OLORADO balls a Cincinnatus in petticonts in the person of Mrs. Agnes L. Riddle, recently elected to the legislature in that state. The only flaw in the comparison is that Mrs. Riddle has not "left" her "plow" and still keeps in touch with farm duties when not legis-

Many women have been honored by election to the legislature in Colorado since the adoption of woman suffrage eighteen years ago, but with few exceptions they have been, like their brother lawgivers, of the machine made variety. The three other women elected to sit with Mrs. Riddle in the house of representatives have no unusual characteristics. One has for a number of years presided over the destinies of a small family hotel. Apother is a professional politician, who has secured a "job" for her husband through her allegiance to the "organization." The third has won taurels as a "worker" and has been rewarded by the Denver Tammany.

These women, like most of their predecessors, are residents of Denver. As is the custom, to conciliate the women voters three of the eleven places given to Denver on the legislative ticket were assigned to women. They were not pitted against a man, as was Mrs. Riddle, who was pominated on the Republican ticket in a farming district which was normally Democratic. Adams county, the largest county in the district, went Democratic by 600 votes. but gave Mrs. Riddle, the Republican candidate, 370 votes.

Her position as secretary places her in practical control of this body of ranchmen and keeps her alive to their interests and progress. It would be regarded as extraordinary for a man to do these things. What kind of woman is this who can compass them so satisfactorily to all concerned?

Has Never Been In Jail. She is not a brilliant suffragette. She has never saluted a policeman in the eye with her strong right or prostrated a cabinet member with an upper cut. She has never been in jail. She is just a modest, unassuming, right thinking hausfrau who has by hard work secured a practical education. When a little child in Germany she sat up far into the night and studied by candlelight, wrapping the book about the candle to keep its light from being seen. Advocates Cream Testing.

Another hobby of Colorado's remark able woman legislator is the establishment of a bureau of cream testing. According to Mrs. Riddle, each county should have a supervisor or inspector to look after the cream testers. She claims this protection in behalf of the farmer, who receives only 14 cents for the gallon of milk for which the dairy man gets 35. This injustice, it is said, is due to the cream tester, whose decision is final. This condition of affairs is driving men out of the dairy business in Colorado and favoring the shipment of milk from Kansas. Mrs.

NEXT EXAMINATION JUNE 21 TO 24

Facts Concerning the Different Certificates to Be Issued Under the Present Laws Now In Force.

At the meeting of the last legisla ture several laws were passed affect ing the public schools and public school government. With a view to acquainting county superintendents officially with these changed conditions State Superintendent L. R. Al derman has sent out printed information covering these points. We pub lish below portions of this circular which will be of information to our readers: Under the new law on supervision the County Superintendent of each county having more than sixty school districts shall appoint on or before June 1, 1911, four members of a County Educational Board, of which board the County Superintendent is ex-officio chairman. The members of the board receive no compensation, excepting traveling expenses. Members of this board must be legal school vot ers and no person holding any other county office, excepting the County Superintendent, shall be eligible.

On the first Monday in June the Educational Board shall meet and divide all the school districts in the county excepting districts of the first class into supervisory districts. No supervisory district shall contain less than twenty nor more than fifty school districts. The County Superintendent shall be counted as supervisor for one district and the board shall employ supervisors for the other districts The supervisor shall be employed for not less than ten months each year at not less than $100 per month to be paid from the general fund of the

The next examination will be held on June 21, 22, 23, and 24. There will be no examination in August, hence all persons whose certificates expire in August, or who wish to take teach ers' examinations in order to teach next year should write at the June examination. The new law does away with the county certificates, but you will have authority to issue county certificates on State grades until May

Under the present law applicants must complete the subjects for a State certificate within three succes sive examinations. The new law pro vides that such persons may complete their examinations under the laws now in force. All persons, therefore who are writing for State certificates should appear at the June examina

Carried Democratic District.

Mrs. Riddle represents Adams, Arap aboe and Elbert counties in the Eighteenth general assembly of Colorado. These counties comprise an Island. She drove all over her district ities to ber constituents, and was entertained at nightfall at the home of a friendly ranchman. When the votes were counted in this Democratic district Mrs. Riddle's personal popularity gave her a very comfortable majority. Although Mrs. Riddle belongs to the minority party in the house, the members of both parties never lose an opportunity to show their respect for her opinions upon the subjects in which she is interested. They regard her as authority upon scientific reforms for the farmer. She has demonstrated that she is a practical woman by the program she made out for herself and which she hopes to see put into effect
