

It Wouldn't Pay to Advertise A Poor Article

Nor a preparation of doubtful merit or honesty—for ad-readers, nowadays, are DISCRIMINATING. They know values—they know GENUINE things, genuine opportunities.

Any article which can be sold by advertising it, by that test, a GOOD article. YOU are safe in buying a thing which has "stood the fire of publicity."

The maker of a widely advertised article, or commodity, is always on trial for his business life. He cannot shirk, nor cheapen his product—and this is the best possible protection for the consumer.

You are SAFE in buying advertised things—it's the logic of nowadays business conditions.

Points For Mothers

Health and Beauty.

Dear American ladies, you are not very graceful. You are very beautiful, and you wear marvelous toilets, but you are not exceedingly graceful.

Grace, real grace, is founded on natural, normal, perfect health. No, I do not mean the robust; I mean the virile, sinuous and supple. The big hips, the fat shoulders, are as unhealthy as unnatural.

Now you are going to ask me what these things I am saying have to do with you. Must I make myself plain?

Dear American ladies, never stand with your weight evenly divided, your heels together and your shoulders squared—that is, never stand in this position unless you wish to look like a German officer on parade.

Remember that charming broken line on the left side of the Venus de Milo—the long, graceful sweep of the right side. That is the ideal of what I mean.

Always allow the weight of the body to rest more on one foot than on the other. Have the foot which is not bearing the weight lightly touching the ground. After all, it is but insubstantial.

Allow the entire side of the torso to relax with the foot and limb which is shirking the burden. That lets the hip and shoulder down, throws up slightly and charmingly the hip and shoulder supporting the weight.

Best Way to Wash Flannels. Flannels should be washed in warm suds that have had a little ammonia added to them. The flannels should be rubbed between the hands, not on a board, and dipped up and down in the suds until they are free from dirt and stains.

Small Girls Like Pajamas. Mothers of small girls are finding out that their little daughters prefer for their night apparel pajamas like those worn by the boys rather than the more usual lingerie garments.

Attractive Bibs. The expression "in fresh bib and tucker" will take on new significance if the mother adopts a novel idea recently seen. The ordinary child's bib is extended to the waist line, where it is cut into a belt to fasten around the waist.

Novel Dress For Girl. A novel adaptation of the kimono sleeve effect is shown for the dress of a little girl. The side body and the sleeve of elbow length are cut in one piece, which has a lap extending from the front of the shoulder to the bust line.

To Identify Umbrellas. Write your name on the cloth side of adhesive or surgeon's plaster and stick on the inside of your umbrella. raincoat and rubbers; then you will always find them.

Motel Arrivals. Ed Ringsted, city; James P. Bates, city; N. M. Burnett, Stockton, Cal.; Louisa Vierhus, George N. Wells, Scotts Mills; D. N. Bridenstine, Boring; Sam Rastall, James Rastall, C. Martin, G. Bullard, Portland; N. Blair, Hubbard; Miss Smith, J. L. Slacri, Portland; E. A. Ward, Independence; Roy B. Hopkins, Otto Hopkins, Portland; George Vierhus, Bellingham, Wash.; Henry Slade, British Columbia; W. W. Mattoon, Bolton.

Celebrate Fourth Anniversary. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Humphreys gathered at their West Side home Monday evening to celebrate the fourth anniversary of their marriage. There were 25 present and it proved a very pleasant occasion.
