It Wouldn't Pay to Advertise A Poor Article

Nor a proposition of doubtful merit or honesty—for ad-readers, nowadays, are DISCRIMINATING. They know values—they know GENUINE things, genuine opportunities.

Any article which can be sold by advertising is, by that test, a GOOD article. YOU are safe in buying a thing which has "stood the fire of publicity."

The maker of a widely advertised article, or commodity, is at ways on trial for his business life. He cannot shirk, nor cheapen his product—and this is the best possible protection for the consumer.

You are SAFE in buying advertised things—it's the logic of nowadays business conditions.

EASTER CALLS FORTH SONGS AND SERMONS

CHURCHES MAKE MUCH OF THE DAY—AUDITORIUMS FILLED TO OVERFLOWING.

Easter was generally observed in this city Sunday, and not a church in the city but made more or less of the day. In the larger churches there were morning and evening programs, with special music for the occasion.

At the Baptist church there was a special Easter sermon with music appropriate to the occasion. In the evening the choir had charge of the program, which was given up almost entirely to splendid musical numbers. Following the program of the evening there was a baptismal service, with scriptural readings and remarks by the pastor.

At the Congregational church there were two special Easter sermons, morning and evening. There was also specially prepared music—Easter music—at the morning and evening services.

At the Catholic church there were several services, each with appropriate Easter music and sermon. Eighty Catholic Knights received Holy Communion at 8 a. m. At the regular morning service upwards of 300 received communion and the church was packed to the doors.

At Christ Ev. Lutheran church there was a special Easter service at the morning hour, with special Easter music for the occasion.

At the Galdstone Christian church the morning hour was given up to the presentation of an Easter cantata by the Bible school, which was greatly appreciated. In the evening there was an Easter song service by the choir, with a short address by the pastor.

At the German Evangelical church pastor preached an Easter sermon in the morning, and a musical and literary program appropriate to Easter, with a short address by the pastor, was given in the evening.

At the M. E. church the morning service was commemorative of Easter, with an Easter sermon; in the evening there was an elaborate literary and musical program, with a short address by the pastor.

At the Presbyterian church there was an appropriate Easter sermon and music in the morning; in the evening there was a sacred song service prepared with reference to the sacred Easter occasion.

At the Episcopal church the morning hour was given up to an address and to music appropriate to the Easter occasion. In the evening Bishop Scadding confirmed a large class, administering the sacrament of confirmation. The church made a very handsome contribution to the work of the church.

At Zion Lutheran the Sunday school had special service at 9:15 a. m. At 10:30 there was the specially prepared Easter sermon and service with music appropriate to the service.

Other churches had services, but no report was made as to the character or with reference to those participating.

Spring Slippers and Pumps.

Sure herald of warmer days is the dainty footwear now displayed in the various shops. New some of the slippers certainly are, if not in cut, then in decoration or lining or the shape of the heel.

Last summer there appeared in the latter part of the season black satin and velvet slippers with the thinnest of soles. This spring, however, these slippers will appear with heavy soles, which will surely make the satin slipper at least rise in popularity, for as a cool foot covering it cannot be excelled.

The stage toe in a modified form is to be seen on the finer grade of slippers, and these will be a boon to the woman with large feet, since the very short vamp detracts considerably from the size of the foot.

The one eyelid pump with the long tongue is shown and is thought will be a general favorite.

Pumps for the young girl have heretofore been a problem, for either the heel was very low or she was forced to take the regulation inch and a half heel, which was generally too high.

Now, however, the manufacturers are turning out patent leather pumps daintily lined with scarlet morocco, with heels about three-quarters of an inch in height.

The flat bow of ribbon silk or leather is used on these, although some come with one eyelid, in which case a large ribbon bow may be tied.

The colored slippers, blue, purple, etc., once popular, will be replaced by tan, black and white, and incidentally the white slipper and shoe in kid, buckskin and canvas will be much worn during the coming season.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION MAY SPELL SUCCESS

HORSE SHOW LOOMING UP WELL IN THE DISTANCE—ENTRIES STILL COMING.

