

EXTRA EXTRA Methodist Church TODAY 10:45 a.m. 7:30 p.m. TODAY Rev. C. L. Hamilton, of Portland You Will Like Him. Do Not Fail To Hear Him.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Pancakes at $1 a box at H. J. Blissett & Son's. Joseph Rastall, of Molalla, was in Oregon City on Friday. New Sauer Kraut at only 5c a quart at H. J. Blissett & Son's. E. F. Porteau has erected an addition to his home at a cost of $600. Choice office rooms in Gambriana block; steam heat. See J. J. Toubin. A. F. Benson, of Canadero, was in Oregon City on business Friday. Miss Genevieve Mumpower, of the Oregon City visitors on Saturday. New prices for film developing. No 1 and 2, Brownies 10c. All other sizes of 6 exposure 15c, at Huntley Bros. Co. There will be Lenten services every Friday evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 7:45, during the Lenten season. All will be made welcome at this service. John Holcomb, one of the well known young farmers of Stone, was transacting business in Oregon City on Saturday. Time tells the story. Seventeen years ago Harris Grocery began to furnish the meat in our line and we are still at it. V. B. Friel, one of the prominent residents of Sandy, was among the Oregon City business visitors on Friday and Saturday. Miss C. Goldsmith will have a grand military display on Monday and following days. H. M. Crooks, president of Albany College, is the next speaker scheduled to speak in The High School Forum, and the date is March 22—next Wednesday. E. VanWay is erecting an eight-room bungalow with Colonial porch on his property recently purchased of Mr. M. S. B. Lawton. Gladstone Council will meet in special session early next week, and committee are working hard to get reports ready for Council to act on work under consideration by them. The live stock show opens in Portland Monday, March 20, and will continue three days. There will be many features of interest and instruct the wide-awake farmer and farmer boy. The service at the Congregational church this morning will be a family service, and the invitation is to have every member of the family present. The sermon will be appropriate to the occasion. Carl Joehneke and family are occupying their new seven room bungalow built on the property adjoining that of Mr. VanWay. Mr. Joehneke's home is built on Colonial lines with a large pressed brick and stone chimney, beam ceilings and Colonial porch. The hour of morning service at St. Paul's Episcopal church has been changed from 11 o'clock to 10:30, making the service come half an hour earlier in the day and making it possible to devote a little more time to the service and still not interfere with the Sunday school. There will be a special meeting of Council Monday evening at which time the new Home Rule ordinance will be up for consideration. It is the purpose of Council to devote the whole evening to this ordinance, and to not permit other things to creep in between.

PEOPLE POINTED OUT

Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, Rodney and Virginia, are making an over-Sunday visit with relatives. Miss Caroline Clarke, of Portland, is visiting with Miss Ellen Grace, and will remain in this city until Sunday. Mrs. W. P. Hawley, in company with Mrs. Charles Dierke, were in this city on Saturday visiting with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. George Helvey, well known residents of Eldorado, were in Oregon City on Friday visiting with friends. Mr. H. N. Cockerlain, of Albany, general agent of the Northwestern Mutual, of Milwaukee, Wis., was a guest of Mr. E. C. Dye Saturday. Miss Sedonia Shaw left on Saturday afternoon for St. Johns, where she will be the guest of the Misses Koerner on Sunday. Miss Elsie Schoenborn, of Carus, who was called to this city by the illness of her mother, returned to Carus Friday. Mrs. W. A. Yale, of Portland, was in this city on Saturday, having come here to visit with her mother, Mrs. J. W. McDuff, of Jefferson street. Miss Elaine King, who has been spending the past three weeks at Hood River, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Hall, returned to her home in this city Saturday afternoon. Rev. P. Schmidt, pastor of Christ Ev. Lutheran church in this city, arrived home from a trip in Idaho and Eastern Oregon Saturday afternoon and will preach today, according to the usual services in this church. Mrs. Ada Berdine and Miss Lightbody, of Willamette, compose a walking club, and the young women walk the three miles from Willamette each morning to this city, making excellent time. Mr. Henry Schoenborn, who has been confined to his home for several months, with two broken limbs, left yesterday afternoon for Carus, where he will visit with his brothers and sister for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stevenson, of Salem, are visiting relatives and friends in the city guests at the home of Mrs. J. R. Williams, on Jackson street. Mrs. Stevenson was a former resident of this city and has many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney and son, Oren, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, passed through this city this morning on their way to Canby where they will spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Koerber. Mrs. Charles D. Latourette and Mrs. M. D. Latourette left yesterday morning for Eugene, where the former is to be a patroness of a dancing party to be given by the Kappa Sigma Sorority, to be held on Saturday evening. Miss Georgina Marrs, of this city, left Friday evening for San Francisco and will be gone several months. Miss Marrs is a professional nurse, and accompanied Mrs. Brown, of Astoria, who is to travel in California for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Jonathan Humphrys, Fred Humphrys, J. Y. Humphrys, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hedrick, of this city, will go to Astoria, having been summoned there by the death of Richard Humphrys. The two former will go to Astoria Saturday evening, while the latter will leave Sunday morning.

