READY TO FIGHT TO BITTER END

FRANCIS I. MADERO WILL NOT LAY DOWN ARMS UNTIL DIAZ RESIGNS.

WILL WAIT UNTIL THIS EVENING

Madero Not Seeking the Presidency and Will Agree to Accept Any Suitable Person Instead of Diaz.

EL PASO, Texas, April 20.—(Special.)—Francis I. Madero late this afternoon gave out his latest denials to the Mexican government. This in answer to a request that he grant an armistice.

"All that the Federals want is time to bring up more reinforcements. I will give Diaz 24 hours to resign.

"The peace commission came unofficially and asked under what terms I would make peace. I said I would agree, as I have already said to Dr. Gomez, that in the interest of peace I would resign as provisional president of Mexico, but only if I consider that the will of the people has been satisfied, otherwise the revolution will continue, notwithstanding my peace negotiations.

"I know the people want the retirement of Diaz and no re-election. For that purpose I will accept as provisional president any one of the members of the present cabinet who will call a new election.

"In case this condition is agreed upon, we want Juarez to be delivered to us, and then an armistice will be signed.

"I will wait until tomorrow evening to hear the result of the peace negotiations, which are being directed by Dr. Vasquez Gomez. If tomorrow night no answer comes I will commence hostilities.

Later, when talking to friends, Madero said:

"I do not want the Presidency. I am willing to sacrifice everything—wealth, position, family name and even my life for the cause of Mexico; Diaz ought not to hesitate to sacrifice the position that he has held for 30 years for the cause of his country."

It is evident that Madero is not willing to trust Diaz, and perhaps few others who have been tarred by the old government pitch. That he means what he says is generally believed, and that he will continue to fight unless he gets what he thinks the people are entitled to is a good guess.

WILL FIGHT BEETLES.

State to Join the United States in an Effort to Save Timber.

SALEM, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The State Board of Forestry is to join the United States government in fighting the beetle pest, that is killing off much timber in the State.

Much timber in the eastern part of the State has been spoiled. We hope to formulate plans that will put an end to the pest, "is what members of the board say.

BIG MEET PROMISED.

Oregon City High School Has Accepted Among Other Schools.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 20.—The invitation of the Oregon Agricultural College to the high schools of the State to send their athletes to the intercollegiate track meet May 19 and 20 has received hearty response, acceptance of twenty having been received already, including those at Cove, Hood River, Baker City, Oregon City, Astoria, Medford, Salem, Pendleton, Eugene, Enterprise, Woodburn, Union, Albany, Corvallis, and the Portland Washington, Jefferson, Columbia, Hill Military, and Allen's preparatory schools.

AN EDUCATED JAP WRITES FRIENDS

TALK OF AMERICAN JAPANESE WAR NONSENSE, SAYS MR. TAMURA.

WAR WOULD BE A CRIME INDEED

No War Between Educated Classes But Grasping Ignorance May Some Day Get Into the Saddle.

The following letter was handed us by a friend of Mr. Tamura, with the belief that its publication will interest many people in this section of the West. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, whose sons studied at Pacific University, and who knew Mr. Tamura well, as also Mrs. Clinton Latourette, both feel that he is writing as he feels personally and that he is a man who tells what he does tell truthfully. The opinion among his friends here is that if he was not in accord with the sentiment expressed he would have at least held his peace; but in no wise would he go on record in a manner intended to deceive.

President Hatstara Tamura, a graduate of Pacific University in the class of 1876, and who for many years now has been at the head of the Kyoto Seminary, an influential school in Japan, writes as follows in a private letter:— "Much has been said about a war between America and Japan, but this is all nonsense. This shall not and cannot come to reality. True, there has been a great deal of anti-Japanese feeling among the laboring classes in the United States, but I am perfectly confident that the upper classes are as friendly toward Japan as ever. The latter always looks upon America as a mother of civilization, a staunch friend of Japan, and will never go to war unless compelled to do so for self-defense. Our common sense tells us that war does no good to either nation."