Entries for the horse show on Booster Day are very encouraging so far. There are a large number of entries, in some classes entries being quite numerous while in others the owners are a trifle slow. But taking it all in all the entries are very liberal.

Contributions have been very liberal so far, and the committee feel very kindly to the merchants and friends of the enterprise, but at that there are a few who have not contributed, and the contributions from these men are needed to make certain there will be enough money to meet all bills. A liberal contribution, with money enough to do proper advertising, means the success of all Booster Day undertakings, and those who have not contributed are urged to assist the committee in making the day a successful one by doing so at the earliest possible convenience.

"SHOWER OF ROSES."

Millions of Roses and Buds Will Be Thrown to Passers By.

PORTLAND, Or., April 14.—The "Shower of Roses," to which millions of roses, blooms and petals are hurled from a train of street cars by 100 young women in white and which has become one of the notable events of the annual Portland Rose Festival is to be repeated again this year, probably two and possibly three days of the Festival week, June 5-10.

People of the East, and for that matter, very few in this section of the country have ever seen a spectacle like this. The train comprising six cars is headed by a special car containing a large band and as the procession travels through the streets, the thousands of pedestrians lining the route are simply bombarded with the beautiful roses. To add to the charm and interest of the spectacle, the spectators usually engage in a "Rose Battle" pelting the young women with the flowers after they have been showered in the streets.

CELEBRATES HER 81ST BIRTHDAY ON SUNDAY

MRS. ELIZABETH WARNER IS ONE OF THE PIONEERS IN OLD OREGON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warner, one of the prominent Oregon pioneers who came to Clackamas county with her parents in the year of 1852, celebrated her 81st birthday at the home of her son, A. C. Warner, of the Lilac Farm, Mount Pleasant, on Sunday, and it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Mrs. Warner is known to many of the pioneers of Oregon, and is unusually active for her age. She is now residing in one of the most historic and oldest homes in the State, known as Locust farm, and is visited by many throughout the year, and they are always treated royally by this hospitable woman.

Mrs. Warner was born in Rensselaer county, New York, April 16, 1830, and came with her parents across the Plains by ox team. She was united in marriage on November 23, 1854, and moved to Oregon City, where her husband was in business. They remained in Oregon City until the year of 1855, when Mr. Warner disposed of his business and purchased the McCarver D. L. C. at Mount Pleasant, where Mrs. Warner has since resided. Mr. Warner having died some time ago at the old home at Mount Pleasant.

Near the old homestead is the son, Arthur Charman Warner, her daughter, Mrs. Annie Warner King, and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Warner Lawton, who resides with her at the old home. During the day Mrs. Warner was the recipient of many congratulations of her friends who hoped she would live to enjoy many more such occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Warner gave a birthday dinner in her honor, and the tables and rooms were prettily as well as appropriately decorated for the occasion.

NEW CHURCH PLANNED BY ST. PAUL'S PARISH

REV. CHAS. W. ROBINSON HAS SECURED PLEDGES WARRANTING THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

The present old church of St. Paul's Episcopal Parish at Oregon City will probably be replaced with a fine brick structure before the end of the present year, unless the plans of the present rector, Rev. Charles W. Robinson, completely miscarry. Ever since Mr. Robinson arrived here from Philadelphia, six months ago he has been working quietly to secure funds for a new structure and he announced Sunday that he expected to preach in his new church on Christmas Day of this year.

Mr. Robinson plans to move the old historic wooden church back to the alley, where it may be used for a parish house, and then construct a fine brick edifice, facing the Willamette River, the entrance being on the West. His plans also embrace a commodious basement for a Sunday school room, and the construction of a concrete retaining wall, on the West line of the church property. The excavation under the proposed structure will provide dirt for the fill inside of the retaining wall and the property will have a better frontage with a greater and more useful area. The total cost of the improvement will be in excess of $12000 and the church will be one of the city's show places when completed.

Claim Made Wife Deserted Him.
