools of Montreal until he was sixteen years of age, and at that period, just the time that he was discarding knickerbockers, he went to New York to see a young fellow who has figuratively been born on the ice away from skates, and Artie was one of that sort.

Way back in 1890 he first showed up at the Crescent Athletic club and was put on the squad. Even in that day the managers regarded in terror the reported prowess of the Canadians at the game of hockey, and young Liffiton was given all sorts of opportunities to show his superiority over the New York lads.

Although he had never made good with the fast teams in the schools of Montreal, he soon developed into an expert player and took his position on the regular team of the Crescents.

For two years he captained the seven that won honors for the Brooklyn aggregation, and today, under Captain Kennedy, Liffiton is playing as no other locally developed member of a hockey team.

CANADIAN RACING DATES.

Seventy Days Allotted to Big Tracks Between May 20 and Sept. 30.

The Canadian Racing association, which controls the turf in the Dominion, has decided upon a schedule of racing dates for this year after a conference at Toronto. Each of the five tracks holding membership in the association has received seven days in the spring and seven in the fall, in accordance with the new law passed a year ago. This makes a total of seventy racing days from May 20 to Sept. 30, but the gaps between these meetings will be filled by smaller tracks that were formerly outlawed, but are now legalized. The schedule for Canada's leading tracks is as follows:

Toronto, May 20 to May 27; Montreal, June 3 to June 10; Hamilton, June 17 to June 24; Fort Erie, July 1 to July 8; Windsor, July 15 to July 22; Fort Erie, July 29 to Aug. 5; Hamilton, Aug. 12 to Aug. 19; Windsor, Aug. 26 to Sept. 2; Montreal, Sept. 9 to Sept. 16; Toronto, Sept. 23 to Sept. 30.

Etiquette Books Popular.

The fact that the old fashioned etiquette manual on "How to Act in Society," etc., is still popular, even in the big cities, was shown by the recent distribution by a New York Sunday paper of a book on good form. The pamphlet told the reader how to act in every conceivable social occasion what to say when spoken to, what not to say, how to say what was to be said what to do with the hands and the feet under certain circumstances, how to address letters of invitation or declination or acceptance, and a host of other things. Persons were seen diligent in reading these etiquette manuals to elevated and advanced status for days after their distribution.