But at that it may be that the better element in Japan will "lose the saddle" in case there is public agitation, even when they wish to keep out of conflict. In the reign of terror in France the better element was not in accord with the atrocities committed, but the better element lost control. In our own conflict over slavery there was a lost control that led to the war—in both North and South. His wisdom prevailed the slavery question would have been settled without bloodshed—so in all matters of like import.

There is no danger from the educated men of Japan. There is no danger from the educated men and women of any nation; the danger comes from the lawless and ignorant class, that are stamped by designing men. As I if there is ever war between this nation and Japan it will be because of a stampede of the ignorant classes in this country or Japan, or both, and that is what must be figured on in every case.

It is not wise for the American people to be lulled into sleep because the better element of Japan wishes to continue friendly relations with America. Our Philippine possessions and our Hawaiian possessions excite the cupidity of the ignorant and grasping element. And some day that element of the Japanese citizenship is going to break loose and then it will hoove the American soldiery to shoot a good many heads from that class of shoulders before the Japs as a class will wake up to the fact that the American is a dangerous enemy to be awaked.

At that there is little doubt but Mr. Tamura will personally regret the day that his people step over the danger line from humanitarian motives—in which he is joined by few of his own people.

WIGWAM IS CAPTURED BY FIFTY RED MEN

SURPRISE IS FOLLOWED BY AN ENJOYABLE BANQUET, WITH SPEAKING.

The Degree of Pocahontas met in its Wigwam on Wednesday evening, and after the regular routine of business had been completed the members had 50 members of the Redmen rushed in and took possession of the Wigwam. The surprise was complete, and after an address by W. L. Little, Great United States representative of the Improved Order of Redmen, the members of both organizations were invited to the adjoining banquet hall, where a supper had been prepared. The toastmaster of the evening was W. L. Little, and other members of the order responded to toasts. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and will long be remembered by the ladies of Pocahontas. After supper was enjoyed the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by the Wills orchestra, of this city.

During the meeting of the Degree of Pocahontas preceding the banquet 20 applications from members of the Redmen were received, besides several women who wished to become members of this order.

The Degree of Pocahontas is making great preparations for the anniversary, which will occur on May 3, at which time the beautiful robes will be worn by the members. The impressive ceremony will be attended

MUSICIANS' MEET PORTLAND JUNE 7-9

THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION OF NORTHWEST MUSIC TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

OREGON-WASHING-N-IDAHO-MONTANA

The Musicians of Four States to Join in This Convention—Concerts, Conferences and Choral Work.

PORTLAND, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Musicians of the Northwest will gather at Portland June 7, 8 and 9 for the third annual convention of the Northwest Music Teachers' Association. Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana are included in the organization and the coming meeting will be a gathering representing the musical talent of the four States.

A banquet will be held the first evening and will be marked by addresses and toasts by prominent musicians. The second and third evenings will be devoted to concerts.

Morning sessions will be given up to educational conferences, embracing vocal, instrumental, theory and public school music. Well informed people on musical subjects will present papers along these various lines and a discussion will follow each paper. Afternoon sessions will be varied with recitals.

A manuscript concert will be one of the features of the convention. The program committee is anxious to reach all Northwest composers for this concert. Any composers who will furnish manuscripts are asked to inform the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Alice Brown Marshall, 551 Ladd avenue, Portland.

Mrs. Rose Hanscom and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer will be among the soloists and W. H. Boyer will give one evening to choral work.

The convention, coming as it does during Rose Festival week, will give those in attendance an opportunity to enjoy this great local fête. The sessions and concerts will be held at hours not conflicting with the principal events of the carnival and those attending the convention can avail themselves of carnival excursion rates.

AFFIRMATIVE GIRLS WIN IN THE DEBATE

THE CITY BOY MAKES THE BETTER HUSBAND DECISION OF JUDGES.

The debate between the ladies at Clairmont Wednesday evening was a very entertaining event. The question was, "Resolved, That the City Boy Makes a Better Husband than the Country Boy." The affirmative won; that side was championed by Misses Ollis Jackson, Antoinette Kuppenbender and Gene Maxwell. The negative was argued by Misses Ethel Ball, Ruth Krusman and Mattie Bloom.

The entertainment advertised for April 29 by the Clairmont Literary Society, to be the last one of the season, has been postponed to May 6. There will be a small charge and the money is to go to the Fair booth.