HORSE TRADE WITH SEVERAL WARM SPOTS

Two weeks ago Tom Montfeline, of Milwaukie, and S. H. Wyrick, of this city, traded horses. According to the original trade, Montfeline gave his team and $15 for Wyrick's team, with an opportunity to prove out the team. The team proving a disappointment Montfeline came back and wanted his team and his money. At this point he was told the team was gone and that a horse trade was a trade in any event. But Montfeline hired a lawyer and together they found the team and took it home. When they returned the Wyrick team that gentleman would not accept and neither would he give up the $15. There was almost a riot when it was found that Montfeline had both teams and was starting an action to get the $15. C. Schuebel, attorney for Montfeline, took the case to court and this week he was given title to the Montfeline team and then began another case to get the money. The trial will be before Justice Samson Monday, and the case is likely to develop considerable interest.

FOR REBEL HEADQUARTERS.

EL PASO, Texas, March 18.—(Sp.)—Madero is very active now and his 1000 insurgents are causing no end of speculation and anxiety in the Federal camp. The claim is that Madero wishes to take and fortify Casas Grandes, and to establish himself there and fight from there. To that end he is marshaling his troops in that direction and trying to head off any movements calculated to checkmate him.

Court Grants Divorce.

Elizabeth Bueter Barry has been granted a decree of divorce in her suit against William H. Barry, of Portland. She was given $35 a month alimony, and the property rights were settled out of court.

BARLOW.

W. B. Tull went to Portland on Thursday. Robert Ogle's son, who was visiting his father, has returned to his home in Portland. O. M. Keebaugh was in Oregon City on business last Thursday. Mrs. Ida Tull and sister, Miss Olga Howe, went to Portland Monday. Their mother, Mrs. Howe, who has been visiting in the East, returned with them in the evening. Miss Anna Blaw went to Oregon City Saturday. Perry Keebaugh has gone to La Center, Wash. Our enterprising merchants, Erickson and Berg, have just received a car load of land plaster, which seems to please the farmers, if one can judge from the way they are hauling it away. The champion walker, who is walking from Portland to Medford, passed through here at 3:30 Monday afternoon. Miss Beasie Shepard, of Portland, is here on business. Mr. Ogleby's family from Needy, have just moved into a part of Henry Gilbertson's house. Mr. Reams, from Aurora, has just moved into the only vacant house in our town. Mrs. Armstrong's children are improving slowly. They were very sick. Mrs. Scroggins, who has been with her brother and sister, Mr. Melvin and Mrs. Andrus, has gone to Oregon City to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lena Spagle. Harry Melvin was in Oregon City on business Monday.

EAGLE CREEK

H. S. Gibson was a Portland visitor last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooke, of Damascus, were in the neighborhood, last week, calling on relatives. A. Dix was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howlett for several days recently. He is an Advent preacher, and held services in the school house Sunday. There was quite a large number out to hear him. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie and children, Claud, Nettie and Joey, were over this way Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Viola.

