O.A.C. MAN TO LECTURE ON POULTRY RAISING

ILLUSTRATED TALKS WILL BE GIVEN IN PORTLAND UNDER AUSPICES Y. M. C. A.

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 1.—Alfred G. Lunn, of Camden, N. J., who is instructor in the poultry department at the Oregon Agricultural College, is to give a series of five illustrated lectures on poultry raising in Portland under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Portland Junior Poultry Club, an organization on which is the outgrowth of the young people's poultry contest started there a year ago by the college.

HOUSTON, Texas, April 1.—A severe storm of wind, rain and hail played havoc with wire communication in Texas early today, causing considerable property damage of a minor nature, and gave rise to rumors of more serious results in isolated sections. In Houston a stiff northwesterly wind was accompanied by hail and a dazzling electrical display. At 2.30 the storm reached Galveston, but in diminished force. Beaumont reported a rainfall of 3.74 inches. The storm was especially severe in Central Texas. MUST STAY IN JAIL. SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The State Supreme Court denied today the application of Jack L. Johnson, the heavyweight champion, for relief from the sentence of 23 days' imprisonment in the county jail imposed by acting Police Judge Treadwell for automobile speeding. Johnson is now serving his sentence.

BIG CROWD AT WOODBURN. WOODBURN, Or., April 1.—The fourth annual horse fair of the Woodburn Horse Breeders' Association was held here yesterday. A large crowd that jammed the streets enjoyed the pleasant weather and the exhibit, which was good, but not so large as on previous occasions. This is due to the fact that there was little time to prepare for the event after it was decided to give a fair.

MUST BE EXAMINED. SALEM, Or., April 1.—(Special)—By a decision of Attorney General Crawford, it becomes necessary for teachers with county certificates to be examined under the provisions of the new law. Only those who hold first class certificates are exempt under the new law, is the opinion, and others must be examined anew.

Working Hard on Charter. H. C. Cross, who is writing the new charter for Gladstone, assisted by the committee of Gladstone Council, is rushing the document and hopes to have ready for the consideration of that body by Monday night. There is a large amount of work in connection with the undertaking and Mr. Cross is "keeping at it" until he gets it done.

REDLAND. Miss Edna Gruel leaves today for Great Falls, Mont., where her brothers are. J. C. Bates, who has been very sick for over a month, is still very low. Mrs. S. A. Higgins is slowly recovering. Fir Grove school is closed on account of the measles and several of the children of Evergreen have had them also.

LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

FRANZ LEHAR, the composer of the "Merry Widow" at Heilig Theatre. This big musical play success will be the attraction at The Heilig Theatre 7th and Taylor streets, for 7 nights, beginning Sunday, April 2, with special price matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

"MERRY WIDOW" AT THE HEILIG. Henry W. Savage Production Opens Week Tonight.

For the forthcoming engagement of "The Merry Widow" at The Heilig, 7 nights and 2 matinees, beginning tonight, Henry W. Savage will offer a company recruited from the cream of the several important organizations engaged in the interpretation of this delightful Viennese operetta during past three years.

MARIE DRESSLER COMING. Famous Actress Will Appear in "Tillie's Nightmare" at Heilig.

Marie Dressler, who comes to Portland shortly in "Tillie's Nightmare" does not agree with so many of her contemporaries who are constantly advising young women against going on the stage. In fact Marie Dressler advises "my young woman who has talent and brains to go on the stage. She thinks that it offers far more opportunities for advancement than pounding a typewriter or keeping a set of books. She says: "When a girl starts in the chorus she gets from $18 to $25, and then if she shows an ability to dance or sing her salary will be raised and ere long she will be a principal and drawing several hundred dollars weekly. The stage is a own training school and you are paid while learning your trade. Then comes the advantage of traveling all over the country which is in itself an education. Of course there is hard work but also there is time for recreation and I cannot imagine any better profession for a girl with ability to undertake."

"ZAZA" AT BAKER THEATRE. Great Emotional Role to be Played by Florence Roberts Next Week.

Everyone has seen or heard of Florence Roberts, and everyone has seen or heard of her wonderful playing of the role of Zaza in which she will appear for her second week at the Baker, opening next Monday night. The opening play in which Miss Roberts, Theodore Roberts and Thurlow Bergen have thrilled Portland audiences this week is "Jim the Penman" which will continue until Sunday night. It has demonstrated to the public that people of no ordinary ability are in their midst in the persons of these three, and few performances—no matter what the prices charged for seats were—have given more general satisfaction, or created quite such a stir among lovers of genuine acting of the highest type. Miss Roberts' appearance in "Zaza" never fails to create a stir in any city, and the forthcoming one, which opens Monday will be without doubt the greatest she has ever given, for with such associates as Mr. Roberts in Cascart, and Mr. Bergen as Bernard Duffrene, her lover, and the other strong acting roles in the care of the members of Baker Company, the entire cast will be one that would attract more than passing notice in any city in the land. Matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday only and as "Zaza" is a long play cars should be taken to arrive in plenty of time for the curtains which will rise promptly at 8:15 evens and 2:15 matinees, as no one can be seated while the curtain is up.

