THE PREVAILING TASTE.

Natty Sailor Styles in Collars, Blouses, Ties and Shoes.

Among tentative suggestions for tailor made effects is the increasing use of very large embroidered arrow heads on the smooth finished fabrics.

The princess slips now worn under sheer lingerie gowns have developed through their daintiness of decorations of lace, embroidery and stitching into lovely foundations for the filmy robes worn over them.

The new delicate champagne color "goes with" every color of gown so perfectly that it is no wonder that it is the favorite. Only a very little difference from the skin in tone, it is even more becoming in gloves than white.

Suede gloves will be worn with all dressy gowns, lace gloves with tailored suits. If the glove is not white or champagne colored it is tan or gray, to match the shoe tops or some other note of trimming on the gown.

Iridescent feathers are used, especially on the feather trimmed hats. Large lace labors are being introduced on little cloth dresses.

A novelty is a striped silk entirely white with lines of mauve.

This French or tulle blouse with sailor collar is made of striped material, the stripes meeting in the back to give a chignon effect. Either plain or figured materials can be used instead of stripes.

This May Stanton pattern is cut in sizes for a thirty-four, thirty-eight and forty inch bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, name, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which assures more prompt delivery.

It Wouldn't Pay to Advertise

A Poor Article

Nor a proposition of doubtful merit or honesty—for advertisers, nowadays, are DISCRIMINATING. They know values—they know GENUINE things, genuine opportunities.

Any article which can be sold by advertising in, by that test, a GOOD article. YOU are safe in buying a thing which has "stood the fire of publicity."

The maker of a widely advertised article, or commodity, is always on trial for his business life. He cannot shirk, nor cheapen his product—and this is the best possible protection for the consumer.

You are SAFE in buying advertised things—it's the logic of nowadays business conditions.

"HOOT MON" FOR BONNIE SCOTLAND

BOBBIE BURNS SOCIETY CONCERT
AND ENTERTAINMENT PLEAS.
ES OVER 200 PEOPLE.

DANCING FOLLOWS FINE PROGRAM

Scottish Airs and Bagpipe Numbers
Capture Large Audience Who Applauded Vigorously and Demanded Encores.

The Scotch concert and entertainment given by the Bobbie Burns Society at the Woodmen Hall Saturday evening was attended by over 200 people, many of whom were of Scottish descent, and who enjoyed the excellent programme consisting of Scottish airs. The numbers on the programme were heartily received and although the programme was lengthy, many responded to encores. There were many from Portland in attendance, who enjoyed the programme and who remained for the dancing, which followed, the music being furnished by the Patterson orchestra, of Gladstone.

Miss Tootie Williamson, of Portland, who is only 10 years of age, favored the audience with several of her dances, one a sword dance, and was accompanied by James Jack, of Portland on the bagpipe. This dance fairly captured the audience, and she was forced to respond to an encore. David Scott Coleman, of Portland, appeared in several vocal selections, and his voice showed he has received excellent training. He appeared in fancy costume as did Miss Williamson and James Jack. One of the features of the programme was the solo composed and sung by Miss Williamson.

The following numbers were given: Bag pipe selection—Piper James Jack; Overture—Scottish Airs; The Patterson Bros. Orchestra; Opening Remarks—Judge Geo. J. Cameron, of Portland; Solo—Mrs. A. Matheson; Reading—"Jerry"—Mrs. J. Hickman; Solo—Master Sam McClary; Highland Fling (accompanied by piper)—Miss Annie Williamson; Solo—Comic—Mr. F. D. Hennessy; Address—"Scottish Chiefs"—R. Landsborough; Violin—Scottish Airs—Mr. James Willock; Gaelic Song—Mr. McKenzie; Sword Dance (accompanied by piper)—Miss A. Williamson; Musical Selection, Telford Family Dance (Hornpipe), Miss Williamson; Song, in costume, David Scott Coleman; Song—George Turner; Song—Harvey Benson; Selection—Patterson Brothers; The programme closed with all joining in singing "Auld Lang Syne." Miss Ivy Roake was the accompanist.

The hall was appropriately decorated for this occasion. At the rear of the platform large quantities of Scotch hosiery made a beautiful background, while in the center and above American and Scottish flags were used. Festoons of red, white and blue bunting were in evidence.

The committee in charge of the affair worked hard to make it such a success, and are deserving of much credit. The following are those on the committees: Entertainment, Miss Ivy Roake, William McClary, William Kennedy, C. S. Noble; refreshments, Mrs. C. S. Noble; chairman, who was assisted by the members of the society, both men and women; decorations, John Crawford, Harry Williamson, Miss Marie Phillips, Miss Jeanie Martin, Miss Phillips.

"NEWLY WEDS" PLAY WHIST.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hankins entertained last Friday evening.

The "Newly Weds" were entertained Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. George Hankins at their home at 412 Fifth street. The evening was devoted to whist and vocal and instrumental music. The prizes were won by Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Meisner, the gentleman's prize being a handsome loving cup upon which was engraved "Newly Weds," while the lady's prize was a handsome silver spoon. Refreshments were served during the evening. The decorations were of sweet briar and carnations.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourrette, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Meisner, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Price, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Logan.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR BOYS.

St. Andrews Junior Brotherhood meets at Evans Home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Evans entertained at their home at 412 Center street on Saturday evening the St. Andrews' Brotherhood Jr., of the St. Paul's Episcopal church in a most delightful manner. The evening was spent in games, and in the drawing contest the prizes went to Kenneth Dawson and Robert Beattie. Refreshments were served during the evening. The rooms were prettily decorated for this occasion with flowers and evergreens.

Present were Rev. Charles W. Robinson, Dr. L. A. Morris, Kent Moody, John Beattie, Robert Beattie, Kenneth Dawson, George Ross, Irvin Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans.
