If Roosevelt would trail the interests he might be the next President by acclamation.

Indications go to show that the rush to Oregon this spring is to be the greatest in the history of the State. What are you doing towards getting your friends out this way?

Roosevelt has not forgotten to occasionally take a fall out of a politician who is crooked as he passes up and down in the land. The more power to him for having the courage to do so.

This is St. Patrick's Day, and St. Patrick is one of the most popular of the patron saints of the Irish race. And when one stops to note the deeds that are done in honor of St. Patrick it is easy to see that one of the main Irish traits is the honoring of those who have their confidence.

The last blizzard to start things in the East seems to have claimed many lives for its toll in the lake regions of the north. All of which should go to show the people of Oregon that it is a nice thing to live in a country where the wind can blow a little with out smuffing out life every time the leaves are made to stir.

What is Oregon City going to do about getting the Roosevelt train to stop here for a short talk? What would bring more friends from the country into town than to fix up just such a stunt as that? The people in the country like the ex-President, and would be glad of a chance to honor him and hear him talk for a few minutes. Why not get busy and get him to stop?

There will be little sympathy in the homes of people who have boys and girls with a finger or fingers off.

Natural Resources Are For All the People, Not Only a Few.

By GIFFORD PINCHOT, former Chief of the United States Forestry Service.

THE conservation movement met with no opposition so long as its promulgation was done in general terms and limited to teaching. When, however, we began to translate the idea into action OPPOSITION DEVELOPED.
The movement then began to have to fight for its life. For the time being the idea has been centered on one question. That question is, If there are natural resources in this country, for whose benefit are they to exist? IT IS WRONG THAT THEY SHOULD BE EXPLOITED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE FEW.

EVERY MONOPOLY IN THE END IS BOUND TO REPOSE ON NATURAL RESOURCES. SO DOES EVERY INDIVIDUAL MONOPOLY AND THE COMMON WELFARE HAVE BEEN FOUND TO BE INCOMPATIBLE IN THE LONG RUN. I DO NOT OBJECT TO USING PUBLIC UTILITIES AND NATURAL RESOURCES, BUT I DO OBJECT TO USING THEM FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE FEW RATHER THAN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WHOLE PEOPLE.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES OF O. W. P. GIVE SMOKER

SEVEN BOXING BOUTS WITH LOCAL MEN IN THE LIST AND ONE WRESTLING CONTEST.

There was a large attendance at the smoker given by the employees of the O. W. P. Co. at Stahlman hall, in Sellwood, Thursday evening. Music was by the Alumni orchestra. There were eight boxing and one wrestling number on the program.

The first match was between Will Freeman, of Oregon City, and Kid Miller, of Portland. Freeman had the best of the argument.

Time tells the story. Seventeen years ago Harris Grocery began to furnish the best in our line and we are still at it.

LATEST MARKETS

Oregon City Markets. The general market tendency is downward, in certain instances very marked and in others because of a lack of supply tending upward, but when the average is struck the tendency is downward.

APPLES—Good apples are in demand yet and the price is upward better prices for good stock; there is enough good stock, however, so that there is little or no demand for poor stock at any price. Prices range about 75c to $1 the box, with one choice commanding as high as $1.25. Stock in hands of growers small; has been sold; it is the cheap ones left and they command about 75c. Hood River apples are selling $1.50 to $2.