CONVICTS TO MAKE ROADS.

CARSON, Nev., March 17.—In the closing hours of the 25th session of the Nevada Legislature, which ad-

...and die at midnight last night... was passed providing for the use of convict labor on a system of state highways. The labor is to be voluntary, a small payment to be credited to the men who elect to enter the road-making camps. In addition, an allowance of 10 days off their sentence to be made for each 30 days of work. To Make Venezuelan Sugar. CARACAS, Venezuela, March 18.—President Gomez has returned to the Capital after a four weeks' stay at Maracay, where, accompanied by Italian engineers, he investigated the possibilities of establishing sugar factories in the valleys of the State of Carabobo.

Woman's World

Wives of Persian and Brazilian Ministers Interesting Women.

© 1911, by American Press Association.

Mme. Ali Khan and Mme. R. de Lima. Mme. Ali Khan, wife of the Persian ambassador in Washington, is a picturesque woman and, though a Bostonian, has adopted the customs of her husband's country even in reinment. Her robes are the ceremonial flowing garments of Iran and are symbolic of her rank. She recently has received the highest decoration the shah bestows on an alien. With that bit of gold and the broad sash on which it is fitted was sent a complete wardrobe even to the gold embroidered slippers, which are esteemed as necessary to this ceremonial costume as the slippers and gloves of a Roman Catholic or Greek archbishop. Mme. Ali Khan has earned Persian since her marriage ten years ago and frequently gives lectures in the ancient tongue of the fire worshippers.

The wife of Senor R. de Lima e Silva, the Brazilian minister, has been a popular figure in Washington for some time, her husband having been the counselor and charge d'affaires before he was elevated to his present position. Naturally she is a good deal of a diplomat herself, and her tact and graciousness have done much to aid her husband's advancement.

Concerning Women. Leather portieres are among the beautiful things which Mrs. John Hay has added to her historic home in Lafayette square, in Washington. These curtains resemble those in many cathedrals in Europe, but they are illuminated and give an air of privacy to the home. They hang between the second drawing room and the sitting room where Secretary Hay received his intimates.

Mrs. Flora Ames of London, wife of a former attaché of the British embassy at Washington, is in America on a visit and will deliver several lectures on the subject of divorce. She says America is too lax and England too severe in its divorce laws. She suggests as remedies a public registration of marriage, communication with parents if either party seems too young, that a man should have sufficient means to support a wife properly and a more strict desertion law.

The wife of the French ambassador, M. Jusserand, is one of the most affable and successful hostesses in the diplomatic corps in Washington. Her maiden name was Elise Richards, and she is the daughter of a Boston banker. She believes, she says, in wearing harmonies rather than contrasts, and her toilettes match in hue from the tip of her tongue to her boots. This winter she wore a costume in golden brown which was one of the richest seen in Washington. It was a walking dress of velvet, trimmed with a lighter shade of silk embroidery. Her hat was of the same material as the gown, with a bird of paradise on the right side. Her furs of sable were the identical shade as the velvet, and her boots of suede had velvet uppers.

Thinks Our Spirits Go to Mars. Lillian Whiting, one of the foremost women writers and thinkers in Boston, believes that after death we go to another planet, where we enjoy life almost the same as on this earth—eating, walking and seeing. She says the spirit leaves the body and travels through ether, but there is something material after all. "Great thinkers," she argues, "have pointed out that the physical body is merely the outer covering of the spiritual body. If that be true our form will be the same in heaven. We will have ears, eyes, hands and feet—all that the body has now. Why should we not walk and talk and work and pursue our aims there as we do here? I think we shall eat. The spiritual body will need food just as the physical body needs it, although, of course, it will be of a different kind." She thinks that perhaps the spirit goes to Mars or to some other planet after leaving here. For that reason she is eager to communicate with that planet.

MRS. STRAIGHT ENTERTAINS

The Derthick Club enjoys a very pleasant afternoon Friday. The Derthick Club met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Straight Friday afternoon, and a musical program was given during the afternoon.
