JENNINGS LODGE SENDS COMMITTEE

FIVE BUSINESS MEN FROM HERE ATTEND MEETING OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

WANT RIVER ROAD OPENED UP NOW

New Bridge Must Be Built Somewhere, Why Not There?-Two Miles Shorter Route to Port-

The Board of Governors of the Commercial Club met Monday evening for club. There was a visiting delega, a look out for Bert Cummings and in matters of mutual benefit to both day and went to a hotel here and regcommunities.

The committee from Jennings Lodge called attention to the needs of a five and searched the watch was found in cent fare from here to the Lodge. It their possession. seems that at present the fare limit stops about 200 yards this side of the station at Jennings Lodge, and people of both places think the company to take them back. should grant the extension. If it is refused by the railway the clubs will take it up with the railroad commissloners. The visitors called attention to the fact that it is but 21/2 miles from city to city, and that this is the natural trading place for the Lodge once the fare conditions are adjusted. The matter of the wagon road between the cities was also taken up and discussed and it was agreed that the river road, that has not been used for some years, should be opened up again and a new bridge thrown across the Clackamas River near the mouth so that the road may be used when once opened.

The committee called attention to the fact that a new bridge must soon be built some where; that if a new one is built on the river road it will divert much of the wear and tear from the old one and that it will do for service much longer in that event; that it is a route two miles shorter to Portland than the old way and that now a bridge is needed it is an appropriate time to build below and open the road. To all of which the Commercial Club assented.

The river road is said to be always high and dry and that at no time will t overflow from the river. Roadway is partly put through now and it would not cost much to make the improvement, aside from the bridge.

The committee manifested a desire to work more closely with Oregon City in business and social relations." feeling that is reciprocated by citizens and business men of this city.

The point was made that one wishing to go to Portland on the O. W. P. and stopping off at Jennings Lodge it will cost 39 cents, while to visit any other point enroute will cost but 25 cents, a discrimination against Jennings Lodge.

The Commercial Club appointed a committee of five to visit Jennings Lodge on the regular meeting night of the Community Club, as a friendly call and to meet A. S. Hunt, of the O. W. P., who promises to be there on that occasion to take up matters of differences between the railway and the club. It was thought the attendance of a delegation from the Commercial Club might add to the weight of the protest that is to be put up against the railroad evils under which both communities feel that they are suffering. The committee is composed of Harry E. Draper, T. P. Randall, G. L. Hedges, Dr. Clyde Mount and Dr. T.

J. Fox. The next meeting of the Lodge Community Club will be on Wednesday evening and the committee will attend and see what good things may be brought out of a closer business and social relation of the two cities.

BURGLARS ROB TILL OF MARQUAM STORE

SECURE ABOUT $40 IN MONEY AND SCATTER PRIVATE PA-PERS OVER THE FLOOR.

MARQUAM, Or., March 7.- (Spl.)-Some time Monday morning burglars effected an entrance into the store of F. J. Ridings, robbing the till of forty dollars and scattering the private papers therein all over the floor of the store. Nothings else of consequence was taken and there is no clue as to who did the job.

The robbers visited the blacksmith shop and secured a crowbar and other tools with which to effect an entrance, The door at the rear of the store was broken open and it is thought the till was blown open with some powerful explosive. It is not thought the parties were after anything but money. It is believed the job was done by semi-professionals.

SCOTCH SONGS MAKE DELIGHT-FUL TIME AND PLANS ARE MADE FOR PICNIC.

The Robbie Burns society of Oregon City met in regular session Monday gregational church with the "Chief." Charles S. Noble, in the chair and 25 officers and members in their respect-ve stations and places. Four applicants were elected to membership. They not being present, and the "goat" suffering in the bonds of la grippe the initiation was postponed until the next meeting. No one needs to stay out of the fold on account of expense. Member ship in the Robbie Burns society is open to all true lovers of Ro Burns and the cost of membership is 10c per month.

At the last meeting a committee was appointed to confer with the Chautauqua Association in regard to holding a Scotch day at the Chautauqua grounds during their annual meeting the coming Summer. The committee reported no progress. It was therefore voted to hold a picnic with suitable music program of exercises, etc., and a committee was appointed to make arrangements and to report at the next meeting.

It was also voted to change the meeting night from the first Monday to the second and fourth Mondays of each month, thereby holding two meetings instead of one.

After the business was finished there was an interesting program rendered, as follows: Master Sam Mc-Latty-songs, "Will You Stop Your Tickling, Jack." Clossner, Earl Shib ley and Willis Cox; Tualatin-Fred Elkerison, O. P. Sharp and T. L. Tur-ner; Warner-Wm. Dodds, S. Casto and Fred Chinn.

Emma Jones and L. L. Kirchem were appointed tellers for the election of delegates. Delegates chosen in the election were L. J. Palmateer, Mrs. Ida Palmateer, W. A. Dodds, H. G. Starkweather, Alice Starkweather, W. W. Everhardt, Anna Everhardt, L. L. Kirchem and W. P. Kirchem. The alternates were Phil Wagner, Jennie Wagner, S. L. Casto, Edith Casto, G. V. Adams, Kate Adams, H. S. Anderson and Mrs. H. S. Anderson. The convention discussed the question of progressiveness among the Grangers and instructed the delegates to the State Grange meeting at Corvallis to take the matter of the en-dorsement of the action of the so-called progressive Grange States at the last session of the National Grange before the next session of this State Grange.

There were 34 delegates present at the meeting Tuesday, with a number of visitors in attendance. There was considerable enthusiasm manifested and the delegation is supposed to go to the State meeting with a full stock of energy and enthusiasm, in that way securing for the good of the cause that which is due the noblest avocation of mankind.

WILLAMETTE COUNCIL

Can Go Ahead and Get Ready to Build

Water Works Next Year.

The Council muddle at Willamette doesn't seem to be worrying the citizens there very greatly. While it is true that Council failed to cinch the proposition to bond the town to raise money to go ahead and build a water works, and the tax was not legally assessed and the city cannot therefore go ahead and collect it, still as the city must go through the steps of providing for the laying of water mains in the streets and across the streets and alleys, and this will take time, the delay till next year in selling bonds is not likely to delay the improvement materially. Council doesn't need the money now and if it had it there would be interest to pay and the money lying idle in the bank