The next season there will be a course of entertainments given, beginning in the fall, and the money will go to the establishment of a library in connection with the Clairmont school.

The debate next Wednesday evening will be, "Resolved, That the Auto is a Great Nuisance to the Country."

CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN TO BE PHOTOGRAPHED

PICTURES OF PROMINENT POINTS ALONG THE LINE WILL TELL STORY OF CONSTRUCTION.

There has been considerable progress on the construction work on the Clackamas Southern Railway since the last report in the columns of the Morning Enterprise. There is but a little work to do to finish up to the Bigham pile of rocks, and then the remaining members of the construction crew will be taken around that barren spot and set to work on the other side and out towards the Beaver Creek end of the line.

The greater portion of the construction crew have been working across the ravine for several days, and have made quite a hole in the side of the hill. Additional men will be put to work the coming week and the work pushed ahead as fast as possible. A little later another gang will be put to work further ahead, and when the second gang settles down to business and the engineer has his work well in hand a third gang will "break in" somewhere else along the line.

The road and its excursions are to be photographed to show to the people of this county what is being done. Certain people are willing to believe what they can see, and little besides. And certain of these people are living in hopes that the new railway will be built but they are a little timid as to the ability of the business men of this city accomplishing it and are afraid that the road is more or less wind. The photographs, to be taken from time to time, will show just what is being done from week to week and convince the timid public that the board of the new Clackamas Southern is composed of men who have the nerve to tackle a hard job, and to go ahead and complete it.

The people living out along the line are generally very favorable to the building of the road and are willing to see their part to see it made a success. This sentiment is growing from day to day. With the roadway of the line creeping out towards Beaver Creek, the first objective point on the line, people are becoming more and more confident in the ultimate success of the project and the people living in the city and along the line are loosening up their purse strings materially. Within a few days the columns of the Morning Enterprise will contain photographs of the condition of progress along the line, which will tell the story much better than words can tell it.

MRS. WARE GETS DECREE.

Vexatious Divorce Case Ends in a Decree for Mrs. Belle Ware.

Some two weeks ago Rev. John Ware filed suit for divorce against his wife, Belle Ware. Mrs. Ware then filed a counter-charge against Ware and asked that the decree be given her. Very serious charges were made in the complaint filed by Mrs. Ware and her attorneys and friends insisted that the charges be modified. This was done, the case heard, and Mrs. Ware given a full decree, with the custody of the children and a monthly allowance of $25.

The Wares have not been getting on well together for some time, and Rules Governing Oregon City Horse Show.

The committee reserves the right of the final interpretation of all rules and decisions in cases where rules do not apply.

All horses competing for premiums must be entered for same before 9 o'clock a. m. the day of the show, April 22.

All horses competing for premiums are required to participate in the parade.

Additional premiums, entries not necessary, are most come rig in parade, $10; best decorated rig in parade, $10.

Booster Day, with its horse show, is the one local event of the year. Here is the opportunity of the farmer and the farmer boy to clean up the "best nag" on the farm and show it off for the delight of your friends and to the satisfaction of self. And as it costs nothing in this case it is wise to interest the boys still on the farm in "doing something" that is out of the ordinary and that will get them away from the usual monotony of the farm and farm life.

GOVERNOR WEST COMING

Governor West will be in this city today and will talk to the pupils of the Oregon City High school at 11 o'clock.

SINGLE TAX TALK BY MR. W. S. U'REN

CLACKAMAS GRANGE WILL HOLD PICNIC AND OPEN MEETING SATURDAY, APRIL 29.

The next regular monthly meeting of Clackamas Grange will be held on Saturday, April 29, at which time there will be a picnic and an open meeting. Clackamas Grange has voted to have an address on some subject of interest to the general public on these monthly occasions, and arrangements are being perfected to make the series entertaining and instructive.

At the meeting April 29 W. S. U'Ren will be the speaker for the afternoon and he will give them a talk on "Single Tax." After the close of the address all present are to be permitted to submit questions for answer, and so far as is possible to do so on the spur of the moment Mr. U'Ren will answer the questions propounded.