MAKES GOOD ROAD. Was Rough and Full of Deep Ruts Before Roller is Used.

The new road roller that Road Master Frank Jaggar has at work near this city was put to a work near this section Saturday. Out Molalla avenue, near to Highland, there was a piece of road that had been covered with broken stone and into which deep ruts had been worn by the heavy wagons using it. The road was very rough and gave little satisfaction to those who had need to use it. Saturday Jaggar took his big roller out that way and first filling the roller he followed this with a rolling with the big machine, crushing into the earth the broken stone and mashing it into a smooth surface. Since the road has been created to this method of roadmaking it is as smooth as a Dutch kitchen, and those who have traveled over it have marveled at the capacity of the big steamer.

EASTHAM WINS GAME. Score Made of 16 to 4 on Grounds at Canemah Park.

A base ball game was played Friday afternoon at Canemah Park by the teams of Eastham school and McLoughlin Institute. The score was 16 to 4 in favor of Eastham. The line-up was as follows: McLoughlin Eastham Morris 3, O'Leary 3, G. Story 1, Williams 1, F. Bruce 1, Shaver 1, 1b., Sheehan 1, Hedges 2b., Champion 2b., Smith 3b., Moore 3b., Johns ss., M. Story 4th., Kellough cf., Finnegan cf., Easton cf., Murphy 1st., Betzel 1st., Krohn 2nd., Ted Sheehan, George Story, Frank Champion were the star players for McLoughlin; Leonard Williams and Shaver were the star players for Eastham.

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE IS BELIEF OF POLICE

HEATHMAN LEARNS LITTLE WISDOM FROM HIS HOLD-UP EXPERIENCE, POLICE SAY.

Vernon L. Heathman, of Jennings Lodge, was in Oregon City Friday night and gave the police a story of being held up that was dramatic to say the least. The story was printed in Saturday's Enterprise. He told of being enticed down Seventh street to the bank of the river and there being robbed at the point of a knife. His story sounded fishy, and each time he repeated it there were new colorings, not to say changes. While the police took no stock in his story from the start still it was deemed best to take a look about so that in case there was truth in it the fellow might be apprehended, and they did follow up his clues. But it took little time to be convinced that Heathman was making, and the police intimated as much to him. An evidence that had been held up, when it was seen his first story was not believed, Heathman called Officer Cooke's attention to a sore spot on his head and to a bruise on his chin. On investigation it was found that he had been very aggressive earlier in the evening in Klemensen's saloon and in a fistfight with Gallagher Bowers he had been handled both of these wounds by that gentleman. When his attention was called to this fact he had no more to say concerning his wounds and scars. Officers Green and Cooke say that he had been around town all evening, and Chief Shaw says he had been here part of the afternoon. He was again on the streets of the city Saturday, learning little wisdom from his hold-up—if it was a genuine experience. Heathman was drinking in the saloons of the city both Friday and Saturday. The police say he has been coming to town of late very often, and that the pace he has been going was entirely too fast for a man with a level head. Officer Cooke cautioned him Saturday as to future acts and as to the stories he feels inclined to tell concerning himself.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney Celebrate at Portland Home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney celebrated their chima wedding anniversary at their home in Portland on Thursday evening, at which time there were about 60 guests present. The evening was devoted to five hundred. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with orange blossoms and roses that had been sent from California by relatives; also palms and ferns. During the evening refreshments were served.

ENTERTAINS BACHELOR GIRLS. Miss June Charman Hostess to This Popular Social Organization.

Miss June Charman entertained the "Bachelor Girls" at her home Friday night, and a delightful time was spent in Dutch Whist, the prize being awarded to Miss Nieta Harding. Refreshments were served during the evening. Vocal and instrumental music was also among the features of the evening. Present: Miss Edna Caulfield, Miss Clara Caulfield, Miss Marie Cheney, Miss Morris Cook, Miss Elizabeth Gallagher, Miss Ruth Brightbill, Miss Sedonia Shaw, Miss Nieta Harding, Miss Dolly Pratt, Miss Winnie Hanny, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Miss June Charman.

RECITAL GIVEN. Pupils and Friends Enjoy Pleasant Evening Last Thursday.

On Thursday evening a recital was given at the home of Miss Marjorie Caulfield under the direction of Miss Edna Caulfield, of Portland, that proved to be a most interesting affair. Invitations were issued to the pupils of Miss Benson and a few friends. The program consisted of vocal selections by Mrs. Leon DeLarzes, of this city, and instrumental selections by Miss Mabel Starbird and Miss Geraldine Altkin. Miss Starbird will leave in the fall for New York, where she will continue study of music. Each number given by the vocalist, Mrs. DeLarzes, and the pianists, Miss Starbird and Miss Altkin, showed that careful training had been given.

