WORK STILL GOES ON CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN

GRADING ACROSS THE HILL FROM THE G. W. BIGHAM PROPERTY PROGRESSING.

Work on the Clackamas Southern Railway has been completed up to the property in dispute, owned by G. W. Bigham, on the side hill. Work has been begun across the hill on right of way over which there is no dispute, but the inconvenience is costing the company some money, making the building of the road more expensive to the business men of Oregon City and Clackamas county, who are furnishing the money to finance the enterprise.

At that no effort will be put forth by Bigham to expedite matters, who now says he will take all the time the law gives him in which to answer to the company's suit for right-of-way. He was asked to permit the company to go on and do the work and take what the court gives him, but refused—and his refusal is causing delay and putting an additional burden on the business men of the city who are financing the deal.

Good work is being done across the Bigham property on the rest of the right of way and the grading is being ahead rapidly. But at that the company desires to finish as it progresses, and to have the use of its graded roadway in getting in and out from the property.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE HELD OSWEGO SCHOOL

GOOD ATTENDANCE AND A VERY PLEASANT TIME—FEW WALK FROM BOLTON.

One of the most successful teachers' institutes so far held was that which convened at Oswego Saturday. There were upwards of an hundred teachers present, with half that number of visitors and friends present. This is the third local institute held so far—Canby and Gladstone preceding—and all three have been marked with more than usual success.

Few had the nerve to walk from Bolton to Oswego, and at the last moment teams were ordered to convey those who wished to ride; a few did walk, however. State Superintendent of Public Instruction L. E. Alderman was among the number that rode.

Among the visitors present were members of the Oswego school board. The children's program, by the local school, was a very pleasant feature of the day. The dinner by the women of Oswego was greatly complimented.

The institute was held in the village school and the rooms were very tastily decorated with potted plants and ferns and flowers. The Oswego school has made a specialty of agriculture and horticulture and has a large number of products to show for its effort.

Clare D. Morey, the principal, had a surprise for the visiting teachers—he gave each a vegetable plant and a flower plant, and he also had a supply of vegetable and flower seeds that he added to his other gifts. The program was as follows:

Recitation in History..... Fannie G. Porter

Reading..... Mrs. E. D. Singleton

Dinner..... Prof. F. T. Toole

Address..... Oswego Woman's Club

Address..... L. R. Alderman

Literary program..... Oswego school

One gratifying feature in the institute work this year, Superintendent Gary says, comes in the fact that so far no one has disappointed in answering to his or her place on the program—each program having been as advertised.

The next institute will be held in Oregon City, Saturday, May 13. As this will be a central meeting place for the teachers in the county it is hoped that there may be a large attendance.

STORY OF ASSAULT GIVEN NO EVIDENCE

TWO YOUNG WOMEN FROM PORTLAND LAY CHARGES AGAINST CANEMAH LAD.

Two young women made complaint to Officer Green Friday evening that an assault had been made on one of them, with attempt to take undue liberties. One of the young women made complaint against one of the young men from Canemah who is known as a good sport among the boys about town, but that officer could not believe the story and so did not arrest the man in question.

Officer Green was of opinion that the young woman wished to use the police as a blackmailing collection agency and he told her so and advised her to take the next car to Portland. And when the young woman failed to raise a protest as to the treatment her case was receiving he became more than ever satisfied that there was no cause for the accusation. The young woman made no effort to swear out a warrant for her assailant.