Bumper Fruit Year in County. O. D. Eby, who has been an experimenter in fruit culture, and who is making good in his experiments, has just planted an additional acre of strawberries. Mr. Eby says indications are good for a bumper fruit year, and that unless there is some unforeseen incident that destroys a large part of what is now coming on there will be a world of fruit in Clackamas county this year.

Card of Thanks. We, the undersigned daughters and grandchildren of Mrs. Lydia A. Young, who passed to the beyond on the 30th day of March, 1911, age 74 years, can only thank the many friends and neighbors who assisted us in the sad bereavement. Hope Heaven will bless you all.

LATEST MARKETS

Oregon City Markets. Markets, as a general thing, are slowly moving downwards. Part of this comes from the fact that the new crop of certain foods is being harvested in the southlands. Other commodities will soon be supplanted by new crops, or are losing the good qualities that they possess and must be soon marketed, if at all, causing the price to fall. Thus, taking the market as a whole, there is an easing off in prices and in some cases it is quite noticeable. APPLES—Good stock is scarce and high, prices ranging from $1 to $2. Local stock is nearly gone and the Hood River product is reduced to a few varieties. Few good apples are left in the local market. POTATOES—Market is a little off from last report, in demand if not in price. Real good potatoes are scarce and bring $1 to $1.25, while seed product commands 75c to $1. There are not enough being offered to ship in quantities. San Francisco market is off 15c a hundred, 39 cars arriving in one day and demoralizing the market. Local stock pretty well marketed; a few with choice stock holding for a rise. VEGETABLES—Little change since last report; onions are a little stiffer in price but other vegetables remain about the same. Onions 2 1/2c, turnips and carrots 75c to $1 sack, parsnips $1 to $1.25 sack, cabbage 3c, pumpkins 2c. Local stock coming in. California is sending many things, at a high price. Local lettuce sells 5c bunch, radishes 5c, onions 5c; California lettuce 10c head, asparagus 10c to 12 1/2c, Mexican tomatoes 10c pound. WHEAT—Prices in the local market show an advance of 1c to 2c above the exporting price. Local dealers are paying 35c to 36c the bushel. WHEAT—In very weak and little demand. Those who have it where it is not well protected want to let go, causing the price to gradually settle to a lower level. Clover $8 to $10, oat hay $11 to $12, timothy $15 and $16. Alfalfa commands $18 to $20. OATS—Dealers buying for shipment to meet the demand in the cities. Pricing—gray $25, white $25.50 to $26. That the market is weak and unsettled factory. BUTTER—Very weak and country only commanding from 10c to 12c; creamery always stiff and commanding 30c to 35c now. The Portland market is only paying from 12c to 16c. Choice dairy will bring from 20c to 25c. EGGS—Prices about the same with demand about equaling the supply. Quotation at 19c dozen. POULTRY—Prices are somewhat higher and the demand good. Hens bring 16c, roosters 12c, young cocks and mixed chickens 12c to 15c. Nothing doing in larger fowls. MEATS—Veal, dressed, is bringing 10c to 11c, hogs 8c and 10c, and a big demand for mutton that makes it fluctuate according to what is offered. HIDE—Green 50 pound, salter's 50, dry hides 12c to 14c, sheep pelts 24c to 75c each. WOOL—Brings 16c to 18c pound, mohair 28c to 30c. DRIED FRUITS—Evaporated apples 6c and 7c, sun dried 5c, prunes 4c to 6c. SALT—Selling 60c to 75c for 50 lb. sack, half ground 40c 75c for 100 lb. sacks.

It Wouldn't Pay to Advertise

A Poor Article

Nor a proposition of doubtful merit or honesty—for ad-readers, nowadays, are DISCRIMINATING. They know values—they know GENUINE things, genuine opportunities. Any article which can be sold by advertising is, by that test, a GOOD article. YOU are safe in buying a thing which has "stood the fire of publicity."

The maker of a widely advertised article, or commodity, is always on trial for his business life. He cannot shirk, nor cheapen his product—and this is the best possible protection for the consumer. You are SAFE in buying advertised things—it's the logic of nowadays business conditions.

Lack of Money Degrades Women. Marry Men Whom They Don't Love. By Professor CHARLES ZUEBLIN, Lecturer. MONEY, NOT THE POSSESSION OF IT, BUT ITS LACK, IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEGRADATION OF THE MILLIONS OF WOMEN WHO MUST MARRY MEN WHOM THEY DO NOT LOVE. The lack of economic independence has compelled women to place this stigma upon their sex. But if woman was given her ECONOMIC INDEPENDENCE it would relieve her of that stigma. It would seem also that it would relieve woman of her chief moral defect, her method of CIRCUMLOCUTION by which she gets around men, whether it is during the courting illusion or by rifling her husband's pockets or any other way by which she circumvents him and gains her end. If man can be brought to see the undesirability of the power of man over woman, A POWER ENJOYED BY THE POSSESSION OF MONEY, we may even bring him to see the degradation of the power of money over men.
